2. RATINGS

Ratings: Following a request by the Issuer, the Notes to be issued are expected to be rated by Moody's as follows:

Moody's: Aa3 (Negative)

As defined by Moody's, long-term obligations rated "Aa" are judged to be of high quality and are subject to very low credit risk. The modifier "3" indicates that the rating ranks in the lower end of the generic rating category.

Moody's is not established in the European Union and none has applied for registration under Regulation (EU) No. 1060/2009.

The ratings of Moody's are endorsed by Moody's Investors Service Ltd., in accordance with Regulation (EU) No. 1060/2009. Moody's Investors Service Ltd., is established in the European Union and registered under Regulation (EU) No. 1060/2009.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes if such rating is not issued by a credit rating agency established in the European Union and registered under the Regulation (EU) No 1060/2009 ("CRA Regulation") unless the rating is provided by a credit rating agency operating in the European Union before 7 June 2010 which has submitted an application for registration in accordance with the CRA Regulation and such registration is not refused. Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU credit rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such registration, endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, is not refused and has not been withdrawn or suspended).

SUMMARY

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as ‘Elements’. These elements are numbered in Sections A – E (A.1 – E.7). This summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for these types of securities and the Issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements. Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in the summary because of the type of securities and the Issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element is included in the summary with the mention of “not applicable”.

Section A – Introduction and warnings
A.1	Introduction and warnings	This summary should be read as an introduction to the Prospectus dated 12 June 2014 and the applicable Final Terms. Any decision to invest in the Notes should be based on a consideration of the Prospectus as a whole by the investor, including any documents incorporated by reference and the applicable Final Terms. Where a claim relating to the information contained in this Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms is brought before a court in a Member State of the European Economic Area, the plaintiff may, under the national legislation of the Member State where the claim is brought, have to bear the costs of translating the Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms before the legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches only to those persons who have tabled the summary, including any translation thereof, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the Prospectus or it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of the Prospectus, key information in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in such Notes.
A.2	Consent to use of the Prospectus for subsequent resale or final placement of securities by financial intermediaries	Not applicable; the Issuer does not consent to the use of the Prospectus for subsequent resales or final placement of the Notes.

Section B – Issuer
B.1	Legal and commercial name of the Issuer	Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (“CIBC” or the “Issuer”).

B.2	Domicile/ legal form/ legislation/ country of incorporation	The Issuer is a Schedule I bank under the Bank Act (Canada) (the “Bank Act”) and the Bank Act is its charter. The Issuer was formed through the amalgamation of The Canadian Bank of Commerce and Imperial Bank of Canada in 1961. The Canadian Bank of Commerce was originally incorporated as Bank of Canada by special act of the legislature of the Province of Canada in 1858. Subsequently, the name was changed to The Canadian Bank of Commerce and it opened for business under that name in 1867. C.2	Currency of the Notes	The Specified Currency of the Notes is United States Dollars ("USD").
C.5	Restrictions on the free transferability of the Notes	Not applicable. There are no restrictions on the free transferability of the Notes. The primary offer of the Notes will be subject to certain restrictions in Canada, the United States, the European Economic Area (including Luxembourg, the United Kingdom, The Netherlands, Italy and France), Switzerland, Japan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan, Australia and New Zealand and to any applicable offer restrictions in any other jurisdiction in which the Notes are offered.
C.8	Rights attaching to the Notes including ranking and limitations to those rights	Ranking: Deposit Notes constitute deposit liabilities of the Issuer for purposes of the Bank Act and constitute legal, valid and binding unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu with all deposit liabilities of the Issuer (except as otherwise prescribed by law) without any preference amongst themselves. Events of Default: Events of Default under the Notes include the Issuer defaulting for more than 30 days (in the case of interest) or seven days (in the case of principal) in the payment on the due date of interest or principal in respect of any of the Notes; or if the Issuer becomes insolvent or bankrupt, or if a liquidator, receiver or receiver and manager of the Issuer or any other officer having similar powers is appointed. Withholding tax: Payments in respect of Notes and Coupons will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or charges of whatsoever nature imposed or levied by or within Canada or in the country of the Branch of Account or any political subdivision or authority therein or thereof having power to tax, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In that event, the Issuer will (subject to customary exceptions) pay such additional amounts as will result in the holders of Notes or Coupons receiving such amounts as they would have received in respect of such Notes or Coupons had no such withholding or deduction been required Prescription: Claims against the Issuer for payment in respect of the Notes shall be prescribed and become void unless made within two years (in the case where the relevant Notes are governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein ("Ontario Law") from the appropriate Relevant Date in respect of them. Meetings of Noteholders: Meetings of holders may be convened to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not vote on the relevant resolution and holders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority. Governing law: Unless otherwise provided, Deposit Notes are governed by Ontario Law. All related contractual documentation will be governed by, and construed in accordance with Ontario Law. Negative pledge: None. Cross Default: None. Substitution: Subject to certain conditions and the terms of a Deed Poll, the form of which is appended to the Agency Agreement, on 14 days prior notice to Noteholders the Issuer may, without consent of Noteholders, substitute a subsidiary for itself as principal debtor under the Notes. The Issuer will unconditionally guarantee the obligations of the substitute. Limitation on rights attaching to the Notes: Not applicable. There are no limitations on rights attaching to the Notes. In the case of Notes in global form, individual Investors' rights will be governed by a Deed of Covenant dated June 12, 2014. The Notes are Deposit Notes and the governing law is Ontario Law.

C.9	Interest, maturity and redemption provisions, yield and representative of the Holders	Interest: Floating Rate Notes: The Notes bear a floating rate of interest from the Interest Commencement Date calculated by reference to 3-Month-USD LIBOR + 0.57 per cent. per annum payable quarterly in arrear on each Interest Payment Date. Interest Periods: The length of the interest periods for Notes issued under the Programme may differ from time to time or be constant for any Series. The Interest Period is quarterly. The Interest Commencement Date is 15 January 2015. The Interest Payment Dates are 15 April, 15 July, 15 October and 15 January in each year commencing on and including 15 April 2015, to and including the Maturity Date, adjusted in accordance with the Business Day Convention. The Day Count Fraction is Actual/360. The Business Day Convention is Modified Following Business Day Convention Maturity Date: The Interest Payment Date falling in January, 2020.
		Payments: Payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes will be made against presentation and surrender of the relevant Note at the specified office of the Fiscal Agent or any Paying Agent. Issue Price: Notes may be issued at par or at a discount or premium to par. The Issue Price of the Notes is 100 per cent. of the Principal. Yield: Not Applicable. Representative of the Noteholders: Not applicable. The Notes are not constituted by a trust deed and therefore there is no representative for the Noteholders. Redemption: The terms under which the Notes may be redeemed, including the Maturity Date and the price at which they will be redeemed on the Maturity Date as well as any provision as to early redemption will be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s) at the time of issue of the relevant Notes. Subject to early redemption or purchase and cancellation, the Notes will be redeemed at par on the Interest Payment Date following in January, 2020. Early Redemption: Not applicable.

		Issuer Call Option: Not applicable. Noteholder's Put Option: Not applicable. The Notes may be redeemed early for tax reasons at the option of the Issuer at par. Upon an Event of Default that has not been cured any holder of Deposit Notes may declare its Note(s) and accrued interest, if any, due and payable at par.
C.10	Derivative component in interest payments	Not applicable.

Section D – Risks
D.2	Key information on the key risks that are specific to the Issuer:	There is a risk of financial loss and reputational harm to the Issuer due to a borrower or counterparty failing to meet its obligations to the Issuer in accordance with the contractual terms of its direct lending activities or from trading, investment, and hedging activities. The Issuer's financial assets, including positions in currencies, securities and derivatives held in the Issuer's trading portfolios, and the Issuer's earnings from its retail banking business, investment portfolios and other non-trading activities may be negatively affected by adverse changes in underlying market factors, including interest and foreign exchange rates, credit spreads, and equity and commodity prices. There is a risk of the Issuer having insufficient cash resources to meet financial obligations as they fall due (including obligations under the Notes), in their full amount and stipulated currencies, without raising funds at adverse rates or selling assets on a forced basis. There is a risk of loss if the Issuer's business strategies are ineffective or if the Issuer fails to effectively execute business strategies, including potential financial loss due to the failure of acquisitions or organic growth initiatives. The Issuer faces intense competition in all aspects of its business from established competitors and new entrants in the financial services industry. The Issuer's success in developing and introducing new products and services, expanding distribution channels, developing new distribution channels and realizing revenue from these channels could affect the Issuer's revenues and earnings. There is a risk of operational losses at the Issuer resulting from the Issuer's inadequate or failed internal processes, systems, human error or external events. There is a risk that legal proceedings and judicial or regulatory decisions against the Issuer, or legislative and regulatory developments in the jurisdictions where the Issuer operates, may adversely affect the Issuer's results. The Issuer's revenues and earnings are substantially dependent on the economies of Canada, the United States and the Caribbean which can in turn be affected by general business and economic conditions worldwide. Movements of the Canadian dollar relative to other currencies, in particular the U.S. dollar and the currencies of other jurisdictions in which the Issuer has operations, may adversely affect the Issuer's revenues, expenses and earnings.

D.3	Key information on the key risks that are specific to the Notes:	The Notes are not insured under the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act. If the Issuer goes out of business or becomes insolvent, Noteholders may lose all or part of their investment in the Notes. The market value of the Notes may be adversely affected in the event that a rating assigned to the Notes or the Issuer is subsequently suspended, lowered or withdrawn for any reason. Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop or may be illiquid.
		The Notes may be redeemed prior to maturity in the event additional amounts become payable due to changes in tax legislation after the Issue Date and an Investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a manner which achieves a similar effective return. The Notes may be subject to withholding taxes in circumstances where the Issuer is not obliged to make gross up payments and this would result in holders receiving less interest than expected and could adversely affect their return on the Notes. A change in law or administrative practice relating to the governing law of the Notes could materially adversely impact the enforceability of or value of the Notes.

Section E – Offer
E.2b	Reason for the offer and use of proceeds	The net proceeds from each issue of Notes will be applied by the Issuer for its general corporate purposes.
E.3	Terms and Conditions of the offer	Not applicable - There is no Public Offer.
E.4	Interests material to the issue/offer including conflicting interests	The relevant Dealer or Manager may be paid fees in relation to any issue of a Tranche of Notes under the Programme. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may also have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform other services for, the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates may have a lending relationship with the Issuer and, if so, may hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer. Save for any fees payable to the Dealer, so far as the Issuer is aware, no person involved in the issue or offer of the Notes has an interest material to the issue or offer, including conflicting interests.
E.7	Estimated expenses charged to the Investor by the Issuer or the offeror	The Issuer will not charge any expenses to investors in connection with any issue of Notes under the Programme.
