Aéroports de Paris SA
2026 Airport charges in Paris

Groupe ADP takes note of the decision n°2025-092 dated 16 December 2025 by the French Transport Regulatory Authority (Autorité de Régulation des Transports – ART) not to approve Aéroport de Paris' airport charges for the period from 1 April 2026 to 30 March 2027, which included a 1.5% increase. The Authority has nonetheless approved the increase by 15% of the fee for assistance for disabled persons and persons with reduced mobility.

Groupe ADP is currently drafting a new proposal of airport charges and will submit it to the regulator within a month, as provided for by applicable legislation, i.e. by 16 January 2026 at the latest.

In accordance with article R. 6325-34 of the French Transport Code, the regulator will have one month, from the effective submission date of the new fees by Groupe ADP, to make a decision.

Without approval, the fees in effect since 1 April 2025 will remain applicable.

Groupe ADP designs and operates airports responsibly in Paris and around the world. In 2024, it welcomed nearly 364 million passengers across its network of 26 airports, including more than 103 million at its three airports in the Paris region, Paris-Charles de Gaulle, Paris-Orly and Paris-Le Bourget, where the passenger experience is provided by Paris Aéroport. Boasting extensive expertise thanks to its international workforce – including a team of almost 6,000 in Paris – Groupe ADP strives to offer its passengers the highest standards of service and hospitality, while pursuing a strategy focused on performance and the decarbonisation of all its airport activities. The Group is transforming its airports into multi-energy, multimodal hubs to pave the way for a low-carbon aviation industry and better connect France's regions. Internationally, Groupe ADP has two strategic partnerships with a complementary geographic presence: TAV Airports in Turkey and the Middle East and GMR Airports in India and South-East Asia. In 2024, Group revenue came to €6,158 million and attributable net income to €342 million.
