

REMUNERATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Alexandre Bompard informed the Board of Directors held today of his decision to invest the entire multiyear variable compensation that he might receive in 2016 in Groupe Fnac shares, for a minimum period of two years.

Alexandre Bompard wishes to further strengthen his ties with the Group by taking an equity stake, further aligning his interests with those of its shareholders and reaffirming his confidence in the Group's continuing transformation and in the strength of the company and its teams.
