

Further recognition for Gecina's CSR policy

Once again this year, Gecina has continued to progress up the main international rankings and sustainability indices.

The Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI) results for 2016 have today confirmed Gecina's position in the World and Europe indices. Gecina is now the top-ranked company for "environmental reporting" and "social reporting".

Gecina has also maintained its "Green Star" status in the Global Real Estate Sustainability Benchmark (GRESB) for the fourth year running. Gecina is now ranked 8th out of 315 participants globally in the "development project" segment.

Lastly, Gecina has once again received the highest distinction with two Gold Awards from the European Public Real Estate Association (EPRA) in its financial and sustainability categories for the quality and transparency of its communications.

These results confirm Gecina's commitment to continuing to make progress with its corporate social responsibility.

All of Gecina's publications - reference document, integrated annual report, climate report – are available online at <http://www.gecina.fr/en/csr.html>.

Gecina, leading the market for urban office real estate

Gecina owns, manages and develops property holdings worth 11.7 billion euros at July 1, 2016, with 97% located in the Paris Region. The Group is building its business around France's leading office portfolio and a diversification division with residential assets and student residences. Gecina has put sustainable innovation at the heart of its strategy to create value, anticipate its customers' expectations and invest while respecting the environment, thanks to the dedication and expertise of its staff.

Gecina is a French real estate investment trust (SIIC) listed on Euronext Paris, and is part of the SBF 120, Euronext 100, FTSE4Good, DJSI Europe and World, Stoxx Global ESG Leaders and Vigeo indices. In line with its commitments to the community, Gecina has created a company foundation, which is focused on protecting the environment and supporting all forms of disability.
