GENFIT HAS LAUNCHED A PRIVATE PLACEMENT OF A MAXIMUM OF 583.433 SHARES

Lille (France), Boston (Massachusetts, United States), December 10, 2014 – GENFIT (Euronext: GNFT ; ISIN : FR0004163111), a biopharmaceutical company at the forefront of developing therapeutic and diagnostic solutions in metabolic and inflammatory diseases, that notably affect the liver or the gastrointestinal system (the “Company”), today announces the launch of a private placement to specialized institutional investors, mainly located in the United-States, of maximum of 583.433 shares.

The issue price of the new shares will be set in accordance with the provisions of Article R.225-119 of the French « Code de commerce » and will be at least equal to the volume weighted average price of Genfit shares over the three trading days prior to the pricing date, with a potential discount to that price not to exceed 5%.

The proceeds of this transaction, which should be in the range of EUR 18 million, will be used:

- to accelerate the clinical development of GFT505 in other indications than NASH, including initiation of a GFT505 phase IIa in Crohn Disease;
- to initiate and advance the clinical development of new in-licensed compound(s) in GENFIT’s therapeutic areas of excellence;
- to prepare the GFT505 phase 3 in NASH;
- and for general corporate purposes.

The capital increase will be carried out without shareholders’ preferential subscription rights according to Article L.225-136 of the French Commercial Code and the fourth resolution of the Shareholders General Meeting of April 2, 2014, it will only be open to “qualified investors and/or small groups of investors acting for their own account”, as defined by article L. 411-2 II of the French Monetary and Financial Code.

As per Resolution 4 of the Shareholders General Meeting of April 2, 2014, the maximum size of the capital increase will be 583.433 new shares, representing approximately 2.5% of the current share capital of the Company.

Application will be made to list the new shares on Euronext Paris. A listing prospectus, including an offering note and a supplement to the listing prospectus of the Company’s shares on Euronext Paris, will be submitted to the French Financial Markets Authority (AMF) for approval.

About GENFIT:

GENFIT is a biopharmaceutical company focused on the Discovery and Development of drug candidates in fields of high medical need due to a lack of suitable treatment and an increasing number of patients worldwide. GENFIT's R&D efforts are focused on contributing to bringing new medicines to market for patients with metabolic, inflammatory, autoimmune and fibrotic diseases, that affect the liver (such as NASH - Nonalcoholic steatohepatitis) or the bowel (such as the inflammatory bowel disease). GENFIT implements mutually beneficial approaches that combine novel treatments and biomarkers; its research programs have resulted in the creation of a rich and diversified pipeline of drug candidates, including GENFIT's lead proprietary compound, GFT505, that is completing a Phase 2b study in NASH.

With facilities in Lille, France, and Boston, MA (USA), the Company has approximately 80 employees. GENFIT is a public company listed in compartment B of Euronext's regulated market in Paris (Euronext: GNFT; ISIN: FR0004163111). www.genfit.com

Based on its historic and expected operations, composition of assets and market capitalization (which will fluctuate from time to time), GENFIT does not expect that it will be a "passive foreign investment company" within the meaning of Section 1297 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (a "PFIC") for the current taxable year ; however, the determination of whether GENFIT is a PFIC is made annually, after the close of the relevant taxable year, and, therefore, it is possible that GENFIT could be classified as a PFIC for the current taxable year or any future taxable year due to changes in the composition of its assets or income, as well as changes in its market capitalization.

No communication and no information in respect of the share capital increase of GENFIT may be distributed to the public in any jurisdiction where a registration or approval is required. No steps have been or will be taken in any jurisdiction where such steps would be required. The offer or sale of the GENFIT shares may be subject to specific legal or regulatory restrictions in certain jurisdictions. GENFIT, its shareholders and their affiliates take no responsibility for any violation of any such restrictions by any person.

This announcement is not a prospectus within the meaning of Directive 2003/71/EC of the European Parliament and the Council of November 4, 2003, as implemented in each member State of the European Economic Area (the "Prospectus Directive").

This announcement does not, and shall not, in any circumstances constitute a public offering, nor an offer to sell or to subscribe, nor a solicitation to offer to purchase or to subscribe securities in any jurisdiction.

The offer and sale of the GENFIT shares was carried out through a private placement to qualified investors, in accordance with article L. 411-2 of the French Financial and Monetary Code and other applicable laws and regulations. There was no public offering in France.

With respect to the member States of the European Economic Area, other than France, which have implemented the Prospectus Directive (each a "Relevant Member State"), no action has been undertaken or will be undertaken to make an offer to the public of the GENFIT shares requiring a publication of a prospectus in any relevant member State. As a consequence, the GENFIT shares may only be offered or sold in any Relevant Member State pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Directive.

In the United Kingdom, this press release is directed only at persons who (i) are investment professionals falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005 (the "Financial Promotion Order"), and (ii) "high net worth entities", "unincorporated associations" and other persons to whom it may otherwise be lawfully communicated under Article 49(2)(a) to (d) of the Financial Promotion Order (all such persons together being referred to as "relevant persons").
