Europ Assistance S.A. Irish Branch as the transferring insurer and CIG Pannónia Első Magyar Általános Biztosító Zrt. regarding the transfer of assistance insurance policies are still waiting for the approval of the French insurance supervisory authority, the Autorité de Contrôle Prudentiel et de Résolution.

The Company's Board of Directors reiterates that the content of the above transaction elements fits well into the framework of the previously published Growth Strategy, which sets out the directions and objectives for development, and should be considered a key element of that strategy, contributing to the goal of transforming CIG Pannónia Insurance into a reliable, large-scale composite insurer with a stable background and a portfolio of life and non-life insurance products in the coming period.
