The Investor Calendar aims to enhance transparency and facilitate planning for shareholders and bondholders, financial intermediaries, analysts and other stakeholders. It sets out the Bank's main planned corporate events, the approval and publication dates for periodic financial information with their respective market briefings, and relevant investor communications. Other market briefings may be announced from time to time, as necessary.

The dates reported are provided for information purposes and remain subject to change. Where applicable, the Bank will issue separate Company Announcements to confirm, amend or cancel any event and will update the calendar accordingly. Stakeholders are encouraged to consult the Calendar of Investor and Corporate Events regularly for the most up-to-date information.
