As of 1 January 2003, Companies which do not distribute 70% of their profits after tax, as defined by the Special Contribution for the Defence of the Republic Law, during the period of the two years after the end of the year of assessment to which the profits refer, will be deemed to have distributed this amount as dividend. Special contribution for defence of 17% will be payable on such deemed dividend distribution to the extent that the shareholders at the end of the period of the two years from the end of the year of assessment to which the profits refer are Cyprus tax residents and Cyprus domiciled. The amount of deemed dividend distribution is reduced by any actual dividends paid out of the profits of the relevant year at any time. This special contribution for defence is payable by the Company for the account of the shareholders
