The financial statements are presented in Bulgarian leva (BGN), which is the Group's functional currency. All values are rounded off to the nearest thousand (BGN'000), except when otherwise stated.

Statement of compliance/General financial reporting framework

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as adopted by the European Union ("IFRS Accounting Standards as adopted by the EU"). The reporting framework "IFRS Accounting Standards as adopted by the EU" is substantially the approved national accounting basis International Accounting Standards (IAS) as adopted by the EU, regulated by the Accountancy Act and defined in item 8 of its Additional Provisions.

3. Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of Telelink Business Services Group AD and its subsidiaries as at 31 December 2025.

Subsidiaries are all entities over which the Group has control. The Group controls an investee when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to use its power to affect its return. Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary.

Non-controlling interests (NCI) are measured at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets at the date of the acquisition. Changes in the Group's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in the loss of control are accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the related assets and liabilities of the subsidiary, and non-controlling interest and other components of equity, while any resultant gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss for the period. Any investment retained in a former subsidiary is recognised at fair value at the time the control is lost.

All intra-group balances and transactions, unrealised income and expenses, resulting from intra-group transactions, are eliminated. Unrealized gains on transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealized losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of impairment.

The Group has identified only one reporting segment and does not disclose segment information in accordance with IFRS 8 Operating Segments.

Foreign currency translation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in Bulgarian leva, which is the Group's functional and reporting currency. Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded in the functional currency rate ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the functional currency at the rate of exchange ruling at the reporting date.

Any differences are taken to the statement of comprehensive income. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rate as at the date of the initial transaction (acquisition).

Business combination

The Group accounts for business combinations using the acquisition method when control is transferred to the Group. The consideration transferred in the acquisition is generally measured at fair value, as are the identifiable net assets acquired. Any goodwill that arises is tested annually for impairment. Any gain on a bargain purchase is recognised in profit or loss immediately. Transaction costs are expensed as incurred, except if related to the issue of debt or equity securities. Any contingent consideration payable is measured at fair value at the acquisition date. If the contingent consideration is classified as equity, then it is not remeasured and settlement is accounted for within equity. Otherwise, subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration are recognised in profit or loss.

Goodwill

Goodwill is measured as the excess of the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree, and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any) over the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. If, after reassessment, the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed exceeds the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest in the acquiree (if any), the excess is recognised immediately in profit or loss as a bargain purchase gain.

When the consideration transferred by the group in a business combination includes a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition-date fair value and included as part of the consideration transferred in a business combination. Changes in fair value of the contingent consideration that qualify as measurement period adjustments are adjusted retrospectively, with corresponding adjustments against goodwill. Measurement period adjustments are adjustments that arise from additional information obtained during the 'measurement period' (which cannot exceed one year from the acquisition date) about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date.

The subsequent accounting for changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that do not qualify as measurement period adjustments depends on how the contingent consideration is classified. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Other contingent consideration is remeasured to fair value at subsequent reporting dates with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

Goodwill is not amortised but is reviewed for impairment at least annually. If the recoverable amount of goodwill is lower than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is first allocated to reduce the carrying amount of goodwill. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

Business combinations under common control

Business combinations between entities under common control are accounted for as if the acquisition had taken place at the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented or, if later, on the date on which joint control existed, and for the purpose, the comparative information is restated. Assets and liabilities are recognised at the carrying amounts previously reported in the consolidated financial statements of the shareholder exercising control over the Group ('predecessor value method'). The acquirees' results are included in the consolidated financial statements retrospectively, i.e. the comparative data for previous years reflects summarised results of the new structure of the Group, even though the transformation occurred in the current year. Intragroup balances and unrealized gains and losses on transactions within the Group are eliminated.

Joint arrangements

A participation in joint arrangements is determined within contractual relations, which entitle the parties to joint control over the agreement. Joint arrangements are either joint operations or joint ventures. The Group analyses its participation in joint arrangements by considering its rights and obligations, as well as the structure and legal form of each arrangement, and the contractual terms agreed to in the arrangement. In respect of its participation in a joint venture, the Group recognises the assets, liabilities, revenue from the sale of the products of the joint arrangement, expenses, including those incurred jointly and accounted for in the assets, liabilities, income and expenses associated with their participation in the joint arrangement in compliance with IFRS Accounting Standards applicable to the specific assets, liabilities, income and expenses.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, net of any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Such cost includes the cost of replacing part of the machinery and equipment when that cost is incurred, if the recognition criteria are met. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognised in the carrying amount of the machinery and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. Any other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income in the period in which they were incurred. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets, as follows:

Asset type	Useful life in years
Computers	2 years
Machinery and equipment	3.33 years
Motor vehicles	4 years
Managed services hardware	In accordance with the duration of the contract for the provision of such services- usually 4/7 years
Furniture and fixtures and fittings	6.67 years
Other assets	In accordance with the duration of the rent contract

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of comprehensive income in the year the asset is derecognized. The assets' residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation are reviewed at each financial year end, and adjusted prospectively, if the expectations differ from the previous accounting estimates.

Investment property

Investment property is property held to earn rental income or for capital appreciation or both. Investment property is measured initially at cost, including transaction costs.

Subsequent to initial recognition, investment property is stated at fair value, which reflects market conditions at the reporting date. Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair values of investment property are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

Investment property is derecognised on disposal of or when the investment property is permanently retired and no future economic benefits are expected from its disposal. Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal are recognized in the statement of comprehensive income in the period of retirement or disposal.

Transfers from or to investment properties are made only in case of change of their use. For a transfer from investment property carried at fair value to owner-occupied property or inventory, the deemed cost for subsequent accounting under IAS 16 or IAS 2 is the fair value at the date of change in use. If an owner-occupied property becomes an investment property, the Group applies IAS 16 up to the date of change in use.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are capitalized as part of the cost of the respective assets. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that the Group incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Government grants

Government grants are recognised initially as deferred revenue at fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with by the Group. Subsequently, they are recognized as other income in profit or loss on a systemic basis over the asset's useful life.

Government grants that compensate the Group for expenses incurred are recognized in profit or loss on a systemic basis in the periods, in which the expenses were incurred.

Intangible assets

Non-current intangible assets acquired separately are measured initially at cost. The cost comprises the purchase price, including any import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, and any directly attributable expenditure on bringing the asset to its intended use.

Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortization and any accumulated impairment losses. Subsequent expenditure on an intangible asset after its purchase or its completion is recognized as an expense when it is incurred unless it is probable that this expenditure will enable the asset to generate future economic benefits in excess of its originally assessed standard of performance and this expenditure can be measured and attributed to the asset reliably. If these two conditions are met, the subsequent expenditure is added to the cost of the intangible asset.

Internally generated intangible assets, excluding development costs, are not capitalised and expenditure is reflected in the statement of comprehensive income in the year in which the expenditure is incurred.

Development is the application of research findings or other knowledge to a plan or design for the production of new or substantially improved materials, devices, products, processes, systems or services before the start of commercial production or use. To assess whether an internally generated intangible asset meets the criteria for recognition, the Group classifies the generation of the asset into a research phase and a development phase.

If the Group cannot distinguish the research phase from the development phase of an internal project to create an intangible asset, the Group treats the expenditure on that project as if it were incurred in the research phase only. An intangible asset arising from development activities is recognized only if the Group has control and expects future economic benefits from the asset.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Asset type	Useful life in years
Software	2 years
Managed services software	In accordance with the duration of the contract years - usually 4/7 years
Other assets	Within the contract period

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at each financial year end. Changes in the expected useful life or the expected pattern of consumption of future economic benefits embodied in the asset is accounted for by changing the amortisation period or method, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

The amortisation expense on intangible assets with finite lives is classified by function in the statement of comprehensive income, depending on the use of the intangible asset.

Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of an intangible asset, calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, is included in the statement of comprehensive income for the year in which the asset is derecognised.

Inventories

Inventories include materials, goods for trading, and work in progress. Inventories are measured at the lower of cost or net realisable value. The cost of inventories reflects their purchase price plus any other costs necessary to bring them to their present location and condition and is determined using the weighted average method. Net realisable value for goods for trading and finished products is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Work in progress includes cost of direct materials and labour but excluding borrowing costs.

4. Accounting policy - Summary of material accounting policies (continued)

Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. It is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, an appropriate valuation model is used.

Impairment losses on continuing operations are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income in expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

For all non-financial assets, the Group assesses whether there are indications that the impairment loss on an asset recognized in prior periods may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indications exist, the Group determines the recoverable amount of the asset or cash-generating unit. An impairment loss is reversed only when there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of the asset after recognition of the last impairment loss. If that is the case the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount. The reversal of an impairment loss is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount nor exceed the carrying amount, after deduction of amortization, that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for asset in previous periods. The reversal of an impairment loss is recognized in the statement of comprehensive income for the year.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and short term deposits comprise cash in bank accounts and on hand, and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cash equivalents as defined above.

Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income (OCI), and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at the transaction price determined under IFRS 15.

31 DECEMBER 2025

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through OCI, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are 'solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI)' on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is referred to as the SPPI test and is performed at an instrument level.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both.

Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place (regular way trades) are recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in two categories:

- Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)
- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at amortized cost (debt instruments)

The Group measures financial assets at amortised cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using effective interest rate method and are impaired. Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of comprehensive income when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Financial assets at amortised cost of the Group include trade receivables, loans to third parties and cash and cash equivalents.

Derecognition

A financial asset is derecognized when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- The Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Translation of the official consolidated financial statements and consolidated management report issued in Bulgarian.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 DECEMBER 2025

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of its continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses (ECLs) for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

With respect to trade receivables and contract assets, the Group applies the simplified approach for calculating expected credit losses (ECL). As a result, it does not track changes in credit risk but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECL at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix based on historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

The Group always measures the impairment of trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses. Expected credit losses on trade receivables are assessed using a provision matrix based on historical loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking information relevant to the debtors and the economic environment as at the reporting date. The Group has recognised a loss allowance of 0% against all receivables overdue by more than 180 days, as historical experience indicates that such receivables are typically recoverable.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

At each reporting date, the Group determines whether a debt instrument is considered to have low credit risk using all reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort. In making this assessment, the Group reviews the internal credit rating of the debt instrument. In addition, it assesses whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk when contractual payments are more than 60 days past due. A financial instrument is in default when contractual payments are more than 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, a financial asset may be considered to be in default when internal or external information indicates that it is unlikely the Group will receive the full amount outstanding under the contract, before considering any credit enhancements held. Financial assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss or at amortised cost as loans, borrowings and payables.

Financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans, borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts. As of the end of the reporting period there are no balances formed from derivatives.

Subsequent measurement

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the statement of comprehensive income.

This category generally applies to interest-bearing loans and borrowings. More information is presented in Note 26 „Interest-bearing loans and borrowings”.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset, and the net amount is reported in the consolidated statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Provisions

General

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Where the Group expects some or all the provision to be reimbursed, for example under an insurance contract, the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statement of comprehensive income net of any reimbursement.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. Where discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits include salaries, interim and annual bonuses, social security contributions and paid annual leave of current employees expected to be settled wholly within twelve months after the end of the reporting period. They are recognised as an employee benefit expense in the profit or loss or included in the cost of an asset when service is rendered to the Group. Short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the expected cost of the benefit.

State social security plan

All employees of the Group are members of the Bulgarian Social Security Plan. In the normal course of business, the Group makes payments to the National Social Security Fund and National Health Insurance Fund based on employee's remuneration, at rates determined by the Bulgarian Social Security Code. The share of the Group in the social security contributions is treated as payments made under a defined contribution plan and is recognized as expense at the time when incurred. Under the State Social Security Plan, all related risks are assumed by the employees. The Group bears no other obligation.

Retirement benefits

The Group operates a defined benefit plan arising from the requirement of the Bulgarian labour legislation to pay two or six gross monthly salaries to its employees upon retirement, depending on the length of their service. If an employee has worked for the Company for 10 years, the retirement benefit amounts to six gross monthly salaries upon retirement, otherwise, two gross monthly salaries. The retirement benefit plan is not funded. The cost of providing benefits under the retirement benefit plan is determined by the Group using the actuarial projected unit credit method. Re-measurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, are recognised immediately in the statement of financial position with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Re-measurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods. Past service costs are recognised in profit or loss on the earlier of:

- The date of the plan amendment or curtailment, and
- The date that the Group recognises restructuring-related costs

Interest expense is calculated by applying the discount rate to the retirement benefit liability. The changes in the defined benefit obligation are recognised by the Group in profit or loss for the period and are presented as follows:

- Service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements within "Employee benefit expense";
- Net interest expense or income within "Finance costs".

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of the goods or services is transferred to the customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

The Group has generally concluded that it is the principal in its revenue arrangements, because it typically controls the goods or services before transferring them to the customer.

The disclosures of material accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions relating to revenue from contracts with customers are provided in note 5.

Sale of goods/ equipment

Revenue from sale of goods and equipment is recognised at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally on delivery of the equipment. The normal credit term is 30 to 90 days upon delivery.

The Group considers whether there are other promises in the contract that are separate performance obligations to which a portion of the transaction price needs to be allocated (e.g., warranties). In determining the transaction price for the sale of equipment, the Group considers the effects of variable consideration, the existence of significant financing components, noncash consideration, and consideration payable to the customer (if any).

Significant financing component

Generally, the Group receives short-term advances from its customers. Using the practical expedient in IFRS 15, the Group does not adjust the promised amount of consideration for the effects of a significant financing component if it expects, at contract inception, that the period between the transfer of the promised good or service to the customer and when the customer pays for that good or service will be one year or less.

In certain cases, the Group receives long-term advances from clients. The Group determines that payments terms are structured mainly for reasons other than the provision of funding and concludes that there is no significant funding component.

Warranty obligations

The Group also provides an extended warranty beyond fixing defects that existed at the time of sale. These service-type warranties are sold either separately or bundled together with the sale of goods/equipment. The legal warranty is not accounted by the Group as it is borne by the producer of the equipment.

Contracts for bundled sales of equipment and a service-type warranty comprise two performance obligations because the promises to transfer the equipment and to provide the service-type warranty are capable of being distinct. Using the relative stand-alone selling price method, a portion of the transaction price is allocated to the service-type warranty and recognised as a contract liability. Revenue is recognised over the period in which the service-type warranty is provided based on the time elapsed.

Installation services

The Group provides installation services that are either sold separately or bundled together with the sale of equipment to a customer. The installation services can be obtained from other providers and do not significantly customise or modify the equipment. Contracts for bundled sales of equipment and installation services are comprised of two performance obligations because the promises to transfer equipment and provide installation services are capable of being distinct and separately identifiable.

Accordingly, the Group allocates the transaction price based on the relative stand-alone selling prices of the equipment and installation services.

The Group accounts for the services as a single performance obligation and recognizes revenue from them over time, as the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group. The Group applies the practical expedient under IFRS 15, paragraph B16, to recognize revenue at the amount it has the right to invoice. Usually, these services are carried out shortly after the delivery of the equipment. The sales revenue of the equipment is recognized at a point in time, upon the delivery of the equipment.

Provision of services related to licensing and software, developed by third parties

The Group provides services related to the transfer of software licenses under contracts with customers, which is fulfilled by downloading and activating a license key. An integral part of the contracts is the provision of consultancy services to the customers regarding the choice of an optimal package of software products and offering them assistance with the implementation of the licensing system.

As for the customer contracts that involve a combination of consultancy services and licensing, developed by third party, revenue is recognized at the time of delivery of the software product.

Provision of managed services

These services include long-term customer contracts (typically between five and seven years) to support and manage the customer's IT infrastructure, which includes ongoing proactive surveillance, remote management, and on-site support. Under the majority of the contracts, the Group provides network and/or voice communications equipment for use as part of its contractual obligation. Revenue under managed service contracts is recognized over the term of the contract on a monthly basis.

Contract balances

Contract assets

A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Group performs its obligations by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognised for the earned consideration that is conditional.

Trade receivables

A receivable represents the Group's right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due).

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. If a customer pays consideration before the Group transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognised when the payment is made, or the payment is due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract.

Interest

Interest income is recognised as the interest accrues (using the effective interest method that is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument) to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset.

Dividends

A liability to make cash or non-cash distributions to the equity owners of the Parent Company is recognised when the distribution is authorised (i.e. authorised by the shareholders) and is no longer at the discretion of the Parent Company. A corresponding amount is debited directly to equity.

Lease

The determination of whether an arrangement is, or contains, a lease is made at inception date. And namely, whether the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset for a certain period of time.

The Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases (i.e. leases with a lease contract term up to 12 months) and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

Right-of-use assets

The Group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date, an estimate of costs to be incurred by the lessee in dismantling and removing the underlying asset, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, less any lease incentives received.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets, as follows:

|--------------------------------------|------------|
| • Plant and machinery | 3.33 years |
| • Motor vehicles and other equipment | 4 years |
| • Buildings | 5 years |

If ownership of the leased asset transfers to the Group at the end of the lease term or the cost reflects the exercise of a purchase option, depreciation is calculated using the estimated useful life of the asset.

The right-of-use assets are also subject to impairment. The accounting policy for impairment is disclosed in section Impairment of non-financial assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate.

Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as expenses (unless they are incurred to produce inventories) in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses borrowing interest rate based on interest rate statistics because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not at any time readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the lease payments (e.g., changes to future payments resulting from a change in an index or rate used to determine such lease payments) or a change in the assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition expedient to its short-term leases of machinery and equipment (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the lease of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases of office equipment that are considered to be low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Group as a lessor

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. Rental income arising is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in revenue in the statement of comprehensive income due to its operating nature. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Taxes

Current tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantially enacted by the reporting date.

Deferred tax

Deferred income tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- where the deferred income tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- as of the time of the transaction does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilised except:

- where the deferred income tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- as of the time of the transaction does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilised.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred income tax relating to items recognised directly in equity is recognised in equity and not in the statement of comprehensive income for the year.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current income tax liabilities and the deferred income taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognized for all unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilised. Significant management judgment is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognized based on the likely timing and extent of future taxable profits, along with future tax planning strategies. Additional information on deferred taxes is disclosed in Note 16.

Value added tax

Revenue, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of sales, excluding VAT except:

- where the value added tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case the value added tax is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- receivables and payables that are stated with the amount of value added tax included.

The net amount of value added tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Share capital and reserves

Telelink Business Services Group AD is a shareholding company and is obliged to register with the Trade register certain level of share capital that will act as a collateral to the creditors. Shareholders meet obligations of the Parent Company up to their own shareholding and can claim refund of their shareholding only during liquidation or insolvency proceedings. The share capital is presented as the nominal value of the issued and paid shares.

According to the Commercial act regulations some of the Group companies are obliged to set aside Legal reserves.

Shares bought back are presented in the statement of financial position at cost and are deducted from the Group equity. The net effect of the shares bought back and their transfer within the share-based payments plans in the Group is presented directly in the Other components of equity.

Share-based payments

Employees and members of the Managing board of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share-based payments, whereby employees render services as consideration for equity instruments (equity-settled transactions). Equity instruments transferred are measured by their fair value at grant date. The fair value of the share-based payment considerations under conditions, that have not vested, is measured to reflect the conditions and to exclude any differences between expected and actual results. The cost of share-based payments is recognised, together with the corresponding increase in the equity over the period in which the service and, where applicable, the performance conditions are fulfilled (the vesting period). The agreements for share-based payments in the Group explicitly define the reimbursement of the amounts from the subsidiary companies to Telelink Business Services Group AD for the shares provided to employees of the subsidiary companies.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 DECEMBER 2025

5. Accounting policy - Material accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of the contingent liabilities at the date of the statement of financial position, as well as on the income and expenses reported for the period. However, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcome that requires a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability in subsequent reporting periods.

Judgements

In the process of applying the adopted accounting policies, the Group's management has made the following judgements, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

Revenue from contracts with customers

The reporting of revenue from contracts with customers requires significant judgments to be made by the Group's management to determine the individual performance obligations under contracts with customers, which significantly affect the amount of revenue recognized in the reporting period.

Key judgements include an analysis of the economic nature and commercial context of contracts with customers to identify separate performance obligations, as well as an assessment of their progress at the end of the reporting period, including estimates and assumptions about the volume of services, activities and inventories that are required for satisfaction of the performance obligations; the expected total contract costs; the remaining costs of completing the contract; the total revenue from the contract, as well as the risks under the contracts, including technical, regulatory and legal risks.

The Group applied the following judgements that materially affect the determination of the amount and timing of revenue from contracts with customers:

- Identifying performance obligations in a bundled sale of equipment and installation services

The Group provides installation services that are bundled together with the sale of equipment to a customer. The installation services are a promise to transfer services in the future and are part of the negotiated exchange between the Group and the customer. The Group has determined that both the equipment and installation services are capable of being distinct. The Group has also determined that the promises to transfer the equipment and to provide installation services are distinct within the context of most contracts.

The Group is not providing material integration services because the presence of the equipment and installation services together in the contract does not result in any additional or consolidated functionality. In addition, the equipment and installation services are not highly interdependent or highly interrelated, because the Group would be able to transfer the equipment even if the customer declined installation services and the customer itself, would be able to ensure installation services in relation to products offered by other distributors.

Consequently, the Group allocates a portion of the transaction price to the equipment and the installation services based on relative stand-alone selling prices.

- Principal versus agent considerations

The Group enters into contracts with its customers for the sale of equipment/goods and licenses/software produced by various suppliers. The Group has determined that it controls the goods before they are transferred to customers, and it has the ability to direct the use of the equipment or obtain benefits from the equipment. The following factors indicate that the Group controls the goods before they are being transferred to customers. Therefore, the Group has determined that it acts as a principal in these contracts.

- The Group is primarily responsible for fulfilling the promise to provide the specified equipment.
- The Group bears the inventory risk before the specified equipment has been transferred to the customer as it purchases equipment and holds it in a warehouse.
- The Group has discretion in establishing the price for the specified equipment.

In addition, the Group has concluded that it transfers control over its installation services, upon completed tests of functioning equipment and acceptance by the customer.

Estimates and assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the statement of financial position date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets

Financial reporting of plant and equipment, and intangible assets involves estimates as to their expected useful lives and residual values, based on management assessments. Further details about the useful lives of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets are provided in Note 4 „Accounting policy - Summary of material accounting policies”.

Provision for expected credit losses on trade receivables and contract assets

The Group uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade receivables and contract assets. The provision matrix is initially based on the Group’s historical observed default rates. The Group will calibrate the matrix to adjust the historical credit loss experience with forward-looking information. For instance, if forecast economic conditions are expected to deteriorate over the next year which can lead to an increased number of defaults in the manufacturing sector, the historical default rates are adjusted. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

The assessment of the correlation between historical observed default rates, forecast economic conditions and ECLs is a material estimate. The amount of ECLs is not sensitive to changes in circumstances and of forecast economic conditions. The Group's historical credit loss experience and forecast of economic conditions may also not be representative of customer's actual default in the future.

Write down of inventories

In general, inventories are written down to net realisable value. Estimates of net realisable value are based on the most reliable evidence available at the time the estimates are made, of the amount the inventories are expected to realise. Estimates of net realisable value also take into consideration the purpose for which the inventory is held.

Income tax

Current income tax liabilities are for the current and prior periods and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid to the taxation authorities, using the tax rates that have been enacted by the reporting date. Provision for income taxes reported in the respective income tax returns includes an estimate of the potential additional tax assessments that may be imposed by the tax authorities upon settlement of the open tax years. Accordingly, the final settlement of the income taxes might differ from the income taxes that have been accounted for in the financial statements.

Fair value measurement

The Group measures non-financial assets, such as, investment property at fair value at each reporting date. The fair values of investment properties are disclosed in note 36 "Fair value measurement".

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible to the Group.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 DECEMBER 2025

5. Accounting policy - Material accounting policies, estimates and assumptions (continued)

Fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable;
- Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between Levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

The Group's management determines the policies and procedures for both recurring fair value measurement, and for non-recurring measurement, such as assets held for distribution in discontinued operation.

At each reporting date, the management analyses the movements in the values of assets and liabilities which are required to be re-measured or re-assessed as per the Group's accounting policies. For this analysis, the management verifies the major inputs applied in the latest valuation by agreeing the information in the valuation computation to contracts and other relevant documents. The management, in conjunction with the valuation experts, also compares the changes in the fair value of each asset and liability with relevant external sources to determine whether the change is reasonable.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Group has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

Legal guarantees

The Group does not report legal guarantee obligations for goods sold as they are borne by the equipment manufacturer.

External temporary differences in consolidated financial statements

The Group does not recognise deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and interests in joint ventures, as the Group considers there is no probability that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Significant financing component

In some cases, the Group receives long-term advances from customers. The Group accrues one time advance amount for the services, since other payment terms would affect the nature of the risks, borne by the Group for rendering the services, and may turn the provision of the service unprofitable. Following the analysis, the Group determines there is no significant financing component.

6. Accounting policy - Changes in IFRS Accounting Standards

Amendments to IFRS accounting standards that are effective for the current reporting period

The following amendments to the existing IFRS accounting standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and adopted by the EU are effective for the current reporting period:

- Amendments to IAS 21: Lack of Exchangeability (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2025).

The adoption of the new amendments to the existing IFRS accounting standard has not had any material impact on the disclosures or on the amounts reported in these financial statements

New and revised IFRS accounting standards adopted by the EU but not yet effective

At the date of authorisation of these financial statements, the Group has not applied the following amendments to IFRS accounting standards that have been issued by IASB and adopted by EU but are not yet effective:

- Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 - Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026);
- Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 - Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026);
- Amendments to IFRS 1, IFRS 7, IFRS 9, IFRS 10 and IAS 7 - Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards - Volume 11 - effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026;
- IFRS 18 - Presentation and Disclosures in Financial Statements (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027);

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 DECEMBER 2025

7. Accounting policy - Standards issued but not yet effective and not early adopted

New standards and amendments to the existing IFRS accounting standards issued by IASB but not yet adopted by the EU

At present, IFRS accounting standards as adopted by the EU do not significantly differ from IFRS Accounting Standards adopted by the IASB except for the following new accounting standards and amendments to the existing accounting standards, which were not endorsed for use in EU as at the date of authorization of these financial statements (the effective dates stated below is for IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by IASB):

- IFRS 19 with further amendments - Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027);
- Amendments to IAS 21 - Translation to a Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027);
- IFRS 14 Regulatory Deferral Accounts (effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2016) - the European Commission has decided not to launch the endorsement process of this interim standard and to wait for the final standard;
- Amendments to IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements and IAS 28 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures - Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture and further amendments (effective date deferred by IASB indefinitely but earlier application permitted). Endorsement process postponed indefinitely until the research project on the equity method has been concluded.

The Group does not expect that the adoption of the accounting standards listed above will have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Group in future periods, except for IFRS 18 which is expected to have material impact on the presentation and disclosure of information in the consolidated financial statements. The Group is in process of analysing the specific impact of IFRS 18 on its financial statements.

Hedge accounting for a portfolio of financial assets and liabilities whose principles have not been adopted by the EU remains unregulated. According to the Group's estimates, the application of hedge accounting to a portfolio of financial assets or liabilities pursuant to IAS 39 Financial Instruments - Recognition and Measurement would not significantly impact the financial statements, if applied as at the reporting date.

8. Changes in investments in subsidiaries and discontinued operations

New investments in subsidiaries

On 13.02.2024 Telelink Business Services Group AD has entered into an Agreement for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of the limited liability company SEDAM IT, d.o.o. ("7IT", Sedam IT DOO), registered under the legislation of the Republic of Croatia, with its registered office and registered address in the town of Zagreb, Croatia, 2, Koledovčina St. and identification number (OIB) 95661305069 - provider of IT, communication and software solutions and services with a long-standing presence on the Croatian IT market. The counterparty (seller) to the purchase and sale of the company shares is an unrelated/ disinterested third party. As of the date of the Agreement, the acquisition is conditional upon the implementation of agreed conditions precedent to be fulfilled within a timeframe determined by the parties and still to be fulfilled.

On 29.03.2024. Telelink Business Services Group AD acquires 100% of the shares in the capital of 7IT as part of the execution of the Group's strategy for growth and market development in the Western Balkans through acquisitions of companies in the System Integration business segment. The Parent Company has made an upfront initial payment into a special (escrow) account in the amount of EUR 5,098,186, calculated on the basis of 7IT's interim financial statements as of 29.02.2024, and provides guarantees to secure subsequent payments of the price. The payment made was financed by a combination of own funds and long-term debt under the Investment Bank Loan Agreement with UniCredit Bulbank AD dated 19.03.2024 in the amount of EUR 3,568,730.

As a consequence of the preparation of the financial statements of 7IT as at the date of acquisition of 100% of the shares in its capital by Telelink Business Services Group AD (29.03.2024), on 29.04.2024, the following have been established:

- a final amount of the initial payment due to the seller under the transaction of EUR 5,494,743, in accordance with which Telelink Business Services Group AD shall transfer, in addition to the payment of EUR 5,098,186 calculated on the basis of 7IT's interim financial statements as of 29.02.2024, a compensatory amount of EUR 396,557;
- a total value of the Company's equity at the acquisition date of EUR 8,848,194, taking into account, in addition to the initial payment mentioned above, that pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement:
 - o EUR 698,994 of this amount has been assumed in the form of long-term liabilities of Telelink Business Services Group AD to 7IT which represents a liability of the seller to 7IT, that will be settled by Telelink Business Services Group AD instead of the seller;
 - o EUR 2,654,458 of this amount is subject to contingent deferred payments, the final amount of which will be established in 2025 and 2026 depending on 7IT's financial results for 2024 and 2025, and represent the maximum total amount of such payments.

As a result of the acquisition, 7IT has been included in the consolidated statement of financial position of Telelink Business Services Group AD as of 29 March 2024, and in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income and the consolidated statement of cash flows of the Parent Company as of 1 April 2024. The Group applies IFRS 3 Business Combinations, under which the acquirer in a business combination recognises goodwill as the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree, and, in a business combination achieved in stages, the acquisition-date fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree, over the net amount of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

The line item “Deductible receivables” represents an amount assumed in the form of long-term liabilities by Telelink Business Services Group AD to 7IT, which essentially constitutes a liability of the seller to 7IT that will be settled by Telelink Business Services Group AD instead of the seller.

The total amount of costs related to the acquisition of Sedam IT is BGN 280 thousand, of which BGN 166 thousand are included in the line item “General and administrative expenses” in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for 2023, and BGN 114 thousand are included in the same line item for year 2024.

The fair value of receivables and contract assets has been assessed and corresponds to their carrying amount.

The total amount of goodwill expected to be non-deductible for tax purposes is BGN 15,922 thousand.

The most important sources of present value justifying the excess of consideration paid over Sedam IT's net assets as of the acquisition date include:

- the profit and cash generation potential of the company's continuing operations;
- expected synergies:
- service capacity gains;
- product portfolio gains;
- product and client based cross-sales in the company and across the rest of the Group.

Service capacity gains are expected to be derived from the combined group's increased technical staff, enabling both the Group and Sedam IT to undertake larger and more complex projects and services. An important aspect of this synergy is the significant software development team of Sedam IT, significantly expanding the Group's resources in that area.

Product portfolio gains include both the addition of competences from and to Sedam IT to and from the Group, enabling the combined group to address a broader range of technologies, projects and services. Important additions from Sedam IT to the Group include different new monitoring and management solutions and experience in software development in the fields of ERP and business solutions. The existing Group is adding a broader range of solutions and services in the areas of public and private clouds, cybersecurity and productivity to Sedam IT.

Cross-sales potential is based on the opportunity to implement the aforementioned synergies through product portfolio and service capacity gains by offering an extended range of products and services and expand the scope of services to the existing clients of both the Group and Sedam IT.

The Group performed its annual impairment testing for the goodwill of Sedam as at the end of the year. The recoverable amount is determined based on a value in use calculation using statement of comprehensive income projections from the annual budget for the next year and other forward-looking financial projections approved by the management, covering a five year period. Major assumptions used include:

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 DECEMBER 2025

- Significant revenue growth throughout the projection horizon with a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 15%, reflecting the recovery and expansion of sales in the Software Development segment from their relatively low levels in 2024, positive outlook for continued growth in public IT investments due to the country's strong performance in EU funds absorption, and the gradual realization of synergies from cross-sales of products and services between Telelink Business Services EAD and Sedam IT DOO starting in 2026;
- Maintained average gross profit margin of 28%, close to the margin reported for 2024, balancing the characteristically high profitability of the Software Development segment with the assumption of slightly lower margins on projected sales growth through commercial synergies;
- Sustainable growth in marketing, sales, and general administrative expenses with a CAGR of 6%, supporting the marketing and organizational infrastructure required for the planned increase in sales and business scale;
- Average net working capital to revenue ratio of 10%, in line with the average observed during 2022–2024;
- Stabilized capital expenditures at a level of 1% of annual revenue, consistent with the ratio recorded in 2024;
- Weighted average cost of capital (WACC) of 13.6%, based on assumptions including a cost of equity of 14.6%, after-tax cost of debt of 4.2%, and an applicable debt-to-equity ratio consistent with the industry average for 2024.

The projections reflect management's past experience, expectations for future market development, and the anticipated realization of operational synergies.

As at the impairment testing date, the recoverable amount exceeded the carrying amount of the cash-generating unit to which goodwill is allocated, and no impairment loss was recognized. A sensitivity analysis was performed and confirmed that no reasonably possible change in any key assumption would result in the carrying amount exceeding the recoverable amount.

Discontinued operations

Voluntary liquidation of Telelink Business Services Montenegro

In March 2024 Telelink Business Services Group AD adopts a decision on voluntary liquidation of Telelink Business Services Montenegro and submits the applicable documents for its registration in the Central Register of Business Entities of the Republic of Montenegro. The actual entry of the deletion in the register was disclosed by the Parent Company on 24.04.2024.

As of 30.06.2024 the Parent Company has fully written off its investment in Telelink Business Services Montenegro in the amount of BGN 123 thousand. The proceeds from liquidation paid to Telelink Business Services Group AD as a positive difference after collection and repayment of all receivables and liabilities of Telelink Business Services Montenegro amount to BGN 95 thousand.

The “Goods” category includes sales of equipment, while the “Services” category comprises licenses, installation services, consulting services, maintenance, software development services, and managed services.

The Group has not disclosed revenue by product or service category as the information is not readily available in the format required by IFRS 8. Management has concluded that the benefits of such a disclosure would not outweigh the costs involved. The revenue amounts presented in the financial statements are based on the internal financial reporting of the Group.

Contract balances

	2025	2024
	BGN'000	BGN'000
Trade receivables (note 22)	78,045	70,524
Contract assets (note 22)	18,575	12,003
Contract liabilities (note 29)	34,277	20,825

Trade receivables are non-interest bearing and are generally on terms of 30 to 120 days.

Contract assets are recognised for obligations fulfilled, which have not yet been invoiced to the customer, as well as payments withheld by the customer as warranties. When the payment becomes due, the amounts recognised as contract assets are reclassified to trade receivables.

Contract liabilities include advances from customers. They are recognized as revenue when the performance obligation is satisfied.

Performance obligations

Delivery of equipment / goods

The performance obligation is satisfied upon delivery of the equipment / goods and payment is generally due within 30 to 90 days from delivery.

Extended maintenance

Contracts which provide for an extended warranty for new equipment or equipment owned by the customer. Maintenance is accounted for as a separate performance obligation and part of the transaction price is allocated to it. The performance obligation with regard to the extended warranty is satisfied over the maintenance period (one, three, five years) based on the expired period of time.

Installation services

The performance obligation is satisfied over time and payment is generally due upon completion of installation and its acceptance by the customer.

9. Revenue from contracts with customers (continued)

Managed services

Long-term contracts for a period of three to seven years for managing the customer's IT infrastructure where the performance obligation is satisfied over time.

Services related to licensing and software, developed by third parties

As for the customer contracts that involve a combination of consultancy services and licensing of third-party software, revenue is recognized at a point in time of delivery of the software product.

Revenue recognised over the current year from amounts included in contract liabilities at 1 January 2025 amounts to BGN 19,993 thousand (at 1 January 2024: BGN 23,062 thousand).

The transaction price allocated to the remaining performance obligations (unsatisfied or partially unsatisfied) as at 31 December is, as follows:

	2025 BGN'000	2024 BGN'000
Within one year	29,887	13,648

Amendments to the Corporate Income Tax Act ("CITA") related to the global minimum corporate tax of 15%

At the end of 2023, amendments to CITA were approved, which introduced effectively, as of 1 January 2024, a global minimum corporate tax of 15% on multinational and large national groups of companies under the conditions set out in the CITA. These amendments were in the context of the so-called OECD Pillar Two Model Rules in line with the agreement reached at the global and European level launched by the OECD BEPS (Base Erosion and Profit Shifting) initiative to deal with tax challenges arising from the digital transformation of the economy. The amendments to the CITA relating to the levy of a global minimum tax of 15% effective 01 January 2024 do not apply to the Group as the annual revenues in the consolidated financial statements of the ultimate parent company of the Group (including revenue of the excluded entities) in at least two out of the prior four tax periods do not exceed EUR 750 million.

Cash in bank accounts bear floating interest rates based on the daily interest rates on bank deposits. Short-term deposits are made for various periods between one week and three months depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Group and earn interest at the respective short-term deposit rates. The fair value of cash and short-term deposits as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 equals their carrying amount.

The Group's cash and cash equivalents are held with banking institutions with credit ratings of "A-", "A+", "BBB", and "Baa1".

25. Government grants

In 2025, Telelink Business Services EAD received funding of BGN 80 thousand under the VELES EXCELLENCE HUB programme – Strengthening regional excellence in the field of smart healthcare in Southeast Europe and enhancing innovation potential, BGN 48 thousand under the DYNAMO programme – Method for dynamic resilience assessment, including a combined solution for business continuity management and cyber threat intelligence for critical sectors, and BGN 683 thousand under the CITADEL project – Cyber infrastructure for training and preparation through advanced defensive exercises. Accordingly, in 2024 it received funding of BGN 520 thousand under the European programme ACTING – European Commission EDF 2022/2026 and BGN 120 thousand under the operational programme ECHO – European network of Cybersecurity centres and competence Hub for innovation and Operations, while simultaneously returning an amount received in the previous year of BGN (54) thousand under the SynGReDiT EDIH project. In the aforementioned programmes, Telelink Business Services EAD participates jointly in consortia with European and Bulgarian companies, and the funds are intended to cover personnel costs for staff engaged in the execution of the programmes over a period of two to four years.

In April 2024, the Group acquired the Croatian company Sedam IT DOO, which participates in two European programmes financing personnel costs for staff engaged in the execution of the programmes' defined objectives – Eurostars and MZOŠ. The amount recovered as funding under the Eurostars project in 2024 was BGN 6 thousand.

The amount of government grants recognized in the financial statements corresponds to the useful life of the acquired items of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets, and the hired services used:

27. Leases

The Group has leases for offices, vehicles, and managed services assets used in the business. Leases for managed services assets have lease terms between 3 and 4 years, vehicles - 4 years, and rented offices 2 - 5 years. The Group's obligations under its leases are secured by the lessor's title to the leased assets. Generally, the Group is restricted from assigning and subleasing the leased assets.

There are no lease contracts that include extension and termination options and variable lease payments.

Personnel payables and other	6,610	6,882
SPA agreement payment (note 8)	2,597	5,192
Trade and other payables	98,303	89,473

Trade payables and accruals principally comprise amounts outstanding for trade purchases and ongoing costs. The average credit period taken for trade purchases is between 30 and 90 days (excluding supplier finance arrangements) and 45 days (including supplier finance arrangements). For most suppliers no interest is charged on the trade payables for the first 30 to 90 days from the date of the invoice depending on the supplier payment terms agreement. Thereafter, interest is charged on the outstanding balances at various interest rates. The Group has financial risk management policies in place to ensure that all payables are paid within the pre-agreed credit terms.

The management considers that the carrying amount of trade payables approximates to their fair value.

Tax liabilities are non-interest bearing and are settled within the statutory deadlines.

Other payables are non-interest bearing and have an average term of 30 days. Other liabilities are mainly formed by short-term payables to personnel and accrued unused paid leave.

The payables under share purchase agreements include BGN 2,597 thousand (2024 - BGN 5,192 thousand) in other non-current liabilities, which in substance represent contingent liabilities related to the acquisition of Sedam IT d.o.o. Under the share purchase agreement for Sedam IT d.o.o., an amount of EUR 2,654,458 constitutes contingent deferred payments, the final amount of which will be determined in 2025 and 2026 based on the financial performance of Sedam IT d.o.o. for 2024 and 2025. This amount represents the fair value of contingent consideration.

Supplier finance arrangements

Sedam IT DOO has signed a Reverse Factoring Agreement for Supplier Payables with a revolving credit limit of EUR 1,100,000, an annual interest rate of 6-month EURIBOR + 1.80%, and a financing term of up to 180 days from the date of payment to the supplier. The subject of the agreement consists of existing monetary receivables, not yet due at maturity, in whole or in part, arising from the supply of goods and/or provision of services by domestic or foreign suppliers to Sedam IT DOO, whereby the grounds and amount of the individual receivables included in the subject of the factoring are evidenced by invoices. Since the arrangements allow the Group to obtain financing from the banks by deferring payment to them beyond the term within which it would have paid its suppliers, the Group considers that the liabilities to the banks should Telelink Business Services Group AD was established in July 2019 with a share capital of BGN 50 thousand. The share capital available as of 31 December 2020 amounting to BGN 12,500 thousand was formed as a result of the Reorganization of Telelink Bulgaria EAD in 2019, whereby in Telelink Business Services Group AD were allocated the net assets attributable to the separated Business Services activity amounting to BGN 12,667 thousand and the latter amount was allocated to the formation of additional share capital amounting to BGN 12,450 thousand and general reserves amounting to BGN 217 thousand.

Legal reserves

Legal reserves are formed from retained earnings in accordance with the statutory requirements and can be used to offset current or past losses. Pursuant to article 246 of the Commercial Act of Bulgaria, legal reserves should be set aside until they reach one tenth or more of the Parent Company's registered capital. The sources of funding these reserves may be at least one tenth of the net profit, share premiums upon share issuing, and other sources provided for by the statutes of the Parent Company or by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Legal reserves are formed from the retained earnings of Telelink Business Services Group AD (2022: BGN 1,250 thousand and 2021: BGN 981 thousand), Telelink Business Services EAD (BGN 100 thousand) and Telelink Business Services North Macedonia (2022: BGN 2 thousand), Sedam IT DOO, acquired in March 2024 (BGN 22 thousand and correction BGN 2 thousand in 2025).

The Group's legal reserves as at 31 December 2025 amount to BGN 1,371 thousand (2024: BGN 1,374 thousand).

Other reserves

Part of Other reserves were formed after applying the predecessor method upon the acquisition of the companies under common control and represent the difference between the investment in acquirees and the share capital of these entities.

The Group's other reserves formed following the acquisition as at 31 December 2022 amounted to BGN (14,124) thousand. As at 31 December 2023 the amount was BGN (13,717) thousand – the decrease in the amount of BGN 407 thousand is effect of impairment of the investment in Telelink Montenegro. The remaining part of Other reserves is formed from obligations under Share-based payments incentive plans for BGN 217 thousand as at 31 December 2024 (2023: BGN 426 thousand).

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

36. Commitments and contingencies (continued)

Besides the above commitments, throughout the reporting period, Telelink Business Services EAD:

- maintained its capacity of guarantor securing the obligations of Telelink Business Services Group AD from the agreement with United Bulgarian Bank AD;
- maintained its capacity of co-debtor to the loan agreement between Telelink Business Services Group AD and UniCredit Bulbank AD;
- acceded in its capacity of guarantor a Frame agreement for issuing bank guarantees between Comutel and Raiffeisen banka a.d. with a limit of EUR 100,000 with an availability period until 30.09.2028, as per Suretyship agreement from 03.12.2025;
- maintained a corporate guarantee for the amount of EUR 1,327,229 towards Cedo Dukic in his capacity of seller of the shares in Sedam IT, securing the obligations of TBSG AD for the second conditional deferred payment based on Sedam IT's financial results for 2025, in accordance with a Share Purchase Agreement from 13.02.2024.

As of 31.12.2025, Sedam IT:

- maintained a promissory note for the amount of EUR 1,327,229 towards Cedo Dukic in his capacity of seller of the shares in Sedam IT, securing the obligations of TBSG AD for the second conditional deferred payment based on Sedam IT's financial results for 2025, in accordance with a Share Purchase Agreement from 13.02.2024;
- maintained its capacity of co-debtor to the Investment bank loan agreement № 00044/730 between the Parent Company and UniCredit Bulbank AD from 19.03.2024, described in section XII.9.1.2.

37. Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's principal financial liabilities comprise interest-bearing loans and borrowings and trade payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance the Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include trade receivables, loans granted, and cash and short-term deposits that derive directly from its operations.

In 2025 and 2024, the Group neither owned nor traded in derivative financial instruments.

The Group is exposed primarily to interest rate risk, liquidity risk, currency risk, and credit risk. The Group's policies for managing each of these risks are summarised below.

37. Financial risk management objectives and policies (continued)

Interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's revolving credit lines for current financing of working capital and to a lesser extent, to finance lease contracts bearing floating (variable) interest rates.

In connection with the Overdraft and Revolving Credit Agreements with UBB AD, the Bank Investment Loan Agreement and the Overdraft Agreement with UniCredit Bulbank AD, the Factoring Agreement with RBB Croatia, the Overdraft Agreement with Zagrebačka Banka Croatia, the Revolving Credit Agreement with RBB Serbia, and the Revolving Credit Agreement with Erste Bank Croatia, the Group assumes the risk of fluctuations in floating interest rate indices, namely the reference interest rate of the financing bank, formed on the basis of the variable yield on deposits of individuals in Bulgaria, and the 3-month and 6-month EURIBOR. During 2024–2025, the interest rate indices relevant to the Group showed mixed developments, with the 3-month and 6-month EURIBOR, applicable to funds drawn in EUR under the Overdraft Agreement with UBB AD, the Bank Investment Loan Agreement with UniCredit Bulbank AD, the Factoring Agreement with RBA Croatia, and the Overdraft Agreement with Zagrebačka Banka Croatia, reflecting to a significant extent the considerable volatility, while the financing bank's reference interest rate, applicable to funds drawn in BGN under the Overdraft Agreement with UBB AD and the overdraft loan with UniCredit Bulbank AD, remains relatively insignificant within the range of 0.0%–0.2% (Note 26).

At the reporting date, the interest rate profile of the Group's interest-bearing financial instruments was:

	2025	2024
	BGN' 000	BGN' 000
Fixed rate instruments

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 DECEMBER 2025

The sensitivity analysis has been determined based on the exposure to interest rate risk for both the investment bank loan and the bank overdraft as at the end of the reporting period. For variable rate instruments, the analysis assumes that the amount of the liability outstanding at the reporting date had been in place throughout the entire period. An increase or decrease of 100 basis points is used in the internal reporting of interest rate risk to the Supervisory Board and represents management's assessment of a reasonably possible change in interest rates. The estimated impact is presented in the table below:

Effect in thousands of BGN	Profit or loss
	1.00% increase	-1.00% decrease
31 December 2025
Variable rate instruments	(196)	82
Cash flow sensitivity (net)	(196)	82
31 December 2024
Variable rate instruments	(172)	101
Cash flow sensitivity (net)	(172)	101

Due to the negotiation of minimal interest rates equal to either interest margin or total interest rate at the date of signature of the contract for certain instruments, the effects of an increase and decrease by the same change in interest rate are asymmetrical.

Currency risk

The Group trades in different markets and in local currencies that are different from its functional currency, as well as in third-party currencies, including mostly purchases and financing in US dollars. Consequently, it faces transaction and translation exchange rate risks. The Group's exposure to changes in exchange rates of local currencies is substantially limited owing to the fixed EUR/BGN and EUR / BAM exchange rate maintained under the currency board systems operating in Bulgaria and Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as by the adoption of the Euro as a National currency of Montenegro. Therefore, the total sales and profits generated in jurisdictions using or pegged to the Euro or BGN have the largest share in the consolidated results. The Group is exposed to translation currency risk in Serbia, North Macedonia, and Romania relative to the floating exchange rates of the local currencies.

A significant part of revenue and cost of sales, including locally sourced goods and services, employee benefits and other fixed costs, are denominated in the local currencies of the operational subsidiaries.

Third-party currency risk relative to other trading is limited by existing contractual arrangements for the exchange rate indexation of receivables in Serbia, North Macedonia, and Romania.

Outstanding risks from foreign currency trading are mitigated by Group companies by matching the timing and currencies of its trade receivables and payables, to the extent possible, as well as by occasional forward purchases of US Dollars for the payment of uncovered payables.

The tables below demonstrate the sensitivity to a possible change on the exchange rates of the following currencies:

	USD	MKD	RSD	RON
	BGN'000	BGN'000	BGN'000	BGN'000

Change in MKD rate	(36)	36
Change in RSD rate	(84)	84
Change in RON rate	-	-
	(641)	641

Credit risk

The Group strives to trade exclusively with recognised, creditworthy third parties, such as, leading telecoms, public institutions and multinational companies, and long-lasting partners with proven credit history. The receivable balances and maturities are monitored on an ongoing basis. Therefore, the Group's credit risk exposure is very limited.

The credit risk that arises from other financial assets of the Group, such as cash and other financial assets, is related to the Group's credit exposure to default risks on the part of its counterparties.

The maximum credit exposure of the Group related to the recognised financial assets equals their carrying amount as stated in the statement of financial position as of 31 December 2025 and arises primarily from trade and other receivables, contract assets, and cash and cash equivalents (Notes 22 and 24). The Group performed an impairment review of trade and other receivables and contract assets as of 31 December 2025 and concluded that no impairment provision was necessary.

37. Financial risk management objectives and policies (continued)

Liquidity risk

The Group manages liquidity risk and cash flow risk through systematic monitoring of the quality and maturity of its receivables and payables, as well as timely planning of incoming and outgoing cash flows. In the event of expected shortfalls in available funds within a given time horizon, and in order to address unforeseen deviations, the Group secures the necessary funding by arranging appropriately structured loans or revolving credit facilities through leading Subsidiaries.

Liquidity risk is maintained at a low level by holding sufficient cash and cash equivalents and by securing adequate credit facilities with the Group's relationship banks (see Note 24 "Cash and Cash Equivalents"). In addition, the ageing analysis of trade receivables (Note 22) is an indicator of expected incoming cash flows, which are anticipated to cover the Group's liabilities.

The following table summarises the maturity profile of the Group's financial liabilities at 31 December based on contractual undiscounted payments.

31 December 2025	On demand	< 3 months	3-12 months	1 - 5 years	> 5 years	Total

Capital management

The main objective of capital management of the Group is to ensure that it maintains a strong credit rating and healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximise shareholder value.

The Group manages its capital structure and adjusts it, where necessary, depending on the changes in the economic environment. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes during the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024.

The Group monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. The Group includes within net debt, interest bearing loans and borrowings, lease liabilities, trade and other payables, contract liabilities less cash and cash equivalents, excluding discontinued operations.

38. Events after the reporting period

Pursuant to the Law on the Introduction of the Euro in the Republic of Bulgaria, effective from 1 January 2026, the official monetary unit and legal tender in the Republic of Bulgaria is the euro. The fixed exchange rate is BGN 1.95583 to EUR 1. The introduction of the euro as the official currency in the Republic of Bulgaria constitutes a change in the functional currency, which will be accounted for prospectively and does not constitute an event after the date of the consolidated financial statements requiring adjustment.

In accordance with the Law on the Introduction of the Euro in the Republic of Bulgaria (LIERB), on 01.01.2026 the Commercial Register and the Register of Non-Profit Legal Entities entered an official currency conversion of the Parent Company's registered capital from BGN 12,500,000 to EUR 6,375,000, equivalent to 12,500,000 shares with a nominal value of EUR 0.51 each. Following the applicable provisions of the LIERB, the EUR 16,148.51 currency translation difference between this amount and the exact equivalent of BGN 12,500,000 (EUR 6,391,148.51) was allocated to the Parent Company's retained earnings and will be reflected in the Parent Company's notification on an individual basis for the first quarter of 2026. A resolution to amend the Articles of Association of the Parent Company was adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders on 11.02.2026.

On 21.01.2026, the Parent Company, in its capacity of sole owner, extended the mandate of the current members of the Board of Directors of TBS EAD (Ivan Zhitiyanov, Ivo Rusev and Jordanka Klenovska) until 29.01.2031 and amended the company's Articles of Association in accordance with the LIERB in order to reflect the currency translation of its registered capital, updating the amount of the latter in accordance with the provisions of the LIERB to EUR 510,000, distributed in 1,000,000 euro shares with a nominal value of EUR 0.51 each.

38. Events after the reporting period (continued)

On 04.02.2026, the Parent Company, in its capacity of sole owner, adopted a resolution to revoke the mandate of Florin Iovu and appoint as administrator of TBS Romania TMF Romania SRL, represented by Radu – Cristian Plop and Ionel – Gabriel Sincu.

On 11.02.2026, an EGMS of the Parent Company was held, whereby a decision was adopted to buy back up to 374,900 own shares until 31.12.2026 at a minimum and maximum price of EUR 3.78 and EUR 7.67 per share and authorize the MB to adopt and conduct, within the specified number of shares, term and price range and in accordance with applicable law, an unlimited number of procedures and decisions regarding the timeframe, minimum and maximum price, investment intermediary and all other parameters of the buyback for each separate procedure. Full minutes of the meeting are available at: <https://www.tbs.tech/wp-content/uploads/2026/02/TBSG-Meeting-Minutes-%D0%95GMS-11022026-Signed-1.pdf>.

On 28.02.2026, the USA and Israel undertook offensive military operations against Iran, followed by accompanying attacks on parts of Lebanon, Syria, and Iraq, which led to retaliatory strikes by Iran against a number of other countries in the region. The Group has no direct exposure to related parties, customers, and/or suppliers from the countries involved in these conflicts and, for this reason, the Group is not considered to be directly exposed to risks arising from the aforementioned events. At present, both conflicts remain with an unclear outcome and ambiguous potential consequences for the economies as a whole and for specific economic activities in Europe and the USA.

In view of this, the Group's management considers that there are no conditions and prerequisites for a reliable quantitative assessment of the potential indirect impact of any related changes in the micro- and macroeconomic environment on its financial position and results. Notwithstanding this, it remains committed to the ongoing monitoring of the situation and the analysis of the possible future consequences of the conflicts, with a view to the timely identification of actual and potential adverse effects and to taking all possible steps to mitigate their impact.

On 30.03.2026, the MB of TBSG AD approved the separate annual financial statements and the separate management report of the Parent Company for 2025.

The statements and the report were published on 31.03.2026 and are available at: <https://www.tbs.tech/wp-content/uploads/2026/04/Telelink-Business-Services-Group-AD-FS-2025-s-1.pdf>.

Consolidated Annual Management Report

TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP AD

DEAR SHAREHOLDERS,

We, the members of the Management Board of Telelink Business Services Group AD (“the Parent Company”), guided by our commitment to manage the Parent Company in the best interest of its shareholders and in accordance with the provisions of Article 44-47 of the Accountancy Act, Article 100n, Paragraph 5 of the Public Offering of Securities Act (POSA) and Appendix No 2 to Article 11, par. 1 of Ordinance No. 2 from 09.11.2021 regarding the initial and subsequent disclosure of information upon the public offering of securities and the admission of securities to trading on a regulated market, prepared the present consolidated management report (the Report). The Report presents commentary and analysis of key financial and non-financial indicators and an objective overview, providing a true and fair view of the development and operating results of the Parent Company and its subsidiaries (the Group), as well as of its condition, together with a description of the main risks thereto.

Appended to this Report is the Parent Company’s Corporate governance statement prepared in compliance with the provisions of Article 100n, Paragraph 8 of the POSA and Article 40 of the Accountancy Act.

THIS REPORT HAS BEEN PREPARED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF ART. 44-47 OF THE ACCOUNTANCY ACT, ART. 100N, PAR. 5 OF POSA AND APPENDIX NO 2 TO ART. 11, PAR. 1 OF ORDINANCE NO 2 FROM 09.11.2021 REGARDING THE INITIAL AND SUBSEQUENT DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION UPON THE PUBLIC OFFERING OF SECURITIES AND THE ADMISSION OF SECURITIES TO TRADING ON A REGULATED MARKET

I GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANY AND THE GROUP

I.1 Business profile

Telelink Business Services Group AD (TBSG AD, the Parent Company, the Issuer) was established in 2019 with the purpose of consolidation, foundation and management of investments in subsidiaries operating in the field of information and communication technologies (ICT), together with which it constitutes the economic “Group TBS” (the Group).

The main activity of the Parent Company comprises the provision of administrative and financial services and services relative to the management and support of the business development, marketing and sales of Group subsidiaries. The Parent Company itself does not carry out direct commercial activities in the field of ICT or other areas addressing end customers outside the Group.

The main activity of the Group consists of the operating activities of the subsidiaries making part thereof and comprises the sale of products and services and the implementation of complex solutions in the field of ICT, including, but not limited to:

- delivery, warranty and post-warranty support of equipment and software produced by third-party technology suppliers, and applications and services developed at the client’s request;
- system integration covering system design, configuration, installation, setup and commissioning of the supplied equipment, software or integrated ICT systems, combining functionally two or more product types;
- consultancy services comprising the analysis of the situation, requirements, transformation and future development of the client’s ICT systems, processes and infrastructures;
- managed services whereby the client transfers the management and responsibility for a certain ICT function or group of functions to the Group, and the latter undertakes to maintain them on a certain level.

A part of delivered managed services include the provision of equipment and software as a service presenting the client with a flexible alternative to their own investments in such assets.

The products and services offered by the Group cover a broad range of technologies organized in 5 product categories for public reporting purposes in 2025:

- IT Infrastructure;
- Cybersecurity;
- Software Development, Data and AI;
- Internet of Things;
- End User Hardware and Software, Public Cloud and Other.

The correspondence of the above product categories with the technology groups applied in the Group’s reporting in 2024 (IT Infrastructure, Digital Transformation, Cybersecurity, End User Hardware and Software, Internet of Things and Other) is shown in section XII.1 of this Report.

- Telelink Business Services DOO (Croatia) (UIN 080271844) ("TBS Croatia", "Sedam IT") (renamed from Sedam IT DOO), acquired by the Parent Company by means of a share purchase in March 2024.

As of 31.12.2025, the Parent Company was the sole owner of all of the above subsidiaries, all of which are governed in their respective countries of incorporation and conduct active commercial operations.

Beside the above direct shareholdings, the Parent Company has held indirect interests in two more companies controlled by TBS EAD, Telelink BS Staffing EOOD and Green Border OOD. As of 31.12.2025, Telelink BS Staffing EOOD, which had been established with a view to potential cooperation with a leading financial advisory firm, has not conducted active commercial operations, while joint venture Green Border OOD has exhausted its purpose with the completion of the project it was established for and has been approved for voluntary liquidation by the SB due to the expiry of the term for which it was established.

I.5 Governance

The Parent Company has a two-tier board system.

As of 31.12.2025, the Parent Company's Managing Board (the MB) featured five members, including:

- Ivan Zhitarianov – Chairman of the MB and Executive Director;
- Teodor Dobrev – member of the MB;
- Orlin Rusev – member of the MB;
- Jordanka Klenovska – member of the MB;
- Desislava Torozova – member of the MB.

As of 31.12.2025, the Parent Company's Supervisory Board (the SB) featured five members, including:

- Lubomir Minchev – Chairman of the SB (elected as member of the SB in place of Wolfgang Ebberman by GMS resolution from 18.06.2025 and as Chairman of the SB by resolution of the SB from 22.07.2025);
- Florian Huth – Vice-chairman of the SB;
- Hans van Houwelingen – independent member of the SB;
- William Anthony Bowater Russell – independent member of the SB;
- Rosen Plevneliev – member of the SB (elected in place of Ivo Evgeniev by EGMS resolution from 17.09.2025).

I.6 Public Information

In accordance with the requirements of art. 27 and the subsequent provisions of Ordinance 2 of the FSC, with regard to art. 100t, par. 3 of the POSA, the Parent Company discloses regulated information to the public through a selected media service. All of the information provided to that media, is available in full and unedited form on <http://www.x3news.com/>. As of 31.12.2025, the Group continued to conduct active commercial operations through all directly owned subsidiaries of the Parent Company and had a positive net assets worth of BGN 52,710 thousand.

The results and the cash flows from the activities of the Group are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income and the consolidated statement of cash flows and analysed in sections II.2-II.3 and II.5 below.

The financial position, the factors behind the formation and the observed changes in the value of the assets, liabilities and equity of the Group are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position and analysed in section II.4 below.

II.2 Revenues

Marking a new historical maximum for the Group, consolidated net sales revenue for 2025 reached BGN 283,352 thousand, growing 27% or BGN 60,379 thousand over 2024.

The biggest factor behind achieved growth were the sales recorded by TBS EAD, which increased by 37% or BGN 57,845¹ thousand mostly owing to big new projects in the fields of IT Infrastructure and Cybersecurity and clients in the Bulgarian public sector, while the company also continued to generate substantial revenues from the local enterprise and telecom sectors and cross-border markets. Consequently, TBS EAD reaffirmed its leading role in the formation of Group revenues with a growing share of 76% (as compared to 71% in 2024).

Growing by 26% or BGN 7,177 thousand¹ and maintaining a share of 12% of consolidated revenues, the combined sales of Sedam IT and Telelink Business Services Croatia DOO (UIN 081341811) also stood out with a significant contribution to the Group's growth, both taking into account the only three quarters including Sedam IT as a subsidiary last year (after its acquisition on 29.03.2024) and owing to a big new IT Infrastructure project in the Croatian public sector and the significant increase in sales to an enterprise client of the company outside Croatia.

With a relatively insignificant increase by 1% or BGN 231 thousand¹, the business pool of Comutel, Telelink Bosnia and Telelink Slovenia maintained an overall level of sales comparable to 2024, reflecting the counterbalancing trends of growing cross-border deliveries to a big client from the Greek telecom sector and decreasing sales in the context of changing ownership in other key accounts in Serbia. Against the growing consolidated revenues, the pool registered a lower but still significant share of 10% (as compared to 12% in 2024).

Across other subsidiaries, the Group registered negative changes related to the abandonment of its business development efforts in TBS Romania (which realized immaterial current revenues of BGN 21 thousand against the substantial sales of BGN 1,131 thousand¹ for 2024), discontinued contracts and client relationships in TBS Germany (which registered a nearly sevenfold decrease of BGN 1,344 thousand¹ pursuant to the layoff of its local sales, marketing and technical service teams in the course of 2024 and 2025), TBS Macedonia (which registered a decrease of 35% or BGN 1,945 thousand¹ to just 1% of consolidated sales in the absence of big projects in 2025) and TBS USA (registering a 30% or BGN 475 thousand¹ decrease to less than 1% of consolidated revenues).

II.3 Expenses and profitability

II.3.1 Gross profit

With the benefit of a 0.3% stronger gross margin of 21.7%, consolidated gross profit registered even faster (as compared to revenues) relative growth of 29% and an absolute increase by BGN 13,785 thousand, reaching BGN 61,429 thousand.

The main factor behind the consolidated gross margin improvement was the growing profitability of revenues in Croatia, where the combination of the growing and highly profitable sales of Sedam IT and the fading low-margin sales of Telelink Business Services Croatia DOO (UIN 081341811) resulted in a more than 10% higher average margin as compared to 2024. Together with the positive effect of going revenues in TBS EAD, the activities of Sedam IT was also one of the leading factors for the absolute increase in consolidated gross profit, making up for the predominantly negative changes therein across the rest of the Group.

II.3.2 Sales and marketing expenses

Notwithstanding their relative slowdown against the 36% increase recorded in 2024 and its decreasing ratio towards revenues (8.2%, as compared to 8.6% in 2024), consolidated sales and marketing expenses still registered a significant annual increase by 21% or BGN 4,079 thousand, reaching BGN 23,147 thousand.

The main source of this increase was the allocation of significant efforts towards pre-sales activities in conjunction with current and targeted sales in Sedam IT in 2025 and the effect of the first full annual cycle of consolidating the company after its acquisition on 29.03.2024. Another significant factor were the expanding activities of the Parent Company and TBS EAD along the lines of business development initiatives outside Southeastern Europe, the training of new employees in the "TBS Academy", pre-sales processes and the development of innovative offerings in new product areas such as Data and AI.

Notwithstanding their comparatively limited size, the layoff of nearly all local personnel in Romania, Germany and the USA in the course of 2024 and 2025 pursuant to the reorientation of the Group's strategy for local business development on these markets towards the acquisition of new subsidiaries contributed to material reductions, making up for a part of the above increases.

II.3.3 General and administrative expenses

Showing a much more pronounced slowdown from the 40% increase recorded in 2024 and decrease in proportion to revenues (5.8%, as compared to 6.8% in 2024), consolidated general and administrative expenses increased by only 9% or BGN 1,388 thousand, reaching BGN 16,461 thousand.

The main factor behind this increase were the activities and personnel of the Parent Company and TBS EAD, including the hiring or reallocation of employees to internal administrative functions and the growing cost of external services related to potential acquisitions and, mostly, to the process of acquiring Actual IT. While it was also a material factor, growth registered in Sedam IT was entirely a reflection of the company's later consolidation after its acquisition in 2024.

Similarly to sales and marketing expenses, the above increases were partly offset by the reduction of costs in Romania and Germany pursuant to the layoff of local personnel and the reorientation of the Group's strategy for local business development on these markets towards the acquisition of new subsidiaries.

II.3.4 Operating profit and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (EBITDA)

Favoured by the faster growth in gross profit as compared to sales and marketing and general and administrative expenses and in spite of significantly lower other operating revenues (BGN 1,107 thousand below the high revenues from EU program grants and extraordinary revenues from adjudicated receivables on civil litigations recorded in 2024), consolidated operating profit increased by 48% or BGN 7,211 thousand, reaching BGN 22,093 thousand at an improving margin of 7.8% (as compared to 6.7% in 2024).

Accounting for the net negative impact of the increase in depreciation and amortization expenses by BGN 1,252 thousand and the BGN 2,039 thousand increase in non-interest finance costs explained in section II.3.5, EBITDA registered a relatively lower but nonetheless significant increase by 31% or BGN 6,424 thousand to BGN 26,987 thousand at an improving margin of 9.5% (as compared to 9.2% in 2024).

II.3.5 Financial income and expenses

Occurring mainly as a result of the sharp decrease in the net result from foreign currency operations by BGN 1,832 thousand due to the negative effect of the forward-based hedging of equipment purchases in US dollars recorded in the context of a declining exchange rate against the Euro, the growth in net non-interest finance costs mentioned in section II.3.4 above was the main factor behind the more than twofold increase in overall net finance costs by BGN 1,946 thousand to BGN 3,370 thousand or 1.2% of consolidated revenues (as compared to 0.6% in 2024).

In their remaining part, finance costs exhibited a slight decrease owing to lower net interest costs, reflecting the lower average exposure under revolving credit and overdraft limits as compared to 2024, when the Group recorded substantially higher and more prolonged peaks in its net working capital.

II.3.6 Net profit

Reflecting the much larger increase in operating profit as compared to net finance costs and a slight decrease in the effective tax rate from 13.6% to 13.2%, consolidated net profit increased by 40% or BGN 4,634 thousand, reaching BGN 16,249 thousand at an improving margin of 5.7% (as compared to 5.2% in 2024).

II.4 Assets, liabilities and equity

II.4.1 Assets

In parallel with growing sales, consolidated assets registered a substantial increase by 22% or BGN 38,962 thousand against 31.12.2024, reaching BGN 215,587 thousand.

The above increase originated entirely from current assets, which grew by 32% or BGN 41,986 thousand to BGN 171,813 thousand along the lines of trade and other receivables, contract assets, inventories accumulated on projects in the process of implementation and with regard to forthcoming deliveries in 2026, and the substantial increase in cash and cash equivalents as a result of the growing operating profit realized by the Group and the decrease in net working capital recorded against 31.12.2024.

Reflecting the significant slowdown in capital expenditures as compared to 2024, when TBS EAD recorded not only the usual purchases of equipment for customers under managed service agreements but also significant investments in furniture, improvements and fit-out works on new office areas, non-current assets registered a moderate decrease by 6% or BGN 3,024 thousand to BGN 43,774 thousand, as depreciation and amortization outweighed the addition of new tangible and intangible fixed assets.

II.4.2 Liabilities

Similarly to assets, total liabilities registered a substantial increase by 18% or BGN 24,752 thousand to BGN 162,877 thousand attributable entirely to the Group's current obligations, which increased by 27% or BGN 31,863 thousand to BGN 149,602 thousand.

For the most part, the latter increase reflected the Group's trading activities, wherein advances received making part of contract liabilities, accrued project costs making part of trade and other payables and income tax liabilities registered substantially larger combined growth as compared to the decrease in trade payables in specific, while, in spite of significant growth in short-term Interest-bearing loans and borrowings in Bulgaria due to the additional investment loan tranche on deferred payments for the acquisition of Sedam IT (as described in section XII.8.1.2 of this Report) and working capital financing utilized by the Parent Company and TBS EAD, their overall increase was relatively limited by the repayment of all credit line obligations in Sedam IT itself.

Notwithstanding the above-mentioned second tranche of funding for the acquisition of Sedam IT, long-term Interest-bearing loans and borrowings registered a slight decrease due to the larger overall repayments of the investment loan during the year. Adding to the net amortization of obligations from rental and operating lease contracts recognized under IFRS 16, decreasing long-term deferred income and the transition of the obligation for a second conditional deferred payment on the acquisition of Sedam IT (due no later than July 2026) towards current liabilities, the above decrease contributed to the significant reduction of total non-current liabilities by 35% or BGN 7,111 thousand to BGN 13,275 thousand.

II.4.2.1 Financial debt

Summing outstanding obligations from the investment loan (BGN 6,900 thousand), newly signed finance lease contracts on the acquisition of vehicles (BGN 104 thousand) and utilized short-term facilities for revolving credit and overdraft (BGN 12,644 thousand), consolidated financial debt as of 31.12.2025 amounted to BGN 19,648 thousand, registering a moderate increase by 6% or BGN 1,179 thousand and a diminishing ratio of 9% of total assets (as compared to 10% at the end of 2024).

Accounting for the more than twice higher amount of cash and cash equivalents (BGN 50,217 thousand) and their substantial increase by 101% or BGN 25,238 thousand as compared to 2024, consolidated net financial debt (the difference between financial debt and cash and cash equivalents) registered an overall reduction of BGN 24,060 thousand, with the Group ending 2025 in a net cash position (surplus of cash over financial debt) of BGN 30,569 thousand.

Obligations recognized by the Group from operating lease and rental contracts as per IFRS 16 do not represent actual credit relationships and are not considered by the Parent Company and the Group's management as financial debt.

II.4.3 Liquidity

As of period end, the Group recorded a surplus of current assets over current liabilities in the amount of BGN 22,211 thousand, representing an increase of 84% or BGN 10,123 thousand from 31.12.2024.

Accounting for the faster growth in current assets as compared to current liabilities, the Group registered an increase in current liquidity from 1.10 to 1.15. At the same time, the leading part of cash and cash equivalents, trade and other receivables and contract assets in the increase of current assets and their faster combined growth (by 35%) as compared to current liabilities as a whole (27%) led to further improvements in quick and immediate liquidity ratios to 1.00 and 0.34 (from 0.94 and 0.21 at the end of 2024).

II.4.4 Equity

In the absence of dividend distributions out of the Group, the consolidated equity of BGN 52,710 thousand recorded as of 31.12.2025 exhibited a significant increase by 37% or BGN 14,210 thousand reflecting mostly the difference between net profit for the year (BGN 16,249 thousand) and the negative effect of the buyback of own shares by TBSG AD (BGN 2,307 thousand).

As of period end, the Parent Company maintained unchanged its registered share capital of BGN 12,500 thousand and its Reserve Fund (which reached the maximum requirement of 10% of the registered capital or BGN 1,250 thousand as per art. 246 of the Commercial Code in 2022), while, summing the latter and the corresponding subsidiary funds subject to consolidation, the Group accounted total legal reserves in the amount of BGN 1,371 thousand.

Showing an overall decrease by BGN 2,275 thousand mostly as a result of the share buyback referred above, the rest of the Group's capital reserves and components of equity reached a total value of BGN (15,622) thousand, which continued to include mostly the negative effect of BGN (13,717) thousand pursuant to the reporting of a business combination under common control upon the Parent Company's Reorganization from 14.08.2019 and its adjustment for the impairment of its investment in TBS Montenegro in 2023, specialized currency translation reserves and effects from share-based incentive programs and plans, including shares bought back for the purposes of their implementation in previous periods.

Augmented by the amount of net profit referred above, the accumulated financial result from the current and previous years making part of equity as of 31.12.2025 reached a total of BGN 54,940 thousand.

Reflecting the faster growth rate of equity as compared to assets, the Group registered an improvement of its balance sheet capitalization (ratio of equity to total assets) to 24% (from 22% at the end of 2024).

II.5 Cash flows

II.5.1 Cash flow from operating activities

Recording both a significant increase in cash-adjusted operating profit and a significant decrease in net working capital before financing, the Group realized a 75% stronger net cash flow from operating activities in the amount of BGN 35,648 thousand, as compared to the corresponding result of BGN 20,421 thousand for 2024.

II.5.2 Cash flow from investing activities

While it continued to include significant cash outflows on investments in equipment for clients under managed service agreements and purposes of the Group's ordinary activities, as well as for the first conditional deferred payment on the acquisition of Sedam IT, the negative net cash outflow from investing activities of BGN (5,308) thousand recorded for the period exhibited a more than threefold decrease from the corresponding result of BGN (16,272) thousand for 2024, when the Group invested significantly more in the upfront payment on the acquisition of Sedam IT, fit-out works, improvements and furnishing of a new office in TBS EAD and the procurement of computer equipment for internal purposes as compared to 2025.

II.5.3 Cash flow from financing activities

Reflecting the limited net proceeds from the drawdown and repayment of financial debt pointed out in section II.4.2 and the substantially larger payments on leases, interest and the buyback of shares during the year referred to in sections I.3, II.4.4 and IX.1, the Group recorded a net cash outflow from financing activities of BGN (5,102) thousand representing a negative change of BGN (11,841) thousand from the positive cash flow of BGN 6,739 thousand recorded in 2024 with the benefit of net proceeds from the funding of the upfront payment on the acquisition of Sedam IT.

II.5.4 Net cash flow

Altogether, the increasingly positive net cash flow from operations and the lower cash outflows from investment activities helped to meet lease payments, the service of interest and repayment schedules for financial debt and the share buyback made during the year with a significant surplus (net cash flow) of BGN 25,238 thousand, representing a more than twofold increase against the corresponding result of BGN 10,888 thousand for 2024.

III MAIN RISKS FACED BY THE GROUP

The risks associated with the Parent Company and the Group's activities can be generally divided into systemic (common) and non-systemic (related specifically to their activities and the sector, in which they operate).

III.1 Systemic Risks

Common (systemic) risks are those that relate to all economic entities in the country and are the result of factors, which are external to the Group and cannot be influenced by the companies included in its composition. The main methods for limiting the impact of these risks are the reporting and analysis of current information and the forecasting of future developments by common and specific indicators and their impact on the activities and financial results of the Group.

III.1.1 Political risk

Political risk is the possibility of a sudden change in the country's policy pursuant to a change of the government, the occurrence of internal political instability and adverse changes in European and/or national legislation, as a result of which the economic and investment climate and the overall environment in which local business entities operate may change adversely and investors may suffer losses.

The international political risks for Bulgaria and the Western Balkans include the challenges related to undertaken commitments to implement structural reforms, improve social stability and the standard of living, reduce inefficient expenses and follow common policies in their capacity of candidate members or members of the EU, as well as to the threats of terrorist attacks in Europe, military interventions and conflicts in the region of the former Soviet Union and the Middle East, the refugee waves driven by these factors and the potential instability of other key countries near the Balkans.

Other factors relevant to this risk include potential legislative changes, and particularly those affecting the economic and investment climate in the region.

From the beginning of 2025, a potentially significant risk has also emerged from the actual and potential steps of the government of the USA towards the implementation of a protectionist tariff policy and the decrease or withdrawal of political and military support for the member countries of NATO, the EU and Europe as a whole, having possibly significant consequences to the security and governmental spending related to defence and other sectors of the economies of Bulgaria and the EU as a whole.

III.1.2 Macroeconomic risk

The general macroeconomic risk is the probability of various economic factors and trends, including, but not limited to recession, trade barriers, currency changes, inflation, deflation and other factors, affecting negatively demand and purchasing power in the countries where Group companies carry out their activities, as well as in the countries where cross-border counterparties thereof operate.

In spite of the gradual slowdown of inflation since the end of 2023, the tariff policy implemented by the USA from the beginning of 2025 and the escalating conflicts in the Middle East have given rise to significant risks of its resurgence and/or the entry into a phase of recession both in the USA and all other national economies affected thereby, including the country members of the EU.

III.1.3 Currency risk

The systemic currency risk is the probability of changes in the currency regimes or exchange rates of foreign to the local currencies in the countries where Group companies operate affecting adversely the costs, profitability, international competitiveness and general stability of economic agents and the local and regional economy as a whole.

Following more than 27 years of strict adherence to a currency board system based on a fixed Euro / Lev exchange rate, Bulgaria effectively entered the Eurozone on 01.01.2026. The Euro has also been adopted as a benchmark for managed floating, fixing base or local currency in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Slovenia and Croatia. The above factors limit substantially the systemic currency risk relevant to the Group. However, the countries in which it operates, as well as European economies as a whole remain exposed to the effects of the exchange rate dynamics of other leading global currencies, including mostly the US dollar.

III.1.4 Interest risk

The Systemic interest risk relates to possible changes in the interest rate levels, established by the financial institutions and markets of the countries where Group companies operate, the world's leading economies the EU, affecting adversely the accessibility of financing, funding costs, investment returns and economic growth.

In the context of the anti-inflationary measures applied by the leading global economies and the EU, the period of 2022-2023 was marked by a general trend of significant increases in all main local and international interest indexes. In spite of the reversal of the above trend towards a decrease and stabilization of EURIBOR and a continuing decrease of SOFR in 2024-2025, the attained levels remain material and the possibility of further raises in case of a new wave of accelerated inflation, deterioration in the trade balances and balances of payments and/or downgrades of the credit ratings in the EU and/or the USA remains outstanding.

III.1.5 Credit risk

Systemic credit risk is the probability lowering the credit ratings of the countries in which Group companies or key counterparties thereof operate, or other countries important to their economies, affecting adversely the accessibility and cost of debt financing, the stability and attractiveness of their economies. This risk is determined and measured by specialized international credit agencies.

III.1.6 Risk of adverse changes in tax legislation and practices

Changes in tax legislation towards increasing tax rates, the adoption of new taxes or adverse changes in double tax treaties may lead to increased or unforeseen costs of the economic agents.

Similar risks may also arise from unforeseen or controversial tax practices in Bulgaria and/or other countries, in which Group companies operate.

III.1.7 Risks related to imperfections of the legal system

Although since 2007 Bulgaria has introduced a number of significant legal and constitutional reforms and most of its legislation has been harmonized with EU law, the country's legal system is still in the process of reformation. The above concern is all the more relevant to the countries of the Western Balkans, which are yet to join the EU.

Judiciary and administrative practices remain problematic and local courts are often inefficient in resolving property disputes, violations of laws and contracts, etc. Consequently, identified risks of legal infrastructure deficiencies may result in uncertainties arising from corporate conduct, the supervision thereof and other matters.

III.2 Risks specific to the Group and the sector in which it operates

III.2.1 Risks relative to the business strategy and growth

III.2.1.1 Inappropriate business strategy

The choice of an inappropriate development strategy, as well as a failure to adapt it in a timely manner to the changing conditions of the environment can lead to losses and missed benefits for the Group. The management of strategic risk through the constant supervision and periodic tracking of fluctuations in the market environment and key performance indicators and the interaction among all levels in the organization in order to identify potential problems and implement the appropriate measures in a timely manner are of essential importance. Although this process has been recognized as of high priority and importance, it is possible that the Group's management and employees prove limited in the implementation of the above practices due to a lack of experience, timely information or insufficiency of human resources.

III.2.1.2 Insufficient management capacity and increased growth management costs

Notwithstanding the availability of managerial staff with significant experience and competence sufficient to manage the Group in its current business size and scale, targeted expansion can require additional management. It is part of the Group's policy to cultivate such staff by promoting employees with sufficient experience and highly esteemed aptitude to grow in hierarchy. However, the number of suitable employees is limited and some of them may not meet the expectations on a managerial level. In turn, recruiting management staff with proven track record externally, especially on developed markets, can be difficult and may entail high costs with a potentially negative impact on profitability.

III.2.1.3 Insufficient capacity and increased costs for the operational assurance of growth

The Group's expansion on both existing and new markets is highly dependent on the recruitment and successful integration of additional staff, including centralized and local teams of marketing and sales specialists and resource hubs for project management, engineering and technical personnel.

Identifying and recruiting appropriate marketing and sales professionals with the aim to attract new customers can be difficult, slow, or involve additional costs, which may slow growth or reduce sales profitability. Considering the overall growth trend and increased demand for engineering, technical and project staff in the ICT sector on the Group's markets and globally, the expansion of existing and the development of new resource centers may also be slowed down or may require higher costs. The lack of experience at Group companies on new markets and segments, the shortage and increased price competition for the recruitment of personnel, can also result in high staff turnover due to recruitment of unsuitable specialists or solicitation by competitors that offer levels of remuneration, which the Group cannot afford to profitability match.

All of the above factors can lead to both missed benefits due to the impossibility to win and secure the implementation of new projects, services and customers, and the erosion or loss of the Group's competitive advantages based on the quality of service, number and cost of human resources.

III.2.1.4 Insufficient access and increased cost of external resources and subcontractors

As far as external experts and subcontractors are also subject to increased demand on the ICT market, the risks outlined above also apply to the recruitment of such on a temporary basis to complement the Group's internal capacity.

III.2.1.5 Risks stemming from acquisitions

While aimed at boosting the Group's value and cash flows by accelerating the development and growth of the Group on existing and new markets and/or complementing its marketing and operational capacity with valuable technological specializations, client and vendor partnerships and human resources and notwithstanding the Parent Company's endeavor to negotiate such transactions in accordance with best practices, basing their valuation with the realistic potential risk profile of acquired companies and their past, present and future financial results, retaining key personnel and including in the respective agreements protective mechanisms, undertakings and warranties by the seller to the maximum achievable extent, the acquisition of shares in other companies bears risks, which could delay or limit the achievement of desired financial and business results and/or have a negative impact on the Group. Among these, the integration of acquired companies in the operational structure of the Group may be delayed or prove to be incomplete, the established control mechanisms – insufficient, the planned preservation and/or expansion of the personnel, client base and sales as a whole may not realize in the expected timeline, size, scope and range of revenues, costs and profitability, planned synergies – realized only in part or not achieved, and the established pricing mechanisms and warranties of the seller – insufficient to compensate such and other delays, underperformance or negative effects. As a result of the above and other factors, the actual return on investment may deviate substantially from the expectations and goals of the management, proving lower or even negative.

III.2.2 Risks relative to human resources and managerial staff

Besides their importance to the Group's growth, management staff and human resources are also essential to the assurance of its ongoing operations, and the Group is therefore exposed to various risks relative to the retention, increased turnover and costs of such personnel.

III.2.2.1 Loss, deficit and increased costs of management staff and key personnel

The Group's operational management and business development depend to a large extent on the contribution of a limited number of individuals managing key subsidiaries and the Group as a whole, playing key roles in the administration, sales and operations and/or possessing key certifications, experience and other knowledge essential to these functions that could be difficult to replace with similarly qualified personnel.

A possible withdrawal of those persons from the relevant structures or their inability to fulfil their obligations over a long period of time could have adverse effects on the operating performance depending on the time of their absence or the time needed for their substitution and the training of their substitutes, their adequate familiarization with the organization and the specifics of the business and their full functional deployment. Possible retention measures could result in the increase of respective costs relative to their motivation through raises in base salaries, bonuses and benefits at the expense of the Group.

III.2.2.2 Loss, deficit and increased costs of implementation staff

Considering the dynamic development and high demand for human resources in the ICT sector, the Group is exposed to the risk of high turnover and costs of retaining or replacing engineering and technical staff, marketing and sales specialists, and other personnel specialized in this field. A possible withdrawal of a significant number of those persons from the relevant structures or their inability to fulfil their obligations over a long period of time could have adverse effects on the operating performance contingent on the time of their absence or the time needed for their substitution and the training of their substitutes, their adequate familiarization with the organization and the specifics of the business and their full functional deployment. Any possible retention measures could result in the increase of costs relative to their motivation through raises in base salaries, bonuses and benefits at the expense of the Group.

III.2.3 Risks relative to the market environment and competition

III.2.3.1 Slowdown or unfavourable trends in demand

Notwithstanding the observed positive development and positive growth forecasts by key expert organizations in the industry for key Group markets and the ICT market as a whole, there is no guarantee that future market developments will reaffirm these expectations and will continue to be positive or that the corresponding growth in demand will not slow down significantly compared to the expected growth rates for certain periods. The demand for ICT is also dependent on trends and circumstances specific to the various business sectors and customers that determine their willingness and ability to purchase the Group's products and services, which may differ in one direction or another from the overall market trend. This may include the possibility that the Group's target customers in one or more markets may not demonstrate interest in the products and services being offered as they were expected to, or their adoption might take much longer than expected. The aforementioned factors can lead to both a slowdown in sales growth and a deterioration in operating performance due to lower prices and gross profitability, as well as delayed return on operating and investment expenditures on business development.

III.2.3.2 Regulatory changes unfavourable to market demand

The Group generates a substantial part of its revenue from regulated or government policy-influenced sectors and market niches such as telecommunications, banking, distribution companies, national security, healthcare, etc. In that sense, demand for the Group's products and services, respectively its revenue and operating results, can be significantly influenced by possible adverse changes in local and supranational regulations and policies, including possible reduction or redirection to other areas of the EU and other structural funds which its current and target customers are eligible to utilize.

III.2.3.3 Intense competition

The Group operates in a sector characterized by intense competition from both local and international companies. Local competitors have an established market presence in key segments, which limits the possibilities to enter or expand the Group's operations in these segments and may serve as a basis for an expansion of the position of those competitors at the expense of the Group. Large international companies have widely recognized trademarks, a leading role in the implementation of innovative solutions and widely diversified customer base and market presence, as well as large-scale organizational and financial capacity that provides them with greater possibilities to exercise and withstand competitive pressures. A possible increase in competitive pressure on the part of existing or newly emerging market players in the current segments and markets, as well as any possible adverse reaction against the entry of the Group into new segments and markets, could result in decline in the performance and delays or failure of the planned expansion of operations.

III.2.3.4 Unfair competition

As a part of competitive pressure from other market players, the Group may be exposed to various forms of unfair competition that may impair the Group's performance and limit its expansion opportunities. Such actions may include soliciting key personnel with the aim to reduce its technical and organizational capacity, implying a negative image before certain customers or on the market as a whole, covert lobbying by and for the benefit of competitors, biased use of legal and contractual mechanisms with the aim to impede or delay the execution of public procurement and other activities, making competitive bids based on unprofitable prices or a hidden decrease in the utility offered, which may result in choices on the part of the Group's counterparties that deviate from the actual cost-benefit ratio between the offerings of the Group and its competitors.

III.2.4 Risks relative to public procurement

III.2.4.1 Delayed tendering and implementation

The implementation of projects in the public sector depends on their timely definition, the approval of budget or program financing, announcement and tendering, contracting and acceptance of performed works by the relevant governmental entities or local and central government. The failed or late implementation of any of these steps may result in discarded or delayed revenues and a corresponding deterioration in the Group's current performance or slowdown in its growth.

Factors that can lead to a delay at the aforementioned key stages include current and future changes in managerial and expert staff in the context of local and/or central elections, the appointment of temporary authorities and other factors, which may result in the postponement of decisions and executive action at the contracting organizations.

Delays may also arise as a result of appeals filed by competitors against tendering procedures announced or the results thereof. Regardless of their merits, considering the applicable statutory hearing terms, appeals result in more or less significant delays in tenders and the award of contracts for their implementation.

III.2.4.2 Competition for public procurement

Due to the large volume and attractiveness of the public ICT market, public procurement is subject to relatively more intensive and unfair competition compared to sales to the private sector. Commonly employed instruments of unfair competition include the unscrupulous use of legal means to appeal tendering procedures or the results thereof, with competitors aiming to procure more time for their own preparation or to affect negatively the Group's financial results by delaying the project's implementation and the realization of respective revenues and profits.

III.2.5 Concentration risks

III.2.5.1 Adverse changes in key client relationships

By virtue of its specialization in high-grade technological solutions and professional services targeted mostly at large and medium organizations and projects, the Group is inherently exposed to a concentration risk with regard to key clients and client groups. Such counterparties with substantial portions of the Group's revenues for the past three financial years and/or with potential significance to future development include telecommunication operators, public organizations, banks, multinational clients and other private enterprises. In spite of the Group's progress towards growing revenue diversification, the potential loss, a drastic decrease in sales or a deterioration in the terms of cooperation with such clients could have an adverse effect on the volume and results from operations in the short term, as well as a potentially negative reputational effect on the Group in perspective.

III.2.5.2 Adverse changes in relationships with key technological partners

Accounting for the significant importance of innovative and large-scale technologies offered by leading global vendors to the offered products and services, the Group is exposed to a concentration risk with regard to its key technological partners. Such counterparties accounting for substantial portions of the Group's purchases for the past three financial years include several leading vendors in the fields of networking, data center and office productivity solutions. Although the Group's vendor policy is flexible and open to various technological partners, a potential termination or a deterioration in key terms of such partnerships, such as requirements for the maintenance of technological specializations, levels of discounts, terms of payment, etc., could have an adverse effect on the cost and volume of operations.

III.2.6 Risks relative to changes in technology and technological choices

III.2.6.1 Time and cost of adapting to new technologies

The ICT sector is characterized by a fast pace of technological innovation, reducing the life cycle of products and requiring a constant update of the Group's technological specializations in accordance with trends in market demand and opportunities for generating revenue from the introduction of new solutions and services. Despite the Group's consistent practices in this respect and its open approach to establishing new and extending the scope of existing technological partnerships, in some cases they may require additional time or costs for researching and establishing relationships with relevant suppliers.

III.2.6.2 Loss of clients due to their transition to alternative technologies

Notwithstanding the wide range of technologies and technological partners offered by the Group and its open approach and extensive experience in establishing new partnerships with equipment and software vendors, customers may still opt to change current technologies and vendors with others with whom the Group does not have and cannot establish partnerships providing the respective competences and attractive delivery terms. Due to the presence of competitors with better positioning in respect of a technological partner and better delivery terms for their products, it is possible for the Group to not be preferred as a supplier by the client in spite of having an established partnership with the same vendor. Such circumstances could also lead to substantial decreases in revenues and operating results.

III.2.6.3 Delayed adoption of new technologies by the clients

The main geographical markets, in which the Group operates, are lagging behind in the adoption of many innovative ICT products and services. In spite of the market segmentation applied by the Group in accordance with the clients' technological maturity, it is possible for the target client groups to also react more conservatively than expected, delaying significantly the implementation of the Group's strategy and growth targets.

III.2.6.4 Delayed or unsuccessful positioning of proprietary products and services

To tap identified market opportunities in given market segments, the Group may continue to invest in the development of proprietary complex solutions and services adapted to the needs and specifics of the respective markets and client groups. Despite this adaptation, there is a risk that the new products and services will not meet the actual requirements or that they will not be adopted fast enough or at all by the Group's current and targeted clients, which could lead to a delayed, limited or negative return on the undertaken investments.

III.2.7 Risks relative to long-term contracts

III.2.7.1 Cost of commitments for regular service and support

Many contracts signed by the Group include commitments for warranty and post-warranty servicing and maintenance of hardware, software and complex systems and infrastructures, or the provision of managed and other services against fixed one-off or subscription fees. The costs of fulfilling these commitments may exceed the amount of revenue without the Group being able to compensate additional costs at the expense of the customer or the respective primary suppliers and technological partners, having an accordingly negative impact on results from operations.

III.2.7.2 Early termination

Medium and long-term contracts for multiple deliveries or regular service in the form of maintenance, managed and other services can be terminated unilaterally and early at the client's initiative. While some of these contracts include provisions limiting the above risk and respective losses for the Group, such as penalties, buyout commitments etc., they can prove insufficient to cover missed benefits or the incurred additional costs. The earlier termination of such contracts could lead to a decrease in the Group's recurring revenues, which may not be compensated with new sources of revenue and may lead to an overall decrease in sales and results from operations.

III.2.7.3 Specific risks relative to the provision of equipment as a service

Depending on changes in the IT policies of respective clients or other factors, the long-term contracts signed by the Group for managed services including the provision of equipment-as-a-service can be terminated unilaterally and prior to their expiry. Despite the provisions enforcing preliminary notices and compensations for expenses incurred up to that point, a potential termination could be a factor for a decrease in the Group's recurring revenues and overall sales.

Under certain circumstances of termination, some contracts provide a possibility for respectively leased equipment to remain the property of the Group instead of being bought out by the client. This could lead to additional costs for dismantling, transportation, etc., as well as delayed or non-materializing resale of the equipment to other clients.

Some contracts provide the option to expand their scope at the client's initiative through the delivery and integration of additional equipment provided as a service based on prices or conditions identical to or subject to limited indexation compared to the initial ones. If, in the meantime, the market price of the equipment has increased, and/or there has been a significant rise in the expenses for the provision of respective services, this could lead to an uncompensated increase in the Group's expenses and an overall decrease in the profitability of similar operations.

III.2.8 Financial risks

III.2.8.1 Currency risk

The Group operates on different markets and in currencies different from its functional currency, as well as in third-country currencies, and is accordingly exposed to transaction and translation currency risks. The main source of transaction-driven currency risk is the purchase of equipment from global technological partners denominated in US dollars and financed with credit limits in the same currency. Despite the presence of mechanisms of currency indexation in some contracts and the practice of voluntary forward hedging of larger purchases at the discretion of respective Group companies, such transactions continue to generate net results (including losses) from foreign currency operations in Group subsidiaries. Accounting for the long-standing fixed exchange rate of the Bulgarian Lev to the Euro and Bulgaria's recent accession to the Eurozone, the fixed exchange rate of the Bosnia and Herzegovina Convertible Mark to the Euro and the adoption of the latter as the national currency in Slovenia and Croatia, the Group is exposed to a translation risk relative mainly to the floating rates of the Serbian Dinar, Macedonian Denar and the US dollar.

III.2.8.2 Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to the risk of increase in market interest rates mainly with regard to the use of overdraft limits, revolving credit lines and investment loans based on floating interest indexes, including but not limited to EURIBOR, USD LIBOR / SOFR, reference and short-term interest rates (RIR, SIR) and average deposit indexes (ADI) of lending banks based on the variable yields on retail / household and/or non-financial enterprise deposits in Bulgaria, as well as of finance leases based on ADI and EURIBOR.

Due to the dynamic nature of overdraft and credit line exposures, their hedging with the financial instruments usually offered for that purpose, which are based predominantly or entirely on predetermined amounts over time, can involve significant deviations between the actual and hedged principals and expenses. Therefore, the Group does not resort to their hedging with financial instruments and assumes the risk of fluctuations in the applicable floating interest indexes, managing it mostly by the monitoring of market trends and the negotiation and/or renegotiation of the best possible interest terms. As of the date of this Report, this risk continues to show a mixed evolution, with market interest rates reflecting substantially the significant dynamics described in section III.1.4, while the floating interest rates of lending banks applicable to drawdowns in BGN remain in the range of 0.05-0.17%.

Considering the slowdown in inflation and economic growth and the reversal in interest rates growth in the EU starting from 2024, as of the date of this Report, the Parent Company's management deems the interest risk of investment bank loan exposures based on 3-month EURIBOR to be relatively limited and has not planned on the use of financial instruments for their hedging in the immediate term. Notwithstanding, it remains committed to the continuous monitoring of economic and credit market trends, maintaining its readiness for the potential hedging of exposures from tranches already utilized in their definitive amounts in case of an expected increase in this risk.

Interest risk can also manifest through increases in the contractual markups over the floating interest indexes making part of the total interest rates on utilized credit facilities subject to regular renewal, such as most of the overdraft limits and revolving credit lines used by the Group, at the initiative of the financing banks. Notwithstanding the efforts of the Parent Company and relevant subsidiaries to negotiate and maintain most attractive terms with current creditors and the procurement of competitive offers from other banks, such increases are often inevitable within a certain period of time, in case of migration between incumbent and new creditors, or as a whole, in case they reflect prevailing trends on the credit market. As of the date of this Report, this risk also exhibits a mixed development, with interest margins on some contracts and limits increasing substantially, while others remain unchanged or minimally different from previous periods.

III.2.8.3 Liquidity risk

The Group's cash flows can undergo significant momentary fluctuations as a result of various factors such as peaks in net working capital, increased investment activity, payment of dividends, etc., which may result in a given Group company's cash and cash equivalents being insufficient to meet its due liabilities. In spite of the signed financing contracts providing significant limits for funding working capital and the financing of a significant portion of investments with finance lease contracts, there is a risk that these limits may be insufficient in certain moments or periods. Such deficits may result in one or more Group companies' temporary inability to service its obligations to third parties in a timely manner with various adverse effects on its reputation and financial position.

III.2.8.4 Insufficient financial capacity for the implementation of big projects

Besides their impact on the current liquidity of respective Group companies, possible instances of uncovered cash deficits may also lead to the impossibility of committing the working capital need to start new projects or implement ongoing ones, resulting in delayed revenues, penalties for delayed implementation and respective damage to the Group's reputation. In the event that it is not possible to prove sufficient financial resources in front of potential clients or in accordance with the requirements of public and private tenders for large projects, the respective company may not be able to negotiate sufficient additional financing in due time and miss the opportunities to win the respective projects and the benefits of their implementation.

III.2.8.5 Credit risk

Although the Group's key accounts are well-established and solvent companies and institutions with proven payment track records, the Group remains generally exposed to the risk of significant delays or non-payment of receivables due to a variety of factors relative to internal processes, financial condition and current trends in the cash flows of those and other customers. Significant past-due receivables may affect the cash flows and immediate liquidity of one or more Group companies and its ability to service its obligations to third parties in due course with various adverse effects on its reputation and financial condition.

III.2.8.6 Asset impairment risk

Under certain circumstances (such as impairment and write-off of receivables, intangible assets, investment property, inventories, held-for-sale assets, etc.), it is possible for the Group to record substantial expenses and reductions in the book value of its assets.

III.2.9 Operational risks

III.2.9.1 Deviations in processes and quality of service

Group companies are exposed to the risk of losses or unforeseen costs that may arise due to incorrect or inoperative internal processes, human errors, external circumstances, administrative or accounting errors, business interruptions, fraud, unauthorized transactions and asset damages. Any failure of the risk management system to identify or correct an operational risk may have a substantial adverse effect on the Group's reputation and operating results.

III.2.9.2 Inaptitude or malfunction of specific IT equipment and systems

In carrying out their principal activities, Group companies use specific IT equipment and systems, any potential malfunction, misuse or inaptitude of which would have a substantial impact on their ability to fulfil undertaken commitments to counterparties or which may result in unforeseen technical, legal and other costs affecting negatively the Group's reputation and operating results.

III.2.9.3 Assuring compliance with standards and norms

Certain Group clients require their suppliers to ascertain the compliance of their competence and rules for the organization of processes and activities with various international quality management standards, procedures for the handling of confidential information, etc. Notwithstanding the certification of TBS EAD under a number of such standards and norms, the imposition of similar requirements on other Group companies not having the corresponding certifications, or a change in the current requirements and the inability of the Group to respond thereto on a short notice could have a negative impact on the Group's revenue and operating results.

III.2.9.4 Leakage of personal and sensitive information of clients and employees

In the process of carrying out its activities, the Group stores and processes personal and sensitive data of its employees, customers and third parties. Any loss or unauthorized external and internal access and misuse of such data could have various negative consequences to the competitiveness, reputation and performance of the Group, including judicial or out-of-court proceedings and proceedings against respective subsidiaries and substantial pecuniary sanctions by the relevant authorities.

III.2.10 Other risks

III.2.10.1 Litigation risk

Group companies are generally exposed to the risk of litigation, including collective claims filed against them by clients, employees, shareholders, etc. by the initiation of civil actions, actions by competent authorities, administrative, enforcement and other types of judicial and extrajudicial proceedings. Some of these proceedings may be accompanied by restrictive and enforcement measures against the Group's assets and activities that could limit its ability to carry out a part or all of its activities for an indefinite period of time. Plaintiffs in similar cases against the Group may seek refund of large or undetermined amounts or other damages that could significantly deteriorate the Group's financial position. The defence costs in future court cases can be significant. Public information on such events or their negative business impact may impair the reputation of respective subsidiaries and the Group as a whole, regardless of whether or not the underlying claims and negative rulings are justified. The potential financial and other consequences of such proceedings may remain unknown for an extensive period of time.

III.2.10.2 Risks relative transactions with related parties

In the course of their business, Group companies carry out transactions and make commitments to each other as well as to related parties outside its membership. In spite of its endeavor to follow good practices in the implementation of such deals and the commitment to comply with the applicable provisions of the POSA and other applicable regulations, it is possible because of ignorance, employee negligence, etc. that one or more such transactions may be concluded under conditions deviating substantially from market terms, which could have an adverse effect on the results of the Group's operations and its financial position.

III.2.10.3 Cyber attacks

In addition to unauthorized access to data of the Group and its counterparties, possible attacks against the Group and its counterparties could be targeted at or result in a malfunction or inability to use information and communication systems, including specialized IT systems for the provision of services. Although the Group specializes in information security and has advanced competences in preventing, limiting, monitoring and recovering systems and data in the aftermath of such attacks, the latter may take some time, during which the effects of these attacks may affect adversely operating results and compromise the Group's reputation.

III.2.10.4 Force majeure

Like all economic agents, the Group is exposed to the general risk of natural disasters, hostilities, terrorism, political, public and other acts and events beyond its control and not subject to insurance, which could have a substantial adverse effect on business, the results of its activities and prospects in one or more territorial and other business domains.

III.3 Military conflicts in Ukraine and Iran

Consequent to the ongoing war in Ukraine, the military campaign of Israel and the USA against Iran and Iran's retaliatory actions against neighbouring Middle East countries, both increased geopolitical tension and various economic repercussions have ensued, including restrictions or halt on the activities of companies based in the affected countries and increases in the prices of energy and other raw materials, affecting directly or indirectly the activities of many companies and industries in the European Union and the USA.

The Issuer and its subsidiaries have no direct exposure to related parties, clients and/or suppliers from the countries involved in these conflicts. Therefore, the Group is not deemed to be directly exposed to risks arising from the above events.

As of now, both conflicts remain of unclear outcome and equivocal potential consequences to economies as a whole and specific economic activities in Europe and the USA.

Considering the above, the Parent Company's management is of the opinion that the premises and conditions are still lacking to conduct a reliable quantitative assessment of the potential indirect impact of respective changes in the micro- and macroeconomic environment on the Group's financial position and results. Nevertheless, it remains committed to the ongoing monitoring of the situation and analysis of the possible future consequences of the conflicts with a view to the timely identification of potential and actual negative effects and the undertaking of all possible measures towards limiting their effect.

IV INFORMATION ON ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

Overall, the Group's core operations are not related to activities with significant direct impact on the environment.

Physical activities carried out in relation to system integration, delivery and maintenance are limited to the transportation, installation and setup, replacement or repair of on-site ICT equipment and materials, and do not include construction activities on the deployment or reorganization of infrastructures, premises and complex facilities. By their nature and scope, the transport, installation and repairment activities performed do not entail significant environmental risks.

To the extent legal norms apply to the recycling and disposal of retired ICT equipment and materials, the respective liabilities and risks for the Group arise only to the extent such equipment is owned by Group companies or they have made contractual commitments for the performance of respective operations on behalf of and at the expense of the client.

In the case of services limited to the delivery, system integration on a project basis and support, the property, risks and obligations associated with the operation, disposal and recycling of the delivered equipment are transferred to the client at the time of fulfilment of the delivery or integration activities under the project.

In the case of providing Managed Services including the provision of Equipment as a Service, the equipment remains property of the Group. To this extent, the Group companies providing such services undertake contractual and legal obligations for the safe operation, removal and disposal or recycling of respective ICT equipment and materials.

Insofar as the nature and scope of the use of ICT equipment does not entail significant environmental risks, the probability of occurrence of environmental problems that may affect the use of ICT equipment owned by the Group for the provision of services or for internal purposes is insignificant.

V INFORMATION ON EMPLOYEE-RELATED MATTERS AND INTANGIBLE RESOURCES

V.1 Trends in the number and evolution of personnel

As of 31.12.2025, the total active personnel hired under employment and management contracts in Group companies reached 461, decreasing by 14 people or 3% from the end of 2024.

The main factors behind this decrease were the optimization of activities in Croatia, both relating to the operational organization of Sedam IT and consequent to the merger of Telelink Business Services Croatia DOO (UIN 081341811), and the layoff of nearly all local personnel in Romania and Germany after the reorientation of the Group's strategy for local business development on these markets towards the acquisition of new subsidiaries.

With a growing share of 68% (as compared to 63% at the end of 2024), the majority of the Group's headcount continued to consist of personnel employed on the territory of Bulgaria, which maintained its leading role in realized services and continued to concentrate the main functions relative to the Group's management and business development, followed by Croatia (22%), which successfully affirmed itself as the second biggest market in terms of revenues and resource hub of the Group.

V.2 Organizational policy and human resources management

Recognizing the need to assure resources for the efficient implementation of its strategic development goals, the Group has continued to apply a matrix organizational structure with the goal of integrating the available human resources of Group companies into a seamless international service delivery organization.

Inherently, the operations of Group companies involve a relatively limited scope of field activities presenting substantial risks to the health and safety of employees. Notwithstanding, Group Companies apply a consistent policy of occupational health and safety, including the assurance of appropriate working conditions and the training of employees according to the profile of their work.

The management of TBSG AD has recognized the foremost importance of human capital as a key factor of the Group's competitive advantage and capacity to materialize market opportunities, both in terms of innovation and quality of the offered solutions and services and as regards the administrative and managerial assurance of its development strategy.

In consideration of the above factors, the Group maintains its general policy of human capital development based on systematic qualification improvement and update, the promotion of career development and the motivation, retention and loyalty of key personnel.

V.3 Information on the main intangible resources and explanation of the dependence of the company's business model thereon, as well as of the way such resources generate value to the company

In accordance with the specialization of the operating subsidiaries making part of the Group in the provision of IT services, the main intangible resources underlying its business model represent combinations of the experience and qualification of its sales experts and technical engineering staff, the accumulated technical engineering and marketing data knowledge base, the implemented organizational structures and processes for direct and indirect business assurance and the recognition of the above factors based on formal certifications and/or informal impressions and relationships with clients and suppliers.

The main lines combining and reflecting the above combination of factors include the:

- technological partnerships with producers of IT equipment and software, including but not limited to the formal certifications and awards received from the respective vendors;
- pre-sales process experience, including but not limited to the participation (individually or in partnerships with other providers) in public procurement tenders and other structured processes of competitive bidding in accordance with good practices and applicable legislation;
- own service organization covering the lifecycle of consulting, implementation and support, combining the accordingly qualified human resources with the practices and processes adopted and developed internally by the Group;
- organization and processes of standardization and governance, risk and compliance, covering the requirements of clients, partners and suppliers;

- accumulated experience in the implementation and management of deliveries of goods, services and complex projects with a main emphasis on large and medium projects combining various technologies, systems and services.

As far as the Parent Company's business activities include the acquisition of shares in subsidiaries and associates, part of the intangible resources underlying the Group's business model are also the management's and the personnel's experience in the consolidation of companies from different jurisdictions and the respective investment processes, including but not limited to the expertise in the field of IFRS, the due diligence, analysis and valuation of companies, transaction negotiations and documentation, capital structuring, investment funding and communication with consultants and intermediaries.

VI SIGNIFICANT EVENTS AFTER THE DATE OF COMPILATION OF THE CONSOLIDATED ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In accordance with the Law on the Introduction of the Euro in the Republic of Bulgaria (LIERB), effective from 1 January 2026, the official monetary unit and legal tender in the Republic of Bulgaria is the euro. The fixed exchange rate is BGN 1.95583 to EUR 1. The introduction of the euro as the official currency in the Republic of Bulgaria constitutes a change in the functional currency, which will be accounted for prospectively and does not constitute an event after the date of the consolidated financial statements requiring adjustment.

In accordance with the Law on the Introduction of the Euro in the Republic of Bulgaria (LIERB), on 01.01.2026 the Commercial Register and the Register of Non-Profit Legal Entities entered an official currency conversion of the Parent Company's registered capital from BGN 12,500,000 to EUR 6,375,000, equivalent to 12,500,000 shares with a nominal value of EUR 0.51 each. Following the applicable provisions of the LIERB, the EUR 16,148.51 currency translation difference between this amount and the exact equivalent of BGN 12,500,000 (EUR 6,391,148.51) was allocated to the Parent Company's retained earnings and will be reflected in the Parent Company's notification on an individual basis for the first quarter of 2026. A respective resolution to amend the Articles of Association of the Parent Company was adopted by the GMS on 11.02.2026.

On 21.01.2026, the Parent Company, in its capacity of sole owner, extended the mandate of the current members of the Board of Directors of TBS EAD (Ivan Zhitiyanov, Ivo Rusev and Jordanka Klenovska) until 29.01.2031 and amended the company's Articles of Association in accordance with the LIERB in order to reflect the currency translation of its registered capital, updating the amount of the latter in accordance with the provisions of the LIERB to EUR 510,000, distributed in 1,000,000 euro shares with a nominal value of EUR 0.51 each.

On 04.02.2026, the Parent Company, in its capacity of sole owner, adopted a resolution to revoke the mandate of Florin Iovu and appoint as administrator of TBS Romania TMF Romania SRL, represented by Radu – Cristian Plop and Ionel – Gabriel Sincu.

On 11.02.2026, an EGMS of the Parent Company was held, whereby a decision was adopted to buy back up to 374,900 own shares until 31.12.2026 at a minimum and maximum price of EUR 3.78 and EUR 7.67 per share and authorize the MB to adopt and conduct, within the specified number of shares, term and price range and in accordance with applicable law, an unlimited number of procedures and decisions regarding the timeframe, minimum and maximum price, investment intermediary and all other parameters of the buyback for each separate procedure.

Full minutes of the meeting are available at: <https://www.tbs.tech/wp-content/uploads/2026/02/TBSG-Meeting-Minutes-%D0%95GMS-11022026-Signed-1.pdf>.

On 28.02.2026, the USA and Israel launched offensive military actions against Iran, followed by accompanying attacks against parts of Lebanon, Syria and Iraq, leading to retaliatory strikes by Iran against multiple other countries in the region.

Comments on the impact of the conflict on the global economic environment and the Group are included in section III.3 above.

On 30.03.2026, the MB of TBSG AD approved the separate annual financial statements and the separate management report of the Parent Company for 2025.

The statements and the report were published on 31.03.2026 and are available at: <https://www.tbs.tech/wp-content/uploads/2026/04/Telelink-Business-Services-Group-AD-FS-2025-s-1.pdf>.

VII RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

During the year, TBS EAD allocate internal resources towards the development of a modern monitoring and observability stack for the purposes of its security and network operation centres. Overall, respectively accrued expenditures on the formation of intangible non-current assets from development activities continued to decrease, amounting to just BGN 66 thousand against the BGN 317 thousand invested in the development of solutions in the field of Internet of Things in 2024, and remained rather limited in proportion to the Group's overall balance sheet and capital expenditures.

Except for the above, the Group did not conduct any other research and development activities during the period of 2024-2025.

VIII POTENTIAL FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF THE GROUP

VIII.1 General development strategy of the Group

Based on the proven track record and competitive advantages of the Group, the management intends to maintain its general orientation towards complex integration projects and professional services in the ICT domain, while continuing to differentiate itself from pure distributors and business models based substantially or predominantly on the development and marketing of proprietary equipment and software.

In line with identified market trends, competitive strengths and opportunities and the accumulated experience in the business development of new territorial markets, as of the date of this Report, the Group's development strategy is focused on the following main lines of business optimization and growth:

- Products, resources and processes:
 - use of existing capabilities as a basis to expand into high-value segments driving innovation and creating export-ready solutions for developed Western markets, with a special focus on Cybersecurity, IT Automation and Data and AI;
 - continuous development and investment in human resources ensuring the scalability, quality and cost efficiency of technological expertise, with a special focus on the Group's own TBS Academy;
 - optimizing efficiency through digital transformation, streamlining workflows and automating key processes, including by way of the internal adoption of AI.
- Business development on new territorial markets in Eastern and Western Europe:
 - reorientation from initiatives based on own subsidiaries and the recruitment of local marketing and sales teams entirely towards acquisitions of local companies with positioning and potential relevant to the Group;

- complex product focus of acquisitions, covering both companies with similar activities in the field of IT Infrastructure and other current technological specializations of the Group and targets working in product areas complementing the opportunities for expansion in the corporate sector and entry and growth in new customers on both new and existing markets, with particular emphasis on enterprise resource planning (ERP) and customer relationship management (CRM) systems.

VIII.2 Potential future acquisitions

in accordance with the strategy described in section VIII.1, as of the date of this Report, the Parent Company is in the process of negotiations and due diligence related to potential transactions for the acquisition of several companies with business activities in the field of IT similar or complementary to those of the Group, in Slovenia, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom, none of which has reached a stage of undertaking final and binding sales and purchase commitments yet.

Besides the above processes, the Parent Company is also exploring possibilities for the acquisition of shares in other companies with profiles matching the development strategy of the Group.

In view of the significant amount of potential capital expenditures on the acquisition of new subsidiaries, the Parent Company intends to complement its own participation in such acquisitions with new financing agreements, similar to the Investment bank loan agreement signed with UniCredit Bulbank AD for the acquisition of Sedam IT. As of the date of this Report, no such agreements have been signed. Similar to the effects of the loan for the acquisition of Sedam IT, such investment financing would lead to a significant increase in the obligations from loans and borrowings, interest expenses and cash outflows on the repayment of principal on financial debt.

At the same time, the Parent Company intends to continue funding at least 30% of respective capital expenditures with dividends from subsidiaries sourced from the available cash and cash equivalents and future net cash flows from operating activities of the Group. Depending on the number and size of the acquisitions made, this would lead to a more or less significant decline in free cash flow to equity and available funds and an increase in the use of credit facilities for working capital financing of the business in the short term.

VIII.3 Expected trends in financial results

Taking into account the above initiatives and according to the latest published forecasts as of the date of this Report, the main expected near- and mid-term trends in the Group's future business development and financial results upon successful implementation of its strategy in the scope of existing subsidiaries as of the end of 2025 include:

- entering a stage of moderate sustainable growth of revenues as a result of:
 - territorial development:
 - relative slowdown of sales growth in Bulgaria against the backdrop of accelerated growth in the Bulgarian public sector and in general in 2023-2025;
 - continued contraction of sales in Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Slovenia as a result of the changes in the ownership and strategy of key customers started in 2024-2025, until reaching sustainable sales volumes by 2030;
 - maintaining double-digit growth rates in Croatia based on the successful internal reorganization of Sedam IT and cross-selling of an expanding range of TBS EAD solutions on the Croatian market;
 - normalization of sales in Macedonia after the particularly low levels reached in 2025;

- accelerated growth in cross-border sales out of TBS EAD to clients in Central and Western Europe, based on its successful positioning in the realm of European defence and NATO and managed services for international and multinational companies;
- development by sectors:
 - moderate yet sustainably positive growth in the public sector with the continued support of EU programs for Bulgaria and Croatia and increasing investments by European NATO member states, save for a temporary slowdown in 2027 reflecting the expected impact of the transition between EU program periods;
 - relatively higher growth in the corporate sector, reflecting the potential for accelerated private sector investments in Cybersecurity, IT Automation, Data and AI;
 - continued decline in the telecommunications sector, reflecting trends in the business pool of Comutel, Telelink Bosnia and Telelink Slovenia, with a temporary increase in 2027 based on expected projects in Bulgaria and stabilization on sustainable levels by 2030;
- development by products:
 - moderate yet sustainably positive growth in IT Infrastructure, maintaining its role of an underlying component of IT and a leading driver of cross-sales;
 - recovery of End User Hardware and Software, Public Cloud and Other from its relative decline in 2025 and accelerated long-term growth based on IT automation and cross-sales;
 - gradual expansion of Cybersecurity on a broader market basis, after a temporary decline against the background of a large public project implemented in 2025;
 - accelerated development in Data and AI;
- gradual increase in the share of services and recurring revenues;
- maintaining a relatively stable consolidated gross margin;
- slowdown of growth in sales and marketing expenses at a decreasing ratio towards revenues after exiting a phase of intense expansion aimed at the assurance of the Group's strategic business development potential that took place between 2022 and 2025, favouring accelerated growth in operating and net profit and EBITDA.

On top of the Group's current scope, the potential future acquisitions referred to in section VIII.2 are regarded by the management as an opportunity for significant acceleration and increasing sustainability of revenues and profitability through the immediate positioning on Balkan and Western European markets of highly attractive size and/or price levels, expanding the product portfolio towards ERP and CRM, two-way cross-sales, substantially faster increase in the share of services and recurring revenues and the utilization of common resources based on the Balkans.

The potential financial impact of future acquisitions is described in section VIII.2.

VIII.4 Possible deviations and risks for the future development of the Group

The actual development of the Group may deviate in one or more aspects from the above expectations, goals, initiatives and effects of their implementation depending on various factors within or beyond the Group's control.

The risks related to the Group's strategy, the operations of its subsidiaries and the overall economic and political environment in which they operate, including but not limited to acquisition-related risks, are described in section III above.

IX INFORMATION REGARDING OWN SHARES REQUIRED UNDER ARTICLE 187e OF THE COMMERCE ACT

IX.1 Number and nominal value of own shares acquired and transferred during the reporting period, the part of capital they represent and grounds for their acquisition and transfer

In accordance with the resolution of the EGMS held on 13.02.2025, on 05.03.2025, the MB resolved upon initiating a procedure for the buyback of up to 200,000 own shares or 1.6% of the Parent Company's registered capital. As of 11.03.2025, the Parent Company had acquired the maximum number of shares authorized by the GMS, i.e. 200,000 shares with a par value of BGN 1 each or 1.6% of its registered capital, at an average price (including transaction costs) of BGN 11.54 per share.

Own shares held as of period end (number)	200,006	1.60005%	6	0.00005%

Having already fulfilled in 2023 and 2024 all Schedules for providing remuneration based on shares to members of the MB and Plans for the long-term stimulation of employees with shares adopted in 2020 and 2021, and absent further similar programs and plans, the Parent Company did not transfer any own shares to members of the MB and SB in 2025.

No Group subsidiaries acquired or transferred any own shares in 2025.

IX.2 Number of own shares held and the part of the capital they represent

As a result of the aforementioned in section IX.1 and previous buybacks and transfers of shares, as of 31.12.2025, the Parent Company held a total of 200,006 own shares with a nominal value of BGN 1 each, representing 1.6% of its registered capital.

As of the same date, no Group subsidiaries have acquired or held any own shares.

X ESTABLISHED BRANCHES OF THE COMPANY AND GROUP COMPANIES

As of 31.12.2025 and the date of this Report, the Parent Company has no registered branches in the country or abroad.

As of the same dates, TBS EAD has a registered branch in Romania which has not conducted active commercial operations.

XI USE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

XI.1 Financial risk management objectives and policies, including hedges

In their activities and with regard to their funding, the Parent Company and Group subsidiaries are exposed to the currency and interest rate risks described in sections III.2.8.1 and III.2.8.2 of this Report.

XI.1.1 Currency risk management

Due to the formation of its income and expenses mostly or entirely in its local currency (leva) or Euro in the context of currency board (until 31.12.2025) and Euro area membership (since 01.01.2026), the Parent Company is not directly exposed to material currency risk and does not impart such to the Group.

In the course of their business, Group subsidiaries primarily aim to minimize transaction-based currency risks from the purchase of equipment in US Dollars and its resale in local currency or Euro by negotiating mechanisms of currency indexation of sale prices and/or synchronization of the maturities and currencies of receivables and payables, to the possible extent. Significant exposures not covered in the above ways are hedged by forward purchases of US Dollars at the discretion of the Group's management and/or of the respective subsidiaries.

XI.1.2 Interest rate risk management

Considering the variable nature of exposures under overdraft limits and revolving working capital facilities, their hedging with the financial instruments usually offered for that purpose, which are based mostly or entirely on predetermined maturities and amounts, can lead to significant deviations of the actual from the hedged expenses and principal amounts. Considering the above, the Parent Company does not hedge such exposures with financial instruments and assumes the risk of fluctuations in the floating interest rate indexes referred to in section III.2.8.2, while managing it mostly through the monitoring of the market dynamics and the negotiation and/or renegotiation of the best possible interest terms with financing banks in case of significant adverse changes therein.

Considering the slowdown in inflation and economic growth and the reversal in interest rates growth in the EU starting from 2024, as of the date of this Report, the Parent Company's management deems the interest risk of investment bank loan exposures based on 3-month EURIBOR to be relatively limited and has not planned on the use of financial instruments for their hedging in the immediate term. Notwithstanding, it remains committed to the continuous monitoring of economic and credit market trends, maintaining its readiness for the potential hedging of exposures from tranches already utilized in their definitive amounts in case of an expected increase in this risk and intends to maintain the same approach to potential further exposures of the Group under significant long-term financing agreements with predetermined repayment schedules.

XI.2 Exposure to price, credit and liquidity risks and cash flow risks

XI.2.1 Risk of changes in the prices of signed contracts

The majority of the Group's sales are realized under contracts and/or orders with one-off implementation within a limited time period, the prices of which are fixed upon contract signing and are not subject to change.

To the extent there are framework contracts or projects with phased implementation over a longer period of time, Group companies aim to embed therein appropriate mechanisms of price indexation in case of significant changes in market conditions, exchange rates and other factors. However, such mechanisms are not always feasible and in line with the established market practices or statutory rules of certain dealings, such as public procurement bids. In order to comply with such rules or stay on par with competitors, the Group may assume the price risk relative to such dealings, while making the best possible efforts to minimize or compensate for its impact with the negotiation of higher discounts from respective suppliers or by the terms of future dealings.

In their operations, Group companies are exposed to risks of long-term price fixation under some long-term contracts for maintenance and managed services described in section III.2.7 of this Report. The policy of limiting these risks is based on the embedding of higher reserves for long-term cost variation upon the negotiation of respective prices, as well as on clauses for the inflation-benchmarked indexation of prices after the initial term of the respective contracts.

XI.2.2 Risk of unfavourable changes in market prices

In their activities, Group subsidiaries are exposed to the risks relative to the market and competitive environment described in section III.2.3 of this Report, which may result in decreasing market prices of the products and services offered thereby.

The business profile and strategy of the Group are focused on limiting the consequences of these risks to the prices and gross profitability of the offered base products and services by their integration into complex solutions and services with high added value, the development of specific solutions with no direct market analogues and the policy of sustainable increase of the share of such solutions and services in the Group's revenues as a whole. Another substantial factor is the Group's strategic focus on the establishment of an optimal organization for the provision of services and maintaining the quality of service on the highest level.

The awareness of the Group's clients of the above benefits as a part of the overall value of the solutions offered thereby as compared to competitive offers is a prerequisite for limiting price competition as a factor of the client's final choice and its potential adverse effects on the financial position and operating results.

Significant factors limiting the impact of decreases in the resale prices of equipment and software also include the strategic partnerships of Group companies with leading global manufacturers. By virtue of discount policies embedded therein and vendor support for the implementation of large projects, these partnerships are a prerequisite for obtaining most favourable pricing terms, which help to protect the Group's profitability in periods of intensified price competition on the market.

XI.2.3 Credit risk exposure and management

In their operations, Group subsidiaries are exposed to the credit risks described in section III.2.8.5 of this Report.

Group companies endeavor to trade with established and solvent counterparties. The balances and maturities of receivables are subject to continuous current monitoring, both reactively and preventively, with regard to the timely identification of any potential risk of non-payment or significant delay taking into account the client's evolution and situation.

While some major clients may account for substantial shares in consolidated sales and receivables, these clients usually represent well established and solvent companies and institutions, including leading telecom operators, governmental and municipal organizations, leading multinational or public enterprises, and/or long-term partners with proven payment track record.

In case of exceptions from the above principles, Group companies apply the best possible preventive measures to secure their receivables from respective counterparties, including but not limited to promissory notes and/or other enforceable undertakings by those and/or other companies with proven track record and financial capacity.

Considering the above, the Group's exposure to credit risk is evaluated as relatively low.

XI.2.4 Exposure and management of liquidity and cash flow risks

In their activities, Group subsidiaries are exposed to the liquidity and cash flow risks described in sections III.2.8.3 and III.2.8.4 of this Report.

Group companies manage liquidity risk and cash flow risks through the systematic monitoring of the quality and maturities of their receivables and payables and timely planning of incoming and outgoing cash flows.

With regard to covering cash deficits arising from the current variation of net working capital or the occurrence of unplanned capital expenditures, leading and other Group companies negotiate credit limits with renowned local banks providing sufficient liquidity reserves for specific and general purposes. In case of necessity, the uncovered (via external financing) needs of such and the similar needs of other Group companies are met through intra-Group funding in the form of cash loan agreements with single or multiple drawdown and the option for ad-hoc prepayment of withdrawn funds.

As of the date of this report, the Parent Company's management considers the currently agreed external and intra-Group credit limits, described in section XII.8 sufficient to secure the current operating and the ordinary investment activities of the Group, while maintaining its readiness to initiate negotiations for their increase and/or the signing of new bank credit agreements in case of additional increases in its funding needs going forward, including but not limited to such related to the potential future acquisitions as per section VIII.2.

XII ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AS PER APPENDIX № 2 TO ORDINANCE № 2 OF THE FSC

XII.1 Revenues by main categories of products and services

Technology Group	Correspondence with Technology Group 2024	Net Sales Revenue (BGN thousand)
		31.12.2025	31.12.2024	change	share 31.12.25	share 31.12.24

IoT	no change	389	2,095	-81%	0%	1%
Total		283,352	222,973	27%	100%	100%

Benefitting the most from the new projects and the clients which were the main contributors to achieved growth in TBS EAD and Croatia, revenues from IT Infrastructure registered a significant increase of 26% or BGN 45,145 thousand, reaching BGN 217,392 thousand and maintaining a dominant share of 77% of consolidated sales.

Growing on all relevant markets (Macedonia and Croatia included), revenues from Cybersecurity increased by more than twofold by 101% or BGN 17,854 thousand to BGN 35,525 thousand mainly owing to new big projects and clients in the Bulgarian public sector, reaching a share of 13% (against just 8% in 2024).

While much smaller in size, sales in the Software Development, Data and AI domain exhibited a similar development, going 104% or BGN 3,934 thousand up to BGN 7,715 thousand or 3% of consolidated revenues owing both to the full yearly cycle of sales in Sedam IT and new projects in Bulgaria.

Against the significant non-recurring deliveries of computer equipment by Telelink Business Services DOO (Croatia) (UIN 081341811) and the non-core services procured by TBS EAD as part of complex projects of NATO in 2024, sales of End User Hardware and Software, Public Cloud and Other registered an overall decrease by 18% or BGN 4,849 thousand to BGN 22,331 thousand and a share contraction from 12% to 8% stemming entirely from subcategory "Other", whereas revenues from End User Software and Public Cloud were maintained on a level similar to 2024 as the drop in respective sales in Croatia and other markets was compensated by a positive change in TBS EAD.

In the absence of significant new projects, revenue from Internet of Things declined by 81% or BGN 1,706 thousand to BGN 389 thousand or less than 1% of consolidated sales.

XII.2 Revenues by geographic market and significant counterparties

XII.2.1 Revenues by geographic markets

* By registration of the client.

Driven by the positive development of revenues from the Bulgarian public sector noted in section II.2, the Group's sales in Bulgaria registered a more than double increase by 51% or BGN 68,356 thousand, reaching BGN 202,412 thousand and a substantially higher share of 71% of consolidated revenues, as compared to the corresponding ratio of 60% in 2024.

Compensating the slowdown of revenues from Serbia (which led to an overall decrease in local sales at the business pool of Comutel, Telelink Bosnia and Telelink Slovenia by 21% or BGN 4,716 thousand to BGN 17,936 thousand in spite of growing revenues in Slovenia) and Macedonia, growing sales to Croatia (going 24% or BGN 6,622 thousand up as a result of the acquisition, consolidation and the big new project won by Sedam IT led to a slight increase in overall revenues from the Western Balkans by 1% or BGN 609 thousand to BGN 56,558 thousand. Nevertheless, given the higher growth rates in other geographical segments, the region accounted for a decreasing share of 20% of consolidated sales for the period, against the corresponding ratio of 25% for 2024.

In itself, Croatia solidified its position of the Group's second largest single national market with revenues of BGN 34,007 thousand and a consolidated share of 12%.

Surpassing substantially the negative impact of fading sales in Romania, the continuing momentum in deliveries to a key account of Comutel and Telelink Slovenia in Greece led to a significant increase in total sales to Other Balkan Markets by 56% or BGN 2,485 thousand to BGN 6,891 thousand, sufficient to maintain a share of 2% of consolidated revenues.

In spite of the compensation of discontinued contracts and clients in TBS Germany with a substantially larger increase in the sales of TBS EAD to other clients on the German market and the realization of substantial deliveries from Sedam IT for a division of an international client registered in Sweden, the much lower revenue from NATO as compared to the particularly sizeable such sales for 2024 resulted in a contraction of the Group's interim total revenues from Central and Western Europe by 46% or BGN 11,634 thousand to BGN 13,400 thousand or just 5% of consolidated sales (comparing to 11% in 2024).

In spite of the moderate decrease in revenues from the USA, the channelling of a part of deliveries to an international client of TBS EAD to a division registered elsewhere outside Europe helped to increase sales to clients on Other Markets by 16% or BGN 565 thousand to BGN 4,091 thousand. Nevertheless, against the faster overall growth in consolidated sales, the share of this revenue stream declined from 2% to just 1%.

XII.2.2 Significant clients

In 2025, the Group identified two direct clients, accounting for over 10% of its consolidated annual revenues:

- “A1 Bulgaria” EAD (Bulgaria), a leading telecom operator and systems integrator with a share of 14.9%, deriving from a wide range of large projects and deliveries related mainly to the company's participation in projects in the IT Infrastructure sector;
- Consortium “SysTel” DZZD (Bulgaria), a contractual joint venture of companies, including TBS EAD, with the purpose of joint implementation of deliveries of goods and services, with a share of 13.1% deriving from projects in the field of governmental information and communication networks and systems managed by the Ministry of Electronic Governance of the Republic of Bulgaria.

XII.2.3 Significant suppliers

The key sources of externally supplied elements of the products and complex solutions (integrating products and services) offered by the Group include leading global manufacturers and local and regional distributors of ICT equipment and software.

In 2025, The Group identifies two counterparties from the above categories as significant suppliers with purchases (credit turnovers on trade payables accounts) exceeding 10% of the consolidated annual cost of sales:

- Cisco International Limited (United Kingdom), a leading global manufacturer and technology partner of the Group in the IT Infrastructure and Cybersecurity lines and in the field of Managed Services (including Equipment as a service) with a share of 12.1%;
- “Also Bulgaria” EOOD (Bulgaria), distributor for Bulgaria and direct supplier of TBS EAD of equipment manufactured by the Cisco Systems, DellEMC, etc., with a share of 10.9%.

XII.3 Information on material transactions

XII.3.1 Share purchase agreement for the acquisition of Actual IT d.d. (Slovenia)

On 30.04.2025, the SB approved the MB's proposal for entering into a transaction for the acquisition of 70% of the shares in the capital of Actual I.T., information technologies, d.d. (Slovenia) (“Actual IT”), a company specialized in IT infrastructure services, the integration of ERP solutions and the development and implementation of sector-specific business solutions, from DBA d.o.o. (Slovenia) and DBA Group S.p.A. (Italy) (“DBA”) under the following main parameters and terms:

- total purchase price equal to 70% of the difference between a predetermined Enterprise Value (“EV”) of EUR 22,500,000 and Net Debt derived as Indebtedness minus Cash plus Working Capital Adjustment as of the date of closing;
- signing of a Shareholders Agreement regulating the terms of management, appointment of board of directors members, the veto rights of the minority shareholder, deadlock procedure, as well as reciprocal rights for the acquisition and disposal of the remaining 30% equity stake, including call and put options exercisable by either party following the third year after closing;

- funding the purchase price with a combination of at least 30% of own Parent Company funds and up to 70% of investment bank loan, the terms and conditions of which shall be subject to separate approval by the SB;
- authorizing the executive director of the Parent Company to take all legal and factual actions necessary for the signing and closing of the deal.

On 19.05.2025, TBSG AD announced that it reached an agreement with DBA on the essential contractual terms and conditions for the acquisition of 70% of the share capital of Actual IT, pursuant to which, on 29.05.2025, the Parent Company signed a Share Purchase Agreement for the acquisition of 70% of the registered capital and a Shareholders Agreement regulating the terms of the transaction, the future common corporate governance and the rights of sale and purchase of the remaining 30% of the capital in line with the parameters approved by resolution of the SB from 30.04.2025 and the above-listed parameters. According to the additionally disclosed terms and conditions:

- the share subject to acquisition at closing shall consist of 684,720 ordinary shares held directly by DBA Group S.p.A. (33.56% of the capital) and 743,473 shares held by DBA d.o.o. (36.44% of the capital), whereas the remaining 30% shall remain in the ownership of DBA Group S.p.A. through DBA d.o.o.;
- consideration due at closing shall be established by adjusting the EV referred hereinabove for the company's net financial position and potential deviation from the agreed standard working capital requirement of the business as of the end of the latest month prior to closing, whereas the final price shall be determined on the basis of the actual net financial position and deviation from the agreed standard working capital requirement as of the date of closing, whereupon the difference from the consideration paid at closing shall be settled accordingly between the parties;
- the actual closing (transfer of the shares subject to the transaction) pends on the fulfilment of certain predetermined conditions precedent to closing the transaction, including but not limited to obtaining the required approvals from the competent competition protection authorities.

On 16.09.2025, the Parent Company was notified of resolution № 305-35/2025-2180-13, adopted by the Ministry of Economy, Tourism and Sports of the Republic of Slovenia on 26.08.2025 r., whereby it was established that the acquisition of 70% of the registered capital of Actual IT by TBSG AD meets the criteria for a foreign direct investment, which could affect the public order and safety in Slovenia, insofar as over 10% of the capital of TBSG AD is held by an entity registered outside the EU and the activities of the group of Actual IT includes the provision of services in sectors meeting the criteria for critical infrastructure, considering which the proposed transaction shall be subject to final assessment in accordance with the provisions of the Slovenian Law on the encouragement of investments.

On 06.10.2025, the Parent Company was notified of resolution № 3061-16/2025-11 adopted on a closed session of the State Competition Protection Agency of the Republic of Slovenia from 23.09.2025, whereby the latter affirmed the absence of objections against the acquisition of 70% of the registered capital of Actual IT by TBSG AD and that the concentration was in compliance with competition rules.

On 17.11.2025, the SB approved the corporate reorganization of Actual IT in its capacity of target company – subject to acquisition under the Share Purchase Agreement from 29.05.2025 between the Parent Company and DBA, including the merger of Actual IT and its subsidiaries ITELIS d.o.o., UNISTAR

LC d.o.o. and PRO.ASTEC d.o.o. by way of acquisition by Actual IT and division of Actual IT by way of a spinoff of all assets, liabilities and legal relationships pertaining to the separate business activity “Enterprise Business Solutions” and all other contractual relationships between Actual IT and Luka Koper d.d. into a new subsidiary – ACTUAL PRO, informacijske tehnologije, d.o.o. with a share capital of EUR 30,000.00 fully owned by Actual IT.

On 22.12.2025, the Parent Company announced that the deal for the acquisition of 70% of the share capital of Actual IT, subject of the Share Purchase Agreement signed on 29.05.2025, was not closed due to the non-fulfilment of certain conditions precedent set out in the Agreement within the agreed long stop date (20.12.2025), including the clearance required under the Slovenian Investment Promotion Act, considering that, as of the above date, the outcome of the respective assessment was yet to be announced. With the expiry of the above deadline, the rights and obligations of the parties under the Share Purchase Agreement were terminated. Notwithstanding the above, the parties remain open to explore potential opportunities for a new deal based on mutually acceptable terms and conditions.

XII.3.2 Commercial Transactions

In accordance with Ordinance No 2 of the FSC, the Parent Company identified the following material transactions accounting for 5% or more of its consolidated revenues and/or net profit for 2025:

- Contract CO-423234-DCIS between TBS EAD and the NATO Communications and Information Agency (NCI Agency) for the delivery of goods and services for the purpose of implementing a “Deployable Communication and information system (DCIS) and cyber defence (CD) capabilities” with a total value of EUR 10,299,871.77, approved by the SB on 30.06.2025 and signed on 16.07.2025, in force since 01.09.2025;
- Contract between Sedam IT (contractor) and KING ICT d.o.o. (Croatia) (contractor) for deliveries, engineering services and warranty support of network equipment for the purpose of implementing a public procurement order of the Ministry of Justice, Public Administration and Digital Transformation of Croatia within the National Plan for Recovery and Resilience 2021–2026, Investment C2.3.R3-16 „Investments in State Information Infrastructure Networks” with an implementation deadline of 120 days for delivery and engineering and 24 months for support, with a total value of EUR 5,364,128.47, approved by the SB on 30.06.2025;
- Public procurement implementation contract between TBS EAD and the Ministry of Electronic Government of the Republic of Bulgaria for the “Delivery, installation and warranty support of communication equipment, firewalls and adjacent systems” with delivery term of 90 days, a warranty period of 60 months and a total price of BGN 11,584,775 without VAT, approved by the SB on 31.10.2025 and signed on 06.11.2025.

XII.3.3 Other

On 30.12.2025, annexes were signed, whereby the tenors of the loan agreements described in sections XII.9.1.1, XII.9.1.2 and XII.9.1.4 of this Report were extended until 31.12.2026.

Besides the above agreements signed during the reporting period, during the latter, the Parent Company also maintained the following contracts with related parties signed in previous periods:

- contract for the rental of equipped workplaces between TBSG AD and TBS EAD from 31.12.2023, valid until January 16 2028;

In accordance with the Articles of Association of TBSG AD, on 18.03.2025, the SB approved the signing of a deal between TBS EAD (supplier) and the related party “Telelink Infra Services” EAD (Bulgaria) (purchaser), taking into consideration that Lubomir Minchev owns indirectly shares of more than 50% in the capital of both companies, representing a Contract for the delivery of equipment and software and the performance of installation, design and integration of software applications for processing alarms and events, training of employees of the end customer and support of the delivered equipment and software, total price up to EUR 2,029,251 excluding VAT, global term of implementation of the supplies and services until 26.11.2028 and warranty support of the equipment and software of 36 months.

On 09.07.2025, the MB and the SB approved the proposal by the Executive Director of TBS EAD to sign a deal with Consortium TELSEC DZZD with regard to the implementation of Public Procurement Contract №00752-2025-0028 between the Ministry of Interior (assignor) and the consortium (assignee) with the subject matter: „Purchasing body cameras for the purposes of the Mol”, including deliveries of goods and services to the consortium under separate tender chapters “Implementation of central computing and communication infrastructure”, “Implementation of a central component for the management of video contents”, Training” and “Technical assurance and support” with a total value of up to BGN 25,240,714. The interested party in the transaction is Mr. Ivan Zhitiyanov, who is the executive director of the subsidiary TBS EAD, as well as being the manager and representative of the counterparty to the transaction - Consortium TELESEC DZZD. The Agreement was signed on 11.07.2025 and amended by annex from 18.12.2025 with a total price of BGN 23,760,807.52 without VAT.

In accordance with the GMS approval granted on 18.06.2025, on 17.11.2025, the Parent Company and majority shareholder Lubomir Minchev signed a Management Incentive Scheme Agreement, whereby the shareholder undertook at its sole discretion and expense to grant to key employees of the Parent Company and Group subsidiaries a bonus in each case of a sale of at least 5% of his shares in the Parent Company’s capital at a price corresponding to an equity value of the Parent Company not lower than EUR 124,551,000. The agreement remains in force until the full sale of all shares held by the shareholder. The amount of the overall bonus pool extended by the shareholder to the Parent Company for distribution among key employees shall be determined in the range of 5% of the sale price at the above minimum corresponding equity value of the Parent Company and 15% of the sale price at a corresponding equity value of the Parent Company equal or higher than EUR 300,000,000.

On the same date, a Management Incentive Scheme Agreement to the same effect was signed between the Company and SEET INVESTMENT HOLDINGS SARL. The agreement’s terms and conditions are identical to the agreement with Lubomir Minchev described above.

XII.5 Extraordinary events and indicators for the issuer with a significant impact on its activities

In 2025, the Parent Company proceeded to the impairment of its receivables from a loan granted by the Parent Company to TBS Germany, the premises and the effects of which have been described in the separate Annual Management Report of the Parent Company for 2025, published on the <http://www.x3news.com/> internet platform on 31.03.2026.

Except for the above herein and the terminated Share Purchase Agreement for acquiring Actual IT described in section XII.3.1, there were no other events occurring in 2025 or indicators of an extraordinary nature describing results of the Issuer's and the Group's activities during the year.

XII.6 Off-balance sheet items

The contingent commitments undertaken by the Parent Company and Group subsidiaries as of 31.12.2025 are disclosed in sections XII.9.2 and XII.9.4 of this Report, as well as in Note 36 of the notes to the consolidated annual financial statements.

XII.7 Equity interests and main investments in the country and abroad

XII.7.1 Shares in subsidiaries

As of 31.12.2025, the Parent Company reported total investments in directly owned subsidiaries in the amount of BGN 32,896 thousand, including:

- BGN 15,170 thousand transferred to the Parent Company by virtue of its reorganization from 14.08.2019 as a part of the assets attributable to the Business Services activity separated from Telelink Bulgaria AD (TBS EAD, Comutel, TBS Bosnia and TBS Slovenia);
- BGN 271 thousand stemming from the establishment of TBS Macedonia in 2019, TBS Croatia in 2020, TBS USA and TBS Romania in 2021 and the establishment and capital increase of TBS Germany in 2022 and 2023;
- BGN 17,305 thousand recorded pursuant to the acquisition of Sedam IT in 2024;
- BGN 150 thousand, representing the difference between the amounts of the Parent Company's receivables for shares thereof transferred to TBS EAD, Comutel and TBS Macedonia with regard to the implementation of Long-term incentive plans from 2020 and 2021 vis-à-vis their employees as of the dates of their initial allocation and final transfer, accounted as an increase in the investments in these subsidiaries as per IFRS 2.

The shares held by the Parent Company in the capital of subsidiaries are shown in percentage by subsidiary in section I.4 of this Report. The value of the recorded investments by subsidiary as of 31.12.2025 is shown in Note 12 of the notes to the Parent Company's separate annual financial statements.

Besides the above commitments, as of 31.12.2025, TBS EAD:

- maintained its capacity of guarantor securing the obligations of TBSG AD from the Overdraft agreement with United Bulgarian Bank AD from 15.02.2022 described in section XII.8.1.1;
- maintained its capacity of co-debtor to the Investment bank loan agreement between TBSG AD and UniCredit Bulbank AD from 19.03.2024 described in section XII.8.1.2;
- acceded in its capacity of guarantor the Credit line agreement №265-2898514-30 between Comutel and Raiffeisen banka a.d. Beograd described in section XII.8.2.2.1, as per Suretyship agreement from 03.12.2025;
- acceded in its capacity of guarantor a Frame agreement for issuing bank guarantees between Comutel and Raiffeisen banka a.d. Beograd with a limit of EUR 100,000 with an availability period until 30.09.2028, as per Suretyship agreement from 03.12.2025;
- maintained a corporate guarantee for the amount of EUR 1,327,229 towards Cedo Dukic in his capacity of seller of the shares in Sedam IT, securing the obligations of TBSG AD for the second conditional deferred payment based on Sedam IT's financial results for 2025, in accordance with a Share Purchase Agreement from 13.02.2024.

XII.9.4.2 Guarantees and commitments by Sedam IT

As of 31.12.2025, Sedam IT:

- maintained a promissory note for the amount of EUR 1,327,229 towards Cedo Dukic in his capacity of seller of the shares in Sedam IT, securing the obligations of TBSG AD for the second conditional deferred payment based on Sedam IT's financial results for 2025, in accordance with a Share Purchase Agreement from 13.02.2024;
- maintained its capacity of co-debtor to the Investment bank loan agreement № 00044/730 between the Parent Company and UniCredit Bulbank AD from 19.03.2024 r. described in section XII.8.1.2.

XII.10 Utilization of funds from a new issue of shares performed during the reporting period

During the reporting period, the Parent Company did not issue and did not generate any proceeds from new shares, other securities or options thereon.

XII.11 Analysis of the ratio between achieved financial results reflected in the financial statements for the year and previously published forecasts for these results

On 05.06.2025, the Issuer published a "Quarterly Financial Review Q1'2025 | Outlook Update FY'2025", featuring updated expectations for consolidated financial indicators of the Group for the full financial year 2025 shown in column "Forecast 2025" of the table below ("Forecast 2025").

	EUR'M	BGN'000	EUR'M	BGN'000	% dev.
Net sales revenue	138.4	270,687	144.9	283,352	5%
Gross Profit	29.9	58,479	31.4	61,429	5%
Sales and Marketing Expenses	-12.1	-23,666	-11.8	-23,147	-2%
General and Administrative Expenses	-8.5	-16,625	-8.4	-16,461	-1%
EBITDA	13.3	26,013	13.8	26,987	4%
Operating Profit	9.9	19,363	11.3	22,093	14%
Net Profit	7.8	15,255	8.3	16,249	7%
Revenue by Invoicing Country/Region:
Bulgaria	102.2	200,031	110.5	216,155	8%
Serbia, Bosnia i Hercegovina and Slovenia	11.8	23,096	14.2	27,752	20%
Croatia	20.5	40,124	17.6	34,463	-14%
North Macedonia	2.9	5,676	1.9	3,641	-36%
Germany, UK and USA	0.9	1,762	0.7	1,320	-25%

As evidenced by the above ratios, actual consolidated revenues surpassed by 5% Forecast 2025, with a proportionally positive deviation of 5% on the level of gross profit implying a substantially identical to the forecasted gross margin. At the same time, the Group registered combined economies of 2% against the sum of forecasted sales and marketing and general and administrative expenses, which helped to achieve a substantially higher level of operating profit outperformance of 14% as compared to gross profit. In spite of the negative impact of the much higher than forecasted non-interest financial expenses for bank charges and net foreign exchange loss, the realized operating cost savings and gross profit outperformance helped the Group to also register higher results on the levels of net profit and EEBITDA, which surpassed the respective Forecast 2025 figures by 7% and 4%.

The main factors behind the registered outperformance in consolidated revenues were TBS EAD, which achieved substantially higher than forecasted sales to corporate and telecom accounts, and the business pool of Comutel, Telelink Bosnia and Telelink Slovenia, which managed to maintain overall sales close to 2024 in spite of the negative context of changing ownership in big clients in Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina, mostly owing to stronger than expected sales in Slovenia, Croatia and Greece. Across its other territorial units, the Group recorded lower revenues than expected at the time of compiling Forecast 2025 mostly in Croatia, where, in spite of the strongly positive evolution of sales against 2024, Sedam IT realized substantially lower revenues from one of its biggest and some of its medium-sized budgeted projects in the public sector, and TBS Macedonia, which also lagged behind forecasted public sector revenues due to the postponement of the two biggest projects budgeted in this segment of the Macedonian market for 2025.

XII.12 Financial resource management policy, debt service capacity, potential threats and measures towards their neutralization

The policy of managing financial resources with regard to the timely and due fulfilment of the obligations of Group companies is based on the procurement of funds from the following main sources:

- revenue from sales to third parties, which are the main source for all subsidiaries of the Group involved directly in the performance of operating activities in the field of ICT;
- revenue from sales to other Group companies which are an ancillary source for Group subsidiaries involved directly in the performance of operating activities in the field of ICT and a main source for TBSG AD on a standalone basis;
- dividend income from direct participations in the capital of Group subsidiaries, which are a significant source for TBSG AD on a standalone basis;
- securing additional funds needed to honour liabilities to third parties and other Group companies arising from ordinary business activities with limits under credit lines negotiated with leading local banks, which are a significant main and/or backup source for the Parent Company and most subsidiaries with large or medium revenues and personnel, and/or loans from the Parent Company and/or leading Group subsidiary TBS EAD, which are a significant actual or potential complementary and/or main source for all Group companies on standalone basis;
- cofinancing the obligations arising from the acquisition of other companies with long-term investment loans amortizing according to predefined repayment schedules from leading regional banks.

In the management's estimation, the sources of the above-mentioned types available as of the date of this Report provide sufficient coverage of the working capital requirements and investments in non-current assets for the purposes the ordinary activities of Group companies, the buyback of own shares authorized by the GMS for investment and other purposes and the Parent Company's residual obligations for conditional deferred payment on the acquisition of Sedam IT. Nevertheless, the Parent Company and Group subsidiaries continue to monitor and plan their financial resources on an ongoing basis, while maintaining their readiness for the timely negotiation or renegotiation of existing and new credit facilities, should such necessities arise.

As of the date of this Report, the Parent Company's MB is not preauthorized to sign new credit agreements. With this regard and without prejudice to the activities directed towards potential new acquisitions as per section VIII.2, the Parent Company's management does intend to proceed with or allow for the agreement of capital expenditures exceeding the financial resources available and/or contracted at the time before the approval of actions towards the signing of new credit agreements or the procurement of other sources for their funding.

XII.13 Assessment of the possibilities for realization of investment plans, available funds and possible changes in their funding structure

As of the date of this Report, the Group contemplates decreasing but nonetheless substantial continuing investments in equipment provided to clients under long-term managed service agreements by TBS EAD. In line with its established practices, TBS EAD intends to finance the above investments with own funds and/or finance lease contracts similar to those signed in previous periods, whenever such financing is deemed necessary and/or appropriate.

As of the date of this Report, the Group does not contemplate material capital expenditures on development activities. To the extent such may still arise, in line with the usual practices, these activities would still be assured predominantly or entirely with the internal resources of Group.

The Group intends to maintain its policy of using vehicles predominantly under operating lease contracts without incurring capital expenditures on their acquisition. To the extent that vehicles may be purchased in exception to this policy, they should be effected on the basis of secured funding with special-purpose medium-term bank loans or finance leases.

Against the backdrop of the significant expenditures in the fit-out and furnishing of extended office areas in 2023 and 2024 and the normalization of these investments in 2025, the Group expects expenditures on such and other long-term tangible and intangible assets for general purposes in 2026 to remain between relatively low and moderate as compared to their average amount for last three years. Even in case of new increases in the following years, the management's expectations are for such investments to remain within a range that can be covered with available funds and future cash generation without recourse to credit instruments for their financing.

Based on the financing procured with the Investment bank loan agreement as per section XII.8.1.2, the significant cash funds of the Group as of 31.12.2025 and the financial prospects described in section VIII of this Report, the management estimates that the residual obligations of the Parent Company for conditional deferred payment on the acquisition of Sedam IT will be covered with the internal and external sources already available to the Group.

The management's position on the potential further acquisitions of capital interests in other companies and the methods and effects of their funding are described in sections VIII.1, VIII.2 and XII.12 of this Report.

XII.14 Information about changes in the fundamental principles of governance of the Issuer and its economic group during the reporting period

During the reporting period, there were no changes in the fundamental principles of governance of the Parent Company and the Group as a whole.

XII.15 Information on the main characteristics of the Issuer's internal control and risk management systems with regard to the process of financial reporting

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT
STATEMENTS
TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP AD
PURSUANT TO ARTICLE 100N, PARA. 8 OF THE PUBLIC OFFERING OF SECURITIES ACT

Information on the application of the National Code of Corporate Governance

“TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD (the “Parent Company”), after its registration as a public company by decision of the Financial Supervision Commission dated 28.11.2019, complies, as appropriate, with the National Code of Corporate Governance and conducts its business in accordance with the principles and provisions of the code.

“TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD does not apply corporate governance practices, in addition to the National Corporate Governance Code.

Implementation of the National corporate governance code

Until November 28, 2019, “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD did not have the status of a public company, therefore its activities were carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Commerce Act, the Accountancy Act, and good corporate practices applicable to the industry in which it operates.

After its registration as a public company, respectively after its shares were admitted to trading on a regulated market organized and maintained by the Bulgarian Stock Exchange AD, the activities of the Management and Supervisory Board of TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP AD are carried out in accordance with the regulatory requirements set forth in the Public Offering of Securities Act (POSA) and its implementing acts, in the Parent Company's Articles of Association, as well as in the National Corporate Governance Code.

The corporate management of “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD has taken all necessary legal and factual actions in 2025 to fully implement all recommendations of the Code.

The corporate management of “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD realizes that sustainable development is achieving a balance between social and environmental principles, as socially justified and environmentally friendly economic development, and is therefore committed to establishing specific actions and policies regarding the sustainable development of the Parent Company, including, but not limited to, the disclosure of information related to social and environmental aspects of its activities.

As a technology company, TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP AD strives to provide “technology with a purpose” that makes production cleaner and infrastructure more energy efficient. In this way, we help clients, cities and countries achieve their individual sustainability goals to create diverse benefits for employees, people and society as a whole.

Parent Company’s continuous efforts in the field of environmental protection follow and implement the guidelines and requirements of the international standard ISO 14001:2015 “Environmental management systems. Requirements with guidance for implementation”.

The corporate management of “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD, in performing its functions, works to set sustainable development goals and a model for their achievement and reporting.

There are recommendations of the Code that are not applicable to “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD due to the capital structure, the organization of the activity and the overall concept of corporate governance of the Parent Company. The non-applicability of the recommendations is described in a declaration with the respective grounds for the non-applicability.

The Code is applied on the basis of the “comply or explain” principle. This means that the Parent Company complies with the Code, and in case of deviation, its management should explain the reasons for this.

The subsidiaries of Telelink Business Services Group AD (the “Group”) are not public companies and do not apply the principles and provisions of the National Corporate Governance Code in their operations, except for the provisions related to internal control and risk management systems, which are applied at the Group level. A significant portion of the provisions of the Code are inapplicable also due to the legal and organisational form of the companies and the sole ownership structure.

I. Corporate governance

“TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD is a company with a two-tier management system.

The Parent Company is managed and represented by a Management Board, under the control of a Supervisory Board.

As of the date of preparation of this document, the Supervisory Board of the Parent Company (“SB”) consists of five members:

- Lyubomir Minchev – Chairman of the Supervisory Board (elected by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders held on 18 June 2025, replacing Wolfgang Ebermann);
- Florian Huth – Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board;
- Hans van Houwelingen – independent member of the Supervisory Board;
- William Anthony Bowater Russell – independent member of the Supervisory Board;
- Rosen Plevneliev – member of the Supervisory Board (elected by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders held on 17 September 2025, replacing Ivo Evgeniev).

Functions and duties of the Management Board

The Management Board manages the Parent Company under the control of the Supervisory Board, exercising its rights and obligations in accordance with the requirements of the law, the Articles of Association and the Rules of Procedure. The Management Board of the Parent Company makes decisions, as its exclusive competence, for:

1. closure or transfer of businesses of the Parent Company's subsidiaries or significant parts thereof;
2. material change in the Parent Company's activities;
3. material organizational changes;

4. opening and closing branches and representative offices of the Parent Company in the country and abroad;
5. acquisition, cancellation or other disposal of shares, other securities, shares or equity participation in commercial companies in the country and abroad, as well as in non-profit legal entities;
6. formation of monetary funds and the procedure for their collection and expenditure;
7. carrying out transactions under Article 236 of the Commercial Act;
8. acquisition and alienation of real estate and property rights thereon;
9. preparation, acceptance and signing of a prospectus for public offering of securities issued by the Parent Company;
10. appointment and release of investment intermediaries to underwrite and/or administer an issue of securities issued by the Parent Company, which will be subject to public offering;
11. acceptance and presentation of the Parent Company's annual financial statements, the annual activity report and the report of the registered auditors to the Supervisory Board;
12. acceptance of the annual consolidated financial statements of the Parent Company;
13. adoption of the annual budget and business plan of the Parent Company and/or its subsidiary, as well as amendments to the annual budget and business plan;
14. taking decisions on transactions or actions that do not fall within the normal course of business of the Parent Company, and transactions that are not concluded under market conditions;
15. taking out bank loans;
16. transfer of the rights to carry out the expanded activities of the Parent Company and its directly related parties to a person who is not the exclusive property of the Parent Company or to a person directly related to the Parent Company;
17. any transfer, lease or establishment of a usufruct right, rent, pledge, mortgage or other encumbrances on the property of the Parent Company and persons directly related to the Parent Company;
18. proposal to the General Meeting of Shareholders to separate individual areas of activity of the Parent Company and the persons directly related to it, so that one or more of these areas of activity are transferred to a company or companies that are not related to the Parent Company, regardless of the form of separation of the relevant area of activity;
19. conclusion or amendment of management contracts for the Executive Director of the Parent Company;
20. all other issues related to the management of the Parent Company that are not within the exclusive competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Supervisory Board.

The Management Board shall adopt decisions if at least half of its members are present in person or represented by another member of the Board. A member who presents, may not represent more than one absent member. Decisions shall be taken by simple majority.

The Management Board may take written resolutions if all members of the Board agree in writing to these decisions.

Election and dismissal of members of the Management Board

The Supervisory Board elects and dismisses the members of the Management Board in accordance with the law and the Articles of Association of the Parent Company, as well as in accordance with the principles of continuity and sustainability of the work of the Management Board.

In case of proposals for election of new members of the Management Board, the principles of compliance of the competence of the candidates with the nature of the activity of the Parent Company are observed.

All members of the Management Board meet the legal requirements for holding their positions. The functions and obligations of the corporate management, as well as its structure and competence, are in accordance with the requirements of the Code.

The contracts for assignment of management, concluded with the members of the Management Board, determine their obligations and tasks, their duty of loyalty to the Parent Company and the grounds for dismissal.

At the time of preparation of this Corporate Governance Statement, the Parent Company does not plan to change the composition of the Management Board, as the mandate of its members expires at the end of 2026. If it is necessary to elect new members, the Parent Company will take into account the recommendations of the Corporate Governance Code.

Structure and competence of the Management Board

The number of members and the structure of the Management Board are determined in accordance with the provisions of the Parent Company's Articles of Association. The Management Board of the Parent Company consists of five members, which is an optimal number in order to guarantee the effective operation of the Parent Company.

The Management Board is composed of professionals with various competencies, including those with financial and accounting experience, legal, technical and technological, commercial and managerial, in order to ensure the professionalism, impartiality and independence of its decisions in relation to the management of the Parent Company. The functions and obligations of the corporate management, as well as its structure and competence, are in accordance with the requirements of the Code.

The Management Board ensures a proper division of tasks and duties among its members to achieve efficiency in the Parent Company's activities, in accordance with the interests and rights of the shareholders.

The competences, rights and obligations of the members of the Management Board follow the requirements of the law, the organizational acts and the standards of good professional and management practice. The members of the Management Board are committed to informing themselves about new trends in the field of corporate governance and sustainable development.

The members of the Management Board have professional experience and knowledge in the fields of management, finance, law, trade and technology, as well as knowledge of the impact of climate on the development of the Parent Company, which are required for holding such a position.

Improving the qualifications of the members of the Management Board is their constant commitment, as they undergo various training courses, attend international exhibitions and seminars, and trade fairs.

The members of the Management Board have the necessary time to fulfill their tasks and obligations, although the Parent Company's articles of association do not determine the number of companies in which the members of the Management Board may hold management positions. This circumstance is observed when proposing and electing new members of the Management Board.

Conflict of interest

The members of the Management Board avoid and do not allow any real or potential conflict of interest.

The members of the Management Board shall immediately disclose conflicts of interest, if any, and shall provide access to information on transactions between the Parent Company or its subsidiaries on the one hand and members of the Management Board or persons related to them on the other hand, by submitting a declaration under Art. 114b of POSA. The Parent Company's Articles of Association expressly provide that, at the latest by the start of the meeting, a member of the Management Board shall be obliged to notify its chairman in writing that he/she or a person related to him/her has a conflict of interest on an issue put on the agenda and shall not participate in making the decision.

In 2020, the Management Board developed a procedure for avoiding conflicts of interest, which procedure will also apply in 2025.

Functions and duties of the Supervisory Board

The Supervisory Board of the Parent Company makes decisions, as its exclusive competence, for:

1. election and dismissal of the members of the Management Board and determination of the remuneration of the members of the Management Board and the executive directors;
2. approval of the consolidated three-year business plan and the consolidated annual budget of the Parent Company and its subsidiaries, as well as of material changes thereto in the event of a decrease in the consolidated EBITDA of the Parent Company from the annual budget by more than 20% (twenty percent) for the last two completed calendar quarters;

 - 3.5. a material change in the commercial activities of the Parent Company or its subsidiaries;
 - 3.6. granting or receiving loans by the Parent Company or its subsidiary to/from third parties (excluding loans between the Parent Company and its subsidiary) that exceed 15% of the Parent Company's consolidated total assets as of the end of the last completed calendar quarter;

- 3.7. entering into convertible loan agreements, future capital agreements (simple agreement for future equity), bonds or other investment instruments from the Parent Company or its subsidiary or a change in material terms thereof;
- 3.8. any proposal for a substantial amendment to the Statute;
- 3.9. a proposal to the General Assembly to adopt a decision on each of the above issues.
4. The Supervisory Board approves, by a qualified majority of 4/5 (four fifths) of all votes, the conclusion of the following transactions, except when authorization by the General Meeting is required by law:
 - 4.1. conclusion or amendment of agreements for one or more transactions with a total value exceeding one million euros per year between the Parent Company or its subsidiary and: (i) a shareholder holding directly or indirectly more than 25% (twenty-five percent) of the capital of the Parent Company (ii) a company in which a shareholder under item (i) holds more than 50% of the capital, with the exception of subsidiaries of the Parent Company and consortia in which they participate;
 - 4.2. conclusion by the Parent Company or its subsidiary of an expense transaction or a series of related expenditure transactions cumulatively exceeding 15% (fifteen percent) of the value of the expenditure in the approved and agreed consolidated budget, but not less than one million euros;
 - 4.3. conclusion by the Parent Company or its subsidiary of a revenue transaction exceeding 5 (five) million euros for a period of 12 months from the last transaction;
 - 4.4. establishment of a lien, pledge or other encumbrance on assets of the Parent Company or its subsidiary (shares, movable and immovable assets) to secure obligations of third parties (other than subsidiaries of the Parent Company) that are not related to the activities of the Parent Company;
 - 4.5. disposal (transfer or provision as collateral) of assets (shares in subsidiaries, fixed assets) of the Parent Company or its subsidiary in the amount of more than 5% of the consolidated total assets of the Parent Company as of the end of the last completed calendar quarter.
 - 4.6. approves the Rules of Procedure of the Management Board and any proposed amendments or additions thereto.
 - 4.7. has the right to request at any time from the Management Board to submit information, reports or draft decisions on all issues affecting the Parent Company.

The Supervisory Board has the right to inspect all documents, books and reports concerning the activities of the Parent Company and to request written and oral information on all issues from all members of the Managing Board and from all employees of the Parent Company.

The Supervisory Board shall meet at least once every three months. The meetings shall be convened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board on his own initiative or at the request of a member of the Supervisory Board or at the request of a member of the Management Board, made through the Chairman of the Management Board.

The Supervisory Board shall adopt decisions if more than half of its members are present in person or by proxy. A member present may not represent more than one absent member. Decisions shall be taken by simple majority.

Election and dismissal of members of the Supervisory Board

The members of the Supervisory Board are elected and dismissed by the General Meeting of Shareholders, in accordance with the law and the Articles of Association of the Parent Company, as well as in accordance with the principles of continuity and sustainability of the work of the Supervisory Board.

When considering proposals for the election of new members of the Supervisory Board, the principles of compliance with the competence of the candidates are observed, as required by the National Code of Corporate Governance, applied in the activities of the Parent Company.

All members of the Supervisory Board meet the legal requirements for holding their positions. The functions and obligations of the Supervisory Board, as well as its structure and competence, are in accordance with the requirements of the Code.

Structure and competence of the Supervisory Board

The number of members and the structure of the Supervisory Board are determined in the Articles of Association of the Parent Company. The Supervisory Board of the Parent Company consists of five members, which is an optimal number, in order to exercise effective control over the activities of the Parent Company.

The composition of the Supervisory Board is structured in a way that guarantees the professionalism, impartiality and independence of its decisions. The functions and obligations of the corporate management, as well as its structure and competence, are in accordance with the requirements of the Code.

The main function of the independent members is to control the actions of the supervisory body and to participate effectively in its work in accordance with the interests and rights of the shareholders. Independent members should guarantee impartiality and independence in the decision-making of the collective body.

The competencies, rights and obligations of the members of the Supervisory Board follow the requirements of the law, the organizational acts and the standards of good professional and management practice, and they are committed to being informed about new trends in the field of corporate governance and sustainable development.

The members of the Supervisory Board have the appropriate knowledge and experience required for the position they hold. Among them are specialists with more than 20 years of experience in the fields of investment and finance, high technologies and telecommunications.

The members of the Supervisory Board have the necessary time to perform their tasks and obligations, although the Parent Company's articles of association do not specify the number of companies in which the members of the Supervisory Board may hold management positions. This circumstance is observed in the proposals and election of new members of the Supervisory Board.

The election of the members of the Supervisory Board of the Parent Company takes place through a transparent procedure, which provides, among other things, timely and sufficient information about the personal and professional qualities of the candidates for members. As part of the materials for the general meeting, at which the election of a new member of the Supervisory Board is proposed, all declarations required by POSA and the Commercial Act, a criminal record certificate and a professional biography of the candidate for elected office are presented.

When electing members of the Supervisory Board, the candidates confirm by declaration or in person before the shareholders, the accuracy of the data and information presented. The election procedure is carried out by open voting and counting the votes “For”, “Against” and “Abstain”. The results of the vote are announced through the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

At the time of preparation of this Corporate Governance Statement, the Parent Company does not plan any changes in the composition of the Supervisory Board.

Conflict of interest

The members of the Supervisory Board shall immediately disclose conflicts of interest and provide access to information on transactions between the Parent Company or its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and members of the Supervisory Board or persons related to them by submitting the declaration under Article 114b of the POSA.

The Parent Company's Articles of Association explicitly provide that, at the latest by the start of the meeting, a member of the Supervisory Board is obliged to notify its Chairman in writing that he/she or a person related to him/her has a conflict of interest on an issue on the agenda and does not participate in making the decision.

Remuneration of the members of the Supervisory and Management Boards

The remuneration of the members of the Management and Supervisory Boards of Telelink Business Services Group AD is determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders, and their payment is in accordance with the remuneration policy adopted by the shareholders.

The remuneration policy for the members of the Supervisory and Managing Boards of “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD, developed by the members of the Supervisory Board, was adopted by their decision on 03.08.2020 and was approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Parent Company, held on 10.09.2020.

The Policy has entered into force from the date of approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Parent Company. Since its adoption, until the date of preparation of this document, there have been two amendments and supplements to the adopted policy, developed by the members of the Supervisory Board and adopted by decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, held on 10.12.2020 and 14.09.2021, respectively.

The Parent Company has accrued and paid remuneration in accordance with the remuneration policy adopted by the General Meeting.

Information on the principles for forming the remuneration of the members of the Management and Supervisory Boards of the Parent Company, as well as on their amount, are disclosed in a report on the implementation of the remuneration policy for the members of the Supervisory and Managing Boards, prepared in accordance with the requirements of Art. 12 of Regulation No. 48 of the Financial Supervisory Commission of 20.03.2013 on the requirements for remuneration. In accordance with the requirements of the regulation, the report on the implementation of the remuneration policy is part of the written materials when conducting a regular annual General Meeting, and shareholders are given the opportunity to make recommendations on the content and manner of presenting the information in the report. Shareholders have easy access to information on the remuneration paid to the members of the Supervisory and Management Boards of “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD through the Parent Company’s website, where it is published annually the report on the implementation of the remuneration policy, immediately after its adoption by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Managing boards of subsidiaries

The managing boards of the subsidiaries are appointed and dismissed by the management of Telelink Business Services Group AD in compliance with the rules for avoiding conflicts of interest in cases where a member of the Managing board of the controlling company has an interest in a particular decision.

The managing boards of the subsidiaries are entitled to carry out all actions and transactions that are related to the companies’ business. With regard to transactions for the conclusion of which, according to the companies’ articles of association, a resolution of another body such as the board of directors, the supervisory board and/or the sole owner is required, the transactions shall be concluded after the approval of the relevant resolution. Examples of such transactions are:

When describing the main characteristics of the internal control and risk management systems, it is taken into account that POSA and the National Corporate Governance Code do not define an internal control framework that public companies in Bulgaria should follow. Therefore, for the purposes of fulfilling the Parent Company's obligations under Art. 100n, para. 8, item 4 of POSA, when describing the main characteristics of the systems, the frameworks of:

- International Standard on Auditing 315
- International standard ISO 31000:2018 "Risk management. Guidance"

- International standard ISO 31010:2019 “Risk management. Risk assessment methods”

The management adheres to the following basic principles in establishing, managing and maintaining the internal control and risk management system:

- Provides a basis for making informed decisions
- Feasibility and applicability to the Parent Company’s activities
- An integral part of the Parent Company’s processes
- Takes into account human, cultural and organizational factors
- Competence: The Parent Company’s Management Board and the persons involved in the internal control and risk management process possess the necessary knowledge and skills.
- Contributes to the continuous improvement of the Parent Company's processes
- Contributes to achieving the goals of the Parent Company

Internal control

The purpose of internal control in the Parent Company and the Group companies is to monitor the functioning of processes, the implementation of adopted rules, compliance with applicable legislation and standards, determination of processes / areas for auditing, as well as risk indicators for monitoring. The internal control system of financial reporting is based on the previous experience of the management, studies of good reporting and control practices, compliance with legal requirements to ensure the effective functioning of the reporting and disclosure systems. It is in a constant process of monitoring and continuous improvement.

Internal control is conducted on an ongoing basis and provides the Parent Company’s Management Board with data for making informed decisions regarding the functioning of processes, the management of risks and opportunities, improvement of controls and operations, as well as reliable information regarding compliance with applicable legislation and standards.

Internal control is exercised over all activities, regardless of whether they are financial or not.

Internal control is implemented through constant monitoring of indicators built into the Parent Company's operational and management processes and does not interfere with operational work.

The Group companies’ management is responsible for preparing an annual activity report, as well as financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position of the enterprise, in accordance with the applicable accounting policies.

Management’s responsibility also includes implementing a system of internal control to prevent, detect and correct errors and misstatements arising from the operations of the accounting system, based on the following basic principles:

- Compliance with accounting policies, completeness and accuracy of accounting information disclosed in the financial statements;
- Recording all operations in accordance with legal and regulatory acts;
- Timely recording of transactions and events, with their exact amount, in the preparation of financial statements;
- Compliance with the principle of prudence in the valuation of assets, liabilities, income and expenses; identification and elimination of fraud and errors;

- Preparation of reliable financial information;
- Adherence to international financial reporting standards and compliance with the “going concern principle”.

Risk management

The purpose of Risk Management is to create a mechanism for making informed and consistent decisions by the Management of the companies in the Group in order to achieve sustainable business development.

In order to achieve maximum efficiency, the risk management process is an integral part of the activities of the companies in the Group, built as a structured approach according to the internal and external context of the organization and in line with the dynamic changes that may occur in this context. The process is implemented using historical and current information, future forecasting and the influence that the human factor can have.

“TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD constantly monitors and adapts its risk management approach, and monitors and develops its operational processes to ensure continuous improvement.

The Parent Company has implemented an Integrated Business Process Management System, which is certified according to the requirements of 8 Management ISO standards, which guarantees the effectiveness of the implemented processes regarding information security management, including cybersecurity, supplier management and supply chain risk assessment and risk assessment related to sustainability aspects.

A detailed description of the risks characteristic of the activities of “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD is presented in the section “Main risks faced by the Group” of the management report.

On 17.06.2024, a Corporate Risk Management Committee was established under the Supervisory Board, whose role is to advise the Management Board on the Parent Company’s overall risk management strategy. The functions, organization and working methods of the Committee are described in detail in specific rules adopted by the Supervisory Board.

Information system and related business processes essential to financial reporting and communication

The information system, essential for the purposes of financial reporting, management of the Group companies’ and communication, represents an integrated whole of systems, platforms and procedures that are used to:

- initiating, recording, processing and reporting the Group companies’ transactions and operations (as well as events and conditions) and maintaining records of related assets, liabilities and equity;
- resolving problems with incorrect processing of transactions and operations;
- transfer of information from transaction and operation processing systems to the general ledger;
- covering information relevant to the financial reporting of events and conditions other than transactions and operations.

The accounting team experts working with the Group companies’ Information System and performing the related business processes have the necessary competence and a clear understanding of the individual roles and responsibilities related to internal control – their own and those of management personnel and understand how their activities in the financial reporting information system relate to the work of others and the means for reporting exceptions to corporate management. Open channels of communication help ensure that exceptions are reported and acted upon.

Ongoing monitoring of controls

Ongoing monitoring of controls is the process of evaluating the effectiveness of the performance of internal controls over time. It involves assessing the effectiveness of controls in a timely manner and taking necessary remedial actions. Corporate management performs ongoing monitoring of controls through ongoing activities, separate assessments, or a combination of both. Ongoing monitoring activities are often embedded in the normal recurring activities of the Group companies and include regular management and oversight activities.

III. Protection of shareholders' rights

The corporate management ensures equal treatment of all shareholders, including minority and foreign shareholders, protects their rights, and facilitates their exercise within the limits permitted by applicable law and in accordance with the provisions of the Parent Company's articles of association.

The invitation to the General Meeting contains the information required under the Commercial Act and POSA, as well as additional information regarding the exercise of voting rights and the possibility of adding new items to the agenda pursuant to Article 223a of the Commerce Act.

The corporate management ensures that all current and future investors are informed by publishing on the Parent Company's website, as well as on the information agency selected by the Parent Company for providing regulated information (X3 News), information about the Parent Company's financial results, as well as upcoming corporate events (such as holding a general meeting, distributing dividends, etc.).

General Meeting of Shareholders

All shareholders are informed of the rules under which general meetings of shareholders are convened and held, including voting procedures, through the Articles of Association of the Parent Company, as well as through an invitation to each specific General Meeting of Shareholders.

The corporate management provides sufficient and timely information regarding the date and venue of the General Meeting, as well as complete information regarding the issues that will be considered and resolved at the meeting.

The invitation and materials for the General Meeting of Shareholders are announced through X3 News and reach the public, the Financial Supervision Commission and the regulated securities market. In order to facilitate the exercise of rights by cross-border shareholders, the Parent Company provides the Central Depository with notices of upcoming corporate events. After submission of the invitation and materials for the General Meeting of Shareholders, they are also available on the Parent Company's website.

Shareholders with voting rights have the opportunity to exercise their right to vote at the General Meeting of the Parent Company in person or through representatives and by correspondence.

As part of the materials for the General Meeting of Shareholders, the corporate management provides a sample proxy, Rules for Voting by Proxy, a declaration for voting by correspondence and Rules for Voting by Correspondence.

The Managing Board exercises effective control by creating the necessary organization for voting by correspondence or through authorized persons in accordance with the instructions of the shareholders and in the ways permitted by law. By order of the Executive Director, the composition of a mandate commission is determined, which registers the shareholders for each specific general meeting.

The management of the General Meeting strictly monitors the legal conduct of the General Meeting, including the manner of voting of the authorized persons. If differences are found in the will of the principal and the vote of the authorized person, this circumstance is entered in the minutes and the will of the principal is respected accordingly.

The Managing Board organizes the procedures and order for conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders in a manner that does not unnecessarily complicate or increase the cost of voting.

In order to maximally facilitate the exercise of shareholders' voting rights, an additional method for exercising voting rights by correspondence was introduced in the Parent Company's articles of association.

In addition, the Parent Company provides an opportunity for its shareholders who cannot attend the general meeting in person, nor exercise their right to vote by correspondence or proxy, to observe the meeting in real time, without having the opportunity to exercise their right to vote. The aim is for the information on the decisions taken by the shareholders, as well as the management's answers to questions raised during the meeting regarding the financial condition of the Parent Company, to reach all persons who have acquired shares in the capital of "Telelink Business Services Group" AD.

Materials for the General Meeting of Shareholders

The texts in the written materials related to the agenda of the General Meeting are specific and clear and do not mislead the shareholders. They are available to the shareholders from the day of the announcement of the invitation to convene it in the Commercial Register and the Register of Non-Profit Legal Entities and are published on the Parent Company's website. All proposals regarding major corporate events are presented as separate items on the agenda of the General Meeting, including the proposal for the distribution of profit.

The Management Board, in accordance with the current legislation, assists shareholders who have the right to include additional issues and propose resolutions on issues already included in the agenda of the General Meeting, by taking all necessary legal and factual actions to disclose the additional issues added to the agenda of an already convened General Meeting.

The Management Board guarantees the right of shareholders to be informed about the decisions taken at the General Meeting of Shareholders by disclosing the Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders through the selected media agency.

Equal treatment of shareholders of one class

According to the POSA, the Articles of Association of the Parent Company and the internal acts of the Parent Company, all shareholders of one class are treated equally, and all shares within one class grant equal rights to shareholders of the same class.

The Managing Board ensures that sufficient information is provided to investors regarding the rights conferred by all shares of each class prior to their acquisition through the information published on the Parent Company's website, as well as through conversations and personal meetings with the management and/or the Investor Relations Director.

Consultations between shareholders on basic shareholder rights

The Management Board shall not prevent shareholders, including institutional shareholders, from consulting each other on matters relating to the exercise of their fundamental shareholder rights in a manner that does not allow for abuse.

Shareholder' transactions with controlling rights and abusive transactions

The Management Board does not allow transactions with shareholders with controlling rights that violate the rights and/or legitimate interests of the other shareholders, including under the terms of negotiation with itself. When carrying out this type of transaction, an explicit decision of the Management Board is required, and interested parties are excluded from voting. In case of indications of exceeding the statutory thresholds under Art. 114, para. 1 of the POSA, the Management Board prepares a reasoned report and initiates the convening and holding of a General Meeting of Shareholders, at which the transactions are to be put to a vote.

IV. Disclosure of information

The Management Board has developed "Rules for Disclosure of Inside Information and Regarding Insiders" for "Telelink Business Services Group" AD, which are in force from 14.05.2024.

The document has been developed in accordance with the legal requirements and the Parent Company's organizational acts. In accordance with the adopted rules, the corporate management has created and maintains a system for disclosing information.

As of the date of this document, the requirement to disclose non-financial information through the preparation and submission of a sustainability report is not applicable to Telelink Business Services Group AD.

The information disclosure system guarantees equality of the recipients of the information (shareholders, stakeholders, investment community) and does not allow abuse of inside information.

Inside information is disclosed in the legally established forms, order and deadlines through the selected media agency. The Parent Company uses a single point for electronic disclosure of information; thus, the information reaches the public, the FSC and the regulated securities market simultaneously and in an uncorrected form. Information in an uncorrected form and in the same volume is also published on the Parent Company's website. In this way, the Parent Company guarantees that the information disclosure system provides complete, timely, accurate and understandable information, which enables objective and informed decisions and assessments.

The Management Board shall promptly disclose the Parent Company's capital structure and agreements that result in the exercise of control in accordance with its disclosure rules.

The Management Board ensures that the rules and procedures under which acquisitions of control and extraordinary transactions such as conversions and sales of significant parts of the assets are carried out are clearly and promptly disclosed.

The Management Board approves and controls the process of preparing the annual and interim reports, as well as the interim financial notifications, as well as the procedure for their disclosure.

The Parent Company maintains a website with approved content, scope and periodicity of the information disclosed through it. The content of the Parent Company's website fully covers the recommendations of the National Corporate Governance Code.

The Managing Board believes that with its activities in 2025, it has created the prerequisites for sufficient transparency in its relationships with investors, financial media and capital market analysts.

In 2025, the Parent Company disclosed all regulated information within the deadlines and in accordance with the procedure provided for in the POSA and its implementing acts.

The Management and Supervisory Boards ensure that all transactions with related parties will be approved and implemented in a manner that ensures reliable management of the conflict of interest and protection of the interests of the Parent Company and its shareholders. The Parent Company has implemented rules for avoiding conflicts of interest in transactions with persons related to the Parent Company or them and disclosing information when such arise.

V. Stakeholders

The Parent Company has a stakeholder policy in place, which defines stakeholders and establishes the principles of effective interaction with them, in accordance with legal requirements and in compliance with the principles of transparency, accountability and business ethics. At a meeting held on 11.03.2022, the Supervisory Board reviewed and approved the policy.

“TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD regularly communicates with stakeholders both financial and non-financial information in connection with the corporate policy adopted by the Management Board.

VII. Description of the diversity policy applied to the Administrative, Management and Supervisory bodies of “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD

“TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD and its subsidiaries are committed to maintaining compliance with the highest ethical and legal standards in the areas of human rights, labour law, environmental protection and the fight against corruption.

The Parent Company has developed a number of internal documents that can be classified as a diversity policy regarding management and supervisory bodies in relation to aspects such as age, gender or education and professional experience.

Such internal documents are:

- Code of Ethical and Professional Conduct of “TELELINK BUSINESS SERVICES GROUP” AD, which aims to establish the moral and ethical norms, principles and standards for employee behaviour in accordance with corporate principles such as legality, professionalism, confidentiality, teamwork, responsibility and accountability, mutual respect, respect for personal dignity and exchange of knowledge.
- General policy for processing personal data

Each of the above documents, individually and collectively with the others, constitute the Parent Company's policy for diversity of the management and supervisory bodies in relation to aspects such as age, gender or education and professional experience. The Parent Company applies a balanced policy for nominating members of the corporate management who possess education and qualifications that correspond to the nature of the Parent Company's work, its long-term goals and business plan.

The Group companies prohibit and do not allow in any way direct or indirect discrimination based on race, nationality, ethnicity, human genome, citizenship, gender, origin, religion, education, age, disability, HIV/AIDS status, political affiliation, beliefs, personal and social status, trade union membership, sexual orientation, marital status, property status or any other special characteristics established by law or in an international treaty to which the Republic of Bulgaria is a party, and complies with all applicable laws on discrimination in the field of employment.

The prohibition of direct or indirect discrimination applies to all activities of the Group companies and is consciously applied in the selection of personnel, including in relation to their participation in administrative, management or supervisory bodies of the Group companies, as well as in relation to working conditions and determination of employee remuneration.

The Group companies expressly prohibit any manifestation of discriminatory behaviour by the companies' employees towards other persons, as well as incitement to discrimination or harassment on this basis. Any report or complaint of discrimination or harassment is subject to investigation and verification.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the shareholders of Telelink Business Services Group AD

REPORT ON THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Telelink Business Services Group AD (the Parent Company) and its subsidiaries (the Group), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at December 31, 2025, and the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2025, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as adopted by the European Union (EU).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) of the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA Code), as applicable to audits of consolidated financial statements of public interest entities, together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to audits of consolidated financial statements of public interest entities in Bulgaria. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the IESBA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Revenue from contracts with customers The Group's disclosures about revenue from contracts with customers are included in Notes 4 Accounting policy – summary of significant accounting policies: Revenue from contracts with customers, 5 Accounting policy - Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions: Revenue from contracts with customers and 9 Revenue from contracts with customers to the consolidated financial statements. In the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group has recognized revenue from contracts with customers amounting to BGN 283,352 thousand. This revenue includes revenue from sale of goods/equipment, services and combination of sale of goods/equipment and additional services. As a result of the Group's business model contracts with customers are of a various nature and contain customer-specific terms and performance obligations. In accordance with the requirements of IFRS 15 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" and as disclosed in Notes 4, 5 and 9, the Group has developed a policy for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers. In preparing and applying the policy, the Group's management has applied accounting estimates to determine the separate performance obligations under contracts with customers that significantly affect the amount of revenue recognized for the reporting period. Key judgements include an analysis of the economic nature and commercial context of contracts with customers to identify separate performance obligations, as well as an assessment of their progress at the end of the reporting period, including estimates and assumptions about the volume of services, activities and inventories that are required for satisfaction of the performance obligations; the expected total contract costs; the remaining costs of completing the contract; the total revenue from the contract, principal versus agent considerations, significant financing components, as well as the risks under the contracts, including technical, regulatory and legal risks. The management of the Group analyses every year the necessity for review of the previously applied judgments. During 2025 the assessment of the Group is that no changes to judgments are necessary. Because of the significance of revenue from contracts with customers and the significant accounting judgements and assumptions made by the Group's management, we have identified this area as a key audit matter.
	In this area our audit procedures, among others, included: • Performing walkthrough and understanding the process for revenue recognition including the Group's internal methods and control mechanisms for agreeing, concluding and executing contracts with customers. • Testing of the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of selected key controls related to the processes for recognizing revenue. • Review of the significant accounting judgements of the Group's management and determination of their reasonableness based on the IFRS Accounting Standards requirements for recognition and measurement of revenue from contracts with customers. • Assessment of the conclusions of the significant accounting judgements made by the Group's management by assessing the audit evidence received in the course of understanding and testing the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of key controls over the revenue process and through performing substantive procedures. • Analytical procedures and tests of details as appropriate in order to gain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence that revenue from contracts with customers is presented fairly, in all material respects. • Assessment of the appropriateness of the Group's disclosures regarding revenue presented in the consolidated financial statement to determine whether these are in accordance with IFRS 15 Revenue from contracts with customers.

Information Other than the Consolidated Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Management Board of the Parent Company (Management) is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the consolidated annual management report and the corporate governance statement, prepared by the management in accordance with Chapter Seven of the Accountancy Act, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon, unless it is not specifically stated in our auditor's report and to the extent it is specifically stated.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as adopted by the EU, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Supervisory Board and the Audit Committee (Those charged with governance) are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the Group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the Group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the Group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

Reporting in relation to the compliance with the electronic format of the consolidated financial statements, included in the annual consolidated financial report on activities under Art. 100m, para 5 of the Public Offering of Securities Act (POSA) with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation

We have performed a reasonable assurance engagement regarding the compliance of the electronic format of the Group's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025 attached in the electronic file "894500RSIIIEY6BQP9U56-20251231-BG-CON.zip", with the requirements of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/815 of December 17, 2018 supplementing Directive 2004/109/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council by means of regulatory technical standards to define the European Single Electronic Format for reporting (ESEF Regulation). Our opinion is only with respect to the electronic format of the consolidated financial statements and does not cover the other information included in the annual consolidated financial report on activities under Art.100m, para 4 of the POSA.

Description of the subject and applicable criteria

The management has prepared electronic format of the consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended December 31, 2025, in accordance with the ESEF Regulation to comply with the requirements of the POSA. The rules for preparing consolidated financial statements in this electronic format are set out in the ESEF Regulation and, in our opinion, have the characteristics of appropriate criteria for forming a reasonable assurance opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance

The Group's management is responsible for the application of the requirements of the ESEF Regulation in preparing the electronic format of the consolidated financial statements in XHTML. These responsibilities include the selection and implementation of appropriate iXBRL tags using the taxonomy of the ESEF Regulation, and the introduction and implementation of such internal control system as management determines is necessary to prepare the electronic format of the Group's annual consolidated financial statements, so that it does not contain significant inconsistencies with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the process of preparation of the annual consolidated financial statements of the Group, including the application of the ESEF Regulation.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a reasonable assurance opinion as to whether the electronic format of the consolidated financial statements complies with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation. For this objective we performed "Guidelines on the issuing of audit opinion with respect to the application of the European Single Electronic Format (ESEF) to the financial statements of companies which securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market in the European Union (EU)" by the Professional Organization of the Registered Auditors in Bulgaria - Institute of Certified Public Accountants (ICPA) and we have performed and a reasonable assurance engagement in accordance with ISAE 3000 (revised) Assurance Engagements Other than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information" (ISAE 3000 (revised)). This standard requires us to comply with ethical requirements, plan and perform appropriate procedures to obtain reasonable assurance whether the electronic format of the Group's consolidated financial statements has been prepared in all material respects in accordance with the applicable criteria set out above. The nature, timing and scope of the procedures chosen depend on our professional judgement, including the assessment of the risk of material non-compliance with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation, whether due to fraud or error.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an assurance engagement conducted in accordance with ISAE 3000 (revised) will always detect non-compliance with requirements, when it exists.

Requirements on quality control

We apply the requirements of International Standard on Quality Management (ISQM) 1, and accordingly maintain a comprehensive system of quality management including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements applicable to registered auditors in Bulgaria.

We are independent in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) of the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA Code) adopted by ICPA by IFAASRA.

Summary of work performed

The objective of the procedures planned and performed by us was to obtain reasonable assurance that the electronic format of the consolidated financial statements has been prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation. As part of assessing the compliance with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation regarding the electronic (XHTML) reporting format of the Group's consolidated statements, we maintained professional skepticism and used professional judgement. We also:

- obtained an understanding of the internal control and processes related to the application of the ESEF Regulation in relation to the Group's consolidated financial statements and including the preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements in XHTML format and its tagging in machine-readable language (iXBRL);
- checked whether the applied XHTML format is valid;
- checked whether the human-readable part of the electronic format of the consolidated financial statements corresponds to the audited consolidated financial statements;
- assessed the completeness of the tags in the Group's consolidated financial statements when using machine-readable language (iXBRL) in accordance with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation;
- assessed the appropriateness of the used iXBRL tags selected from the basic taxonomy, as well as the creation of an element of the extended taxonomy in accordance with the ESEF Regulation, when a suitable element in the basic taxonomy is missing;
- assessed the appropriateness of the correlation (fixation) of the elements of the extended taxonomy in accordance with the ESEF Regulation.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Opinion on compliance of the electronic format of the consolidated financial statements with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation

In our opinion, based on the procedures performed, the electronic format of the consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended December 31, 2025, contained in the attached electronic file “894500RSIIIEY6BQP9U56-20251231-BG-CON.zip”, is prepared in all material respects in compliance with the requirements of the ESEF Regulation.

Additional Matters Required to be Reported by the Accountancy Act and Public Offering of Securities Act (POSA)

In addition to our reporting responsibilities according to ISAs described in section Information Other than the Consolidated Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon, with respect to the consolidated annual management report and the corporate governance statement, we have also performed the procedures, together with the required under ISAs, in accordance with the Guidelines regarding new extended reports and communication by the auditor of the Professional Organization of Registered Auditors in Bulgaria - Institute of Certified Public Accountants (ICPA). These procedures include tests over the existence, form and content of the other information in order to assist us in forming an opinion as to whether the other information includes the disclosures and reporting as required by Chapter Seven of the Accountancy Act and the Public Offering of Securities Act (Art. 100m, paragraph 10 of POSA in relation to Art. 100m, paragraph 8, p. 3 and 4 of POSA), applicable in Bulgaria.

Opinion under Art. 37, paragraph 6 of the Accountancy Act

- The information included in the consolidated annual management report for the financial year for which the consolidated financial statements have been prepared, is consistent with the consolidated financial statements.
- The consolidated annual management report has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of Chapter Seven of the Accountancy Act and of Art. 100m, paragraph 7 of the Public Offering of Securities Act.
- The information required by Chapter Seven of the Accountancy Act and Art. 100m, paragraph 8 of the Public Offering of Securities Act is presented in the corporate governance statement covering the financial year for which the consolidated financial statements have been prepared.

Opinion under Art. 100m, paragraph 10 in relation to Art. 100m, paragraph 8, p. 3 and 4 of the Public Offering of Securities Act

Based on the procedures performed and as a result of the acquired knowledge and understanding of the Group and the environment in which it operates, acquired during our audit, in our opinion, the description of the main features of the Group's internal control and risk management systems in relation to the financial reporting process as part of the consolidated annual management report (as element of the content of the corporate governance statement) and the information under Art. 10, paragraph 1, letter "c", "d", "f", "h" and "i" of the Directive 2004/25/EC of the European Parliament and of the EU Council of April 21, 2004 related to takeover bids do not contain cases of material misrepresentations.
