7th “Dimitris Manolopoulos” Honorary Scholarship

Space Hellas announces the launch of the seventh annual program of honorary scholarships "Dimitris Manolopoulos," in memory of its founder.

The scholarships are three, amounting to six thousand euros each and will be awarded to graduates of higher public education institutions in Greece or equivalent higher education institutions abroad, who will enroll in the academic year 2025-2026 in Greek public universities, for postgraduate or doctoral degrees studies, in the area of information and communication technologies, and preferably in areas related to communication networks, Cyber Security and Artificial Intelligence (AI).

The Executive Chairman of Space Hellas, Mr. Spyros D. Manolopoulos, stated respectively: "Space Hellas, consistently continuing its tradition of supporting the progress of young people, is once again promoting the institution of scholarships in memory of Dimitris Manolopoulos. This initiative is an integral part of our corporate responsibility and expresses our belief that investing in knowledge and education contributes decisively to the development of society.

Our aim is to provide young people with vision and ambition with the opportunities they need to develop their talents and shape the future they seek. Every scholarship is for us an act of support for those who want to move forward and create value in the field of technology."

Interested parties can be informed on how to complete the online application form at <https://www.space.gr/en/scholarships>. The submission of applications and all necessary supporting documents shall be made electronically, through the company's website. Ending date for this submission is Monday the 15th of December 2025 at 5 p.m.
