Alfa Laval implements 4:1 split with record date June 10, 2008

Alfa Laval is now implementing the decision taken by the Annual General Meeting on April 22, 2008, to split of each existing share into four (4) new shares. The record date for the split will be June 10, 2008, meaning that the last day for trading in the Alfa Laval share prior to the split is June 4, 2008, and the first day for trading the Alfa Laval share after the split is June 5, 2008.

About Alfa Laval

Alfa Laval is a leading global provider of specialized products and engineering solutions based on its key technologies of heat transfer, separation and fluid handling.

The company's equipment, systems and services are dedicated to assisting customers in optimizing the performance of their processes. The solutions help them to heat, cool, separate and transport products in industries that produce food and beverages, chemicals and petrochemicals, pharmaceuticals, starch, sugar and ethanol.

Alfa Laval's products are also used in power plants, aboard ships, in the mechanical engineering industry, in the mining industry and for wastewater treatment, as well as for comfort climate and refrigeration applications.

Alfa Laval's worldwide organization works closely with customers in nearly 100 countries to help them stay ahead in the global arena.

Alfa Laval is listed on the Nordic Exchange, Nordic Large Cap, and, in 2007, posted annual sales of about SEK 25 billion (approx. 2.7 billion euros). The company has some 11,500 employees.
