

Castellum wins Best Annual Report award among the largest companies listed on the Stockholm Stock Exchange

Castellum has received the award for Best Annual Report 2015, among Swedish companies listed on Nasdaq Stockholm, Large Cap.

“Top class that inspires” – one comment that stood out in the jury’s motivation.

The competition comprises a qualitative review, carried out on every company listed on the exchange. The prize awarded by Finforum and the jury consists of FAR (Swedish Institute of Authorized Public Accountants), Nasdaq, the Swedish Society of Financial Analysts and the Swedish Association of Communication Professionals.

It was the big-picture effect in Castellum’s Annual Report that inspired the “top class” jury assessment. Castellum’s financial pages, the risk section, and property valuation changes, in addition to descriptions of current real estate holdings, were highlighted as being particularly distinctive.

Overall, the jury considered that Castellum had produced an excellent Annual Report. Jury members noted it can serve as an inspiration to their industry colleagues as well as to colleagues from companies in entirely different sectors – whose ambition is to create an annual report which is state-of-the-art.

“It’s totally delightful to be accepting this prize for Best Annual Report among the Large-Cap companies, on behalf of Castellum – it inspires us to continuous development”, says Malin Engelbrecht, Head of Communication at Castellum.
