Catena strengthens the management team

Catena appoints Amanda Thynell as Head of Sustainability and a member of Catena's management team.

Amanda Thynell has been employed by Catena since 2021, currently as Sustainability Controller. Before joining Catena she worked in various positions focusing on sustainability and CSR-performance within the retail sector and she has a solid educational background.

- With Amanda in our management team, Catena's ambitions are clarified. We operate in a complex logistics network that is critical for a well-functioning society which needs to be designed more sustainably. Amanda has an ability to see the big picture and manages Catena's work within ESG throughout the operations with great commitment in order to fulfill our goals, says Catena's CEO Jörgen Eriksson.

Once these management changes have been implemented in August 2022, Catena's management team will comprise the following individuals and positions: Jörgen Eriksson, CEO; Sofie Bennsten, Deputy CEO/CFO; Annie Nyblom, Head of Marketing and Communications; David Silvesjö, Chief Treasury Officer; Johan Franzén, Head of Business and Property; Malin Nissen, Head of HR and Amanda Thynell, Head of Sustainability.
