Press Release -- Intrum Justitia may be required to disclose the information provided herein pursuant to the Swedish Securities Markets Act and/or the Swedish Financial Instruments Trading Act. The information was provided for public release on Monday, June 15, 2009, at 07:00 a.m. CET.

Bengt Lejdström is named the new Chief Financial Officer for Intrum Justitia

Bengt Lejdström is currently CFO of the management and IT consulting company Acando AB, with revenues of 150 million EUR, 1,100 employees and operations in six countries, listed on Nasdaq OMX Stockholm.

Bengt Lejdström has also been acting CEO for Acando the last six months. Prior to Acando, Bengt Lejdström worked for Nasdaq OMX Stockholm, the European Central Bank, and as a management consultant in the financial services industry.

"I am very pleased and gratified that Bengt has decided to accept the offer to become our CFO" says Lars Wollung, President and CEO of Intrum Justitia.

"Intrum Justitia is in a process of strategic transformation that is expected to continue for a number of years. Bengt has vast experience of corporate performance management, operational excellence and acquisitions, which are critical for our transformation journey. Furthermore, he has a documented knowledge of the corporate life of a listed company".

Bengt Lejdström will take over as CFO as soon as possible, though no later than December 12, 2009. He replaces Monika Elling, who, as earlier announced, has been appointed Regional Managing Director for Intrum Justitia in Scandinavia.
