Statement regarding information in the media

Following a media article published today, Intrum can confirm an ongoing dialogue with the Italian bank Intesa Sanpaolo regarding an acquisition of a servicing platform and a portfolio of non-performing loans (NPLs). These discussions are at an early stage and no further details will be disclosed.

Intrum is the leading supplier of credit management services in Europe and continuously evaluates portfolio investments or possible M&A targets in all markets where the group operates.

As pointed out at the capital markets day recently held in Stockholm, the activity level in the market for NPLs is currently high and therefore such discussions are to be considered part of the day to day business of Intrum.
