

PRESS RELEASE | 2018-11-26

Change in JM's Executive Management

Peter Neuberg, Business Unit Manager of JM Construction, has announced that he would like to resign his positions as Business Unit Manager and President of JM Entreprenad AB.

Peter's successor will be communicated separately. Sören Bergström, previously Business Unit Manager of JM Residential Sweden, has been named Acting Business Unit Manager of JM Construction and President of JM Entreprenad AB. Sören will take over on November 27 and will be a member of JM's Executive Management.

"Peter Neuberg took over the role as Business Unit Manager of JM Construction in 2015, and he has played an important role in developing the construction business and moving it forward. With Sören as the Acting Business Unit Manager of JM Construction, the business can continue without interruption," says Johan Skoglund, President and CEO of JM.
