

Lindab's incentive programme for employees fully subscribed

Lindab's incentive programme for senior executives and key employees within the Company has been received with great interest. 85 people, corresponding to 95 percent of those invited to participate, have subscribed to 784,000 share warrants, which have been acquired at market-based price. The participants represent some thirty countries.

The AGM 7 May 2008 resolved in favour of an incentive programme for senior executives and key employees within Lindab. The programme consists of share warrants with the right to subscribe to shares in Lindab International AB during the period 1 June 2010 up to and including 31 May 2011. The dilutive effect of the programme will amount to 1 percent of the share capital.

The executive management have fully subscribed to their respective allocations.

The complete conditions for the programme can be found in the board's proposal to the AGM. The proposal is available at www.lindabgroup.com (Investor Relations).
