

Lindab receives EUR 8 million order for Belarus

Lindab's Building Systems division has received a EUR 8 million order for a plant manufacturing railway wagons located 60 km south of Minsk. The plant is a 40,000 sq. metre single-storey building with an adjacent multi-storey office measuring 2,100 square metres. Shipments have started recently and will continue through the first quarter of 2009.

In parallel, Lindab's Building Systems division opened a representative office in Minsk, Belarus, in September 2008.

David Brodetsky, Lindab's President and CEO comments;

"This is a positive sign of continued economic development in the CEE&CIS. The demand for high quality buildings is strong in the region and Lindab Building Systems' one-stop shop capability to deliver complete solutions for complex projects is highly appreciated by our customers."
