

Lindab announces management change within the Ventilation business area

Lindab has agreed with Hannu Paitula, Manager of the Ventilation business area, that he will retire during the summer of 2009. Lindab's CEO and President, David Brodetsky, will take on the additional responsibility for managing the Ventilation business area during an interim period, which will also facilitate the hand-over to the successor.

Lindab's CEO David Brodetsky, comments: "Hannu Paitula has been in charge of the Ventilation business area since 2005 and, with his experience of the industry, he has contributed to Lindab's success within the ventilation area. I would like to express my gratitude for this and wish him the very best for the future".
