

Management change at Lindab - CFO to leave at his own request

After twelve years with Lindab, Nils-Johan Andersson, Chief Financial Officer of Lindab Group, is to leave the company at his own request to take up a position with Saab Automobile. Nils-Johan Andersson will be continuing in his current role for a period of time which will facilitate an orderly transition. A search is being initiated for a new CFO.

David Brodetsky, President and CEO, stated: "We wish to extend our thanks to Nils-Johan for his contribution and service to Lindab over the years and we wish him much success in his future position."
