

Lindab receives a SEK 80 million order for a business and leisure centre in Russia

Lindab has received an order, worth approximately SEK 80 million, for a four-storey combined business and leisure centre in Barnaul, Siberia, Russia. The building will comprise 100,000 square metres and is the largest multi-storey building ever delivered by Lindab. The deliveries will take place throughout 2012.

Lindab's President and CEO David Brodetsky comments:

"Our focus remains strong on Russia, which is an exciting market with big potential. Our know-how in designing and delivering multi-storey buildings in a short space of time were key factors in this project."
