

Lindab announces management change in Building Systems business area

It has been mutually agreed that Venant Krier, Business Area Manager Building Systems, will leave Lindab on December 5th. He is replaced as Business Area Manager by Hans Berger who has many years' experience in managing Building Systems businesses in both North America and Europe and who is currently Business Unit manager for Lindab Inc in the US. Hans will also continue to have responsibility for Lindab Inc.

Lindab's President and CEO, David Brodetsky, comments: "Venant Krier has contributed greatly to developing the Building Systems business in many different roles over the years and I wish him much success in the future."

"Hans Berger is a seasoned manager with a proven track record of success and I have no doubt that his experience will benefit the continued recovery of the Building Systems business."
