Lindab completes the acquisition of ventilation distributor Felderer

On March 1, Lindab announced the acquisition of the German ventilation distributor Felderer. The acquisition was subject to approval by the German competition authorities, which was received on 30 March. Lindab has today completed the acquisition and Felderer will be part of Lindab from 29 April.

Felderer is one of Germany's largest distributors of ventilation products such as ducts, silencers, diffusers and fire protection products. They also manufacture circular ventilation ducts. Sales and distribution take place at seven locations in southern and western Germany. With the acquisition, Lindab's sales in Germany will more than double and Lindab gains a strong position throughout the country.

Felderer AG is based in Feldkirchen outside Munich. The company has annual sales of approximately SEK 700 million and has 160 employees.
