Jonas Arkestad is leaving as CFO for Lindab

Jonas Arkestad has today announced that he will leave his role as Chief Financial Officer and member of the Group management team. The recruitment of a replacement will begin immediately. Jonas Arkestad will continue in his role until a successor takes office, or until May 2023 at the latest.

"During his time at Lindab, Jonas has contributed positively to the company's development. We have made seventeen acquisitions and three divestments in the last two years, which has required extensive work with analysis and financing. Lindab has undergone a major transformation with an increased focus on profitability and growth, where Jonas has been an important member of the team. I want to thank Jonas for a good collaboration and wish him all the best when he now chooses to scale down his operational assignments", says Ola Ringdahl, President and CEO of Lindab.
