New Senior Vice President Corporate Communications to NCC

Ann Lindell Saeby will be the new Senior Vice President Corporate Communications for NCC AB, commencing on November 1, 2012. She joins NCC from Fortum, where she is the Vice President External Communications & Brand for the Group.

Ann Lindell Saeby has held several different communication positions at Fortum since 2004. Prior to this, she worked at Kreab Gavin Andersson in various senior executive posts, and as communication consultant.

“Ann has extensive experience of both marketing and communication issues, which will strengthen NCC’s position in the future,” says Peter Wågström, President and CEO of NCC AB.

She will commence as Senior Vice President Corporate Communications for NCC AB on November 1 and will be a member of Group Management. During a transition period between November 1 and mid February, Ann Lindell Saeby will work part time for NCC and Fortum respectively.

Ann Lindell Saeby is a Graduate in Business Management from the Stockholm School of Economics.

Acting Senior Vice President Corporate Communications, Ulf Thorné, will resume his normal duties as Communication Manager for the NCC Construction Sverige AB business area on November 1.
