Changes in the NCC Senior Management Team

Henrik Landelius, Head of business area Building Sweden, has decided to leave NCC for another position. He has been Head of the business area since 2018.

– I would like to extend my gratitude to Henrik Landelius, who has successfully run our building business in Sweden and played an important role in the strategic development of the NCC Group during these five years, says Tomas Carlsson, CEO of NCC.

Henrik Landelius will remain in his position during his notice period. He will leave NCC no later than in March 2024, and will at that time resume a position as CEO of Areim AB, an independent Nordic fund manager and property owner.

A recruitment process for the role as Head of business area Building Sweden has been initiated.
