Securitas has received competition approval for the acquisition of Niscayah and extends the acceptance period

Securitas has received competition approval from the European Commission as well as from the US competition authorities for the acquisition of Niscayah. Securitas has decided to extend the acceptance period for Niscayah's shareholders.

On May 16, 2011, Securitas announced an offer to acquire all shares and warrants in Niscayah. The terms of the offer state that for each 4.19 shares in Niscayah one (1) new share in Securitas will be received. Holders of warrants 2007/2012 in Niscayah are offered to, for each warrant, receive SEK 0.05 in cash.

Securitas announces that the relevant competition approvals to complete the offer have been obtained. The offer is thus no longer dependent on approvals from competition authorities or other authorities.

Securitas furthermore announces that the acceptance period for the offer is extended up to and including September 9, 2011 at 17.00 (CET).

Further information regarding the offer, including the offer document, is available on Securitas' website www.securitas.com and SEB's website www.seb.se/prospekt.
