Executive Vice President & General Counsel leaves Skanska

Skanska announces today that Caroline Fellenius Omnell, Executive Vice President & General Counsel, is leaving Skanska. Caroline has been with Skanska for eight years and has been a member of the Group Leadership Team since 2017. A recruitment process will be initiated to appoint a successor.

"I want to thank Caroline for her commitment, strategic insight and development of the Legal function across the Group. Her expert legal guidance has been vital in our continued success in navigating complex market conditions and strongly contributed to driving value to the company. I wish her all the best in her future endeavors", says Anders Danielsson, President and CEO of Skanska Group.

"I am thankful and proud of what we have achieved over the last eight years at Skanska. Together with the Group Leadership Team we have developed the company across our markets with clear governance to the stable and profitable situation we are in today", says Caroline Fellenius Omnell, Executive Vice President & General Counsel, Skanska Group.

Ulrika Wester will as of today, September 13, step in as acting Executive Vice President & General Counsel until a successor has been appointed.
