Josefin Lindstrand leaves Swedbank's Board of Directors

Josefin Lindstrand has notified that she will leave Swedbank's Board of Directors to accept other board positions within the industry of financial technology and products.

"Josefin Lindstrand has contributed in an excellent way to Swedbank's considerable progress in leaving the historical AML-issues behind. I wish Josefin all the best in her new positions where I am convinced that her competence will prove itself very valuable," says Göran Persson, Chair of Swedbank's Board of Directors.

Josefin Lindstrand who has served on Swedbank's Board of Directors since 2019 leaves her position effective immediately.
