TeliaSonera announces cash offer for TEO LT

TeliaSonera AB, the leading telecommunications group in the Nordic-Baltic region, announces its decision to make a public offer for all the issued shares in the Lithuanian telecommunications company TEO LT AB ("TEO LT") that it does not already own.

TeliaSonera presently holds 100 percent of the shares in Amber Teleholding A/S, which owns 488,947,656 ordinary registered shares in TEO LT, representing 60 percent of all outstanding shares and 62.94 percent of all votes. The offer concerns all issued shares in TEO LT that TeliaSonera does not already own (excluding shares owned by TEO LT itself). TeliaSonera will offer LTL 1.83 in cash for each ordinary registered share of TEO LT. The total amount of the offer is LTL 527 million (SEK 1,556 million). This represents offer price premia of 52.4 percent over the 180-day and 47.5 percent over the 60-day volume-weighted average TEO LT share price, respectively, and 30.7 percent over the closing market price as of August 21, 2009.

The offer is not conditional and has no minimum threshold of shares acquired. The offer will not be extended to the Global Depository Receipts, (GDRs), nor to the shares and GDRs owned by TEO LT.

TeliaSonera offers reliable, innovative and user friendly telecommunication services in 20 markets, while at the same time recognizing the importance, as well as the potential, of adapting its portfolio of services to local market conditions. TeliaSonera aims at creating customer value by providing world class customer service, high quality networks and an efficient cost structure. The offer is in line with the group's strategy to increase ownership in core business holdings.

"TEO LT's future prospects will improve from an increased TeliaSonera ownership. TEO LT will gain enhanced access to TeliaSonera's know-how and innovative solutions which will enable them to develop and provide new services to customers at lower cost. We also believe that TEO LT would benefit in its future development and investments from TeliaSonera's strong financial position," says Lars Nyberg, President and CEO of TeliaSonera.

TEO LT is one of the leading providers of telecommunication services in Lithuania with strong brands and a leading market position. TeliaSonera regards Lithuania as a
