CEO COMMENTS

Troax reduced order intake by 5% during the quarter, which can be described as a good development compared to the conditions due to Covid. The quarter was less turbulent than expected and is characterized by a strong order intake mainly from larger customers in automated warehouse solutions driven by the need for increased e-commerce solutions. On the other hand, there was a continued weak demand from the automotive sector and a generally lower demand from small and medium-sized customers. We believe that there is a certain amount of catchup effect in the order intake for the third quarter, although this should not be exaggerated as several large orders were received during the period that are not considered to be affected by any Corona effects. On the positive side, market activity was acceptable throughout the quarter and fairly evenly distributed. Although the overall impression from the third quarter is clearly positive, we believe that we will lose some order intake during the fourth quarter compared with the previous year, as the market may still be described as weaker than 2019.

What seems to have been most negatively affected during the third quarter are smaller orders from small and medium-sized customers, where these customers probably have shorter order books compared with larger customers. As is well known, Troax is late in the business cycle but if we do not experience additional declines due to new closedowns of markets due to Corona restrictions, then we believe that the market has begun to stabilize at a lower level than before, but with continued good growth opportunities, especially in continued automation and e-commerce solutions.

During the quarter, with some exceptions, our production units had a good capacity utilization rate, which is also reflected in a stable operating profit for the period. It is particularly welcome that the development has been positive in North America, both from an efficiency point of view and results. Invoicing during the quarter was at the same level as last year, which is better than expected. Regionally, we have also had a good development in the Nordic region and in New markets, while Continental Europe and the UK show weaker figures. In summary, we believe that despite the decrease in order intake (-5% after 9 months 2020), we have continued to gain market share.

The latest investments in increased production capacity at our facilities in Sweden and Italy were mainly financially completed during the second quarter. The last part of the investment in new improved warehouse / logistics in the unit in Hillerstorp, has also entered its final phase and will be completed within the next few months.

The gross margin is positively affected by relatively good utilization in our production facilities and sales prices have been largely unaffected. The costs are again judged to be under control and continue to fall in the short term (no trade fairs, travel, etc.). However, continued investments in the area of digitization will continue as planned. Overall, this means that operating profit decreased by 0,5 MEUR, which in its entirety can be attributed to the positive foreign exchange gains we had during the third quarter of 2019, primarily due to a stronger USD. In total, operating profit was 9,3 MEUR compared with 9,8 MEUR the previous year. Expressed in operating margin, the figure was 22,1% this year compared to 23,2% the previous year. Net profit amounts to 6,9 MEUR for the quarter compared with 7,3 MEUR the previous year. No major changes have taken place regarding the development of working capital compared with the previous year. It should be noted that the dividend was paid to the shareholders during the third quarter of this year due to the postponed Annual General Meeting.

ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

This interim report has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting, the Annual Accounts Act and the Swedish Financial Reporting Board recommendation RFR 2, Accounting for Legal Entities. The Accounting principles that have been applied coincide with those accounting principles used for preparing the latest Annual Report. The Annual report for 2019 is available on www.troax.com.

ALTERNATIVE KEY RATIOS

In this interim report, Troax presents certain financial measures that are not defined by IFRS, so-called alternative key ratios. The Group believes that these measures provide valuable supplementary information to investors as they enable an evaluation of the company's results and position. Since not all companies calculate financial measurements in the same way, these are not always comparable to those used by other companies. Investors should consider these financial measures as a complement rather than an IFRS financial statement.

RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Exposure to risks is a natural part of business operations and this reflects Troax's approach to risk management. This aims to identify and prevent the occurrence of risks and to limit any damage from these risks. The most significant risks to which the Group is exposed are related to the cyclical impact on demand. For further information, see the Management Report and Note 25 in the Annual Report 2019.

SEASONAL VARIATIONS

Seasonal variations have some impact on Troax business. Sales are normally in general stable between the quarters but can fluctuate between the months in the quarter. Sales can be somewhat lower in the summer months (July-August) and from December to January. In periods of high production, the company normally ties up more money in Working Capital. Cash is then released from working capital after a high season when manufactured goods are installed and the customer's receivables paid.

Auditor's report

Troax Group AB (publ). reg. no. 556916-4030

Introduction

We have reviewed the condensed interim financial information (interim report) of Troax Group AB (publ) as of 30 September 2020 and the nine-month period then ended. The board of directors and the CEO are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the interim financial information in accordance with IAS 34 and the Swedish Annual Accounts Act. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim report based on our review.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with the International Standard on Review Engagements ISRE 2410, Review of Interim Report Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity. A review consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing, ISA, and other generally accepted auditing standards in Sweden. The procedures performed in a review do not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the interim report is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34 and the Swedish Annual Accounts Act, regarding the Group, and with the Swedish Annual Accounts Act, regarding the Parent Company.
