Attendo appoints new business development director

Attendo has appointed Johan Spångö as new business development director and member of the company's executive management.

Johan Spångö is 35 years old and has a Master of Science in Industrial Engineering and Management from Linköping University. He has been working in business development in Attendo since 2014 and has previous work experience from business development in Lernia and as a management consultant in Qvartz.

Johan Spångö will succeed Fredrik Mossberg who has decided to leave Attendo after ten years as business development director.

- I want to thank Fredrik Mossberg for excellent work in building up and leading Attendo's business development for a long time and want to wish him the best of luck as he now moves on to new challenges, says Henrik Borelius, CEO Attendo.
