Attendo appoints Fredrik Lagercrantz as new Chief Financial Officer

Attendo has appointed Fredrik Lagercrantz as new CFO. He joins Attendo from Swedish Match, where he was Senior Vice President Business Control and a Member of the Group Management Team. Rebecca Ericsson will take on the role of acting CFO from 27 September and until Fredrik Lagercrantz joins Attendo.

"I am delighted that Fredrik Lagercrantz is joining Attendo. He has solid experience in financial management from international operations. We will benefit greatly from Fredrik's expertise and energy in our continued ambition to develop Attendo by establishing new, modern nursing homes, thereby countering the shortages in care for older people," says Attendo's CEO Henrik Borelius.

"Attendo is a leading company that enables more and more people to access high-quality care throughout the Nordic region. I look forward to contribute to the company's overall development, and the development of the accounting and finance function in the coming years," says Fredrik Lagercrantz.

Fredrik Lagercrantz (39) has an MSc in business and economics from the Stockholm School of Economics. He was formerly a management consultant at McKinsey & Co, and since 2009 has held the roles of Vice President Group Business Control and Senior Vice President Group Business Control at Swedish Match.

Rebecca Ericsson, Head of Corporate Control at Attendo, will become the acting CFO from September 27, when Attendo's current CFO Tomas Björksiöö leaves the position.
