

Press release, 20 November 2017

Henrik Borelius has decided to leave his position as CEO after 17 years at Attendo

“During his 17 years at Attendo, Henrik Borelius has led the company through a unique transformation, from a company in crisis to become the leading care company in the Nordics. Under Henrik’s leadership Attendo has grown revenues more than 10 times to become the Nordic market leader with satisfied customers, high quality, satisfied employees and the industry’s best margins. Henrik combines strong analytical and strategic capabilities, business leadership close to the operations and a high level of energy. This has been invaluable in the role of CEO. The board and I would like to thank him for excellent work in developing Attendo and the care industry, and we wish him all the best as he moves on to new opportunities,” says Ulf Lundahl, chairman of Attendo.

“It has been a pleasure and a privilege to lead Attendo during these years and to work with so many driven and talented colleagues. I am very proud of what we have achieved together to gain the trust to provide care to so many customers and payors across the Nordics. Attendo has a stable platform for the future with a strong culture based on our vision, empowering the individual,” says Henrik Borelius, CEO.

“Attendo is stronger than ever, and with the competent and committed management team surrounding Henrik there is every opportunity for continued good performance. We have already started the process of finding a new CEO for Attendo,” says Ulf Lundahl.

The board of directors has initiated the process of appointing a successor. Henrik Borelius will continue as CEO in Attendo during his termination period until May 2018 and will remain as a board member until the Annual General Meeting 2018.

Attendo – the leading care and healthcare company in the Nordics

Attendo is the leading private provider of publicly financed care and healthcare services in the Nordic region. The company was founded in 1985 and was first to provide outsourced care for older people in Sweden. In addition to care for older people, Attendo provides care for people with disabilities, individuals and families, and, in Finland, healthcare and dental care. Attendo has more than 20,000 employees and is locally anchored with over 600 operations in more than 200 municipalities in Sweden, Finland, Norway and Denmark. www.attendo.com
