Attendo appoints new Business Development Director

Attendo has appointed Eric Wåhlgren as new Business Development Director and member of Group Executive Management.

Eric Wåhlgren, 40, holds a degree in Civil Engineering from Linköping University. He holds currently the position Vice President and Head of Group Strategy at Elekta and has previously many years of experience from Boston Consulting Group with focus on healthcare.

“Attendo has high ambitions to develop care services for today's and future needs. We will strengthen our digital presence, develop our quality work and improve the operational model. Eric has the right background and experience to lead our business development function in the coming years, says Martin Tivéus”, President and CEO of Attendo.

“The need for high quality and individualized care will increase in the future and, as the leading Nordic care company, Attendo will play an important role in this development. I look forward to be part of this journey and contributing with my skills and my experience”, says Eric Wåhlgren, incoming Business Development Director for Attendo.

Eric Wåhlgren will take up his position on March 9, 2020. As previously announced, Attendo's current Business Development Director Johan Spångö will leave on March 6.
