MEDIA RELEASE

Fatal accident at South Deep Gold Mine

Johannesburg, 1 May 2008. Gold Fields Limited ("Gold Fields") (NYSE, JSE, DIFX: GFI) deeply regrets to report that 9 people lost their lives in a shaft accident at the developing South Deep gold mine today. The accident happened at approximately 10h00 when a rope on a sub cage winder which was taking the employees from 105 to 110 level at the Twin Shafts complex apparently failed.

Nick Holland, chief executive officer of Gold Fields said: "We are deeply shocked by this terrible accident and our deepest condolences go out to the loved ones of the people who lost their lives."

The deceased employees were part of a Development Team working on various levels below 95 level. All mining operations have been suspended at the shaft.

Safety inspectors from the Department of Minerals and Energy, members of the unions and associations and management are on site.

The names of the deceased are being withheld until next of kin have been informed

Further details will be made known at a later stage.
