Oscar Tjärnberg new CEO for Skånska Byggvaror

Oscar Tjärnberg assumes the position as CEO of Skånska Byggvaror as of October 1, 2017. Oscar has long and broad experience from e-commerce, and is currently CEO of Lekmer. The current CEO Anders Johansson Eickhoff chooses to leave the company after five successful years.

CEO Anders Johansson Eickhoff has during almost five very successful years lead and developed Skånska Byggvaror. The business has grown faster than ever before during its 50 year history, the company has expanded to Norway and Denmark, and e-commerce has been complemented with 14 showroom stores. In addition to leading the company's development during the previous owner, Anders has also completed the transition to the current owner Bygghem Group.

"After almost five fantastic and very intense years it's time to hand over to the next sprinter. We have completed an exciting journey at Skånska Byggvaror. It's now time for the next phase in the company's development, and it feels natural to round off this chapter in my career and hand over to someone else to take Skånska Byggvaror to the next level", says Anders Johansson Eickhoff.

"Anders has led Skånska Byggvaror during its most eventful phase in the company's history, and doubled the company's turnover", says Mattias Ankarberg, CEO of Bygghem Group, and continues: "I'm grateful that Anders took responsibility for the transition to us as new owners, and also created the foundation for the new direction and transformation that has been initiated."

New CEO for Skånska Byggvaror is Oscar Tjärnberg. Oscar has over fifteen years experience from e-commerce of physical products to consumers, and is currently the CEO of Lekmer. His extensive e-commerce background spans several roles, product categories, and companies.

"Oscar is an experienced leader and CEO in Scandinavian e-commerce. He has broad competence and extensive experience of creating modern successful businesses within e-commerce. We are very happy to welcome Oscar as CEO of Skånska Byggvaror och member of Bygghem Group management," says Mattias Ankarberg, CEO of Bygghem Group.

Oscar assumes the position as CEO of Skånska Byggvaror on October 1, 2017. Oscar will be a group management member in Bygghem Group.
