

Concentric has appointed Emma Tamplin as Vice President Group HR

Concentric AB has appointed Emma Tamplin as Vice President Group Human Resources. Emma will be responsible for delivering the company's HR strategy and developing and implementing best practice procedures across a global workforce throughout the US, Europe and Asia.

Emma holds a BSc Politics and International Relations degree from the University of Southampton and a Masters Degree in Personnel and Development in addition to being a member of the Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD). With nearly 20 years of experience as a Human Resources professional, Emma joins us from L3Harris Technologies, operating primarily in the global aerospace and defence industry.

David Woolley, President and CEO of Concentric AB commented, "we are delighted that Emma is joining the Senior Executive Concentric team. Emma brings a vast breadth of experience and a proven track record of delivering people management, development and support across a diverse range of cultures within global manufacturing businesses."

For additional information please contact David Woolley, telephone +44-121-445 6545

Concentric AB is an innovator in flow control and fluid power, supplying proprietary systems and components to the world's truck, agricultural machinery, construction equipment and industrial applications end-markets. The company has a global manufacturing presence including in the UK, USA, Germany, Sweden, India, China and Argentina. Concentric's focus is to develop world class technology with innovative solutions that meet the sustainability needs of our customers. Concentric offers engine products including lubricant, coolant and fuel pumps, hydraulic products encompassing gear pumps and power packs, and finally several key technologies for the fast growing market for electrical and hybrid powertrains. The Group has a turnover of circa MSEK 2,000 and circa 800 employees.