Coor loses part of IFM contract with Equinor

Coor's agreement with Equinor in Norway consists of delivery of services to production sites, office sites and offshore. After performed tender process, Equinor has decided not to extend the office part of the contract when it expires in October 2021. The contract value for the office sites is approximately SEK 500 M annually.

The production sites are not affected by this decision. The offshore part of the agreement was extended in March 2020.
