Press release

12 November 2009

Elanders continues to rationalise Swedish operations

Elanders is giving notice today to 30 employees, primarily white collar workers in various administrative positions. The measure is yet another step in strengthening the competitive capacity of our Swedish business in the current market situation. It is also an important step in adapting to the development of greater automation in order management and administration.

Notice has been given to employees in Mölnlycke, Malmö, Falköping and Vällingby. This will not affect production capacity in any way.
