

Maria Wester new CFO of Lime Technologies

Lime Technologies AB (publ) has today appointed Maria Wester as new Chief Financial Officer (CFO). She will enter her new role on 3 November 2022 and at the same time take place in Lime's Executive Management Team.

Maria Wester most recently comes from a role as CFO of the digital healthcare services company Min Doktor. In addition, she has over ten years' experience in various key roles at the Dutch, listed company Intertrust Group, a global provider of management and administration services.

"We are excited to welcome Maria Wester to Lime and our Executive Management Team. With Maria, we gain another dedicated leader with a strong strategic focus and long experience of working in a listed environment. At a time when we want to both scale our existing markets and approach new ones from a long-term perspective, Maria's expertise in global expansion is spot on," says Nils Olsson, Managing Director and CEO of Lime.

"I feel very proud to take on this role at Lime. I am attracted by the great company culture and the company's impressive financial footprint where they have managed to combine strong growth with good profitability for over twenty years, even during tougher periods. Above all, I am looking forward to being part of Lime's continued growth journey in a market driven forward by enormously rapid technological development," says Maria.

Maria Wester succeeds Magnus Hansson, CFO at Lime since 2015. As previously announced, Magnus will leave his position after the handover to a new CFO has been completed.
