

Press Release

Göteborg 2009-12-29

Göran Härstedt and Torsten Jansson establish a company for joint investments

Göran Härstedt, coming partner in the law firm Lindahl and board member in New Wave Group AB (publ) among other companies, and Torsten Jansson, CEO and main owner of New Wave Group AB (publ), have, through companies, established a joint company, Härstedt & Jansson Invest AB, in order to invest in various companies and projects. Göran Härstedt and Torsten Jansson have also in the past made some joint investments, whereas the largest single investment was in JC AB in 2004.

"We want to go into companies on a long-term basis which now is having an attractive valuation and having a high potential when the general economic situation turns around" - says Göran Härstedt. "With Torsten's entrepreneurial spirit and our collective business expertise and my administrative and legal knowledge, we will be a good investment team" - continues Göran Härstedt.

"We see many interesting investment objects for sale today and the pricing is in many cases good" - says Torsten Jansson. "Me and Göran complement each other well in the investment context, and we want through the joint company further strengthen our cooperation" - continues Torsten Jansson.

For more information

Göran Härstedt, tel. +46 703 625611
Torsten Jansson, tel. +46 31 7128901