

Nederman announces plans for optimizing the production structure in Europe

Nederman today initiates negotiations with the trade unions about discontinuation of the production site Nederman Manufacturing A/S in Assens, Mariager, Denmark.

Nederman intends to optimize the production structure by transferring the production to other Nederman sites in Europe.

The restructuring does not affect Nederman's product range or the Danish sales and service company, Nederman Danmark A/S.

Nederman will issue further information about the effects of the restructuring, after the negotiations have been concluded.
