OEM International acquires ATB Drivtech AB

OEM International has today signed an agreement to acquire all shares in ATB Drivtech AB. The company, with head office in Swedish Ekerö, markets electric industrial motors, and has a yearly turnover of approximately 18 MSEK.

- ATB Drivtech's range of motors is a good complement to our existing product portfolio of smaller electric motors. The operations will be integrated with OEM Motor AB, which means that synergies can be realised and our customer offer is strengthened, says Jörgen Zahlin, Managing Director and CEO for OEM International.

The acquisition is expected to have a marginal impact on OEM's profit for the current year.

The information was made public on 17 September 2018 at 12:30 CET.
