Thomas Rebermark new Marketing Director at Rejlers

On 1 July, Thomas Rebermark will take up his new position as Marketing Director at Rejlers AB. Thomas Rebermark will be part of Rejlers' group management and will be responsible for marketing and communication issues. The coordination and development of Rejlers' position and the profiling of new and existing markets will be prioritized areas.

Thomas Rebermark's most recent position was Information and Marketing Director at Assemblinkoncernen. Thomas has long and broad experience of appointments in technology-orientated companies including four successful years as Marketing and Sales Director at Vectura AB.

"We are very pleased we have been able to recruit a marketing director with the experience that Thomas has and we wish him a warm welcome to Rejlers' group management. With Thomas's personality and his long experience, Rejlers will gain a highly competent co-worker who is very well suited for the exciting and dynamic development the company is about to undergo," says President and CEO Peter Rejler.
