

Doro AB (publ) appoints new CFO

Doro has appointed Linda Nilsson as its new CFO and as part of the group management team. She will take up her post latest by 23 March 2020. Linda Nilsson will be replacing Ronnie Ekman, who has been serving as interim CFO since Carl-Johan Zetterberg Boudrie took over as CEO of Doro in May 2019.

Linda Nilsson holds a Bachelor in business administration from Växjö University and has previously held a variety of managerial positions within the Sandvik Group, European House of Beds and Oriflame Cosmetics. Her most recent role was as Controlling Director at Skånemejerier, Lactalis Group.

- I am delighted to welcome Linda to Doro and to our group management team. She has sound financial experience and a profile that fits well with Doro's corporate culture. She will strengthen our company management and play an important role in our continued transformation into a technology enabled care company, says Carl-Johan Zetterberg Boudrie, CEO and President, Doro.

- I'm really looking forward to joining Doro. Doro's aspiration of leveraging technology to help seniors live an active and independent life gives the company a clear purpose and creates strong commitment. It feels very stimulating to come to a company in the midst of change and to get to play a part in realising Doro's full potential," says Linda Nilsson.
