

CEO Karin Schreil leaves Ework Group at the end of the year

Ework Group's President and CEO Karin Schreil has informed the company's Board of Directors that she has decided to leave her position at the end of the year. The Board will now initiate a recruitment process to appoint a new CEO for Ework.

Karin Schreil has been President and CEO since November 2021. Since then, the company has increased its earnings from SEK 98 to 139 million. Today, Ework is one of Europe's largest suppliers of IT and technology consultants, with sales of SEK 15.8 billion in 2024.

"During her time as President and CEO, Karin Schreil has further professionalized the company with new structures and systems that make us very well equipped for the future. We would like to extend our warm thanks to Karin for her efforts and wish her the best of luck in future challenges", says Chairman of the Board, Staffan Salén.

"It has been a privilege to lead Ework through an important and transformative phase of the company's development. Together, we have strengthened Ework's position and laid a solid foundation for continued success. I now look forward to completing my assignment before handing over to my successor early next year. A warm thank you to all colleagues, customers and partners for the good cooperation!", says CEO Karin Schreil.
