SUMMARY

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as “Elements”. These elements are numbered in Sections A—E (A.1—E.7).

This summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for this type of securities and Issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements.

Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in the summary because of the type of securities and Issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element is included in the summary with the mention of “not applicable”.

SECTION A — INTRODUCTION AND WARNINGS

Where a claim relating to the information contained in this Document is brought before a court the plaintiff Investor might, under the national legislation of the EEA States, have to bear the costs of translating this Document before legal proceedings are initiated.

Civil liability attaches only to those persons who have tabled this summary including any translation thereof but only if this summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of this Document or it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of this Document, key information in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in such securities.

A.2 Consent for intermediaries

Not applicable; there will be no resale or final placement of securities by financial intermediaries.

SECTION B — ISSUER

B.1 Legal and commercial name

The legal and commercial name of the issuer is Nomad Holdings Limited.

B.2 Domicile / Legal form / Legislation / Country of incorporation

The Company was incorporated with limited liability under the laws of the British Virgin Islands under the BVI Companies Act with an indefinite life.

B.3 Current operations / Principal activities and markets

Introduction

The Company was incorporated on 1 April 2014. Other than as set out below, the Company does not have any current operations or principal activities, no products are sold or services performed by the Company and the Company does not operate or compete in any specific market.

The Company was formed to undertake an acquisition of a target company or business. There is no specific expected target value for the Acquisition and the Company expects that any funds not used for the Acquisition will be used for future acquisitions, internal or external growth and expansion, purchase of outstanding debt and working capital in relation to the acquired company or business. Following completion of the Acquisition, the objective of the Company is expected to be to operate the acquired business and implement an operating strategy with a view to generating value for Shareholders through operational improvements as well as potentially through additional complementary acquisitions following the Acquisition. Following the Acquisition, the Company intends to seek re-admission of the enlarged group to listing on the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange or admission to another stock exchange.

The Company expects to acquire a controlling interest in a target company or business. The Company (or its successor) may consider acquiring a controlling interest constituting less than the whole voting control or less than the entire equity interest in a target company or business if such opportunity is attractive; provided, the Company (or its successor) would acquire a sufficient portion of the target entity such that it could consolidate the operations of such entity for applicable financial reporting purposes. In connection with an Acquisition, the Company may issue additional Ordinary Shares which could result in the Company's then existing Shareholders owning a minority interest in the Company following the Acquisition.

The Company's efforts in identifying a prospective target company or business will not be limited to a particular industry or geographic region, although the Company expects to focus on acquiring a company or business with a nexus (such as ownership, formation, management, operations, sales or research and development activities) to Israel or other countries in the Middle East. The Company will not, however, acquire any target company or business if such acquisition would involve a violation of Sanctions or such target company or business is subject to Sanctions or if either the Founders or a majority of the Independent Directors believe that any jurisdiction to which the relevant company or business has a material nexus is suffering from significant political, social or financial instability.

The Company does not have any specific Acquisition under consideration and does not expect to engage in substantive negotiations with any target company or business until after Admission. Additionally, the Company has not engaged or retained any agent or other representative to identify or locate any suitable Acquisition candidate, to conduct any research or take any measures, directly or indirectly, to locate or contact a target company or business. To date the Company's efforts have been limited to organisational activities as well as activities related to the Placing. The Company may subsequently seek to raise further capital for the purposes of the Acquisition.

Unless required by applicable law or other regulatory process, no Shareholder approval will be sought by the Company in relation to the Acquisition. The Acquisition will be subject to Board approval, including by a majority of the Non-Founder Directors.

The determination of the Company's post-Acquisition strategy and whether any of the Directors will remain with the combined company and on what terms will be made at or prior to the time of the Acquisition.

Failure to make the Acquisition

If the Acquisition has not been announced by the second anniversary of Admission, the Board will recommend to Shareholders either that the Company be wound up (in order to return capital to Shareholders and holders of the Founder Preferred Shares, to the extent assets are available) or that the Company continue to pursue the Acquisition for a further 12 months from the second anniversary of Admission. The Board's recommendation will then be put to a Shareholder vote (from which the Directors and the Founder Entities will abstain).

Business strategy and execution

The Company has identified the following criteria and guidelines that it believes are important in evaluating potential acquisition opportunities. It will generally use these criteria and guidelines in evaluating acquisition opportunities. However, it may also decide to enter into the Acquisition of a target company or business that does not meet these criteria and guidelines:

- strong competitive industry position;
- a company with strong free cash flow characteristics;
- an established company with a proven track record;
- experienced management team; and
- diversified customer and supplier base.

The Company believes that it has the following competitive advantages:

- the management expertise and track record of the Founders;
- an established deal sourcing network; and
- a disciplined acquisition approach.

The Directors believe that the constitution of the Board is a key factor in the Company's ability to carry on its principal activity following Admission, being the completion of an Acquisition. The Directors believe that the Founders, together with the Non-Founder Directors, comprise a knowledgeable and experienced group of professionals with extensive experience of making international acquisitions and operational improvement. The Directors further believe that the Founders' track records demonstrate the Founders' respective abilities to source, structure and complete acquisitions, return value to investors and introduce and complete operational improvements to companies.

B.4a Significant trends

Not applicable; the Company has not yet commenced operations. There are no known trends affecting the Company and the industries in which it will operate.

B.5 Group structure

Not applicable; the Company is not part of a group.

B.6 Major shareholders

Under BVI law, neither the Company nor its Shareholders are required to make any notifications relating to any person who has a direct or indirect interest in the share capital or the voting rights of the Company. Persons holding Ordinary Shares or Warrants should note the disclosure obligations under the Disclosure and Transparency Rules.

At the date of this Document, the Company has issued one Founder Preferred Share to each Founder Entity.

The Founder Preferred Shares carry the same voting rights as are attached to the Ordinary Shares and will vote with the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. Additionally, the Founder Preferred Shares alone carry the right to vote on any Resolution of Members required, pursuant to BVI law, to approve any matter in connection with an Acquisition, or a merger or consolidation in connection with an Acquisition.

B.7 Selected historical key financial information

The Company was incorporated on 1 April 2014 and the following balance sheet was drawn up at that date. The Company has not yet commenced business.

No income statement, statement of cash flows or statement of changes in equity is presented as the Company has not entered into any transactions in the period.

Subsequent to the balance sheet date the following significant changes to the Company's financial condition and operating results have occurred: the Company has entered into the Option Deeds, has executed the Warrant Instrument, has issued two Founder Preferred Shares to the Founder Entities and has assumed repayment obligations pursuant to the Promissory Notes ($200,000) and contingent liabilities in respect of the fees payable pursuant to the Placing Agreement ($9,400,000), the initial fees and annual fees payable pursuant to the Registrar Agreement (£9,000), Corporate Administration Agreement (£55,000) and Depositary Agreement (£21,000) and the annual fees payable pursuant to the Directors' Letters of Appointment ($250,000).

B.8 Selected key pro forma financial information

If the Placing and Admission had taken place on 1 April 2014 (being the date as at which the financial information contained in "Part VI—Financial Information on the Company" is presented):

- the net assets of the Company would have been increased by $488,700,000 (due to the receipt of the Net Proceeds and the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares);
- the Company's earnings would have decreased as a result of fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Placing and Admission and a non-cash IFRS 2 charge in connection with the Founder Preferred Shares and the Non-Founder Director Options; and
- the liabilities of the Company would have increased due to (inter alia) the Registrar Agreement, the Corporate Administration Agreement and the Depositary Agreement becoming effective, thereby obliging the Company to pay the fees under such agreements as and when they fall due and the Directors' Letters of Appointment becoming effective, thereby committing the Company to pay fees under such letters of appointment as and when they fall due.

B.9 Profit forecast or estimate

Not applicable; no profit forecast or estimate is made.

B.10 Qualified audit report

Not applicable; there are no qualifications in the accountant's report on the historical financial information.

B.11 Insufficient working capital

Not applicable; the Company's working capital is sufficient for its present requirements, that is for at least the 12 months from the date of this Document.

Each Shareholder entitled to attend and being present in person or by proxy at a meeting will, upon a show of hands, have one vote and upon a poll each such Shareholder present in person or by proxy will have one vote for each Ordinary Share held by him.

In the case of joint holders of an Ordinary Share, if two or more persons hold an Ordinary Share jointly each of them may be present in person or by proxy at a meeting of members and may speak as a member, and if one or more joint holders are present at a meeting of members, in person or by proxy, they must vote as one.

Otherwise, Shareholders will have the pre-emption rights contained in the Articles, which will generally apply in respect of future share issues for cash. No pre-emption rights exist in respect of future share issues wholly or partly other than for cash.

Subject to the BVI Companies Act, on a winding-up of the Company the assets of the Company available for distribution shall be distributed, provided there are sufficient assets available, to the holders of Ordinary Shares and Founder Preferred Shares pro rata to the number of such fully paid up Ordinary Shares and fully paid up Founder Preferred Shares held (by each holder as the case may be) relative to the total number of issued and fully paid up Ordinary Shares as if such fully paid up Founder Preferred Shares had been converted into Ordinary Shares immediately prior to the winding-up.

C.5 Restrictions on transferability

Subject to the terms of the Articles, any Shareholder may transfer all or any of his certificated Ordinary Shares by an instrument of transfer in any usual form or in any other form which the Directors may approve. No transfer of Ordinary Shares will be registered if, in the reasonable determination of the Directors, the transferee is or may be a Prohibited Person, or is or may be holding such Ordinary Shares on behalf of a beneficial owner who is or may be a Prohibited Person. The Directors shall have power to implement and/or approve any arrangements they may, in their absolute discretion, think fit in relation to the evidencing of title to and transfer of interests in Ordinary Shares in the Company in uncertificated form (including in the form of depositary interests or similar interests, instruments or securities).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Warrant Instrument, each Warrant will be transferable by an instrument of transfer in any usual or common form, or in any other form which may be approved by the Directors. No transfer of any Warrant to any person will be registered without the consent of the Company if it would constitute a transfer to a Prohibited Person.

C.6 Application for admission to trading on a regulated market

Application has been made for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants to be admitted to a Standard Listing on the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is expected that Admission will become effective and that unconditional dealings will commence at 8.00 a.m. on 15 April 2014. Prior to that, conditional dealings commenced on the London Stock Exchange on 10 April 2014.

C.7 Dividend policy

Commencing in 2015, and only once the Average Price per Ordinary Share for any ten consecutive Trading Days following Admission is at least $11.50, the holders of Founder Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive an Annual Dividend Amount, payable in Ordinary Shares or cash, at the sole option of the Company. In the first Dividend Year in which such dividend becomes payable, such dividend will be equal in value to (a) 20 per cent. of the increase in the market value of one Ordinary Share, being the difference between $10.00 and the Dividend Price, multiplied by (b) such number of Ordinary Shares outstanding immediately following the Acquisition but excluding any Ordinary Shares issued to shareholders or other beneficial owners of a company or business acquired pursuant to or in connection with the Acquisition (the “Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent”).

Thereafter, the Annual Dividend Amount will only become payable if the Dividend Price during any subsequent Dividend Year is greater than the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year in which a dividend was paid in respect of the Founder Preferred Shares. Such Annual Dividend Amount will be equal in value to 20 per cent. of the increase in the Dividend Price over the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year multiplied by the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

On the last day of the seventh full financial year following completion of the Acquisition the Founder Preferred Shares will automatically convert to Ordinary Shares on a one-for-one basis.

The Company intends to pay dividends on the Ordinary Shares following the Acquisition at such times (if any) and in such amounts (if any) as the Board determines appropriate. The Founder Preferred Shares will participate in any dividends on the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. In addition, commencing on and after 1 January 2015, the Founder Preferred Shares will receive an amount equal to 20 per cent of the dividend which would be distributable on such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent. All such dividends on the Founder Preferred Shares will be paid contemporaneously with the dividends on the Ordinary Shares. The Company’s current intention is to retain any earnings for use in its business operations, and the Company does not anticipate declaring any dividends in the foreseeable future. The Company will only pay dividends to the extent that to do so is in accordance with all applicable laws.

C.22 Information about the underlying share:

- “A description of the underlying share”
- C.2.
- C.4 plus the words “... and procedure for the exercise of those rights”.
- “Where and when the shares will be or have been admitted to trading.”
- C.5.
- “Where the issuer of the underlying is an entity belonging to the same group, the information to provide on this issuer is the information required by the share registration document. Therefore provide such information required for a summary for Annex 1.”

A Warrantholder will have Subscription Rights to subscribe in cash during the Subscription Period for all or any of the Ordinary Shares for which he is entitled to subscribe under such Warrants of which he is the Warrantholder at the Exercise Price and subject to the other restrictions and conditions described in the Warrant Instrument.

The underlying shares are Ordinary Shares (of no par value).

The currency of the securities issue is U.S. dollars.

Each Warrant will entitle a Warrantholder to subscribe for one-third of an Ordinary Share upon exercise (subject to any prior adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Warrant Instrument). Warrantholders will be required therefore (subject to any prior adjustment) to hold and validly exercise three Warrants in order to receive one Ordinary Share.

At any time from and including Admission, to and including the last day of the Subscription Period, the Warrants will be exercisable in multiples of three (subject to any prior adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Warrant Instrument) for one Ordinary Share at a price of $11.50 per whole Ordinary Share, subject to any prior adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Warrant Instrument. If the Warrants are not exercised during this period, they will lapse worthless. If an Investor acquires a Warrant on or after Admission and fails to exercise the Warrant before it lapses, such Investor will forfeit the entire value of his investment in the Warrant.

The Warrants are also subject to mandatory redemption at $0.01 per Warrant if at any time the Average Price per Ordinary Share equals or exceeds $18.00 (subject to any prior adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Warrant Instrument) for a period of ten consecutive Trading Days.

Application will be made for the Warrants to be admitted to a Standard Listing on the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. It is expected that Admission will become effective and that unconditional dealings will commence at 8.00 a.m. on 15 April 2014. Prior to that, conditional dealings commenced on the London Stock Exchange on 10 April 2014.

Subject to the BVI Companies Act and the terms of the Articles, any Shareholder may transfer all or any of his certificated Ordinary Shares by an instrument of transfer in any usual form or in any other form which the Directors may approve. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Warrant Instrument, each Warrant will be transferable by an instrument of transfer in any usual or common form, or in any other form which may be approved by the Directors.

Not applicable; the Company is not part of a group.

SECTION D — RISKS

D.1 Key information on the key risks that are specific to the issuer or its industry

Business Strategy

- The Company is a newly formed entity with no operating history and has not yet identified any potential target company or business for the Acquisition.
- The Company may acquire either less than whole voting control of, or less than a controlling equity interest in, a target, which may limit its operational strategies.
- The Company may be unable to complete the Acquisition in a timely manner or at all or to fund the operations of the target business if it does not obtain additional funding.

The Company's relationship with the Directors, the Founders and the Founder Entities and conflicts of interest

- The Company is dependent on the Founders to identify potential acquisition opportunities and to execute the Acquisition and the loss of the services of either of them could materially adversely affect it.
- The Directors will allocate a portion of their time to other businesses leading to the potential for conflicts of interest in their determination as to how much time to devote to the Company's affairs.
- The Company may be required to issue additional Ordinary Shares pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares, which would dilute existing Ordinary Shareholders.

Israel and The Middle East

- Potential political, economic and military conditions in Israel and the surrounding region directly affect the business and operations of companies operating in Israel.
- Investments in many Middle Eastern countries can be subject to greater risks than investments in more developed countries.

- Continued instability and unrest in the Middle East region may adversely affect the economies in which the target company or business operates.
- The termination or reduction of tax and other incentives that the Israeli Government provides to domestic companies may increase the costs involved in operating a company in Israel.
- Because a substantial portion of many Israeli companies' revenues is generated in U.S. dollars and euros, while a significant portion of their expenses is incurred in New Israel Shekels, a target business' revenue may be reduced due to inflation in Israel and currency exchange rate fluctuations.

Taxation

- The Company may be a "passive foreign investment company" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and adverse tax consequences could apply to U.S. investors.

D.3 Key information on the key risks that are specific to the securities

The Ordinary Shares and Warrants

- The proposed Standard Listing of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants will not afford Shareholders the opportunity to vote to approve the Acquisition.
- The Warrants can only be exercised during the Subscription Period and to the extent a Warrantholder has not exercised its Warrants before the end of the Subscription Period, those Warrants will lapse, resulting in the loss of a holder's entire investment in those Warrants.
- The Warrants are subject to mandatory redemption and therefore the Company may redeem a Warrantholder's unexpired Warrants prior to their exercise at a time that is disadvantageous to a Warrantholder, thereby making those Warrants worthless.
- The issuance of Ordinary Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Warrants will dilute the value of a Shareholder's Ordinary Shares.

SECTION E — OFFER

E.1 Total net proceeds / expenses

The estimated Net Proceeds are approximately $473,700,000. The total expenses incurred (or to be incurred) by the Company in connection with Admission, the Placing and the incorporation (and initial capitalisation) of the Company are approximately $11,300,000.

The offer of New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) pursuant to the Placing is exempt from the Prospectus Directive requirement to publish a prospectus.

E.2a Reasons for the offer and use of proceeds

The Company has been formed to undertake an acquisition of a target company or business. There is no specific expected target value and the Company expects that any funds not used for the Acquisition will be used for future acquisitions, internal or external growth and expansion, purchase of outstanding debt, and working capital in relation to the acquired company or business.

Following completion of the Acquisition, the objective of the Company is expected to be to operate the acquired business and implement an operating strategy with a view to generating value for Shareholders.

Prior to completing the Acquisition, the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, will be invested in U.S. Treasuries or such money market fund instruments as approved by the Non-Founder Directors and will be used for general corporate purposes, including paying the expenses of the Placing, the repayment in full of the Promissory Notes issued to Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC and TOMS Acquisition I, LLC for principal amounts of $100,000 each within 60 days of Admission and the Company's ongoing costs and expenses, including directors' fees, due diligence costs and other costs of sourcing, reviewing and pursuing the Acquisition.

The Company's primary intention is to use the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, to fund the Acquisition and to improve the acquired business (which may include additional complementary acquisitions following the Acquisition and re-admission of the enlarged group to the Official List or admission to another stock exchange, as well as operational improvements).

E.3 Terms and conditions of the offer

Each prospective Investor will be offered New Ordinary Shares of no par value (with Matching Warrants) at a placing price of $10.00 per New Ordinary Share.

The Placing Agents have severally agreed, subject to certain conditions, to use reasonable endeavours to procure Investors to subscribe for and, failing which, to themselves subscribe for, the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to be issued by the Company under the Placing (other than the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to be subscribed for by the Founder Entities as referred to below).

The Founder Entities will each subscribe for 750,000 New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) at the Placing Price.

The Founder Entities and certain of their affiliates have agreed to certain conflict of interest procedures in connection with the identification of suitable acquisition targets for the Company.

Each of the Founder Entities have also committed $7,500,000 of capital for 750,000 Founder Preferred Shares (with Warrants being issued on the basis of one Warrant per Founder Preferred Share). The Founder Preferred Shares are intended to have the effect of incentivising the Founders to achieve the Company's objectives.

Commencing in 2015, and only once the Average Price per Ordinary Share for any ten consecutive Trading Days following Admission is at least $11.50, the holders of Founder Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive an "Annual Dividend Amount", payable in Ordinary Shares or cash, at the sole option of the Company.

In the first Dividend Year in which such dividend becomes payable, such dividend will be equal in value to (a) 20 per cent. of the increase in the market value of one Ordinary Share, being the difference between $10.00 and the Dividend Price, multiplied by (b) such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

Thereafter, the Annual Dividend Amount will only become payable if the Dividend Price during any subsequent Dividend Year is greater than the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year in which a dividend was paid in respect of the Founder Preferred Shares. Such Annual Dividend Amount will be equal in value to 20 per cent. of the increase in the Dividend Price over the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year multiplied by the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

For the purposes of determining the Annual Dividend Amount, the Dividend Price is the Average Price per Ordinary Share for the last ten consecutive Trading Days in the relevant Dividend Year (the "Dividend Determination Period").

The amounts used for the purposes of calculating an Annual Dividend Amount and the relevant numbers of Ordinary Shares are subject to such adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends and certain other recapitalisation events as the Directors in their absolute discretion determine to be fair and reasonable in the event of a consolidation or sub-division of the Ordinary Shares in issue after the date of Admission or otherwise as determined in accordance with the Articles.

Each Annual Dividend Amount shall be divided between the holders of Founder Preferred Shares pro rata to the number of Founder Preferred Shares held by them on the relevant Dividend Date. The Annual Dividend Amount will be paid on the relevant Payment Date by the issue to each holder of Founder Preferred Shares of such number of Ordinary Shares as is equal to the pro rata amount of the Annual Dividend Amount to which they are entitled divided by the Dividend Price.

The Founder Preferred Shares will participate in any dividends on the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. In addition, commencing on and after 1 January 2015, the Founder Preferred Shares will receive an amount equal to 20 per cent of the dividend which would be distributable on such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent. All such dividends on the Founder Preferred Shares will be paid contemporaneously with the dividends on the Ordinary Shares.

For so long as an initial holder of Founder Preferred Shares (being a Founder Entity together with its affiliates and permitted transferees) holds 20 per cent. or more of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue, such holder shall be entitled to nominate a person as a director of the Company and the Directors shall appoint such person. On Admission, the Directors so nominated and appointed will be Noam Gottesman (on behalf of TOMS Acquisition I LLC) and Martin E. Franklin (on behalf of Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC).

The Founder Preferred Shares will automatically convert into Ordinary Shares on a one-for-one basis (subject to adjustment in accordance with the Articles) on the last day of the seventh full financial year of the Company following completion of the Acquisition (or if any such date is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day immediately following such date). In the event of any such automatic conversion, the Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable for such shortened Dividend Year on the Trading Day immediately prior to such conversion.

A holder of Founder Preferred Shares may require some or all of his Founder Preferred Shares to be converted into an equal number of Ordinary Shares (subject to adjustment in accordance with the Articles) by notice in writing to the Company, and in such circumstances those Founder Preferred Shares the subject of such conversion request shall be converted into Ordinary Shares five Trading Days after receipt by the Company of the written notice. In the event of a conversion at the request of the holder, no Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable in respect of the converted Founder Preferred Shares for the Dividend Year in which the date of conversion occurs.

A holder of Founder Preferred Shares may exercise its rights independently of any other holder of Founder Preferred Shares.

On the liquidation of the Company, an Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable in respect of a shortened Dividend Year which shall end on the Trading Day immediately prior to the date of commencement of liquidation, following which the holders of Founder Preferred Shares shall have the right to a pro rata share (together with Shareholders) in the distribution of the surplus assets of the Company.

The Founder Preferred Shares carry the same voting rights as are attached to the Ordinary Shares and will vote with the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. Additionally, the Founder Preferred Shares alone carry the right to vote on any Resolution of Members required, pursuant to BVI law, to approve any matter in connection with an Acquisition, or a merger or consolidation in connection with an Acquisition.

The offer of New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) pursuant to the Placing is exempt from the Prospectus Directive requirement to publish a prospectus.

E.4 Material interests

Not applicable; there is no interest that is material to the issue/offer.

The offer of New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) pursuant to the Placing is exempt from the Prospectus Directive requirement to publish a prospectus.

E.5 Selling Shareholders / Lock-up agreements

Not applicable; no person or entity is offering to sell the relevant securities.

- Pursuant to the Placing Agreement, each of the Directors and the Founder Entities have agreed that they shall not, without the prior written consent of the Placing Agents, offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of any Ordinary Shares or Warrants which they hold directly or indirectly in the Company (or acquire pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares, Non-Founder Director Options or Warrants) or any Founder Preferred Shares they hold, for a period commencing on the date of the Placing Agreement and ending 365 days after the Company has completed the Acquisition or upon the passing of a resolution to voluntarily wind-up the Company for failure to complete the Acquisition (whichever is earlier).
- The restrictions on the ability of the Directors and the Founder Entities to transfer their Ordinary Shares, Warrants or Founder Preferred Shares, as the case may be, are subject to certain usual and customary exceptions and exceptions for: gifts; transfers for estate planning purposes; transfers to trusts (including any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of such trusts) for the benefit of the Directors or their families; transfers to the Company's Directors; transfers to affiliates or direct or indirect equity holders, holders of partnership interests or members of the Founder Entities, in each case, subject to certain conditions; transfers among the Founder Entities (including any affiliates thereof or direct or indirect equity holders, holders of partnership interests or members of a Founder Entity); transfers to any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company, a target company or shareholders of a target company in connection with an Acquisition, provided that in each of the foregoing cases, the transferees enter into a lock up agreement; transfers of any Ordinary Shares or Warrants acquired after the date of Admission in an open-market transaction, or the acceptance of, or provision of, an irrevocable undertaking to accept, a general offer made to all Shareholders on equal terms; after the Acquisition, transfers to satisfy certain tax liabilities in connection with, or as a result of transactions related to, completion of the Acquisition, the exercise of Warrants, or the receipt of stock dividends.

In addition, pursuant to the Placing Agreement, the Company has agreed not to, without the prior written consent of the Placing Agents, undertake any consolidation or sub-division of its shares or to, directly or indirectly, allot, issue, offer, sell, contract to sell or issue, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase or otherwise dispose of any Ordinary Shares or Warrants, for a period of 180 days from the date of the Placing Agreement, subject to certain limited exceptions including undertaking any such action in connection with the Acquisition, the issue of Ordinary Shares and Warrants pursuant to the Placing and the issue of Ordinary Shares upon the conversion of the Founder Preferred Shares and the exercise of Warrants.

Subject to the expiration or waiver of any lock-up arrangement entered into between the Founder Entities and the Placing Agents, the Company has agreed to provide, at its own cost, such information and assistance as any of the Founder Entities may reasonably request to enable them to effect a disposal of all or part of their Ordinary Shares or Warrants at any time upon or after the completion of the Acquisition, including, without limitation, the preparation, qualification and approval of a prospectus in respect of such Ordinary Shares or Warrants.

The offer of New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) pursuant to the Placing is exempt from the Prospectus Directive requirement to publish a prospectus.

E.6 Dilution

Not applicable; there is no immediate dilution resulting from the offer in respect of the Ordinary Shares.

Not applicable; there is no subscription offer to existing equity holders.

E.7 Expenses charged to investors

Not applicable; no expenses will be charged to the investors.

RISK FACTORS

Investment in the Company and the Ordinary Shares and Warrants carries a significant degree of risk, including risks in relation to the Company's business strategy, potential conflicts of interest, risks relating to taxation and risks relating to the Ordinary Shares and Warrants.

Prospective investors should note that the risks relating to the Company, its industry and the Ordinary Shares and Warrants summarised in the section of this document headed "Summary" are the risks that the Directors believe to be the most essential to an assessment by a prospective investor of whether to consider an investment in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants. However, as the risks which the Company faces relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future, prospective investors should consider not only the information on the key risks summarised in the section of this document headed "Summary" but also, among other things, the risks and uncertainties described below.

The risks referred to below are those risks the Company and the Directors consider to be the material risks relating to the Company. However, there may be additional risks that the Company and the Directors do not currently consider to be material or of which the Company and the Directors are not currently aware that may adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects. Investors should review this Document carefully and in its entirety and consult with their professional advisers before acquiring any Ordinary Shares and Warrants. If any of the risks referred to in this Document were to occur, the results of operations, financial condition and prospects of the Company could be materially adversely affected. If that were to be the case, the trading price of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants and/or the level of dividends or distributions (if any) received from the Ordinary Shares and Warrants could decline significantly. Further, Investors could lose all or part of their investment.

RISKS RELATING TO THE COMPANY'S BUSINESS STRATEGY

The Company is a newly formed entity with no operating history and has not yet identified any potential target company or business for the Acquisition

The Company is a newly formed entity with no operating results and it will not commence operations prior to obtaining the Net Proceeds. The Company lacks an operating history, and therefore, Investors have no basis on which to evaluate the Company's ability to achieve its objective of identifying, acquiring and operating a company or business. Moreover, because the Company is not limiting its search for acquisition opportunities to any particular industry or geographic region, Investors will also have no basis on which to evaluate the possible merits or risks of any particular industry, geographic region or target business in which the Company may invest the Net Proceeds. Currently, there are no plans, arrangements or understandings with any prospective target company or business regarding the Acquisition and the Company may acquire a target company or business that does not meet the Company's stated acquisition criteria. The Company will not generate any revenues from operations unless it completes the Acquisition.

Although the Company will seek to evaluate the risks inherent in a particular target company or business (including the industries and geographic regions in which it operates), it cannot offer any assurance that it will make a proper discovery or assessment of all of the significant risks. Furthermore, no assurance may be made that an investment in Ordinary Shares and Warrants will ultimately prove to be more favourable to Investors than a direct investment, if such opportunity were available, in a target company or business. Because the Company does not expect that Shareholder approval will be required in connection with the Acquisition, investors will be relying on the Company's and the Founders' ability to identify potential targets, evaluate their merits, conduct or monitor diligence and conduct negotiations.

There is no assurance that the Company will identify suitable acquisition opportunities in a timely manner or at all which could result in a loss on your investment

The success of the Company's business strategy is dependent on its ability to identify sufficient suitable acquisition opportunities. The Company cannot estimate how long it will take to identify suitable acquisition opportunities or whether it will be able to identify any suitable acquisition opportunities at all within two years after the date of Admission. If the Company fails to complete a proposed acquisition (for example, because it has been outbid by a competitor) it may be left with substantial unrecovered transaction costs, potentially including substantial break fees, legal costs or other expenses. Furthermore, even if an agreement is reached relating to a proposed acquisition, the Company may fail to complete such acquisition for reasons beyond its control. Any such event will result in a loss to the Company of the related costs incurred, which could materially adversely affect subsequent attempts to identify and acquire another target business.

In the event that an Acquisition has not been announced by the second anniversary of Admission, the Board will ask Shareholders to approve the liquidation and dissolution of the Company and distribution of the remaining assets of the Company to Shareholders and holders of the Founder Preferred Shares, unless the Company is granted authority from Shareholders to continue pursuing the Acquisition for a further year or Shareholders do not approve the liquidation and dissolution of the Company. In such circumstances, there can be no assurance as to the particular amount or value of the remaining assets at such future time of any such distribution either as a result of costs from an unsuccessful Acquisition or from other factors, including disputes or legal claims which the Company is required to pay out, the cost of the liquidation and dissolution process, applicable tax liabilities or amounts due to third party creditors. Upon distribution of assets on a liquidation, such costs and expenses will result in Investors receiving less than the initial subscription price of $10.00 per Ordinary Share and Investors who acquired Ordinary Shares after Admission potentially receiving less than they invested.

Prior to the completion of the Acquisition, the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, will be invested in U.S. Treasuries or such money market fund instruments as approved by the Non-Founder Directors. In connection with the Acquisition, in order to mitigate foreign exchange risks, the Company may transfer its liquid assets to a bank account denominated in a currency other than U.S. dollars as approved by the Non-Founder Directors. In addition, in connection with the completion of the Acquisition, the Company may transfer its liquid assets to a cash account. The Company's assets will be subject to market fluctuations and there can be no assurance that any appreciation in the value of the assets will occur and the value of such assets is not guaranteed. The Net Proceeds will not be placed in any form of trust or escrow account. The Company will principally seek to preserve capital and therefore the interest rate earned on these deposits is likely to reflect the highly rated, investment grade status of the instrument. Interest on the Net Proceeds so deposited may be significantly lower than the potential returns on the Net Proceeds had the Company completed the Acquisition sooner or deposited or held the money in other ways.

Even if the Company completes the Acquisition, there is no assurance that any operating improvements will be successful or, that they will be effective in increasing the valuation of any business acquired

There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to propose and implement effective operational improvements for any company or business which the Company acquires. In addition, even if the Company completes the Acquisition, general economic and market conditions or other factors outside the Company's control could make the Company's operating strategies difficult or impossible to implement. Any failure to implement these operational improvements successfully and/or the failure of these operational improvements to deliver the anticipated benefits could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and financial condition.

The Company may face significant competition for acquisition opportunities

There may be significant competition in some or all of the acquisition opportunities that the Company may explore. Such competition may for example come from strategic buyers, sovereign wealth funds, special purpose acquisition companies and public and private investment funds many of which are well established and have extensive experience in identifying and completing acquisitions. A number of these competitors may possess greater technical, financial, human and other resources than the Company. The Company cannot assure Investors that it will be successful against such competition. Such competition may cause the Company to be unsuccessful in executing an Acquisition or may result in a successful Acquisition being made at a significantly higher price than would otherwise have been the case.

Any due diligence by the Company in connection with the Acquisition may not reveal all relevant considerations or liabilities of the target business, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

The Company intends to conduct such due diligence as it deems reasonably practicable and appropriate based on the facts and circumstances applicable to any potential acquisition. The objective of the due diligence process will be to identify material issues which might affect the decision to proceed with any one particular acquisition target or the consideration payable for an acquisition. The Company also intends to use information revealed during the due diligence process to formulate its business and operational planning for, and its valuation of, any target company or business. Whilst conducting due diligence and assessing a potential acquisition, the Company will rely on publicly available information, if any, information provided by the relevant target company to the extent such company is willing or able to provide such information and, in some circumstances, third party investigations.

There can be no assurance that the due diligence undertaken with respect to a potential acquisition will reveal all relevant facts that may be necessary to evaluate such acquisition including the determination of the price the Company may pay for an acquisition target, or to formulate a business strategy. Furthermore, the information provided during due diligence may be incomplete, inadequate or inaccurate. As part of the due diligence process, the Company will also make subjective judgments regarding the results of operations, financial condition and prospects of a potential opportunity. If the due diligence investigation fails to correctly identify material issues and liabilities that may be present in a target company or business, or if the Company considers such material risks to be commercially acceptable relative to the opportunity, and the Company proceeds with an acquisition, the Company may subsequently incur substantial impairment charges or other losses. In addition, following the Acquisition, the Company may be subject to significant, previously undisclosed liabilities of the acquired business that were not identified during due diligence and which could contribute to poor operational performance, undermine any attempt to restructure the acquired company or business in line with the Company's business plan and have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition and results of operations.

If the Company acquires less than either the whole voting control of, or less than the entire equity interest in, a target company or business, its decision-making authority to implement its plans may be limited and third party shareholders may dispute the Company's strategy

The Company intends to acquire a controlling interest in a single target company or business. Although the Company (or its successor) may acquire the whole voting control of a target company or business, it may consider acquiring a controlling interest constituting less than the whole voting control or less than the entire equity interest of that target company or business if such opportunity is attractive or where the Company (or its successor) would acquire sufficient influence to implement its strategy. If the Company acquires either less than the whole voting control of, or less than the entire equity interest in, a target company or business, the remaining ownership interest will be held by third parties. Accordingly, the Company's decision-making authority may be limited. Such acquisition may also involve the risk that such third parties may become insolvent or unable or unwilling to fund additional investments in the target. Such third parties may also have interests which are inconsistent or conflict with the Company's interests, or they may obstruct the Company's strategy for the target or propose an alternative strategy. Any third party's interests may be contrary to the Company's interests. In addition, disputes among the Company and any such third parties could result in litigation or arbitration. Any of these events could impair the Company's objectives and strategy, which could have a material adverse effect on the continued development or growth of the acquired company or business.

The Company may be unable to complete the Acquisition or to fund the operations of the target business if it does not obtain additional funding

Although the Company has not identified a prospective target company or business and cannot currently predict the amount of additional capital that may be required, the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, may not be sufficient to effect the Acquisition.

If the Net Proceeds are insufficient, the Company will likely be required to seek additional equity or debt financing. The Company may not receive sufficient support from its existing Shareholders to raise additional equity, and new equity investors may be unwilling to invest on terms that are favourable to the Company, or at all. Lenders may be unwilling to extend debt financing to the Company on attractive terms, or at all. To the extent that additional equity or debt financing is necessary to complete the Acquisition and remains unavailable or only available on terms that are unacceptable to the Company, the Company may be compelled either to restructure or abandon the Acquisition, or proceed with the Acquisition on less favourable terms, which may reduce the Company's return on the investment.

Even if additional financing is unnecessary to complete the Acquisition, the Company may subsequently require equity or debt financing to implement operational improvements in the acquired business. The failure to secure additional financing or to secure such additional financing on terms acceptable to the Company could have a material adverse effect on the continued development or growth of the acquired business.

The pre-emption rights contained in the Articles have been disapplied for Shareholders in respect of the issuance of equity securities to facilitate the Acquisition and in certain other circumstances and the Company may issue shares or convertible debt securities or incur substantial indebtedness to complete the Acquisition, which may dilute the interests of Shareholders or present other risks, including a decline in post-acquisition operating results due to increased interest expense or an adverse effect on liquidity as a result of acceleration of its indebtedness

Although the Company will receive the Net Proceeds, the Directors believe that the Company may issue a substantial number of additional Ordinary Shares or may issue preferred shares, or a combination of both, including through convertible debt securities, or incur substantial indebtedness to complete the Acquisition.

The pre-emption rights contained in the Articles which apply with effect following Admission have been disapplied for Shareholders (i) for the purposes of, or in connection with, the Placing; (ii) in relation to, in connection with, or resulting from, the Acquisition or in relation to, in connection with or resulting from the restructuring of any debt or other financial obligation relating to the Acquisition (whether assumed or entered into by the Company or owed or guaranteed by any company or entity acquired) and whether in either such case such issue of shares occurs before or after the Acquisition has occurred; (iii) for the purposes of or in connection with the issue of Ordinary Shares pursuant to any exercise of any Warrant; (iv) generally for such purposes as the Directors may think fit, an aggregate amount not exceeding one-third of the aggregate value of Ordinary Shares in issue (as at the close of the first Business Day following Admission); (v) for the purposes of the issue of securities offered (by way of a rights issue, open offer or otherwise) to existing holders of Ordinary Shares, in proportion (as nearly as may be) to their existing holdings of Ordinary Shares up to an amount equal to one-third of the aggregate value of the Ordinary Shares in issue as at the close of the first Business Day following Admission but subject to the Directors having a right to make such exclusions or other arrangements in connection with the offering as they deem necessary or expedient: (A) to deal with equity securities representing fractional entitlements and (B) to deal with legal or practical problems in the laws of any territory, or the requirements of any regulatory body; (vi) for the purposes of the issue of Ordinary Shares as may be necessary for the purposes of, or in connection with, satisfying the rights of holders thereof to convert Founder Preferred Shares for Ordinary Shares issued by the Company; (vii) for the purposes of the issue of equity securities to Non-Founder Directors pursuant to their Letters of Appointment; and (viii) for the purposes of or in connection with the issue of Ordinary Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Non-Founder Director Options, on the basis that the authorities in (iv) and (v) above shall expire at the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company after the passing of the resolution, save that the Company shall be entitled to make an offer or agreement which would or might require equity securities to be issued pursuant to (iv) to (v) above (inclusive) before the expiry of its power to do so, and the Directors shall be entitled to issue or sell from treasury the equity securities pursuant to any such offer or agreement after that expiry date and provided further that the Directors may sell, as they think fit, any equity securities from treasury.

Any issuance of Ordinary Shares, preferred shares or convertible debt securities may:

- significantly dilute the value of the Ordinary Shares held by existing Shareholders;
- cause a Change of Control if a substantial number of Ordinary Shares are issued, which may, among other things, result in the resignation or removal of one or more of the Directors; and result in its then existing Shareholders becoming the minority, which will give the Founder Entities the right to exercise the conversion right in the Founder Preferred Shares;
- in certain circumstances, have the effect of delaying or preventing a Change of Control;
- subordinate the rights of holders of Ordinary Shares if preferred shares are issued with rights senior to those of Ordinary Shares; or
- adversely affect the market prices of the Company's Ordinary Shares and Warrants.

If Ordinary Shares, preferred shares or convertible debt securities are issued as consideration for the Acquisition, existing Shareholders will have no pre-emptive rights with regard to the securities that are issued. The issuance of such Ordinary Shares, preferred shares or convertible debt securities could materially dilute the value of the Ordinary Shares held by existing Shareholders. Where a target company has an existing large shareholder, an issue of Ordinary Shares, preferred shares or convertible debt securities as consideration may result in such shareholder subsequently holding a significant or majority stake in the Company, which may, in turn, enable it to exert significant influence over the Company (to a greater or lesser extent depending on the size of its holding) and could lead to a Change of Control.

Similarly, the incurrence by the Company of substantial indebtedness in connection with the Acquisition could result in:

- default and foreclosure on the Company's assets, if its cash flow from operations were insufficient to pay its debt obligations as they become due;
- acceleration of its obligation to repay indebtedness, even if it has made all payments when due, if it breaches, without a waiver, covenants that require the maintenance of financial ratios or reserves or impose operating restrictions;
- a demand for immediate payment of all principal and accrued interest, if any, if the indebtedness is payable on demand; or
- an inability to obtain additional financing, if any indebtedness incurred contains covenants restricting its ability to incur additional indebtedness.

The occurrence of any or a combination of these factors could decrease an Investor's ownership interests in the Company or have a material adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations.

The Acquisition may result in adverse tax, regulatory or other consequences for Shareholders which may differ for individual Shareholders depending on their status and residence

As no Acquisition target has yet been identified, it is possible that any acquisition structure determined necessary by the Company to consummate the Acquisition may have adverse tax, regulatory or other consequences for Shareholders which may differ for individual Shareholders depending on their individual status and residence.

The Company may be unable to hire or retain personnel required to support the Company after the Acquisition

Following completion of the Acquisition, the Company will evaluate the personnel of the acquired business and may determine that it requires increased support to operate and manage the acquired business in accordance with the Company's overall business strategy. There can be no assurance that existing personnel of the acquired business will be adequate or qualified to carry out the Company's strategy, or that the Company will be able to hire or retain experienced, qualified employees to carry out the Company's strategy.

The Company will be subject to restrictions in offering its Ordinary Shares as consideration for the Acquisition in certain jurisdictions and may have to provide alternative consideration, which may have an adverse effect on its operations

The Company may offer its Ordinary Shares or other securities as part of the consideration to fund, or in connection with, the Acquisition. However, certain jurisdictions may restrict the Company's use of its Ordinary Shares or other securities for this purpose, which could result in the Company needing to use alternative sources of consideration. Such restrictions may limit the Company's available acquisition opportunities or make a certain acquisition more costly.

If the Company were to implement the Acquisition by way of a takeover offer, subject to the City Code (which, broadly, will apply in connection with an offer for a U.K. public company) a derogation granted by the Takeover Panel would be required to implement such consideration structure under the City Code. There can be no assurance that the Takeover Panel would grant such a derogation (most particularly where the target has a more than insignificant percentage of U.S. shareholders that are not QIBs). This need to comply with the City Code in a takeover offer may adversely impact the Company's ability to implement the most efficient structure for acquiring a target company or business.

If the Acquisition is completed, the Company will be a holding company whose principal source of operating cash will be income received from the business it has acquired

If the Acquisition is completed, the Company will be dependent on the income generated by the acquired business to meet the Company's expenses and operating cash requirements. The amount of distributions and dividends, if any, which may be paid from any operating subsidiary to the Company will depend on many factors, including such subsidiary's results of operations and financial condition, limits on dividends under applicable law, its constitutional documents, documents governing any indebtedness of the Company, and other factors which may be outside the control of the Company. If the acquired business is unable to generate sufficient cash flow, the Company may be unable to pay its expenses or make distributions and dividends on the Ordinary Shares.

There will be no public offering of Ordinary Shares or Warrants in the United States nor will Shareholders nor Warrantholders be entitled to protections normally afforded to investors of “blank check” companies in an offering pursuant to Rule 419 under the Securities Act

Since the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, are intended to be used to complete the Acquisition, the Company may be deemed to be a “blank check” company under the United States securities laws. However, because there will be no offer to the public of the Ordinary Shares nor the Warrants in the United States and no registration of the Ordinary Shares nor the Warrants under the Securities Act, the Company is not subject to rules promulgated by the SEC to protect investors in blank check companies, such as Rule 419 under the Securities Act or the requirements of U.S. stock exchanges for special purpose acquisition companies which are listed in the United States. Accordingly, no Investor will be afforded the benefits or protections of those rules. Among other things, this means the Company's Ordinary Shares and Warrants will be immediately tradable, the Company will have a longer period of time to complete the Acquisition than do companies subject to Rule 419, it will not be required to deposit the Net Proceeds into an escrow account or other segregated account and it will not be required to provide Investors with an option in the future to require the Company to return such Investors' investment in the Company.

The Company expects to acquire a controlling interest in a single company or business which will increase the risk of loss associated with underperforming assets

The Company expects that if the Acquisition is completed, its business risk will be concentrated in a single company or business. A consequence of this is that returns for Shareholders may be adversely affected if growth in the value of the acquired business is not achieved or if value of the acquired business or any of its material assets subsequently are written down. Accordingly, Investors should be aware that the risk of investing in the Company could be greater than investing in an entity which owns or operates a range of businesses and businesses in a range of sectors. The Company's future performance and ability to achieve positive returns for Shareholders will therefore be solely dependent on the subsequent performance of the acquired business. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to propose effective operational and restructuring strategies for any company or business which the Company acquires and, to the extent that such strategies are proposed, there can be no assurance they will be implemented effectively.

The Company may be subject to foreign investment and exchange risks

The Company's functional and presentational currency is U.S. dollars. As a result, the Company's consolidated financial statements will carry the Company's assets in U.S. dollars. Any business the Company acquires may denominate its financial information in a currency other than U.S. dollars, conduct operations or make sales in currencies other than U.S. dollars. When consolidating a business that has functional currencies other than U.S. dollars, the Company will be required to translate, inter alia, the balance sheet and operational results of such business into U.S. dollars. Due to the foregoing, changes in exchange rates between U.S. dollars and other currencies could lead to significant changes in the Company's reported financial results from period to period. Among the factors that may affect currency values are trade balances, levels of short-term interest rates, differences in relative values of similar assets in different currencies, long-term opportunities for investment and capital appreciation and political or regulatory developments. Although the Company may seek to manage its foreign exchange exposure, including by active use of hedging and derivative instruments, there is no assurance that such arrangements will be entered into or available at all times when the Company wishes to use them or that they will be sufficient to cover the risk.

Although the Company expects to focus on acquiring a company or business with a nexus to Israel or other countries in the Middle East, the Company's efforts in identifying a prospective target company or business are not limited to a particular industry or geographic region and it may therefore be subject to risks particular to one or more countries in which it ultimately operates, which could negatively impact its operations

The Company's efforts in identifying a prospective target company or business are not limited to a particular industry or geographic region. The Company may therefore acquire a target company or business in, or with operations in, a number of jurisdictions, any of which may expose it to considerations or risks associated with companies operating in such jurisdictions, including but not limited to: regulatory and political uncertainty; tariffs, trade barriers and regulations related to customs and import/export matters; international tax issues, such as tax law changes and variations in tax laws; cultural and language differences; rules and regulations on currency conversion or corporate withholding taxes on individuals; currency fluctuations and exchange controls; employment regulations; crime, strikes, riots, civil disturbances, terrorist attacks and wars; and deterioration of relevant political relations. Any exposure to such risks due to the countries in which the Company operates following the Acquisition could negatively impact the Company's operations.

RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH OPERATIONS IN ISRAEL AND OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE MIDDLE EAST

Acquisitions of companies with operations in Israel and other countries in the Middle East entail special considerations and risks. If the Company acquires a target company or business with operations in Israel, it will be subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the following additional risks.

Potential political, economic and military conditions in Israel and the surrounding region directly affect the business and operations of companies operating in Israel

Since the establishment of the modern State of Israel in 1948, a number of armed conflicts have taken place between Israel and its Arab neighbours. Any hostilities involving Israel or the interruption or curtailment of trade within Israel or between Israel and its trading partners could adversely affect the Company's operations and results of operations and could make it more difficult for it to raise capital or execute our business plan. During the winters of 2012 and 2008, Israel was engaged in an armed conflict with Hamas, a militia group and political party operating in the Gaza Strip, and during the summer of 2006, Israel was engaged in an armed conflict with Hezbollah, a Lebanese Islamist Shiite militia group and political party. These conflicts involved missile strikes against civilian targets in various parts of Israel, and negatively affected business conditions in Israel. To date, Israel faces political tension with respect to its relationships with Turkey, Iran, Syria and other Arab neighbour countries. In addition, recent political uprisings and social unrest in various countries in the Middle East (such as Egypt and Syria) and North Africa are affecting the political stability of those countries. This instability may lead to deterioration of the political relationships that exist between Israel and these countries, and have raised concerns regarding security in the region and the potential for armed conflict. Any armed conflicts, terrorist activities or political instability in the region could adversely affect business conditions and could harm an Israeli company's results of operations. Parties with whom an Israeli company does business may decline to travel to Israel during periods of heightened unrest or tension, forcing it to make alternative arrangements when necessary. In addition, the political and security situation in Israel may result in parties with whom an Israeli company has agreements involving performance in Israel claiming that they are not obligated to perform their commitments under those agreements pursuant to force majeure provisions in such agreements. Further, in the past, the State of Israel and Israeli companies have been subjected to economic boycotts. Several countries still restrict business with the State of Israel and with Israeli companies. These restrictive laws and policies may have an adverse impact on the operating results, financial condition or the expansion of business of companies with operations in Israel.

Commercial insurance policies generally will not cover losses that may occur as a result of events associated with the security situation in the Middle East

Although the Israeli government currently covers the reinstatement value of direct damages that are caused by terrorist attacks or acts of war, there can be no assurance that this government coverage will be maintained or that it will sufficiently cover potential damages. Any losses or damages incurred by an Israeli company acquired by the Company could have a material adverse effect on its business. Any armed conflicts or political instability in the region would likely negatively affect business conditions and could harm its results of operations.

The termination or reduction of tax and other incentives that the Israeli Government provides to domestic companies may increase the costs involved in operating a company in Israel

The Israeli Government currently provides tax and capital investment incentives to domestic companies. Additionally, the Israeli Government currently provides grant and loan programs relating to research and development, marketing and export activities. It is possible Israeli Government authorities have indicated that the government may in the future further reduce or eliminate the benefits of those programs. There can be no assurance that such benefits and programs would continue to be available following an acquisition, or if available, to what extent. If such benefits and programs were terminated or reduced, it could have an adverse effect on the Company's results of operations following an acquisition, or make a specific acquisition opportunity less attractive.

If relations between the United States and Israel deteriorate, it could cause potential target businesses or their goods or services to become less attractive

Israel and the United States have historically had a positive relationship. A significant amount of Israel's economic development has been financed by military and economic aid from the United States, and many Israeli companies have been financed by United States venture capital and investment concerns. If the relationship between the United States and Israel were to deteriorate, it could adversely affect the operations of Israeli companies or cause potential target businesses or their goods or services to become less attractive.

Operations could be disrupted as a result of the obligation of personnel to perform military service

Executive officers or key employees of a target business may also reside in Israel and be required to perform annual military reserve duty. Many Israeli citizens are obligated to perform one month, and in some cases more, of annual military reserve duty until they reach the age of 45 (or older, for reservists with certain occupations) and, in the event of a military conflict, may be called to active duty. In response to increases in terrorist activity, there have been periods of significant call-ups of military reservists. It is possible that there will be military reserve duty call-ups in the future. Following an acquisition, the operations of an acquired business could be disrupted by the absence for a significant period of one or more of these officers or key employees due to military service. Any such disruption could adversely affect the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Because a substantial portion of many Israeli companies' revenues is generated in U.S. dollars and euros, while a significant portion of their expenses is incurred in New Israeli Shekels, a target business' revenue may be reduced due to inflation in Israel and currency exchange rate fluctuations

A substantial portion of many Israeli companies' revenues is generated in U.S. dollars and euros, while a significant portion of their expenses, principally salaries and related personnel expenses, are paid in New Israeli Shekels. As a result, a target business will likely be exposed to the risk that the rate of inflation in Israel will exceed the rate of devaluation of the Israeli currency in relation to the U.S. dollar or the euro, or that the timing of this devaluation will lag behind inflation in Israel. Because inflation has the effect of increasing the U.S. dollar and euro costs of an Israeli company's operations, it would therefore have an adverse effect on a company's U.S. dollar-measured results of operations following an acquisition. The value of NIS against the U.S. dollar and other currencies may fluctuate and is affected by, among other things, changes in Israel's political and economic conditions. As the Company's operations may be primarily in Israel, any significant revaluation of the NIS may materially and adversely affect its cash flows, revenues and financial condition. Fluctuations in the NIS exchange rate, or even the appearance of instability in such exchange rate, could adversely affect the Company's ability to find an attractive target business to acquire and to operate its business after such an acquisition.

Israeli government grants generally limit or prohibit the ability of the recipient company to manufacture products and transfer know-how outside of Israel, and require such companies to satisfy other specified conditions

Following an acquisition, the target business the Company acquires may be receiving, or may receive in the future, grants from the government of Israel through the Office of the Chief Scientist of Israel's Ministry of Industry, Trade and Labour (the "OCS") for the financing of a portion of its research and development expenditures in Israel. Upon our acquisition of such entity, the OCS will determine whether the entity will be eligible to continue receiving grants following such an acquisition. The grants awarded are typically up to 50% of a research project's expenditures, as determined by the research committee of the OCS. The grantee is required to pay royalties to the OCS from the sale of products developed under the program. Regulations under the relevant law generally provide for the payment of royalties of 3% to 6% on sales of products and services based on technology developed using grants, until 100% of the grant is repaid, with interest. Although it does not restrict the export of products that incorporate the funded technology or the licensing of technology in the ordinary course of a company's business, the terms of the OCS participation do require that products developed with government grants be manufactured in Israel and that the technology developed thereunder may not be transferred outside of Israel, unless approval is received from the OCS and additional payments are made to the OCS. The royalty repayment ceiling can reach up to three times the amount of the grant received if manufacturing is moved outside of Israel, and substantial payments may be required if the technology itself is transferred outside of Israel.

Additionally, the challenges in obtaining the approval of the Office of the Chief Scientist for the transfer of manufacturing rights out of Israel could have a material adverse effect on strategic alliances or other transactions that the Company may enter into in the future that provide for such a transfer.

Exchange controls may in the future restrict our ability to utilise the Company's cash flow

Israeli companies may become subject to rules and regulations on currency conversion. In 1998, the Israeli currency control regulations were liberalised significantly, and there are currently no currency controls in place. However, legislation remains in effect pursuant to which such currency controls could be imposed in Israel by administrative action at any time. There can be no assurance that such controls will not be reinstated, and if reinstated, that they would not have an adverse effect on the Company's operations.

If a target company which the Company acquires fails to satisfy the conditions specified by any "Approved Enterprise" program, it would be denied certain tax benefits and may be required to pay higher taxes

Following an acquisition, the Investment Center of the Ministry of Industry, Trade and Labor, a part of the Israeli Government, may grant, or have already granted, "Approved Enterprise" status to some or all capital expenditure programs being run by the company acquired. "Approved Enterprises" are companies incorporated in Israel that qualify, based on certain criteria, for special treatment in respect of governmental benefits and grants designed to promote foreign and domestic investment. When net income is generated from Approved Enterprise programs, the proportion of income derived from these programs would be exempt from tax for a certain period and is subject to reduced tax for a certain additional period thereafter. The benefits available to an Approved Enterprise program depend upon the ability of the entity to adhere to the investment program filed with the Investment Center of the Israeli Ministry of Industry, Trade and Labor, and to the fulfilment of periodic reporting obligations. If the target company fails to comply with these conditions, in whole or in part, it may be required to pay additional taxes for the period in which it benefited from the tax exemption or reduced tax rates and would likely be denied these benefits in the future.

The ability of any Israeli subsidiary to pay dividends is subject to Israeli law and the amount of cash dividends payable may be subject to a withholding tax, currently up to 30%, to non-Israeli residents and devaluation in the New Israeli Shekel

If the Company maintains an Israeli subsidiary after the completion of an acquisition, the ability of such Israeli subsidiary to pay dividends may be governed by Israeli law, which provides that cash dividends will be paid by an Israeli corporation only out of retained earnings as determined for statutory purposes in NIS. In the event of a devaluation of the NIS against the U.S. dollar, the amount in U.S. dollars available for payment of cash dividends out of prior years' earnings will decrease accordingly. In addition, dividends distributed by an Israeli subsidiary to a non-Israeli parent corporation are generally subject to a tax, currently up to 30%, to be withheld at the source, unless a lower rate is provided in a treaty between Israel and the parent corporation's country of residence. There is no treaty in place between Israel and the British Virgin Islands.

If the Company acquires a target company or business with operations in the Middle East outside of Israel, it will be subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the following additional risks.

Investments in many Middle Eastern countries can be subject to greater risks than investments in more developed countries

The Company has not yet identified or approached a specific target company or business and, therefore, there is no basis upon which to evaluate possible risks associated with the geographic areas of operations of a target company or business. However, the Company does intend to concentrate its efforts in the Middle East. Operating a business in the Middle East can involve a greater degree of risk than operating a business in more developed regions. Some countries in the Middle East do not have firmly established legal and regulatory systems, and some of them, from time to time, have experienced economic, social or political instability, including riots and other forms of civil disturbance or violence. Among other things, investments in companies operating in the Middle East may carry the risk of a greater likelihood of severe inflation or deflation, government interventions (including expropriation or nationalisation of assets, increased protectionism and the introduction of tariffs or subsidies), unstable currency, arbitrary or inconsistent government action, cancellation, nullification or unenforceability of contractual rights, corruption, underdeveloped industrial and economic infrastructure and expropriation of personal property, than investment in more developed countries. Some of these countries are in the process of transitioning to a market economy and, as a result, are experiencing changes in their economies and their government policies. In addition, investment opportunities in certain countries in the Middle East may be restricted by legal limits on foreign investment in local securities.

With respect to certain countries in the Middle East, there is also the possibility of expropriation or confiscatory taxation, imposition of withholding or other taxes on dividends, interest, capital gains or other income, political changes, government regulation, political and social instability, terrorism, civil wars, guerrilla activities, military repression, crime, extreme fluctuations in currency exchange rates and hyperinflation, which could affect adversely the economies of such countries or the value of the Company's assets in those countries. There may also be restrictions on the right to convert or repatriate currency or export assets.

Many of the laws that govern the acquisition of or the investment in private companies and other contractual relationships in certain countries in the Middle East are new and largely untested. As a result, the Company may be subject to a number of unusual risks, including inadequate investor protection, contradictory legislation, incomplete, unclear and changing laws, ignorance or breaches of regulations on the part of other market participants, lack of established or effective avenues for legal redress, lack of standard practices and confidentiality customarily characteristic of developed markets and lack of enforcement of existing regulations. Furthermore, it may be difficult to obtain and enforce a judgment in certain countries in the Middle East in which the Company may operate following an Acquisition. The Company can offer no assurance that this difficulty in protecting and enforcing rights will not adversely affect its investments. In the event that any of the above risks are realised, the Company could suffer a material adverse effect on its financial condition or results of operations.

In addition, the commitment of local business people, government officials and agencies and the judicial system to abide by legal requirements and negotiated agreements may be more uncertain, creating particular concerns with respect to licences and agreements for business which may be susceptible to revision or cancellation, as a result of which legal redress may be uncertain or delayed. There can be no guarantee that joint ventures, licences, licence applications or other legal arrangements will not be adversely affected by the actions of government authorities or others and the effectiveness of, and enforcement of, such arrangements in these jurisdictions cannot be assured which may impact negatively on the Company's financial condition and results of operations.

Additionally, changes in investment policies or shifts in the prevailing political climate in any of the countries in the Middle East could result in the introduction of changes to Government regulations with respect to, price controls; export and import controls; income and other taxes; foreign ownership restrictions; foreign exchange and currency controls; and labour and welfare benefit policies.

The Company's business may be reliant on continued improvement in the economies of those countries in which it expects to invest in the Middle East and those countries into which it may expand in the future

The Company will only be able to fully achieve its objectives in the event that the economies of the countries in which it expects to operate continue to improve and that there is no material adverse decline in those economies. At present many countries in the Middle East are facing socio-economic difficulties including foreign currency shortages, civil unrest, unemployment and shortages of manufactured goods and fuel. If socio-economic conditions in the countries in which the Company expects to operate stagnate or worsen, it could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations and/or prospects.

Continued instability and unrest in the Middle East region may adversely affect the economies in which the target company or business operates

Since late 2010, there have been significant civil disturbances and political turmoil affecting several countries in the Middle East region, which to date have led to the collapse of the political regimes of Tunisia, Egypt and Libya. Syria is currently experiencing significant nationwide violence, and there are on-going protests in other countries in the Middle East region, including strikes, demonstrations, marches and rallies. In addition, from time to time, tensions between western nations and Iran in respect of Iran's nuclear programme rise and fall.

Such continuing instability and unrest in the Middle East region may significantly impact the economies in which the target company does business, including both the financial markets and the real economy. Such impacts could occur through a lower flow of foreign direct investment into the region, capital outflows or increased volatility in the global and regional financial markets. Although certain countries in the Middle East have not been directly impacted by the unrest in the broader region to date, it is unclear what impact this unrest may have on such countries or any of the countries in which the Company or the target company may do business in the future. The business, financial condition and results of operations of the Company or a target company may be materially adversely affected if, and to the extent, this regional volatility leads to an outflow of expatriate residents or capital, or to potential instability or government change.

Foreign companies wishing to invest in certain Middle Eastern countries, including those in which the Company may operate following an Acquisition, may be subject to foreign ownership restrictions and/or obliged to obtain prior clearance and approvals to do so from the relevant regulatory authorities in those countries, and failure to obtain or in the case of existing investments to retain such clearances will significantly impair the Company's ability to achieve its objectives

Certain countries in the Middle East have foreign ownership restrictions that could significantly limit the Company's ability to complete an Acquisition with a target company or business operating in such countries. Although the Company may be able to obtain operating control and/or certain other rights in companies in such countries through direct ownership rights entrenched in the constitutional documents, certain contractual management rights, nominee arrangements, and/or other structures which, together, would be designed to ensure compliance with foreign ownership restrictions, such structures may not be judicially tested or proven and could be subject to challenge by relevant authorities.

In addition, foreign companies wishing to invest in many Middle Eastern countries can be required to obtain prior clearance and approvals from the regulatory authorities in those countries. There is no guarantee that the Company will be successful in obtaining such approvals and clearance or that any existing approvals and clearances will not be revoked or withdrawn.

Following an Acquisition, the Company's businesses could be affected by the imposition of economic sanctions by the United Kingdom, European Union, United States of America or other countries

The Company will be required to comply with applicable U.K., U.S. and EU economic sanctions, including prohibitions on dealings with certain persons designated by the application sanctions regimes. If the United Kingdom, the European Union, the United States of America or other countries were to implement sanctions against political leaders in the Middle East or such persons' associates and affiliated entities or other individuals with whom the Company had business dealings, the Company may be required to cease activities involving such persons. In addition, changes to U.K., U.S., EU or other applicable regulations could result in the restriction of the Company's ability to continue with business following the Acquisition and its ability to expand into new markets or to attract new customers.

Non-compliance with applicable economic sanctions, laws, or regulations could result in civil or criminal liability for individuals and entities within the Company or the target company, the imposition of significant fines or other penalties, as well as negative publicity or reputational damage.

The lack of an effective or predictable judicial system in some countries in the Middle East may make it difficult for us to pursue claims in such countries and to enforce our rights under court judgments or arbitration awards

Because of the lack of effectiveness or predictability of the judicial system in certain countries in the Middle East, we may have difficulty in successfully pursuing claims in such countries, as compared to the other more developed countries in North America and Europe. Further, to the extent that we obtain a judgment or arbitral award but are required to seek its enforcement in a court in some countries in the Middle East, there can be no assurance that a court will enforce the judgment or the arbitral award. Enforcement of arbitration agreements or arbitral awards in some countries in the Middle East is especially difficult because awards must be validated in a local court, must comply with many technical and substantive requirements, and are subject to nullification on the basis of technicalities that can be difficult to comply with or predict.

If currencies in countries in the Middle East that are currently pegged to the U.S. dollar were no longer so pegged, we could become subject to additional foreign currency exchange risk

Certain currencies in countries in the Middle East, including for example the Saudi riyal, the Bahraini dinar and the UAE dirham, are currently pegged and historically have been pegged to the value of the U.S. dollar. Because payments under contracts denominated in such foreign currencies will not fluctuate relative to their U.S. dollar value, this pegging effectively eliminates certain foreign currency risks with respect to such currencies. However, if those currencies were no longer to be so pegged, whether due to civil unrest, changes in monetary policy, or otherwise, we could become subject to additional and substantial foreign currency risk of fluctuating currency values and exchange rates. Changes in the value of foreign currencies could increase our U.S. dollar costs for, or reduce our U.S. dollar revenues from, our foreign operations, and could affect our profits.

Certain countries in the Middle East currently impose no corporate tax on most companies operating in such countries. If we acquire a company in such a country and the tax law or its enforcement changes, we could be adversely affected.

Certain of the countries in the Middle East where we may consider an acquisition are currently generally tax-free jurisdictions, with no effective corporate tax except for companies in very limited number of industries such as banking or energy-related companies. However, the government in some these countries are currently considering changes to their tax policies or may in the future consider such changes. If a corporate income tax is subsequently imposed in a jurisdiction that did not impose such tax previously, or if tax rates are increased, our profits may be adversely affected.

RISKS RELATING TO THE ORDINARY SHARES AND WARRANTS

Shareholders will not have the opportunity to vote to approve the Acquisition

Unless such approval is required by law or other regulatory process, Shareholders will not have the opportunity to vote on the Acquisition even if Ordinary Shares are being issued as consideration for the Acquisition. To the extent a Resolution of Members is required pursuant to any applicable BVI law in order to approve any matter in relation to an Acquisition, or to approve a merger or consolidation with one or more BVI or foreign companies in connection with an Acquisition, only the holders of Founder Preferred Shares shall be entitled to vote on such Resolution of Members. Chapter 10 of the Listing Rules relating to significant transactions will not apply to the Company while the Company has a Standard Listing. The Company does not expect that Shareholder approval will be required in connection with the Acquisition, and therefore, Investors will be relying on the Company's and the Founders' ability to identify potential targets, evaluate their merits, conduct or monitor diligence and conduct negotiations.

The Warrants can only be exercised during the Subscription Period and to the extent a Warrantholder has not exercised its Warrants before the end of the Subscription Period such Warrants will lapse worthless

To the extent a Warrantholder has not exercised its Warrants before the end of the Subscription Period such Warrants will lapse worthless. Any Warrants not exercised on or before the final subscription date for the Warrants will lapse without any payment being made to the holders of such Warrants and will, effectively, result in the loss of the holder's entire investment in relation to the Warrant.

The market price of the Warrants may be volatile and there is a risk that they may become valueless. Investors should be aware that the subscription rights attached to the Warrants are exercisable only during the Subscription Period in multiples of three Warrants at a price equal to $11.50 per whole Ordinary Share (subject to any prior adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Warrant Instrument).

The Warrants are subject to mandatory redemption and therefore the Company may redeem a Warrantholder's unexpired Warrants prior to their exercise at a time that is disadvantageous to a Warrantholder, thereby making such Warrants worthless

The Warrants are subject to mandatory redemption at any time after Admission and prior to the end of the Subscription Period, at a price of $0.01 per Warrant if at any time the Average Price per Ordinary Share equals or exceeds $18.00 (subject to any prior adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Warrant Instrument) for any ten consecutive Trading Days. Mandatory redemption of the outstanding Warrants could force a Warrantholder to accept the nominal redemption price which, at the time any outstanding Warrants are called for redemption, is likely to be substantially less than the market value of such Warrants.

The Directors will have the discretion to refuse the exercise of the Warrants in certain circumstances

At any time during the Subscription Period, the Directors will have the discretion to refuse the conversion of Warrants to the extent such conversion may impact the Company's ability to meet the requirements in Listing Rule 14.3.2 which require a sufficient number of shares, being 25 per cent. of the shares for which application for admission has been made, to be in public hands. Further, the Warrants will only be exercisable by persons who represent, amongst other things, that they (i) are Accredited Investors or QIBs or (ii) are outside the United States and not a U.S. Person (or acting for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person), and are acquiring Ordinary Shares upon the exercise of the Warrants in reliance on an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Warrants, in so far as they give an entitlement to subscribe for Ordinary Shares, are affected by the same risk factors as the Ordinary Shares.

Investors will experience a dilution of their percentage ownership of the Company if they do not exercise their Warrants or if the Company decides to offer additional Ordinary Shares in the future

The terms of the Warrants provide (inter alia) for the issue of Ordinary Shares in the Company upon any exercise of the Warrants, in each case in accordance with their respective terms. Please see "Part IX—Terms & Conditions of the Warrants" and paragraph 15.8 of "Part VIII—Additional Information" for further details of the terms of the Warrants.

The maximum number of Ordinary Shares that may be required to be issued by the Company pursuant to the terms of the Warrants, subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Warrant Instrument, is 16,675,000. To the extent that Investors do not exercise their Warrants, their proportionate ownership and voting interest in the Company will be reduced by the issue of Ordinary Shares pursuant to the terms of the Warrants. The Warrants will only be exercisable by persons who represent, amongst other things, that they (i) are Accredited Investors or QIBs or (ii) are outside the United States and not a U.S. Person (or acting for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person), and are acquiring Ordinary Shares upon the exercise of the Warrants in reliance on an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The exercise of the Warrants will result in a dilution of the value of such Shareholders' interests if the value of an Ordinary Share exceeds the exercise price payable on the exercise of a Warrant at the relevant time. The potential for the issue of additional Ordinary Shares pursuant to exercise of the Warrants could have an adverse effect on the market price of the Ordinary Shares.

In addition, if the Company decides to offer additional Ordinary Shares in the future, for example, for the purposes of or in connection with the Acquisition, this could dilute the interests of Investors and/or have an adverse effect on the market price of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants.

The proposed Standard Listing of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants will afford Investors a lower level of regulatory protection than a Premium Listing Application will be made for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants to be admitted to a Standard Listing on the Official List. A Standard Listing will afford Investors in the Company a lower level of regulatory protection than that afforded to investors in a company with a Premium Listing, which is subject to additional obligations under the Listing Rules. A Standard Listing will not permit the Company to gain a FTSE indexation, which may have an adverse effect on the valuation of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants.

Further details regarding the differences in the protections afforded by a Premium Listing as against a Standard Listing are set out in the section entitled “Consequences of a Standard Listing” on page 35.

Shareholders will not be entitled to the takeover offer protections provided by the City Code

The City Code applies, inter alia, to offers for all listed public companies considered by the Panel on Takeovers and Mergers to be incorporated or resident in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man. The Company is not so incorporated or resident and therefore Shareholders will not receive the benefit of the takeover offer protections provided by the City Code. There are no rules or provisions relating to the Ordinary Shares and squeeze-out and/or sell-out rules, save as provided by section 176 of BVI Companies Act (ability of the shareholders holding 90 per cent. of the votes of the outstanding shares or class of outstanding shares to require the Company to redeem such shares or class of shares), which has been disapplied by the Company.

The Company may be unable to transfer to a Premium Listing or other appropriate listing venue following the Acquisition

The Company is not currently eligible for a Premium Listing. Upon completion of an Acquisition, the Directors may seek to transfer the Company from a Standard Listing to either a Premium Listing or other appropriate listing venue, based on the track record of the company or business it acquires, subject to fulfilling the relevant eligibility criteria at the time. There can be no guarantee that the Company will meet such eligibility criteria or that a transfer to a Premium Listing or other appropriate listing venue will be achieved. For example, such eligibility criteria may not be met, due to the circumstances and internal control systems of the acquired business or if the Company acquires less than a controlling interest in the target or if the Warrants in existence at such time entitle the Warrantholders to subscribe for more than 20 per cent. of the Company’s issued equity share capital. In addition there may be a delay, which could be significant, between the completion of the Acquisition and the date upon which the Company is able to seek or achieve a Premium Listing or a listing on another stock exchange.

If the Company does not achieve a Premium Listing, the Company will not be obliged to comply with the higher standards of corporate governance or other requirements which it would be subject to upon achieving a Premium Listing and, for as long as the Company continues to have a Standard Listing, it will be required to continue to comply with the lesser standards applicable to a company with a Standard Listing. This would include a period of time after the Acquisition where the Company could be operating a substantial business but would not need to comply with such higher standards should the Company meet the eligibility criteria for re-admission to a Standard Listing following the Acquisition. In addition, an inability to achieve a Premium Listing will prohibit the Company from gaining FTSE indexation and may have an adverse effect on the valuation of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants. Alternatively, in addition to, or in lieu of seeking a Premium Listing, the Company may determine to seek a listing on another stock exchange, which may not have standards of corporate governance comparable to those required by a Premium Listing or which Shareholders may otherwise consider to be less attractive or convenient.

Further details regarding the differences in the protections afforded by a Premium Listing as against a Standard Listing are set out in the section entitled “Consequences of a Standard Listing” on page 35.

If the Company proposes making an acquisition and the FCA determines that there is insufficient information in the market about the Acquisition or the target, the Company’s Ordinary Shares and Warrants may be suspended from listing and may not be readmitted to listing thereafter, which will reduce liquidity in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants, potentially for a significant period of time, and may adversely affect the price at which a Shareholder or Warrantholder can sell them

The Acquisition, if it occurs, will be treated as a reverse takeover (within the meaning given to that term in the Listing Rules).

Generally, when a reverse takeover is announced or leaked, there will be insufficient publicly available information in the market about the proposed transaction and the listed company will be unable to assess accurately its financial position and inform the market appropriately. In this case, the FCA will often consider that suspension of the listing of the listed company’s securities will be appropriate. The London Stock Exchange will suspend the trading in the listed company’s securities if the listing of such securities has been suspended. However, if the FCA is satisfied that there is sufficient publicly available information about the proposed transaction it may agree with the listed company that a suspension is not required. The FCA will generally be satisfied that a suspension is not required in the following circumstances: (i) the target company is admitted to listing on a regulated market or another exchange where the disclosure requirements in relation to financial information and inside information are not materially different than the disclosure requirements under the Disclosure and Transparency Rules; or (ii) the issuer is able to fill any information gap at the time of announcing the terms of the transaction, including the disclosure of relevant financial information in relation to the target and a description of the target.

If information regarding a significant proposed transaction were to leak to the market, or the Board considered that there were good reasons for announcing the transaction at a time when it was unable to provide the market with sufficient information regarding the impact of the Acquisition on its financial position, the Ordinary Shares and Warrants may be suspended. Any such suspension would be likely to continue until sufficient financial information on the transaction was made public. Depending on the nature of the transaction (or proposed transaction) and the stage at which it is leaked or announced, it may take a substantial period of time to compile the relevant information, particularly where the target does not have financial or other information readily available which is comparable with the information a listed company would be expected to provide under the Disclosure and Transparency Rules and the Listing Rules (for example, where the target business is not itself already subject to a public disclosure regime), and the period during which the Ordinary Shares and Warrants would be suspended may therefore be significant.

Furthermore, the Listing Rules provide that the FCA will generally seek to cancel the listing of a listed company's securities when it completes a reverse takeover. In such circumstances, the Company may seek the re-admission to listing either simultaneously with completion of any such acquisition or as soon thereafter as is possible but there is no guarantee that such re-admission would be granted.

A suspension or cancellation of the listing of the Company's Ordinary Shares and Warrants would materially reduce liquidity in such shares and such warrants which may affect an Investor's ability to realise some or all of its investment and/or the price at which such Investor can effect such realisation.

There is currently no market for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants, notwithstanding the Company's intention to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange. A market for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants may not develop, which would adversely affect the liquidity and price of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants

There is currently no market for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants. Therefore, Investors cannot benefit from information about prior market history when making their decision to invest. The price of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants after the Placing also can vary due to a number of factors, including but not limited to, general economic conditions and forecasts, the Company's general business condition and the release of its financial reports. Although the Company's current intention is that its securities should continue to trade on the London Stock Exchange, it cannot assure you that it will always do so. In addition, an active trading market for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants may not develop or, if developed, may not be maintained. Investors may be unable to sell their Ordinary Shares and Warrants unless a market can be established and maintained, and if the Company subsequently obtains a listing on an exchange in addition to, or in lieu of, the London Stock Exchange, the level of liquidity of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants may decline.

Investors may not be able to realise returns on their investment in Ordinary Shares and Warrants within a period that they would consider to be reasonable Investments in Ordinary Shares and Warrants may be relatively illiquid. There may be a limited number of Shareholders and Warrantholders and this factor, together with the number of Ordinary Shares and Warrants to be issued pursuant to the Placing, may contribute both to infrequent trading in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants on the London Stock Exchange and to volatile Ordinary Share and Warrant price movements. Investors should not expect that they will necessarily be able to realise their investment in Ordinary Shares and Warrants within a period that they would regard as reasonable. Accordingly, the Ordinary Shares and Warrants may not be suitable for short-term investment. Admission should not be taken as implying that there will be an active trading market for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants. Even if an active trading market develops, the market price for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants may fall below the Placing Price.

Dividend payments on the Ordinary Shares are not guaranteed and the Company does not intend to pay dividends prior to the Acquisition

To the extent the Company intends to pay dividends on the Ordinary Shares, it will pay such dividends following (but not before) the Acquisition, at such times (if any) and in such amounts (if any) as the Board determines appropriate and in accordance with applicable law, but expects to be principally reliant upon dividends received on shares held by it in any operating subsidiaries in order to do so. Payments of such dividends will be dependent on the availability of any dividends or other distributions from such subsidiaries. The Company can therefore give no assurance that it will be able to pay dividends going forward or as to the amount of such dividends, if any.

If any dividend is declared in the future and paid in a foreign currency, U.S. Holders may be taxed on a larger amount in U.S. dollars than the U.S. dollar amount actually received

U.S. Holders will be taxed on the U.S. dollar value of dividends at the time they are received, even if they are not converted to U.S. dollars or are converted at a time when the U.S. dollar value of the dividends has fallen. The U.S. dollar value of the payments made in the foreign currency will be determined for tax purposes at the spot rate of the foreign currency to the U.S. dollar on the date the dividend distribution is deemed included in such U.S. Holder's income, regardless of whether or when the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars.

A prospective Investor's ability to invest in the Ordinary Shares or to transfer any Ordinary Shares that it holds may be limited by certain ERISA, U.S. Tax Code and other considerations

The Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to restrict the ownership and holding of its Ordinary Shares and Warrants so that none of its assets will constitute "plan assets" under the Plan Assets Regulations. The Company intends to impose such restrictions based on deemed representations. However, the Company has permitted limited participation in the Placing by certain Plan Investors (as defined in "Part X—Notices to Investors—Certain ERISA Considerations") and cannot guarantee that Ordinary Shares and Warrants will not be acquired by other Plan Investors. If the Company's assets were deemed to be plan assets of an ERISA Plan (as defined in "Part X—Notices to Investors—Certain ERISA Considerations"): (i) the prudence and other fiduciary responsibility standards of ERISA would apply to assets of the Company; and (ii) certain transactions, including transactions that the Company may enter into, or may have entered into, in the ordinary course of business might constitute or result in non-exempt prohibited transactions under section 406 of ERISA or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code and might have to be rescinded. A non-exempt prohibited transaction, in addition to imposing potential liability on fiduciaries of the ERISA Plan, may also result in the imposition of an excise tax on "parties in interest" (as defined in ERISA) or "disqualified persons" (as defined in the U.S. Tax Code), with whom the ERISA Plan engages in the transaction. Governmental plans, certain church plans and non-U.S. plans, while not subject to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA, section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code, or the Plan Asset Regulations, may nevertheless be subject to other state, local, non-U.S. or other regulations that have similar effect.

See "For the attention of United States Investors" and "Certain ERISA Considerations" in "Part X—Notices to Investors" for a more detailed description of certain ERISA, U.S. Tax Code and other considerations relating to an investment in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants. However, these remedies may not be effective in avoiding characterisation of the Company's assets as "plan assets" under the Plan Assets Regulations and, as a result, the Company may suffer the consequences described above.

The Company is not, and does not intend to become, registered in the U.S. as an investment company under the U.S. Investment Company Act and Shareholders will not be entitled to the protections of the U.S. Investment Company Act

The Company has not been, does not intend to be, and would most likely be unable to become, registered in the United States as an investment company under the U.S. Investment Company Act. The U.S. Investment Company Act provides certain protections to investors and imposes certain restrictions on companies that are registered as investment companies. As the Company is not so registered and does not plan to be registered, none of these protections or restrictions is or will be applicable to the Company.

An entity may be deemed to be an investment company, as defined under Sections 3(a)(1)(A) and (C) of the U.S. Investment Company Act, if it primarily is engaged or holds itself out as engaging in the business of investing, reinvesting or trading in securities or if it owns investment securities (as that term is defined in the U.S. Investment Company Act) having a value exceeding 40 per cent of its total assets. If an entity is deemed to be an investment company under the U.S. Investment Company Act, it is required to register as an investment company under that Act. If the Company were required to register, it could become subject to certain restrictions that might make it difficult for the Company to conduct its business and to complete the Acquisition. If the Company were required to register, it would be required to impose restrictions on the nature of its investments, issuance of its securities, its capital structure, and how it conducts business dealings with its affiliates, among other factors. In addition, the Company may have burdensome requirements imposed upon it, including reporting, record keeping, voting, proxy and disclosure requirements and other rules and regulations.

The Company does not believe that its proposed activities, or the manner in which it will conduct its business, will require it to register as an investment company under the U.S. Investment Company Act during the period in which it is seeking an Acquisition.

In the event that the Company did hold more than 40 per cent. of its total assets in investment securities, it could seek to qualify for an exemption from registration as an investment company, or request an exemption from the SEC. As an entity organised outside the United States, there is no assurance that such an exemption or that such relief would be available at that time. If the Company were found to have operated as an unregistered investment company, the Company could be subject to regulatory and other penalties that could materially and adversely affect its business operations and prospects.

If the Company were deemed to be a U.S. domestic issuer, as such term is defined in Regulation S, it may be required to institute burdensome compliance requirements

If the Company were deemed to be a domestic issuer under Regulation S, the Company may be subject to burdensome reporting and disclosure requirements if it were required to file reports under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) with the SEC.

The Company does not believe that it is a domestic issuer as the Company currently meets the requirements for a foreign private issuer under Rule 405 under the Securities Act. However, there can be no assurance that upon completion of the Acquisition or otherwise in the future the Company will continue to meet these requirements.

RISKS RELATING TO THE COMPANY’S RELATIONSHIP WITH THE DIRECTORS, THE FOUNDERS AND THE FOUNDER ENTITIES AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Company is dependent upon the Founders to identify potential acquisition opportunities and to execute the Acquisition and the loss of the services of the Founders could materially adversely affect it

The Company is dependent upon Mr. Gottesman and Mr. Franklin to identify potential acquisition opportunities and to execute the Acquisition. Neither Mr. Gottesman nor Mr. Franklin is required to commit any specified amount of time to the Company’s affairs and, accordingly, they will have conflicts of interest in allocating their time among their respective business activities. The Company does not have employment agreements with, or key-man insurance on the life of, either of these individuals. The unexpected loss of the services of either of these individuals could have a material adverse effect on the Company’s ability to identify potential acquisition opportunities and to execute the Acquisition.

The Directors will allocate their time to other businesses leading to potential conflicts of interest in their determination as to how much time to devote to the Company’s affairs, which could have a negative impact on the Company’s ability to complete the Acquisition

None of the Directors are required to commit their full time or any specified amount of time to the Company’s affairs, which could create a conflict of interest when allocating their time between the Company’s operations and their other commitments. The Company does not intend to have any executive officers or full time employees prior to the completion of the Acquisition. The Directors are engaged in other business endeavours and are not obligated to devote any specific number of hours to the Company’s affairs. If the Directors’ other business affairs require them to devote more substantial amounts of time to such affairs, it could limit their ability to devote time to the Company’s affairs and could have a negative impact on the Company’s ability to consummate the Acquisition. In addition, the Founder Entities or one or more of their affiliates may help identify target companies and provide other services to the Company. However, there is no formal agreement between the Company and such entities with respect to the provision of such services or the commitment of any specified amount of time to the Company. The Company can provide no assurance that these conflicts will be resolved in the Company’s favour. In addition, although the Directors must act in the Company’s best interests and owe certain fiduciary duties to the Company, they are not necessarily obligated under BVI law to present business opportunities to the Company.

The Founders and Directors are currently affiliated and may in the future become affiliated with entities engaged in business activities similar to those intended to be conducted by the Company and may have conflicts of interest in allocating their time and business opportunities, and Mr. Gottesman, Mr. Franklin and certain of their affiliates are required to provide certain affiliated companies with a right of first review of certain acquisition opportunities

The Founders and Directors have, are currently or may in the future become affiliated with or have financial interests in entities, including certain special purpose acquisition companies, engaged in business activities similar to those intended to be conducted by the Company.

Mr. Gottesman is the Founder and Managing Partner of TOMS Capital LLC (“TOMS Capital”). TOMS Capital is a single-family office which manages the commercial and private interests of its family clients with an emphasis on wealth preservation and long-term capital appreciation. TOMS Capital primarily focuses on private and public equities across a diverse spectrum of geographies and industries, including retail, hospitality, technology, financial services, energy and real estate, among others. TOMS Capital engages opportunistically in investment activities and has the flexibility to invest in a variety of asset classes and strategies. During the period in which the Company is pursuing the Acquisition, subject to the exceptions described below, Mr. Gottesman has agreed to adhere to a conflicts of interest procedure described below which could result in the Company having to forego a potential acquisition opportunity to the extent that a potential acquisition opportunity is competitive with any company in which Mr. Gottesman has a controlling interest.

The Company has entered into a letter agreement with Mr. Gottesman, TOMS Acquisition I LLC and TOMS Capital that allows the Company, from the date of the Placing and terminating on the earlier of (i) the completion by the Company of the Acquisition or (ii) the liquidation and dissolution of the Company, to have a right of first review in the event that Mr. Gottesman, TOMS Acquisition I LLC or one of their respective affiliates becomes aware of, or involved with, any acquisition opportunity with an enterprise value of $250.0 million or more. The TOMS Parties have further agreed that none of them, nor any of their respective affiliates, will pursue such acquisition opportunity unless and until the Company determines that it will not pursue such acquisition opportunity, unless such acquisition opportunity is competitive with a TOMS Capital portfolio company to which Mr. Gottesman, other family clients of TOMS Capital or the other partners of TOMS Capital may be deemed an affiliate or is otherwise a director, officer or key employee (or acts in a similar role), in which case such acquisition opportunity would first be offered to the portfolio company. The Company will not have the right of first review with respect to acquisition opportunities with an enterprise value of less than $250.0 million. The Company believes that none of TOMS Capital’s portfolio companies will compete with it to acquire an entity with an enterprise value in excess of such amount and, in any event, could not conclude such a transaction without significant financing from existing shareholders or third parties. None of TOMS Capital’s portfolio companies has publicly stated criteria for business acquisitions, although they are not prohibited from acquiring businesses with enterprise values exceeding $250.0 million.

Mr. Franklin is the founder and executive chairman of Jarden Corporation, a global consumer products company that enjoys leading positions in a broad range of primarily niche markets for branded consumer products. Jarden’s publicly announced acquisition criteria is to acquire focused, niche consumer product companies that demonstrate a combination of attractive margins, strong cash flow characteristics, category leading positions and products that generate recurring revenues, with a particular focus on businesses or brands with product offerings that provide expansion into related categories that can be marketed through its existing distribution channels or provide it with new distribution channels for its existing products. Mr. Franklin is also a director of Platform Specialty Products Corporation, a global producer of high technology specialty chemical products and a provider of technical services. During the period in which the Company is pursuing the Acquisition, subject to the exceptions described below, Mr. Franklin has agreed to adhere to a conflicts of interest procedure described below which could result in the Company having to forego a potential acquisition opportunity to the extent any potential target business may fit within Jarden Corporation’s publicly announced acquisition criteria or conflict with Mr. Franklin’s fiduciary duties to Platform.

The Company has entered into a letter agreement with Mr. Franklin and Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC that, subject to the below, obligates each of them, from the date of the Placing until the earlier of the completion of the Acquisition or the Company’s liquidation and dissolution, to present to the Company for its consideration, and not to any other person or entity unless the opportunity is rejected by the Company, acquisition opportunities that each of them reasonably believes are suitable for the Company. In the Franklin Insider Letter, the Company has acknowledged that (i) Mr. Franklin has committed to Jarden’s board of directors that the Company generally does not intend to seek transactions that fit within Jarden's publicly announced acquisition criteria and (ii) the Company will not interfere with Mr. Franklin's obligations to Jarden. However, in order to avoid the potential for a conflict of interest, Mr. Franklin has further committed to Jarden that he will review any potential target company to determine whether such company fits within Jarden's publicly announced acquisition criteria. If Mr. Franklin determines that such company fits within such criteria, he will first confirm with an independent committee of Jarden's board of directors that Jarden is not interested in pursuing a potential acquisition opportunity with such company (whether such a transaction was sourced by Mr. Franklin, Mr. Gottesman or any other person). If the independent committee concludes that Jarden is interested in that opportunity, the Company has agreed not to continue with that transaction. Although Jarden's stated acquisition criteria do not specify a valuation range for the businesses they may seek to acquire, Jarden may, and has the size and wherewithal to, acquire an entity within the Company's targeted acquisition criteria.

In addition, the Company's other Directors, Lord Myners, Alun Cathcart and Guy Yamen, may become aware of business opportunities that may be appropriate for presentation to the Company. In such instances they may decide to present these business opportunities to other entities with which they are or may be affiliated, in addition to, or instead of, presenting them to the Company. Due to these existing or future affiliations, the Directors may have fiduciary obligations to present potential acquisition opportunities to those entities prior to presenting them to the Company which could cause additional conflicts of interest.

The Company cannot assure you that Mr. Gottesman, Mr. Franklin or any of the Company's other Directors will not become involved in one or more other business opportunities that would present conflicts of interest in the time they allocate to the Company. In addition, the conflict of interest procedures with respect to TOMS Acquisition I LLC, Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC and Jarden Corporation described above may require or allow the Founders, the Founder Entities and certain of their affiliates to present certain acquisition opportunities to other companies before they may present them to the Company and may make it more difficult for the Company to identify a suitable target business and to complete the Acquisition.

One or more Directors may negotiate employment or consulting agreements with a target company or business in connection with the Acquisition. These agreements may provide for such Directors to receive compensation following the Acquisition and as a result, may cause them to have conflicts of interest in determining whether a particular acquisition is the most advantageous for the Company

The Directors may negotiate to remain with the Company after the completion of the Acquisition on the condition that the target company or business asks the Directors to continue to serve on the board of directors of the combined entity. Such negotiations would take place simultaneously with the negotiation of the Acquisition and could provide for such individuals to receive compensation in the form of cash payments and/or securities of the combined entity in exchange for services they would render to it after the completion of the Acquisition. The personal and financial interests of such Directors may influence their decisions in identifying and selecting a target company or business. Although the Company believes the ability of such individuals to negotiate individual agreements will not be a significant determining factor in the decision to proceed with an acquisition, there is a risk that such individual considerations will give rise to a conflict of interest on the part of the Directors in their decision to proceed with an acquisition. The determination as to whether any of the Directors will remain with the combined company, and on what terms will be made at or prior to the time of the Acquisition.

The Company may be required to issue additional Ordinary Shares pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares which may dilute the holdings of existing Shareholders

The terms of the Founder Preferred Shares provide (inter alia) that they will, in accordance with their terms, automatically convert into Ordinary Shares on a one-for-one basis (subject to adjustment in accordance with the Articles) on the last day of the seventh full financial year of the Company following completion of the Acquisition (or if any such date is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day immediately following such date) and that some or all of them may be converted five Trading Days following receipt by the Company of a written request from the holder. Please see "Part II—The Founders" and paragraph 4.3 of "Part VIII—Additional Information" for further details of the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares. In addition, commencing in 2015 and only once the Average Price per Ordinary Share (subject to adjustment in accordance with the Articles) for any ten consecutive Trading Days following Admission is at least $11.50, the holders of Founder Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive in aggregate the Annual Dividend Amount in respect of each Dividend Year, payable in Ordinary Shares or cash, at the sole option of the Company. If the Company determines to pay such Annual Dividend in Ordinary Shares, then the Annual Dividend Amount will be paid on the relevant Payment Date by the issue of such number of Ordinary Shares as is equal to the Annual Dividend Amount divided by the Dividend Price.

The precise number of Ordinary Shares that may be required to be issued by the Company pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares cannot be ascertained at the date of this Document.

The issue of Ordinary Shares pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares will reduce (by the applicable proportion) the percentage shareholdings of those Shareholders holding Ordinary Shares prior to such issue.

The issue of Ordinary Shares pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares, may reduce any net return derived by Investors from a shareholding in the Company compared to any such net return that might otherwise have been derived had the Company not been required to comply with its obligations in relation to the Founder Preferred Shares.

The Founders and/or the Founder Entities may in the future enter into related party transactions with the Company, which may give rise to conflicts of interest between the Company and some or all of the Founders and/or the Directors

The Founders, Founder Entities and/or one or more of their affiliates may in the future enter into other agreements with the Company that are not currently under contemplation. While the Company will not enter into any related party transaction without the approval of a majority of the Non-Founder Directors, it is possible that the entering into of such an agreement might raise conflicts of interest between the Company and some or all of the Founders and/or the Directors.

Historical results of prior investments made by, or businesses associated with, the Founders and their affiliates may not be indicative of future performance of an investment in the Company

Investors are directed to the information set out in the biographies of the Founders in “Part II—The Founders” and their respective track records in “Part I—Investment Opportunity and Strategy”. The information set out therein is presented for illustrative purposes only and Investors are cautioned that historical results of prior investments made by, or businesses associated with, the Founders and their affiliates may not be indicative of the future performance of an investment in the Company or the returns the Company will, or is likely to, generate going forward. In addition, when pursuing acquisitions in the past other than the prior special purpose acquisition vehicles associated with Mr. Franklin, the Founders and their affiliates have not been subject to conflict of interest procedures similar to those to which they have agreed to adhere to with respect to the Company.

RISKS RELATING TO TAXATION

Changes in tax law and practice may reduce any net returns for Investors

The tax treatment of shareholders of the Company, any special purpose vehicle that the Company may establish and any company which the Company may acquire are all subject to changes in tax laws or practices in the British Virgin Islands or any other relevant jurisdiction. Any change may reduce any net return derived by Investors from a shareholding in the Company.

Failure to maintain the Company’s tax status may negatively affect the Company’s financial and operating results

As noted in “Part VII—Taxation”, the Company is not subject to any income, withholding or capital gains taxes in the British Virgin Islands and no capital or stamp duties are levied in the British Virgin Islands on the issue, transfer or redemption of shares. While the Board is experienced and intends to exercise strategic management and control of the Company’s affairs outside of the United Kingdom, continued attention must be paid to ensure that major decisions by the Company are made in a manner that would not result in the Company losing its status as a non U.K. tax resident. The composition of the Board, the place of residence of the individual members of the Board and the location(s) in which the Board makes decisions will all be important factors in determining and maintaining the tax residence of the Company outside of the United Kingdom. If the Company were to be considered as resident within the United Kingdom for U.K. taxation purposes, or if it were to be considered to carry on a trade or business within the United States or United Kingdom for U.S. or U.K. taxation purposes, the Company would be subject to U.S. income tax or U.K. corporation tax on all or a portion of its profits, as the case may be, which may negatively affect its financial and operating results. Further, if the Company is treated as being centrally managed and controlled in the United Kingdom for U.K. tax purposes, stamp duty reserve tax will be payable in respect of any agreement to transfer Depositary Interests.

Taxation of returns from assets located outside the British Virgin Islands may reduce any net return to Investors

To the extent that any company or business which the Company acquires is established outside the British Virgin Islands, which is expected to be the case, it is possible that any return the Company receives from such company or business may be reduced by irrecoverable withholding or other local taxes and this may reduce any net return derived by Investors from a shareholding in the Company.

The Company may reincorporate in another jurisdiction in connection with the Acquisition and such reincorporation may result in taxes imposed on Shareholders

The Company may, in connection with the Acquisition, reincorporate in the jurisdiction in which the target company or business is located. The transaction may require a Shareholder to recognise taxable income in the jurisdiction in which the Shareholder is a tax resident or in which its members are resident if it is a tax transparent entity. The Company would not anticipate any cash distributions to Shareholders to pay such taxes. Shareholders may be subject to withholding taxes or other taxes with respect to their ownership of the Company after the reincorporation.

There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to make returns for Shareholders in a tax-efficient manner

It is intended that the Company will structure the Group, including any company or business acquired in the Acquisition, to maximise returns for Shareholders in as fiscally efficient a manner as is practicable. The Company has made certain assumptions regarding taxation. However, if these assumptions are not correct, taxes may be imposed with respect to the Company's assets, or the Company may be subject to tax on its income, profits, gains or distributions (either on a liquidation and dissolution or otherwise) in a particular jurisdiction or jurisdictions in excess of taxes that were anticipated. This could alter the post-tax returns for Shareholders (or Shareholders in certain jurisdictions). The level of return for Shareholders may also be adversely affected. Any change in laws or tax authority practices could also adversely affect any post-tax returns of capital to Shareholders or payments of dividends (if any, which the Company does not envisage the payment of, at least in the short to medium term). In addition, the Company may incur costs in taking steps to mitigate any such adverse effect on the post-tax returns for Shareholders.

The Company may be a "passive foreign investment company" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and adverse tax consequences could apply to U.S. investors

The U.S. federal income tax treatment of U.S. Holders will differ depending on whether or not the Company is considered a passive foreign investment company ("PFIC").

In general, the Company will be considered a PFIC for any taxable year in which: (i) 75 per cent. or more of its gross income consists of passive income; or (ii) 50 per cent. or more of the average quarterly market value of its assets in that year are assets that produce, or are held for the production of, passive income (including cash). For purposes of the above calculations, if the Company, directly or indirectly, owns at least 25 per cent. by value of the stock of another corporation, then the Company generally would be treated as if it held its proportionate share of the assets of such other corporation and received directly its proportionate share of the income of such other corporation. Passive income generally includes, among other things, dividends, interest, rents, royalties, certain gains from the sale of stock and securities, and certain other investment income.

Because the Company currently has no active business, it is likely that the Company will meet the PFIC income and/or asset tests for the current year. The PFIC rules, however, contain an exception to PFIC status for companies in their "start-up year." Under this exception, a corporation will not be a PFIC for the first taxable year the corporation has gross income if (1) no predecessor of the corporation was a PFIC; (2) the corporation satisfies the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") that it will not be a PFIC for either of the first two taxable years following the start-up year; and (3) the corporation is not in fact a PFIC for either of these subsequent years.

The Company cannot predict whether it will be entitled to take advantage of the start-up year exception. For instance, the Company may not make the Acquisition during the current year or the following year. If this were the case, the "start-up" exception described in the preceding paragraph would not apply and, as a result, the Company would likely be a PFIC. Additionally, after making the Acquisition, the Company may still meet one or both of the PFIC tests, depending on the timing of the Acquisition and the nature of the income and assets of the acquired business. In addition, the Company may acquire equity interests in PFICs, referred to herein as "Lower-tier PFICs" and there is no guarantee that the Company would cease to be a PFIC once it has acquired such equity interests. Consequently, the Company can provide no assurance that it will not be a PFIC for either the current year or for any subsequent year.

Under certain attribution rules, if the Company is a PFIC, U.S. Holders will be deemed to own their proportionate share of Lower-tier PFICs, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on: (i) certain distributions on the shares of a Lower-tier PFIC; and (ii) a disposition of shares of a Lower-tier PFIC, both as if the holder directly held the shares of such Lower-tier PFIC.

If the Company is a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder holds (or, in the case of a Lower-tier PFIC, is deemed to hold) its shares, such U.S. Holder will be subject to significant adverse U.S. federal income tax rules. In general, unless the U.S. Holder makes a qualified electing fund (“QEF”) election or a mark-to-market election (see Part VII—Taxation—U.S. federal income taxation—Qualified Electing Fund Election (“QEF Election”) and “Mark-to-Market Election”), gain recognised upon a disposition (including, under certain circumstances, a pledge) of Ordinary Shares or Warrants by such U.S. Holder, or upon an indirect disposition of shares of a Lower-tier PFIC, will be allocated rateably over the U.S. Holder’s holding period for such shares and will not be treated as capital gain. Instead, the amounts allocated to the taxable year of disposition and to the years before the relevant company became a PFIC, if any, will be taxed as ordinary income. The amount allocated to each PFIC taxable year will be subject to tax at the highest rate in effect for such taxable year for individuals or corporations, as appropriate, and an interest charge (at the rate generally applicable to underpayments of tax due in such year) will be imposed on the tax attributable to such allocated amounts. Any loss recognised will be capital loss, the deductibility of which is subject to limitations. Further, to the extent that any distribution received by a U.S. Holder on its Ordinary Shares or Warrants (or a distribution by a Lower-tier PFIC to its shareholder that is deemed to be received by a U.S. Holder) exceeds 125 per cent. of the average of the annual distributions on such shares received during the preceding three years or the U.S. Holder’s holding period, whichever is shorter, such distribution will be subject to taxation as described above.

If the Company is a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder holds Ordinary Shares or Warrants, the Company will continue to be treated as a PFIC with respect to the U.S. Holder for all succeeding years during which the U.S. Holder holds Ordinary Shares or Warrants, regardless of whether the Company actually meets the PFIC asset test or the income test in subsequent years. The U.S. Holder may terminate this deemed PFIC status by making a purging election pursuant to which the U.S. Holder will elect to recognise gain (which will be taxed under the adverse tax rules discussed in the preceding paragraph) as if the U.S. Holder’s Ordinary Shares or Warrants (and any indirect interest in a Lower-tier PFIC) had been sold on the last day of the last taxable year for which the Company qualified as a PFIC, by meeting the asset test or the income test. For further discussion of the Company’s classification as a passive foreign investment company, see “Part VII—Taxation—U.S. federal income taxation—Passive foreign investment company (“PFIC”) considerations.”

CONSEQUENCES OF A STANDARD LISTING

Application will be made for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants to be admitted to listing on the Official List pursuant to Chapters 14 and 20, respectively of the Listing Rules, which sets out the requirements for Standard Listings. The Company intends to comply with the Listing Principles set out in Chapter 7 of the Listing Rules notwithstanding that they only apply to companies which obtain a Premium Listing on the Official List. The Company is not, however, formally subject to such Listing Principles and will not be required to comply with them by the UK Listing Authority.

In addition, while the Company has a Standard Listing, it is not required to comply with the provisions of, among other things:

- Chapter 8 of the Listing Rules regarding the appointment of a sponsor to guide the Company in understanding and meeting its responsibilities under the Listing Rules in connection with certain matters. The Company has not and does not intend to appoint such a sponsor in connection with the Placing and Admission;
- Chapter 10 of the Listing Rules relating to significant transactions. It should be noted therefore that the Acquisition will not require Shareholder consent, even if Ordinary Shares are being issued as consideration for the Acquisition;
- Chapter 11 of the Listing Rules regarding related party transactions. Nevertheless, the Company will not enter into any transaction which would constitute a “related party transaction” as defined in Chapter 11 of the Listing Rules without the specific prior approval of a majority of the Non-Founder Directors;
- Chapter 12 of the Listing Rules regarding purchases by the Company of its Ordinary Shares. In particular, the Company has not adopted a policy consistent with the provisions of Listing Rules 12.4.1 and 12.4.2. Until the Acquisition the Company will have unlimited authority to purchase Ordinary Shares; and
- Chapter 13 of the Listing Rules regarding the form and content of circulars to be sent to Shareholders.

The Company is not currently eligible for a Premium Listing. Following the Acquisition, the Directors may seek to transfer the Company from a Standard Listing to either a Premium Listing or other appropriate listing venue, based on the track record of the company or business it acquires, subject to fulfilling the relevant eligibility criteria at the time. Alternatively, it may determine to seek re-admission to a Standard Listing, subject to eligibility criteria. If a transfer to a Premium Listing is possible (and there can be no guarantee that it will be) and the Company decides to transfer to a Premium Listing, the various Listing Rules highlighted above as rules with which the Company is not required to comply will become mandatory and the Company will comply with the continuing obligations contained within the Listing Rules (and the Disclosure and Transparency Rules) in the same manner as any other company with a Premium Listing.

It should be noted that the UK Listing Authority will not have the authority to (and will not) monitor the Company’s compliance with any of the Listing Rules which the Company has indicated herein that it intends to comply with on a voluntary basis, nor to impose sanctions in respect of any failure by the Company so to comply.

The distribution of this Document and the offering of the Ordinary Shares and/or Warrants in certain jurisdictions may be restricted. Accordingly, persons outside the United Kingdom who obtain possession of this document are required by the Company, the Directors, the Founder Entities and the Placing Agents to inform themselves about, and to observe any restrictions as to the offer or sale of Ordinary Shares and Warrants and the distribution of, this Document under the laws and regulations of any territory in connection with any applications for Ordinary Shares and Warrants, including obtaining any requisite governmental or other consent and observing any other formality prescribed in such territory. No action has been taken or will be taken in any jurisdiction by the Company, the Directors, the Founder Entities or the Placing Agents or the Founders that would permit a public offering of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required, nor has any such action been taken with respect to the possession or distribution of this Document other than in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Neither the Company, the Directors, the Founder Entities nor either Placing Agent accepts any responsibility for any violation of any of these restrictions by any other person.

The Ordinary Shares and Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, or under any relevant securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction in the United States, or under the applicable securities laws of Australia, Canada or Japan. Subject to certain exceptions, the Ordinary Shares and Warrants may not be, offered, sold, resold, reoffered, pledged, transferred, distributed or delivered, directly or indirectly, within, into or in the United States, Australia, Canada or Japan or to any national, resident or citizen of Australia, Canada or Japan.

The Ordinary Shares and Warrants have not been approved or disapproved by the SEC, any federal or state securities commission in the United States or any other regulatory authority in the United States, nor have any of the foregoing authorities passed upon or endorsed the merits of the offering of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants or confirmed the accuracy or determined the adequacy of the information contained in this Document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.

Investors may be required to bear the financial risk of an investment in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants for an indefinite period. Prospective Investors are also notified that the Company may be classified as a passive foreign investment company for United States federal income tax purposes. If the Company is so classified, the Company may, but is not obligated to, provide to U.S. holders of Ordinary Shares and Warrants the information that would be necessary in order for such persons to make a qualified electing fund election with respect to the Ordinary Shares and Warrants for any year in which the Company is a passive foreign investment company. For further details, see “Part X—Notices to Investors” of this Document. The Ordinary Shares and Warrants are not transferable except in compliance with the restrictions described in “Part X—Notices to Investors”.

Available information

The Company is not subject to the reporting requirements of section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act. For so long as any Ordinary Shares and Warrants are “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) of the Securities Act, the Company will, during any period in which it is neither subject to section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act nor exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) thereunder, provide, upon written request, to Shareholders and Warrantholders and any owner of a beneficial interest in Ordinary Shares and Warrants or any prospective purchaser designated by such holder or owner, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Enforcement of judgments

The Company is incorporated under the laws of the British Virgin Islands. Although Martin E. Franklin and Noam Gottesman are citizens or residents of the United States, it may not be possible for Investors to effect service of process within the United States upon the Company, or any Directors who are not U.S. citizens or residents of the United States, or to enforce outside the United States judgments obtained against the Company, or any Directors who are not U.S. citizens or residents of the United States in U.S. courts, including, without limitation, judgments based upon the civil liability provisions of the U.S. federal securities laws or the laws of any state or territory within the United States. There is doubt as to the enforceability in the United Kingdom and the British Virgin Islands, in original actions or in actions for enforcement of United States court judgments, of civil liabilities predicated solely upon U.S. federal securities laws. In addition, awards for punitive damages in actions brought in the United States or elsewhere may be unenforceable in the United Kingdom and the British Virgin Islands.

Data protection

The Company may delegate certain administrative functions in relation to the Company to third parties and will require such third parties to comply with data protection and regulatory requirements of any jurisdiction in which data processing occurs. Such information will be held and processed by the Company (or any third party, functionary or agent appointed by the Company) for the following purposes:

- (a) verifying the identity of the prospective Investor to comply with statutory and regulatory requirements in relation to anti-money laundering procedures;
- (b) carrying out the business of the Company and the administering of interests in the Company;
- (c) meeting the legal, regulatory, reporting and/or financial obligations of the Company in the British Virgin Islands, the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and
- (d) disclosing personal data to other functionaries of, or advisers to, the Company to operate and/or administer the Company.

Where appropriate it may be necessary for the Company (or any third party, functionary or agent appointed by the Company) to:

- (a) disclose personal data to third party service providers, agents or functionaries appointed by the Company to provide services to prospective Investors; and
- (b) transfer personal data outside of the EEA to countries or territories which do not offer the same level of protection for the rights and freedoms of prospective Investors as the United Kingdom.

If the Company (or any third party, functionary or agent appointed by the Company) discloses personal data to such a third party, agent or functionary and/or makes such a transfer of personal data it will use reasonable endeavours to ensure that any third party, agent or functionary to whom the relevant personal data is disclosed or transferred is contractually bound to provide an adequate level of protection in respect of such personal data.

In providing such personal data, Investors will be deemed to have agreed to the processing of such personal data in the manner described above. Prospective Investors are responsible for informing any third party individual to whom the personal data relates of the disclosure and use of such data in accordance with these provisions.

Selling and transfer restrictions

Prospective Investors should consider (to the extent relevant to them) the notices to residents of various countries set out in “Part X—Notices to Investors”.

Investment considerations

In making an investment decision, prospective Investors must rely on their own examination, analysis and enquiry of the Company, this Document and the terms of the Placing, including the merits and risks involved. The contents of this Document are not to be construed as advice relating to legal, financial, taxation, investment decisions or any other matter. Prospective Investors should inform themselves as to:

- the legal requirements within their own countries for the purchase, holding, transfer or other disposal of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants;
- any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to the purchase, holding, transfer or other disposal of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants which they might encounter; and
- the income and other tax consequences which may apply in their own countries as a result of the purchase, holding, transfer or other disposal of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants or distributions by the Company, either on a liquidation and distribution or otherwise. Prospective Investors must rely upon their own representatives, including their own legal advisers and accountants, as to legal, tax, investment or any other related matters concerning the Company and an investment therein.

An investment in the Company should be regarded as a long-term investment. There can be no assurance that the Company’s objective will be achieved.

It should be remembered that the price of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants, and any income from such Ordinary Shares, can go down as well as up.

This Document should be read in its entirety before making any investment in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants. All Shareholders are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of, the provisions of the Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association of the Company, which Investors should review. All Warrantholders are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of, the provisions of the Warrant Instrument, which Investors should review.

Forward-looking statements

This Document includes statements that are, or may be deemed to be, “forward-looking statements”. In some cases, these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, including the terms “targets”, “believes”, “estimates”, “anticipates”, “expects”, “intends”, “may”, “will”, “should” or, in each case, their negative or other variations or comparable terminology. They appear in a number of places throughout the Document and include statements regarding the intentions, beliefs or current expectations of the Company and the Board of Directors concerning, among other things: (i) the Company’s objective, acquisition and financing strategies, results of operations, financial condition, capital resources, prospects, capital appreciation of the Ordinary Shares and dividends; and (ii) future deal flow and implementation of active management strategies, including with regard to the Acquisition. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. The Company’s actual performance, results of operations, financial condition, distributions to shareholders and the development of its financing strategies may differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained in this Document. In addition, even if the Company’s actual performance, results of operations, financial condition, distributions to shareholders and the development of its financing strategies are consistent with the forward-looking statements contained in this Document, those results or developments may not be indicative of results or developments in subsequent periods. Important factors that may cause these differences include, but are not limited to:

- the Company’s ability to identify suitable acquisition opportunities or the Company’s success in completing an acquisition;
- the Company’s ability to ascertain the merits or risks of the operations of a target company or business;
- the Company’s ability to deploy the Net Proceeds on a timely basis;
- the availability and cost of equity or debt capital for future transactions;
- currency exchange rate fluctuations, as well as the success of the Company’s hedging strategies in relation to such fluctuations (if such strategies are in fact used); and
- legislative and/or regulatory changes, including changes in taxation regimes.

Prospective Investors should carefully review the “Risk Factors” section of this Document for a discussion of additional factors that could cause the Company’s actual results to differ materially, before making an investment decision. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph constitutes a qualification of the working capital statement contained in paragraph 11 of “Part VIII—Additional Information”.

Forward-looking statements contained in this Document apply only as at the date of this Document. Subject to any obligations under the Listing Rules, the Disclosure and Transparency Rules and the Prospectus Rules, the Company undertakes no obligation publicly to update or review any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

PART I

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY AND STRATEGY

Introduction

The Company was incorporated on 1 April 2014 in accordance with the laws of the British Virgin Islands with an indefinite life.

On Admission, the Company will be authorised to issue two classes of share (the Ordinary Shares and the Founder Preferred Shares) and one class of Warrants. It is intended that the Ordinary Shares and Warrants will be admitted by the FCA to a Standard Listing on the Official List in accordance with Chapters 14 and 20, respectively of the Listing Rules and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities.

The Founder Entities will each subscribe for 750,000 New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) at the Placing Price.

Each of the Founder Entities have also committed $7,500,000 of capital for 750,000 Founder Preferred Shares (with Warrants being issued to subscribers of Founder Preferred Shares on the basis of one Warrant per Founder Preferred Share).

Company objective

The Company has been formed to undertake an acquisition of a target company or business. There is no specific expected target value for the Acquisition and the Company expects that any funds not used for the Acquisition will be used for future acquisitions, internal or external growth and expansion, purchase of outstanding debt, and working capital in relation to the acquired company or business.

Following completion of the Acquisition, the objective of the Company is expected to be to operate the acquired business and implement an operating strategy with a view to generating value for Shareholders through operational improvements as well as potentially through additional complementary acquisitions following the Acquisition. Following the Acquisition, the Company intends to seek re-admission of the enlarged group to listing on the Official List and trading on the London Stock Exchange or admission to another stock exchange.

The Company's efforts in identifying a prospective target company or business will not be limited to a particular industry or geographic region, although the Company expects to focus on acquiring a company or business with a nexus (such as ownership, formation, management, operations, sales or research and development activities) to Israel or other countries in the Middle East. The Company will not, however, acquire any target company or business if such acquisition would involve a violation of Sanctions or such target company or business is subject to Sanctions or if either the Founders or a majority of the Independent Directors believe that any jurisdiction to which the relevant company or business has a material nexus is suffering from significant political, social or financial instability.

The Company does not have any specific Acquisition under consideration and does not expect to engage in substantive negotiations with any target company or business until after Admission. Additionally, the Company has not engaged or retained any agent or other representative to identify or locate any suitable acquisition candidate, to conduct any research or take any measures, directly or indirectly, to locate or contact a target company or business. To date, the Company's efforts have been limited to organisational activities as well as activities related to the Placing. The Company may subsequently seek to raise further capital for purposes of the Acquisition.

Unless required by applicable law or other regulatory process, no Shareholder approval will be sought by the Company in relation to the Acquisition. The Acquisition will be subject to Board approval, including by a majority of the Non-Founder Directors.

Business strategy and execution

The Company has identified the following criteria and guidelines that it believes are important in evaluating a prospective target company or business. It will generally use these criteria and guidelines in evaluating acquisition opportunities. However, it may also decide to enter into the Acquisition with a target company or business that does not meet these criteria and guidelines.

- Strong competitive industry position. The Company will, but is not required to, seek to acquire a company or business that operates within one or more industries that have strong fundamentals. The factors the Company will consider include the potential target's growth prospects, competitive dynamics, level of consolidation, need for capital investment and barriers to entry. The Company will, but is not required to, focus on companies or businesses that have leading market positions in the industries in which they operate, analysing the strengths and weaknesses of target companies or businesses relative to their competitors, focusing on product quality, customer loyalty, cost impediments associated with customers switching to competitors, patent protection and brand positioning. It will, but is not required to, seek to acquire a company or business that demonstrates advantages when compared to its competitors, which may help to protect its market position and profitability and deliver strong free cash flow.
- A company with strong free cash flow characteristics. The Company will, but is not required to, seek to acquire a company or business that has a history of strong, stable free cash flow generation. It will focus on companies or businesses that have, among other things, relatively predictable, recurring revenue streams and an emphasis on low working capital and capital expenditure requirements.
- An established company or business with a proven track record. The Company will, but is not required to, seek to acquire an established company or business with sound historical financial performance. It will typically focus on companies or businesses with a history of strong operating and financial results and it does not intend to acquire a start-up company or business.
- Experienced management team. The Company will, but is not required to, seek to acquire a company or business that has a strong, experienced management team, focusing on management teams with a proven track record of driving revenue growth, enhancing profitability and generating strong free cash flow. The Company expects that the operating expertise of the Founders will complement, not replace, that of the target management team.
- Diversified customer and supplier base. The Company will, but is not required to, seek to acquire a company or business that has a diversified customer and supplier base. The Company believes that companies or businesses with a diversified customer and supplier base are generally better able to endure economic downturns, industry consolidation, changing business preferences and other factors that may negatively impact their customers, suppliers and competitors.

In evaluating a prospective target company or business, the Company will primarily consider the criteria and guidelines set forth above. In addition, the Company will consider, among other factors, the following with respect to any potential targets:

- financial condition and results of operations;
- growth potential;
- brand recognition and potential;
- experience and skill of management and availability of additional personnel;
- capital requirements;
- stage of development of the business and its products or services;
- existing distribution or other sales arrangements and the potential for expansion;
- degree of current or potential market acceptance of the products or services;
- proprietary aspects of products and the extent of intellectual property or other protection for products or formulas;
- impact of regulation and potential future regulation on the business;
- regulatory environment of the industry;
- seasonal sales fluctuations and the ability to offset these fluctuations through other acquisitions, introduction of new products, or product line extensions; and
- the limited amount of working capital available.

These criteria are not intended to be exhaustive. Any evaluation relating to the merits of a particular Acquisition will be based, to the extent relevant, on the above factors as well as other considerations deemed relevant to the Company's business objective by the Directors. In evaluating a prospective target company or business, the Company expects to conduct a due diligence review which will encompass, among other things, meetings with incumbent management and employees, document reviews, interviews of customers and suppliers, inspection of facilities, as well as review of financial and other information which will be made available. The time required to select and evaluate a target company or business and to structure and complete the Acquisition, and the costs associated with this process, are not currently ascertainable with any degree of certainty.

The Company expects the Acquisition will be to acquire a controlling interest in a target company or business. The Company (or its successor) may consider acquiring a controlling interest constituting less than the whole voting control or less than the entire equity interest in a target company or business if such opportunity is attractive; provided, the Company (or its successor) would acquire a sufficient portion of the target entity such that it could consolidate the operations of such entity for applicable financial reporting purposes. In connection with an Acquisition, the Company may issue additional Ordinary Shares which could result in the Company's then existing Shareholders owning a minority interest in the Company following the Acquisition. Future complementary acquisitions may be non-controlling.

The determination of the Company's post-Acquisition strategy and whether any Directors will remain with the combined company and, if so, on what terms, will be made following the identification of the target company or business but at or prior to the time of the Acquisition.

The Company's competitive strengths

The Company believes that it has the following competitive advantages:

Management expertise and track record of the Founders

The Company believes that the Founders collectively have a strong track record of sourcing acquisition opportunities as well as significant management expertise.

Mr. Gottesman has deep ties and strong personal, commercial and financial interests within certain countries in the Middle East, and, as a result, the Company believes that Mr. Gottesman is well-positioned to source an acquisition.

TOMS Acquisition I LLC is an investment vehicle controlled by its managing member, Mr. Gottesman, in which his partners at TOMS Capital, including Guy Weltsch, are members.

Mr. Gottesman was the co-founder of GLG Partners, Inc. and its predecessor entities ("GLG") where he served in various chief executive capacities until January 2012 and founding TOMS Capital. GLG is a multi-strategy asset management company offering its clients a diverse range of alternative and traditional investment products and account management services. Under the leadership of Mr. Gottesman, GLG grew to manage approximately $31 billion in assets at its peak. In November 2007, Freedom Acquisition Holdings, Inc. ("Freedom"), a special purpose acquisition company of which Mr. Franklin was a founder, merged with GLG for approximately $3.4 billion of cash and stock and listed on the New York Stock Exchange; GLG was acquired by the Man Group plc in October 2010. Mr. Gottesman served as GLG's chief executive officer from September 2000 until September 2005, and then as its co-chief executive officer from September 2005 until January 2012. Mr. Gottesman was also chairman of the board of GLG following its merger with Freedom and prior to its acquisition by Man Group plc. Mr. Gottesman co-founded GLG as a division of Lehman Brothers International (Europe) in 1995 where he was a managing director. Prior to 1995, Mr. Gottesman was an executive director of Goldman Sachs International, where he managed global equity portfolios in the private client group.

Mr. Gottesman serves as a trustee of the Tate Gallery Foundation, Columbia University and the Columbia University Medical Center; he is a member of The International Council of the Museum of Modern Art. He also serves as a director of Friends of Hudson River Park and is involved with a number of other charitable organisations. Mr. Gottesman obtained a B.A. from Columbia University.

Prior to joining TOMS Capital in 2012 as a partner, Mr. Weltsch was a senior managing director and the executive vice president of Tigris Financial Group and its affiliate The Electrum Group LLC, a New York City based investment, advisory and asset management firm with areas of focus that include the natural resources sector. Mr. Weltsch was a member of Tigris Group's Executive Committee and served in various capacities, including as a board member and in officer roles, with selected portfolio companies. Mr. Weltsch was also the Senior Managing director of another affiliate of Tigris Financial Group, Rhodium Group U.S. LLC, a private investment firm focused on high-growth cutting-edge opportunities in the fields of Internet, Digital Media, Mobile and emerging technologies. Prior to that, Mr. Weltsch was a member of the M&A and Transaction Development groups at Banc of America Securities LLC. Previously, Mr. Weltsch worked with Equity Group Investments, a Chicago-based private investment firm.

Mr. Weltsch is active in various philanthropic activities, among them the board of associates of the Ronald McDonald House of New York, Harvard Business School, Prize4Life and other initiatives. Mr. Weltsch holds an MBA from the Harvard Business School.

Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC is an investment vehicle majority owned by its managing member, Martin E. Franklin, and Ian G.H. Ashken, another member who has been Mr. Franklin's business partner for over 20 years. Mr. Franklin is also the founder and executive chairman of Jarden Corporation, a global consumer products company that enjoys leading positions in a broad range of primarily niche markets for branded consumer products. Mr. Franklin was appointed to Jarden's board of directors in June 2001 and served as Jarden's chairman and chief executive officer from September 2001 until June 2011, at which time he began service as Executive Chairman. During his tenure at Jarden Corporation, he has overseen more than 20 acquisitions, ranging in size from less than $10.0 million to approximately $2.0 billion. Jarden Corporation has annualised revenue of approximately $8.0 billion.

Prior to his involvement with Jarden Corporation, Mr. Franklin had extensive executive experience in running public companies. Mr. Franklin held the positions of chairman and CEO of Lumen Technologies, Inc. (formerly BEC Group, Inc.), an NYSE listed company, from May 1996 to March 1998, and of its predecessor, Benson Eyecare Corporation, from October 1992 to May 1996, of which he was also president from November 1993 to May 1996. Mr. Franklin was also executive chairman of Lumen Technologies from March 1998 until its sale in December 1998. Mr. Franklin served as executive chairman of Bollé Inc., an American Stock Exchange listed company, from July 1997 until its sale in February 2000. Both Lumen Technologies and Bollé were spin-offs from Benson Eyecare. In addition, Mr. Franklin served as a non-executive director of Specialty Catalog Corp., from 1994 to 2004, of Bally Total Fitness from March 2003 to April 2004, of Guideline, Inc. from November 2001 to December 2005 and of Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. from July 2005 to December 2011.

Mr. Franklin believes that he does not have any potential conflict of interests with any entity other than Jarden Corporation and the conflicts of interests with regards to Jarden Corporation are described elsewhere in this Document.

None of the Founders or any individuals and entities associated with them are required to commit any specified amount of time to the Company's affairs and, accordingly, they will have conflicts of interest in allocating management time among various business activities, including identifying a potential Acquisition and monitoring or performing the related due diligence.

Prior experience in acquisition vehicles

Over the last seven years, Mr. Franklin, together with various partners, has successfully deployed approximately $4.5 billion of equity capital raised through five separate acquisition vehicles. Mr. Franklin created (and controlled) separate entities to invest in the following companies:

- Platform Acquisition Holdings Limited ("PAHL"), an acquisition vehicle that completed its initial public offering in May 2013 and its securities were admitted to a Standard Listing on the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities. Mr. Franklin was both a Founder and non-executive director of PAHL. Mr. Franklin beneficially owned, through an entity which he controlled, approximately 4.8 per cent. of the outstanding common stock of PAHL prior to its business combination. PAHL raised gross proceeds of $905 million. On 31 October 2013, PAHL acquired substantially all of MacDermid, Incorporated and changed its name to Platform Specialty Products Corporation ("Platform"). MacDermid is a global producer of high technology specialty chemical products and a provider of technical services. Platform is expected to acquire the remaining outstanding equity of MacDermid (approximately 3 per cent.) from the MacDermid, Incorporated Profit Sharing and Employee Savings Plan in the first quarter of 2014. The total consideration for the MacDermid equity acquired will be approximately $1.8 billion (including the assumption of approximately $756 million of indebtedness), plus (i) up to $100 million of contingent consideration tied to achievement of certain post-closing performance metrics and (ii) an interest in certain MacDermid pending litigation. Trading in the common stock of Platform began on the New York Stock Exchange on 23 January 2014. Mr. Franklin continues to serve on the board of Platform as chairman.

- Justice Holdings Limited (“JHL”), a special purpose acquisition company that completed its initial public offering in February 2011 and its securities were admitted to a Standard Listing on the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange’s main market for listed securities. Mr. Franklin was both a Founder and non-executive director of JHL. Mr. Franklin beneficially owned, through an entity which he controlled, approximately 3.5 per cent. of the outstanding common stock of JHL prior to its business combination. JHL raised gross proceeds of £900 million. On 20 June 2012, Burger King Worldwide Holdings, Inc. merged with and into a subsidiary of JHL. As consideration for the merger, the then current stockholders of BKW, primarily 3G Special Situations Fund, L.P., an investment fund affiliated with 3G Capital Partners Ltd., received 249,414,069 shares of common stock of JHL’s subsidiary and approximately $1.4 billion in cash. As a result of the merger and various related transactions, the holders of JHL ordinary shares prior to the merger, and JHL’s founders, in the aggregate, held approximately 29 per cent. of the outstanding shares of common stock of JHL’s subsidiary immediately following the merger, and the holders of BKW shares prior to the merger, primarily 3G, held approximately 71 per cent. of the outstanding shares of common stock of JHL’s subsidiary. JHL’s merger subsidiary has changed its name to “Burger King Worldwide, Inc.” and trading in the common stock of that company began on the New York Stock Exchange on June 20, 2012. Mr. Franklin continues to serve on the board of BKW.
- Liberty Acquisition Holdings (International) Company (“LAHIC”), a special purpose acquisition company that completed its initial public offering and listed its securities on Euronext Amsterdam in February 2008. Mr. Franklin was the Chairman of the board of LAHIC and beneficially owned approximately 9.9 per cent. of the outstanding ordinary shares of LAHIC prior to its business combination. LAHIC raised gross proceeds of €600 million. In September 2009, LAHIC completed an acquisition by way of reverse takeover of Phoenix Group Holdings (formerly known as Pearl Group). At the time of the acquisition, Pearl Group was the largest manager and consolidator of closed-book life insurance. It had 6.5 million policyholders, assets under management of $100 billion and was one of the ten largest life insurance companies in the United Kingdom with a total enterprise value of £4 billion. Mr. Franklin served on the board of directors of LAHIC from January 2008 until its acquisition of Phoenix Group Holdings in September 2009. Mr. Franklin was elected to the board of Phoenix in September 2009.
- Liberty Acquisition Holdings Corp. (“LAHC”), a special purpose acquisition company that completed its initial public offering and listed its securities on the American Stock Exchange in December 2007. Mr. Franklin was the Chairman of the board of LAHC and beneficially owned approximately 9.9 per cent. of the outstanding common stock of LAHC prior to its business combination. LAHC raised gross proceeds of over $1.0 billion. In November 2010, LAHC completed a business combination with Grupo Prisa, Spain’s largest media conglomerate. At the time of the acquisition, Grupo Prisa had a total enterprise value of $8 billion. Grupo Prisa’s principal business operations are (i) audiovisual, which includes pay television, free-to-air television and television and film production, (ii) education, which includes the publishing and sale of books, educational material and training materials, (iii) radio, which includes the sale of advertising on Grupo Prisa’s networks; and (iv) press, which includes the publishing of newspapers and magazines and the sale of advertising in such publications. Mr. Franklin served on the board of directors of LAHC from June 2007 until its business combination with Grupo Prisa, and served on the board of directors of Grupo Prisa from November 2010 to December 2013.
- Freedom Acquisition Holdings, Inc., a special purpose acquisition company that completed its initial public offering in December 2006 and listed its securities on the American Stock Exchange. Mr. Franklin was the Chairman of the board of Freedom and beneficially owned approximately 13 per cent. of the outstanding common stock of Freedom prior to its business combination. Freedom raised gross proceeds of $528 million (after giving effect to the exercise by the underwriters of their over-allotment option in January 2007). In November 2007, Freedom consummated an acquisition of GLG Partners LP for approximately $3.4 billion of cash and stock, a leading alternative asset manager headquartered in London, England, with gross assets under management as of 30 September 2007 of over $23.0 billion and changed its name to GLG Partners, Inc. Mr. Gottesman was a co-founder of GLG and served as chairman of the board of GLG following its merger with Freedom. Alternative asset management, in general, involves a variety of investment strategies where the common element is the manager’s goal of delivering investment performance on an absolute return basis within certain predefined risk parameters and investment guidelines. The universe of alternative asset managers includes hedge funds, funds of funds (i.e., funds that invest in other investment funds), private equity funds, real estate funds, venture capital and mezzanine and structured debt funds. GLG Partners, Inc. was acquired by the Man Group plc in October 2010. Mr. Franklin served on the board of directors of Freedom from June 2006 through its acquisition of GLG in November 2007. Mr Franklin continued to serve on the board of directors of GLG until it was acquired by the Man Group plc in October 2010.

Established deal sourcing network

The Company believes that the extensive network of private equity sponsor relationships as well as relationships with management teams of public and private companies and investment bankers developed by the Founders and their affiliates, should provide it with significant acquisition opportunities. However, in each of these cases, the Company will be limited by the conflict of interest procedures which provide that (i) under certain circumstances, acquisition opportunities must first be presented to portfolio companies of TOMS Capital and (ii) if a business opportunity fits within Jarden Corporation's publicly announced acquisition criteria, it must first be presented to Jarden Corporation before it is made available to the Company.

The Company anticipates that acquisition opportunities may be brought to its attention by various unaffiliated parties such as investment banking firms, venture capital funds, private equity funds, leverage buyout funds, management buyout funds and similar sources. The Company may pay fees or compensation to third parties for their efforts in introducing potential target companies or businesses. Such payments are typically, although not always, calculated as a percentage of the value of the transaction and would always be tied to the successful completion of the transaction.

Disciplined acquisition approach

The Founders will use a disciplined approach in assessing a target company or business on the Company's behalf. Accordingly, the Company will seek to manage the risks posed by the acquisition of a target company or business by:

- focusing on companies with leading market positions and strong cash flow;
- engaging in extensive due diligence ahead of any acquisition; and
- investing at low price to cash flow multiples.

Assistance from the Founder Entities or their affiliates

In addition to the Founders, the Founder Entities or one or more of their affiliates, including Mr. Ashken and Mr. Weltsch, may help identify target companies, assist with the due diligence of the target business and assist with certain support and operating services. None of any such entities are required to commit any specified amount of time to the Company's affairs. No Acquisition decision will be made or influenced by such entities. Such entities will only provide such assistance as may be requested by the Board, from time to time, but will not have any independent decision making authority, which authority will be vested solely and exclusively with the Board.

Use of proceeds

Prior to completing the Acquisition, the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, will be used for general corporate purposes, including paying the expenses of the Placing (as further described at paragraph 19.5 of "Part VIII—Additional Information"), repayment in full of the Promissory Notes issued to Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC and TOMS Acquisition I LLC for the principal amount of $100,000 each within 60 days of Admission, and the Company's ongoing costs and expenses (as further described in "Part V—Shares, Liquidity and Capital Resources and Accounting Policies"), including directors fees, due diligence costs and other costs of sourcing, reviewing and pursuing the Acquisition.

Prior to the completion of the Acquisition, the Company will hold the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, in U.S. Treasuries or such money market fund instruments as approved by the Non-Founder Directors. In connection with the Acquisition, in order to mitigate foreign exchange risks, the Company may transfer its liquid assets to a bank account denominated in a currency other than U.S. dollars as approved by the Non-Founder Directors. In addition, in connection with the completion of the Acquisition, the Company may transfer its liquid assets to a cash account. The Net Proceeds will not be placed in any form of trust or escrow account. The Company's primary intention is to use the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, to fund the Acquisition and to improve the acquired business (which may include additional complementary acquisitions following the Acquisition and re-admission of the enlarged group to the Official List or admission to another stock exchange, as well as operational improvements).

For details of allocation of the Net Proceeds prior to the Acquisition, please see “Part V—Share Capital, Liquidity and Capital Resources and Accounting Policies—Deposit or Investment of Net Proceeds Pending Acquisition”.

Capital and returns management

The Company expects to raise gross proceeds of $485,000,000 from the Placing and $15,000,000 through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares. The Directors believe that further equity capital raisings may be required by the Company as it pursues its objectives. The amount of any such additional equity to be raised, which could be substantial, will depend on the nature of the acquisition opportunities which arise and the form of consideration the Company uses to make the Acquisition and cannot be determined at this time.

The pre-emption rights contained in the Articles (whether to issue equity securities or sell them from treasury) which apply with effect following Admission have been waived, subject to Admission, (i) for the purposes of, or in connection with, the Placing, (ii) in relation to, in connection with, or resulting from an Acquisition (including in respect of consideration payable for the Acquisition) or in relation to, in connection with or resulting from the restructuring or refinancing of any debt or other financial obligation relating to the Acquisition (whether assumed or entered into by the Company or owed or guaranteed by any company or entity acquired), and whether in either such case such issue of shares occurs before or after the Acquisition has occurred; (iii) for the purposes of, or in connection with, the issue of Ordinary Shares pursuant to any exercise of any Warrants; (iv) generally, for such purposes as the Directors may think fit, up to an aggregate amount of one-third of the value of the issued Ordinary Shares (as at the close of the first Business Day following Admission), (v) for the purposes of issues of securities offered to Shareholders on a pro rata basis, (vi) for the purposes of issues of Ordinary Shares to satisfy rights relating to the Founder Preferred Shares, (vii) for the purpose of the issue of equity securities to Non-Founder Directors pursuant to their Letters of Appointment and (viii) for the purposes of or in connection with the issue of Ordinary Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Non-Founder Director Options. Otherwise, Shareholders will have the pre-emption rights contained in the Articles, which will generally apply in respect of future share issues for cash. No pre-emption rights exist in respect of future share issues wholly or partly other than for cash. See paragraph 3.4 of “Part VIII—Additional Information” for further details.

The Company expects that any returns for Shareholders would derive primarily from capital appreciation of the Ordinary Shares and any dividends paid pursuant to the Company’s dividend policy set out below in this Part I.

If the Acquisition has not been announced by the second anniversary of Admission, the Board will recommend to Shareholders either that the Company be wound up (in order to return capital to Shareholders and holders of Founder Preferred Shares, to the extent assets are available) or that the Company continue to pursue the Acquisition for a further year. The Board’s recommendation will then be put to a Shareholder vote (from which the Directors and the Founder Entities will abstain). In the event that the Company is wound up, any capital available for distribution will be returned to Shareholders and holders of Founder Preferred Shares in accordance with the Articles. No payment will be received by holders of Warrants and the entire value of the Warrants will be lost. A Special Resolution of Members, requiring not less than 75 per cent. of the votes cast, is required to voluntarily wind-up the Company unless the Board proposes such resolution following the second anniversary of Admission in accordance with the Articles, in which case a Resolution of Members is required, or unless the Directors determine by a resolution of Directors that the Company should be wound up at any time after an Acquisition has been completed and when the Directors reasonably conclude that the Company is or will become a Dormant Company.

To the extent an Acquisition has been completed by a subsidiary or other entity established by the Company for the purposes of the Acquisition and the Directors reasonably conclude that the Company is or will become a Dormant Company, the Board may approve the winding up of the Company without Shareholder approval.

Dividend policy

The Company intends to pay dividends on the Ordinary Shares following the Acquisition at such times (if any) and in such amounts (if any) as the Board determines appropriate. The Founder Preferred Shares will participate in any dividends on the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. In addition, commencing on and after January 1, 2015, the Founder Preferred Shares will receive an amount equal to 20 per cent of the dividend which would be distributable on such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent. All such dividends on the Founder Preferred Shares will be paid contemporaneously with the dividends on the Ordinary Shares. The Company's current intention is to retain any earnings for use in its business operations, and the Company does not anticipate declaring any dividends in the foreseeable future. The Company will only pay dividends to the extent that to do so is in accordance with all applicable laws.

Any such amount payable in respect of the Ordinary Shares and the Founder Preferred Shares shall be divided between the holders of fully paid shares of the relevant class pro rata to the number of fully paid shares of such class held by them on the date the dividend is declared.

Commencing in 2015, and only once the Average Price per Ordinary Share for any ten consecutive Trading Days following Admission is at least $11.50, the holders of Founder Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive an Annual Dividend Amount, payable in Ordinary Shares or cash, at the sole option of the Company.

In the first Dividend Year in which such dividend becomes payable, such dividend will be equal in value to (a) 20 per cent. of the increase in the market value of one Ordinary Share, being the difference between $10.00 and the Dividend Price, multiplied by (b) such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

Thereafter, the Annual Dividend Amount will only become payable if the Dividend Price during any subsequent Dividend Year is greater than the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year in which a dividend was paid in respect of the Founder Preferred Shares. Such Annual Dividend Amount will be equal in value to 20 per cent. of the increase in the Dividend Price over the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year multiplied by the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

For the purposes of determining the Annual Dividend Amount, the Dividend Price is the Average Price per Ordinary Share for the Dividend Determination Period.

The amounts used for the purposes of calculating an Annual Dividend Amount and the relevant numbers of Ordinary Shares are subject to such adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends and certain other recapitalisation events as the Directors in their absolute discretion determine to be fair and reasonable in the event of a consolidation or sub-division of the Ordinary Shares in issue after the date of Admission or otherwise as determined in accordance with the Articles.

Each Annual Dividend Amount shall be divided between the holders of Founder Preferred Shares pro rata to the number of Founder Preferred Shares held by them on the relevant Dividend Date. The Annual Dividend Amount will be paid on the relevant Payment Date by the issue to each holder of Founder Preferred Shares of such number of Ordinary Shares as is equal to the pro rata amount of the Annual Dividend Amount to which they are entitled divided by the Dividend Price.

Corporate governance

In order to implement its business strategy, the Company has adopted a structure more fully outlined in Parts II and III. The key features of its structure are:

- consistent with the rules applicable to companies with a Standard Listing, unless required by law or other regulatory process, Shareholder approval is not required in order for the Company to complete the Acquisition. The Company will, however, be required to obtain the approval of the Board of Directors, including a majority of Non-Founder Directors, before it may complete the Acquisition;
- the Board intends to comply, in all material respects, with certain Main Principles of the UK Corporate Governance Code (as set out in more detail in "Part III—The Company, its Board and the Acquisition Structure") and will voluntarily adopt the Model Code. Compliance with the provisions of the Model Code is being undertaken on a voluntary basis, and the FCA will not have the authority to monitor the Company's voluntary compliance with the Model Code or to impose sanctions in respect of any breaches; and

- following the Acquisition, the Directors may seek to transfer the Company from a Standard Listing to either a Premium Listing or other appropriate listing venue, based on the track record of the company or business it acquires, subject to fulfilling the relevant eligibility criteria at the time. If the Company is successful in obtaining a Premium Listing, further rules will apply to the Company under the Listing Rules and Disclosure and Transparency Rules and the Company will be obliged to comply with the Model Code and to comply or explain any derogation from the UK Corporate Governance Code. In addition to, or in lieu of, a Premium Listing, the Company may determine to seek a listing on another stock exchange or seek re-admission to a Standard Listing.

Track record of the Founders

See “Part I—Investment Opportunity and Strategy—The Company’s competitive strengths—Management expertise and track record of the Founders”.

Founders Commitment

The Founders will commit $30,000,000, in aggregate, in connection with the Placing and the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares.

The Founder Entities will each subscribe for 750,000 New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) at the Placing Price.

Each of the Founder Entities have also committed $7,500,000 of capital for 750,000 Founder Preferred Shares (with Warrants being issued to subscribers of Founder Preferred Shares on the basis of one Warrant per Founder Preferred Share).

Founder Preferred Shares

In addition to providing long term capital, the Founder Preferred Shares are intended to have the effect of incentivising the Founders to achieve the Company’s objectives. They are structured to provide a dividend based on the future appreciation of the market value of the ordinary shares thus aligning the interests of the Founders with those of the Investors on a long term basis.

Commencing in 2015, and only once the Average Price per Ordinary Share for any ten consecutive Trading Days following Admission is at least $11.50, the holders of Founder Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive an Annual Dividend Amount, payable in Ordinary Shares or cash, at the sole option of the Company.

In the first Dividend Year in which such dividend becomes payable, such dividend will be equal in value to (a) 20 per cent. of the increase in the market value of one Ordinary Share, being the difference between $10.00 and the Dividend Price, multiplied by (b) such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

Thereafter, the Annual Dividend Amount will only become payable if the Dividend Price during any subsequent Dividend Year is greater than the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year in which a dividend was paid in respect of the Founder Preferred Shares. Such Annual Dividend Amount will be equal in value to 20 per cent. of the increase in the Dividend Price over the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year multiplied by the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

For the purposes of determining the Annual Dividend Amount, the Dividend Price is the Average Price per Ordinary Share for the Dividend Determination Period.

The amounts used for the purposes of calculating an Annual Dividend Amount and the relevant numbers of Ordinary Shares are subject to such adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends and certain other recapitalisation events as the Directors in their absolute discretion determine to be fair and reasonable in the event of a consolidation or sub-division of the Ordinary Shares in issue after the date of Admission or otherwise as determined in accordance with the Articles.

Each Annual Dividend Amount shall be divided between the holders of Founder Preferred Shares pro rata to the number of Founder Preferred Shares held by them on the relevant Dividend Date. The Annual Dividend Amount will be paid on the relevant Payment Date by the issue to each holder of Founder Preferred Shares of such number of Ordinary Shares as is equal to the pro rata amount of the Annual Dividend Amount to which they are entitled divided by the Dividend Price.

The Founder Preferred Shares will participate in any dividends on the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. In addition, commencing on and after 1 January 2015, the Founder Preferred Shares will receive an amount equal to 20 per cent of the dividend which would be distributable on such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent. All such dividends on the Founder Preferred Shares will be paid contemporaneously with the dividends on the Ordinary Shares.

For so long as an initial holder of Founder Preferred Shares (being a Founder Entity together with its affiliates and permitted transferees) holds 20 per cent. or more of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue, such holder shall be entitled to nominate a person as a director of the Company and the Directors shall appoint such person. On Admission, the Directors so nominated and appointed will be Noam Gottesman (on behalf of TOMS Acquisition I LLC) and Martin E. Franklin (on behalf of Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC). In the event such initial holder ceases to be a holder of Founder Preferred Shares or holds less than 20 per cent. of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue, such initial holder shall no longer be entitled to nominate a person as a director of the Company and the holders of a majority of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue (including any initial holder continuing to hold Founder Preferred Shares) shall be entitled to exercise that initial holder's former rights to appoint a director instead (which shall include being entitled to request the removal of that initial holder's appointee).

The Founder Preferred Shares will automatically convert into Ordinary Shares on a one-for-one basis (subject to adjustment in accordance with the Articles) (i) in the event of the Change of Control (unless the Independent Directors determine otherwise) or (ii) on the last day of the seventh full financial year of the Company following completion of the Acquisition (or if any such date is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day immediately following such date). In the event of any such automatic conversion, the Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable for such shortened Dividend Year ending on the Trading Day immediately prior to such conversion.

A holder of Founder Preferred Shares may require some or all of his Founder Preferred Shares to be converted into an equal number of Ordinary Shares (subject to adjustment in accordance with the Articles) by notice in writing to the Company, and in such circumstances those Founder Preferred Shares the subject of such conversion request shall be converted into Ordinary Shares five Trading Days after receipt by the Company of the written notice. In the event of a conversion at the request of the holder, no Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable in respect of the converted Founder Preferred Shares for the Dividend Year in which the date of conversion occurs.

A holder of Founder Preferred Shares may exercise its rights independently of any other holder of Founder Preferred Shares.

On the entry into liquidation of the Company, an Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable in respect of a shortened Dividend Year which shall end on the Trading Day immediately prior to the date of commencement of liquidation, following which the holders of fully paid up Founder Preferred Shares shall have the right to a pro rata share (together with Shareholders) in the distribution of the surplus assets of the Company.

The Founder Preferred Shares carry the same voting rights as are attached to the Ordinary Shares and will vote with the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. Additionally, the Founder Preferred Shares alone carry the right to vote on any Resolution of Members required, pursuant to BVI law, to approve any matter in connection with an Acquisition, or a merger or consolidation in connection with an Acquisition.

See paragraph 4.3 of "Part VIII—Additional Information" for further details regarding the rights associated with the Founder Preferred Shares.

Registration Rights

Further, and subject to the expiration of any lock-up arrangement entered into between the Founder Entities and the Placing Agents as further described in paragraph 15 of "Part VIII—Additional Information", the Company will provide, at its own cost, such information and assistance as the Founder Entities may reasonably request to enable them to effect a disposal of all or part of their respective Ordinary Shares at any time upon or after completion of the Acquisition, including, without limitation, the preparation, qualification and approval of a prospectus in respect of such Ordinary Shares.

Conflicts of interest

General

Potential areas for conflicts of interest in relation to the Company include:

- None of the Founders or the Directors are required to commit any specified amount of time to the Company's affairs and, accordingly, they may have conflicts of interest in allocating management time among various business activities.
- In the course of their other business activities, the Founders and the Directors may become aware of investment and business opportunities which may be appropriate for presentation to the Company as well as the other entities with which they are affiliated. They may have conflicts of interest in determining to which entity a particular business opportunity should be presented. However, the Company does not expect the Non-Founder Directors to present investment and business opportunities to it.
- The Founders and the Directors are or may in the future become affiliated with entities, including other special purpose acquisition companies, engaged in business activities similar to those intended to be conducted by the Company, which may include special purpose acquisition companies with a similar objective to that of the Company. Entities affiliated with Mr. Franklin currently include Jarden Corporation and Platform which could provide competition to acquire an entity.
- Each of the Founder Entities and the Directors is subject to a lock-up agreement with respect to the transfer of Ordinary Shares, Founder Preferred Shares and Warrants held by them, which will terminate one year following the completion of the Acquisition.
- The Directors may have a conflict of interest with respect to evaluating a particular acquisition opportunity if the retention or resignation of any of the Directors were included by a target business as a condition to any agreement with respect to the Acquisition.

Accordingly, as a result of these multiple business affiliations, each of the Directors may have similar legal obligations to present business opportunities to multiple entities and the Company does not expect its Non-Founder Directors to present investment and business opportunities to it. In addition, conflicts of interest may arise when the Board evaluates a particular business opportunity.

Each of the Founders and the Directors has, or may come to have, other fiduciary obligations, including to other companies on whose board of directors they presently sit and to other companies whose board of directors they may join in the future. To the extent that they identify business opportunities that may be suitable for the Company or other companies on whose board of directors they may sit, the Founders and the Directors will honour those pre-existing fiduciary obligations ahead of their obligations to the Company. Accordingly, they may refrain from presenting certain opportunities to the Company that come to their attention in the performance of their duties as directors of such other entities unless the other companies have declined to accept such opportunities or clearly lack the resources to take advantage of such opportunities.

Additionally, the Founders and the Directors may become aware of business opportunities that may be appropriate for presentation to the Company as well as the other entities with which they are or may be affiliated. As set forth above, the Company does not expect its Non-Founder Directors to present investment and business opportunities to it.

Conflict of interest procedures with respect to Mr. Gottesman

Mr. Gottesman is the Founder and Managing Partner of TOMS Capital. Mr. Gottesman is neither a member of the board of directors (or similar governing body) of, nor an officer or employee of, any TOMS Capital portfolio company and therefore does not owe any direct fiduciary duty to any such portfolio company. However, from time to time, other partners of TOMS Capital act as directors and/or officers (or act in similar roles) of such portfolio companies. Accordingly, the Company recognises that a conflict of interest could arise between the Company and Mr. Gottesman if an acquisition opportunity is also an appropriate opportunity for one of such portfolio companies.

In order to avoid a potential conflict of interest, each of Mr. Gottesman, TOMS Acquisition I LLC and TOMS Capital (collectively, the "TOMS Parties") has entered into a letter agreement with the Company (the "Gottesman Insider Letter"). The Gottesman Insider Letter allows the Company, from the period beginning upon the completion of the Placing, and terminating on the earlier of (i) the completion by the Company of the Acquisition or (ii) the liquidation and dissolution of the Company, to have a right of first review in the event that Mr. Gottesman, TOMS Acquisition I LLC or one of their respective affiliates becomes aware of, or involved with, any acquisition opportunity with an enterprise value of $250.0 million or more. The TOMS Parties have further agreed that none of them, nor any of their respective affiliates, will pursue such acquisition opportunity unless and until the Company determines that it will not pursue such acquisition opportunity, unless such acquisition opportunity is competitive with a TOMS Capital portfolio company to which Mr. Gottesman, other family clients of TOMS Capital or the other partners of TOMS Capital may be deemed an affiliate or is otherwise a director, officer or key employee (or acts in a similar role), in which case such acquisition opportunity would first be offered to the portfolio company.

The Company will not have the right of first review with respect to acquisition opportunities with an enterprise value of less than $250.0 million. The Company believes that none of TOMS Capital's portfolio companies will compete with it to acquire an entity with an enterprise value in excess of such amount and, in any event, could not conclude such a transaction without significant financing from existing shareholders or third parties. None of TOMS Capital's portfolio companies has publicly stated criteria for business acquisitions, although they are not prohibited from acquiring businesses with enterprise values exceeding $250.0 million.

In addition, under the Gottesman Insider Letter, each of the TOMS Parties has agreed to abstain from any shareholder vote to wind up the Company which has been recommended by the Board if an Acquisition has not been announced before the second anniversary of Admission.

Conflict of interest procedures with respect to Mr. Franklin

Mr. Franklin is the founder and executive chairman of Jarden Corporation. Jarden Corporation is a global consumer products company that enjoys leading positions in a broad range of primarily niche markets for branded consumer products. Jarden's three primary business segments, Outdoor Solutions, Consumer Solutions and Branded Consumables, manufacture or source, market and distribute a number of well-recognised brands, including: Outdoor Solutions: 5150 Snowboards®, Abu Garcia®, All Star®, aerobed®, Berkley®, Campingaz®, Coleman®, ExOfficio®, Fenwick®, Full Tilt®, Invicta®, K2®, Marker®, Marmot®, Mitchell®, Penn®, Rawlings®, Shakespeare®, Stearns®, Stren®, Trilene®, Völkl® and Zoot®; Consumer Solutions: Bionaire®, Breville®, Crock-Pot®, FoodSaver®, GrillMaster®, Health o meter®, Holmes®, Margaritaville®, Mr. Coffee®, Oster®, Patton®, Rival®, Seal-a-Meal®, skybar®, Sunbeam®, VillaWare® and White Mountain®; and Branded Consumables: Aviator®, Ball®, Bébé Gourmet®, Bee®, Bernardin®, Bicycle®, Billy Boy®, Crawford®, Diamond®, Dicon®, Fiona®, First Alert®, First Essentials®, Hoyle®, Kerr®, Lehigh®, Lillo®, Loew-Cornell®, Mapa®, NUK®, Pine Mountain®, Quickie®, Spontex® and Tigex®. Jarden's publicly announced acquisition criteria is to acquire focused, niche consumer product companies that demonstrate a combination of attractive margins, strong cash flow characteristics, category leading positions and products that generate recurring revenues, with a particular focus on businesses or brands with product offerings that provide expansion into related categories that can be marketed through its existing distribution channels or provide it with new distribution channels for its existing products.

The Company has entered into a letter agreement with Mr. Franklin and Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC (the "Franklin Insider Letter") that, subject to the below, obligates each of them, from the date of the Placing until the earlier of the completion of the Acquisition or the Company's liquidation and dissolution, to present to the Company for its consideration, and not to any other person or entity unless the opportunity is rejected by the Company, acquisition opportunities that each of them reasonably believes are suitable for the Company. In the Franklin Insider Letter, the Company has acknowledged that (i) Mr. Franklin has committed to Jarden's board of directors that the Company generally does not intend to seek transactions that fit within Jarden's publicly announced acquisition criteria and (ii) the Company will not interfere with Mr. Franklin's obligations to Jarden. However, in order to avoid the potential for a conflict of interest, Mr. Franklin has further committed to Jarden that he will review any potential target company to determine whether such company fits within Jarden's publicly announced acquisition criteria. If Mr. Franklin determines that such company fits within such criteria, he will first confirm with an independent committee of Jarden's board of directors that Jarden is not interested in pursuing a potential acquisition opportunity with such company (whether such a transaction was sourced by Mr. Franklin, Mr. Gottesman or any other person). If the independent committee concludes that Jarden is interested in that opportunity, the Company has agreed with Mr. Franklin not to continue with that transaction. Although Jarden's stated acquisition criteria do not specify a valuation range for the businesses it may seek to acquire, Jarden may acquire an entity within the Company's targeted acquisition criteria. The Company does not believe that the potential conflict of interest with Jarden will cause undue difficulty in finding acquisition opportunities for it given the nature of Jarden's acquisition criteria.

As a director of Platform, he may be required to show potential acquisition opportunities in the specialty chemicals sector to Platform.

In addition, under the Franklin Insider Letter, each of Mr. Franklin and Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC has agreed to abstain from any shareholder vote to wind-up the Company which has been recommended by the Board if an Acquisition has not been announced before the second anniversary of Admission. Further, and subject to the expiration or waiver of any lock-up arrangement entered into between the Founder Entities and the Placing Agents as further described in paragraph 15.2 of "Part VIII—Additional Information", the Company has agreed to provide, at its own cost, such information and assistance as Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC may reasonably request to enable it to effect a disposal of all or part of its Ordinary Shares at any time upon or after the completion of the Acquisition, including, without limitation, the preparation, qualification and approval of a prospectus in respect of such Ordinary Shares.

Other conflict of interest limitations

To further minimise potential conflicts of interest, the Company will not acquire an entity that is an affiliate of any of the Directors.

The Founders, Directors and Founder Entities are free to become affiliated with new special purpose acquisition companies or entities engaged in similar business activities prior to its identifying and acquiring a target company or business. Each of the Founders, Directors and Founder Entities has agreed that if such person or entity becomes involved prior to the completion of the Acquisition with any new special purpose acquisition companies with similar acquisition criteria as the Company's, any potential opportunities that fit such criteria would first be presented to the Company.

Independence of the Board

Noam Gottesman and Martin E. Franklin are affiliates of TOMS Acquisition I LLC and Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC, respectively, and are therefore not considered to be Independent Directors.

The Board considers each of the Independent Non-Executive Directors and, on appointment (as recommended by the UK Corporate Governance Code), the Chairman to be independent in character and judgment and free from relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect or could appear to affect, their judgment. In addition, when determining the independence of the Independent Non-Executive Directors and the Chairman, the Board had regard to their Letters of Appointment and Option Deeds as further described in paragraph 10 of "Part VIII—Additional Information", as well as to their cross-directorships and significant links with other Directors through involvement in other companies. The Board believes that the number of Ordinary Shares that each Independent Director may obtain pursuant to their Letters of Appointment and Option Deeds and their links with other Directors through involvement in other companies is not sufficient to have an impact on their independence.

Directors' fees

Each of the Non-Founder Directors is entitled to receive a fee from the Company at a rate to be determined by the Board in accordance with the Articles (see paragraph 4.2(o) in "Part VIII—Additional Information"). The current level of fees for each of the Non-Founder Directors is $75,000 per annum with the Chairman being entitled to a fee of $100,000 per annum. The Founder Directors will not receive a fee in relation to their appointment as non-executive Directors. All the Directors are entitled to be reimbursed by the Company for travel, hotel and other expenses incurred by them in the course of their directors' duties relating to the Company. Further details of the Directors' Letters of Appointment are set out in "Part VIII—Additional Information".

Strategic decisions

Members and responsibility

The Directors are responsible for carrying out the Company's objectives, implementing its business strategy and conducting its overall supervision. Acquisition, divestment and other strategic decisions will all be considered and determined by the Board.

The Board will provide leadership within a framework of prudent and effective controls. The Board will establish the corporate governance values of the Company and will have overall responsibility for setting the Company's strategic aims, defining the business plan and strategy and managing the financial and operational resources of the Company. Prior to the Acquisition, the Company will not have any executive officers or full-time employees.

No Shareholder approval will be sought by the Company in relation to the making of the Acquisition. The Acquisition will be subject to Board approval, including approval by a majority of the Chairman and the Independent Non-Executive Directors taken as a whole. To the extent a Resolution of Members is required pursuant to any applicable BVI law in order to approve any matter in relation to an Acquisition, or to approve a merger or consolidation with one or more BVI or foreign companies in connection with an Acquisition, only the holders of Founder Preferred Shares shall be entitled to vote on such Resolution of Members.

Frequency of meetings

The Board will schedule quarterly meetings and will hold additional meetings as and when required. The expectation is that this will result in more than four meetings of the Board each year.

Corporate governance

As at the date of this Document, the Company complies with the corporate governance regime applicable to the Company pursuant to the laws of the British Virgin Islands.

In addition, the Company intends to voluntarily observe the requirements of the UK Corporate Governance Code, save as set out below. As at the date of this Document the Company is, and at the date of Admission will be, in compliance with the UK Corporate Governance Code with the exception of the following:

- Given the wholly non-executive composition of the Board, certain provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code (in particular the provisions relating to the division of responsibilities between the Chairman and chief executive and executive compensation), are considered by the Board to be inapplicable to the Company. In addition, the Company does not comply with the requirements of the UK Corporate Governance Code in relation to the requirement to have a senior independent director.
- The UK Corporate Governance Code also recommends the submission of all directors for re-election at annual intervals. No Director will be required to submit for re-election until the first annual general meeting of the Company following the Acquisition.
- Until the Acquisition is made the Company will not have nomination, remuneration, audit or risk committees. The Board as a whole will instead review its size, structure and composition, the scale and structure of the Directors' fees (taking into account the interests of Shareholders and the performance of the Company) take responsibility for the appointment of auditors and payment of their audit fee, monitor and review the integrity of the Company's financial statements and take responsibility for any formal announcements on the Company's financial performance. Following the Acquisition the Board intends to put in place nomination, remuneration, audit and risk committees.

As at the date of this Document the Board has voluntarily adopted the Model Code for Directors' dealings contained in the Listing Rules of the UK Listing Authority. The Board will be responsible for taking all proper and reasonable steps to ensure compliance with the Model Code by the Directors. Compliance with the Model Code is being undertaken on a voluntary basis and the FCA will not have the authority to (and will not) monitor the Company's voluntary compliance with the Model Code, nor to impose sanctions in respect of any failure by the Company to so comply.

Following the Acquisition, subject to eligibility, the Directors may seek to transfer the Company from a Standard Listing to either a Premium Listing or other appropriate listing venue, based on the track record of the company or business it acquires, subject to fulfilling the relevant eligibility criteria at the time. However, in addition to or in lieu of a Premium Listing, the Company may determine to seek a listing on another stock exchange. Following such a Premium Listing, the Company would comply with the continuing obligations contained within the Listing Rules and the Disclosure and Transparency Rules in the same manner as any other company with a Premium Listing.

Acquisition structure

The Acquisition may be made by the Company or a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, established as a special purpose vehicle to make the Acquisition. The details of the structure of the Acquisition will be determined once a target for the Acquisition has been identified.

Other Agreements

The Company has also entered into a number of other agreements for the provision of registrar and other services more fully described in "Part VIII—Additional Information".

PART IV

THE PLACING

Description of the Placing

Under the Placing, 48,500,000 New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) are being made available to Investors at the Placing Price of $10.00 per New Ordinary Share, which is expected to raise gross proceeds of $485,000,000, subject to commissions and other estimated fees and expenses of approximately $11,300,000.

The Founder Entities will each subscribe for 750,000 New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) at the Placing Price.

The Placing Agents have severally agreed, subject to certain conditions to use reasonable endeavours to procure Investors to subscribe for and failing which, to themselves subscribe for, the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to be issued by the Company under the Placing other than the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to be subscribed for by the Founder Entities (as referred to above). Applications under the Placing were required to be received by the Placing Agents no later than 3.00 p.m. (New York time) on 9 April 2014 (or such later time and/or date as the Company and the Placing Agents may agree).

The Placing is conditional, inter alia, on:

- (a) the Placing Agreement becoming wholly unconditional (save as to Admission) and not having been terminated in accordance with its terms prior to Admission; and
- (b) Admission having become effective on or before 8.00 a.m. on 15 April 2014 (or such later date, not being later than 29 April 2014, as the Company and the Placing Agents may agree).

The Company intends to apply the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, as described in “Part I—Investment Opportunity and Strategy—Use of Proceeds”, in pursuit of the objective set out in “Part I—Investment Opportunity and Strategy—Business Strategy and Execution”.

The Ordinary Shares and Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may not be, offered, sold, resold, transferred, delivered or distributed, directly or indirectly, within, into or in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction that is not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and in compliance with the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

The Warrants will only be exercisable by persons who represent, amongst other things, that they (i) are Accredited Investors or QIBs or (ii) are outside the United States and not a U.S. Person (or acting for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person), and are acquiring Ordinary Shares upon exercise of the Warrants in reliance on an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Placing is being made by means of an offering of the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to certain institutional investors in the United Kingdom and elsewhere outside the United States in accordance with Regulation S and applicable laws, and by way of an offering of the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) in the United States to persons who are Accredited Investors or QIBs or in reliance on another exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Prospective Investors are hereby notified that sellers of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants may be relying on the exemption from the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A. The Company is not and does not intend to become an “investment company” within the meaning of the U.S. Investment Company Act, and is not engaged and does not propose to engage in the business of investing, reinvesting, owning, holding or trading in securities. Accordingly, the Company is not and will not be registered under the U.S. Investment Company Act and Investors will not be entitled to the benefits of that Act.

Certain restrictions that apply to the distribution of this Document and the New Ordinary Shares and Warrants being issued under the Placing in certain jurisdictions are described in “Part X—Notices to Investors”. Certain selling and transfer restrictions are also contained in “Part X—Notices to Investors”.

Admission is expected to take place and unconditional dealings in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants are expected to commence on the London Stock Exchange on 15 April 2014. Prior to that, conditional dealings commenced on the London Stock Exchange on 10 April 2014. All dealings in Ordinary Shares and Warrants prior to the commencement of unconditional dealings will be on a “when issued basis”, will be of no effect if Admission does not take place, and will be at the sole risk of the parties concerned. No application has been or is currently intended to be made for the Ordinary Shares or Warrants to be admitted to listing or dealt with on any other stock exchange. When admitted to trading, the Ordinary Shares will be registered with ISIN number VGG6564A1057 and SEDOL number BLG2VT2 and the Warrants will be registered with ISIN number VGG6564A1131 and SEDOL number BLG2VX6.

Subject to any adjustments pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Warrants, each Warrant will be exercisable for one third of an Ordinary Share in multiples of three Warrants at a price of $11.50 per whole Ordinary Share.

Agreement to acquire the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants)

Conditional on: (i) Admission occurring and becoming effective by 8.00 a.m. on or prior to 15 April 2014 (or such later time and/or date as the Company and the Placing Agents may agree (not being later than 29 April 2014)) and (ii) the Investor being allocated New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants), an Investor who has applied for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) agrees to acquire those New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) together with the relevant number of Warrants allocated to it by the Placing Agents (such number of New Ordinary Shares not to exceed the number applied for by such Investor) at the Placing Price. To the fullest extent permitted by law, each Investor acknowledges and agrees that it will not be entitled to exercise any remedy of rescission at any time. This does not affect any other rights an Investor may have. Each such Investor is deemed to acknowledge receipt and understanding of this Document and in particular the risk and investment warnings contained in this Document.

Payment for the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants)

Each Investor must pay the Placing Price for the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) issued to the Investor in the manner directed by the Placing Agents.

If any Investor fails to pay as so directed by the Placing Agents, the relevant Investor’s application for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) may be rejected.

If Admission does not occur, subscription monies will be returned without interest at the risk of the applicant.

Representations, warranties and acknowledgements

Each Investor and, in the case of paragraph (k) below, any person subscribing for or applying to subscribe for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants), or agreeing to subscribe for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) on behalf of an Investor or authorising the Placing Agents to notify an Investor’s name to the Registrar in connection with the Placing, will be deemed to represent and warrant to the Placing Agents, the Registrar and the Company that:

- (a) in agreeing to subscribe for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) under the Placing, the Investor is relying solely on this Document, any supplementary prospectus and any regulatory announcement issued by or on behalf of the Company or on or after the date hereof and prior to Admission, and not on any other information or representation concerning the Company or the Placing. The Investor irrevocably and unconditionally waives any rights it may have in respect of any other information or representation;

- (b) the content of this Document is exclusively the responsibility of the Company and the Directors and none of the Placing Agents, the Registrar nor any person acting on their behalf nor any of their respective affiliates is responsible for or shall have any liability for any information, representation or statement contained in this Document or any information published by or on behalf of the Company, and none of the Placing Agents, the Registrar nor any person acting on their behalf nor any of their respective affiliates will be liable for any decision by an Investor to participate in the Placing based on any information, representation or statement contained in this Document or otherwise;
- (c) it has not relied on any information given or representations, warranties or statements made by the Company, the Directors, the Founders, the Founder Entities, any of the Placing Agents, the Registrar or any other person in connection with the Placing other than information contained in this Document and/or any supplementary prospectus or regulatory announcement issued by or on behalf of the Company on or after the date hereof and prior to Admission. The Investor irrevocably and unconditionally waives any rights it may have in respect of any other information or representation;
- (d) none of the Placing Agents are making any recommendations to the Investor or advising it regarding the suitability or merits of any transaction it may enter into in connection with the Placing, and the Investor acknowledges that participation in the Placing is on the basis that it is not and will not be a client of any of the Placing Agents and that the Placing Agents are acting for the Company and no one else in connection with the Placing, and will not be responsible to anyone other than their respective clients for the protections afforded to their respective clients, nor for providing advice in relation to the Placing, the contents of this Document or any transaction, arrangements or other matters referred to herein, or in respect of any representations, warranties, undertakings or indemnities contained in the Placing Agreement or for the exercise or performance of any of the Placing Agents' rights and obligations under the Placing Agreement, including any right to waive or vary any condition or exercise any termination right contained therein;

- (f) if the Investor is in any EEA State which has implemented the Prospectus Directive, it is: (i) a legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive; or (ii) a legal entity which is otherwise permitted by law to be offered and issued New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) in circumstances which do not require the publication by the Company of a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or other applicable laws. If the Investor subscribes for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) as a financial intermediary, as that term is used in Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, it further represents, warrants and undertakes that: (y) the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) have not been and will not be acquired on behalf of, nor have they been nor will they be acquired with a view to their offer or resale to, persons in any EEA State other than qualified investors, as that term is defined in the Prospectus Directive; and (z) where New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) have been acquired by it on behalf of persons in an EEA State other than qualified investors, the offer of those New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to it is not treated under the Prospectus Directive as having been made to such persons;
- (g) if the Investor is in France, the United Arab Emirates and any of its free zones (including the Dubai International Financial Centre), Qatar, the Qatar Financial Centre, the People's Republic of China (excluding Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau) or Switzerland, it is a person to whom it is lawful for the offer of New Ordinary Shares and Warrants to be made under the terms of the restrictions set out in "Part X—Notices to Investors";
- (h) it has complied with its obligations in connection with money laundering and terrorist financing under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, the Terrorism Act 2000 and the Money Laundering Regulations 2003, or applicable legislation in any other jurisdiction (the "Regulations") and, if it is making payment on behalf of a third party, it has obtained and recorded satisfactory evidence to verify the identity of the third party as required by the Regulations;

- (i) the Investor is not a national, resident or citizen of Italy, Australia or Japan or a corporation, partnership or other entity organised under the laws of Italy, Australia or Japan and that the Investor will not offer, sell, renounce, transfer or deliver, directly or indirectly, any of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants in Italy, Australia or Japan or to any national, resident or citizen of Italy, Australia or Japan and the Investor acknowledges that the Ordinary Shares and Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the applicable securities law of Italy, Australia or Japan and that the same are not being offered for sale and may not, directly or indirectly, be offered, sold, transferred or delivered in Italy, Australia or Japan;
- (j) it is entitled to subscribe for the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) under the laws of all relevant jurisdictions which apply to it; it has fully observed such laws and obtained all governmental and other consents which may be required under such laws and complied with all necessary formalities; it has paid all issue, transfer or other taxes due in connection with its acceptance in any jurisdiction; and it has not taken any action or omitted to take any action which will or may result in any of the Placing Agents, the Company, the Founders, the Founder Entities, the Registrar or any of their respective directors, officers, agents, employees or advisers acting in breach of the legal and regulatory requirements of any jurisdiction in connection with the Placing or, if applicable, its acceptance of or participation in the Placing;
- (k) in the case of a person who agrees on behalf of an Investor, to subscribe for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) under the Placing and/or who authorises any of the Placing Agents to notify the Investor's name to the Registrar, that person represents and warrants that he has authority to do so on behalf of the Investor;
- (l) it will pay to the Placing Agents (or as it may direct) any amounts due from it in accordance with this document on the due time and date set out herein; and
- (m) it hereby acknowledges to each of the Placing Agents, the Registrar and the Company that the Investor has been warned that an investment in the New Ordinary Shares and Warrants is only suitable for acquisition by a person who:
 - (a) has a significantly substantial asset base such that would enable the person to sustain any loss that might be incurred as a result of acquiring the New Ordinary Shares and Warrants; and
 - (b) is sufficiently financially sophisticated to be reasonably expected to know the risks involved in acquiring the New Ordinary Shares and Warrants.

The Company and each of the Placing Agents will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing representations, warranties, acknowledgements and undertakings.

In addition, each Investor in the New Ordinary Shares and Warrants offered in the Placing outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S will be deemed to have represented and agreed to the terms set out under the heading "Restrictions on purchasers of Ordinary Shares and Warrants in reliance on Regulation S" in "Part X—Notices to Investors" and each Investor in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants offered in the Placing within the United States in reliance on Rule 144A or another exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act will be deemed to have represented and agreed to the terms set out under the heading "Restrictions on purchasers of Ordinary Shares and Warrants in reliance on Rule 144A" in "Part X—Notices to Investors".

Supply and disclosure of information

If any of the Placing Agents, the Registrar or the Company or any of their agents request any information about an Investor's agreement to purchase New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) under the Placing, such Investor must promptly disclose it to them.

Miscellaneous

The rights and remedies of each of the Placing Agents, the Registrar and the Company under these terms and conditions are in addition to any rights and remedies which would otherwise be available to each of them and the exercise or partial exercise of one will not prevent the exercise of others.

On application, if an Investor is a discretionary fund manager, that Investor may be asked to disclose in writing or orally to the Placing Agents the jurisdictions in which its funds are managed or owned.

All documents will be sent at the Investor's risk. They may be sent by post to such Investor at an address notified to the Placing Agents.

Each Investor agrees to be bound by the Articles (as amended from time to time) and the Warrant Instrument once the New Ordinary Shares and Warrants, which the Investor has agreed to acquire pursuant to the Placing, have been issued to the Investor.

The contract to purchase New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) under the Placing, the appointments and authorities mentioned herein and the representations, warranties and undertakings set out herein will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law. For the exclusive benefit of the Placing Agents, the Company and the Registrar, each Investor irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts in respect of these matters. This does not prevent an action being taken against an Investor in any other jurisdiction.

In the case of a joint agreement to purchase New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) under the Placing, references to an "Investor" in these terms and conditions are to each of the Investors who are a party to that joint agreement and their liability is joint and several.

Each of the Placing Agents and the Company expressly reserves the right to modify the Placing (including, without limitation, its timetable and settlement) at any time before closing.

Allocation

Allocations under the Placing will be determined by the Placing Agents in consultation with the Founders and the Company after indications of interest from prospective Investors have been received. Multiple applications for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) under the Placing will be accepted. A number of factors will be considered in deciding the basis of allocation under the Placing, including the level and nature of the demand for the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching) and the objective of establishing an Investor profile consistent with the long-term objective of the Company. The Placing Agents will notify Investors of their allocations.

All New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) issued pursuant to the Placing will be issued, payable in full, at the Placing Price.

The Ordinary Shares and Warrants issued pursuant to the Placing will be issued in registered form. It is expected that the Ordinary Shares and Warrants will be issued pursuant to the Placing on 15 April 2014.

Dealing arrangements

The Placing is subject to certain conditions and termination rights in the Placing Agreement, which are typical for an agreement of this nature. Certain conditions are related to events which are outside the control of the Company and the Placing Agents. Further details of the Placing Agreement are provided in paragraph 15.1 of "Part VIII—Additional Information".

Application has been made to the U.K. Listing Authority for all the Ordinary Shares and Warrants to be listed on the Official List and application has been made to the London Stock Exchange for the Ordinary Shares and Warrants to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities.

Dealings in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants commenced on a conditional basis on the London Stock Exchange at 8.00 a.m. on 10 April 2014. The expected date for settlement of such dealings will be 15 April 2014. All dealings between the commencement of conditional dealings and the commencement of unconditional dealings will be on a "when issued basis". If the Placing does not become unconditional in all respects, any such dealings will be of no effect and any such dealings will be at the risk of the parties concerned.

It is expected that Admission will take place and unconditional dealings in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants will commence on the London Stock Exchange at 8.00 a.m. on 15 April 2014. This date and time may change.

It is intended that settlement of Ordinary Shares and Warrants allocated to Investors will take place by means of crediting Depositary Interests to relevant CREST stock accounts on Admission. For settlement purposes only, each New Ordinary Share may be attributed a value of $9.99 and each Matching Warrant may be attributed a value of $0.01. Temporary documents of title will not be issued. Dealings in advance of crediting of the relevant CREST stock account shall be at the risk of the person concerned.

CREST

CREST is the system for paperless settlement of trades in listed securities operated by Euroclear. CREST allows securities to be transferred from one person's CREST account to another's without the need to use share certificates or written instruments of transfer.

Application has been made for the Depositary Interests to be admitted to CREST with effect from Admission. Accordingly, settlement of transactions in the Depositary Interests following Admission may take place within the CREST System if any Shareholder or Warrantholder (as applicable) so wishes. CREST is a voluntary system and holders of Ordinary Shares and Warrants who wish to receive and retain share certificates will be able to do so. An Investor applying for Ordinary Shares and Warrants in the Placing may elect to receive Ordinary Shares and Warrants in uncertificated form in the form of Depositary Interests if the Investor is a system member (as defined in the CREST Regulations) in relation to CREST.

Placing arrangements

The Company, the Directors, the Founder Entities and the Placing Agents have entered into the Placing Agreement pursuant to which the Placing Agents have severally agreed, subject to certain conditions, to use reasonable endeavours to procure subscribers for and failing which, to themselves subscribe for, the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to be issued by the Company under the Placing, other than the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to be subscribed for by the Founder Entities.

The Placing Agreement entitles the Placing Agents to terminate the Placing (and the arrangements associated with it) at any time prior to Admission in certain circumstances. If this right is exercised, the Placing and these arrangements will lapse and any monies received in respect of the Placing will be returned to applicants without interest.

Further details of the terms of the Placing Agreement are contained in paragraph 15.1 of "Part VIII—Additional Information".

Lock-up arrangements

Pursuant to the Placing Agreement, the Founder Entities and each of the Directors have agreed that they shall not, without the prior written consent of the Placing Agents, offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of any Ordinary Shares or Warrants they hold directly or indirectly in the Company (or acquire pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares, Non-Founder Director Options or Warrants) or any Founder Preferred Shares for a period commencing on the date of the Placing Agreement and ending 365 days after the Company has completed the Acquisition or upon the passing of a resolution to voluntarily wind-up the Company for failure to complete the Acquisition (whichever is earlier).

The restrictions on the ability of the Directors and the Founder Entities to transfer their Ordinary Shares, Warrants, Founder Preferred Shares, as the case may be, are subject to certain usual and customary exceptions and exceptions for: gifts; transfers for estate planning purposes; transfers to trusts (including any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of such trusts) for the benefit of the Directors or their families; transfers to the Company's Directors; transfers to affiliates or direct or indirect equity holders, holders of partnership interests or members of the Founder Entities, in each case, subject to certain conditions; transfers among the Founder Entities (including any affiliates thereof or direct or indirect equity holders, holders of partnership interests or members of a Founder Entity); transfers to any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company, a target company or shareholders of a target company in connection with an Acquisition, provided that in each of the foregoing cases, the transferees enter into a lock up agreement; transfers of any Ordinary Shares and Warrants acquired after the date of Admission in an open-market transaction, or the acceptance of, or provision of, an irrevocable undertaking to accept, a general offer made to all Shareholders on equal terms; after the Acquisition, transfers to satisfy certain tax liabilities in connection with, or as a result of transactions related to, completion of the Acquisition, the exercise of Warrants or the receipt of stock dividends; and, after the Acquisition, transfers by a Director or a Founder Entity (or certain connected or permitted transferees thereof) of up to 10 per cent. of such person's shares for purposes of charitable gifts.

In addition, pursuant to the Placing Agreement, the Company has agreed not to, without the prior written consent of the Placing Agents, undertake any consolidation or sub-division of its shares or to, directly or indirectly, allot, issue, offer, sell, contract to sell or issue, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase or otherwise dispose of any Ordinary Shares or Warrants, for a period of 180 days from the date of the Placing Agreement, subject to certain limited exceptions including undertaking any such action in connection with the Acquisition, the issue of Ordinary Shares and Warrants pursuant to the Placing and the issue of Ordinary Shares upon the conversion of the Founder Preferred Shares.

Further details of the lock-up arrangements are contained in paragraph 15.2 of “Part VIII—Additional Information”.

PART V

SHARE CAPITAL, LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Share capital

The Company was incorporated on 1 April 2014 under the BVI Companies Act.

Details of the current issued shares of the Company are set out in paragraph 3 of “Part VIII—Additional Information”. As at Admission, there is expected to be $485,250,000 of Ordinary Shares (divided into 48,525,000 issued Ordinary Shares of no par value) and $15,000,000 of Founder Preferred Shares (divided into 1,500,000 issued Founder Preferred Shares of no par value) and 50,025,000 Warrants.

All of the issued Ordinary Shares and Warrants will be in registered form, and capable of being held in certificated or uncertificated form (in the form of Depositary Interests). The Registrar will be responsible for maintaining the share register. Temporary documents of title will not be issued. The ISIN number of the Ordinary Shares is VGG6564A1057 and for the Warrants is VGG6564A1131. The SEDOL number of the Ordinary Shares is BLG2VT2 and for the Warrants is BLG2VX6.

Financial position

The Company has not yet commenced operations. The financial information in respect of the Company upon which PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has provided the accountant’s report in Section A of “Part VI—Financial Information on the Company” as at 1 April 2014 is set out in “Part VI—Financial Information on the Company”.

If the Placing and Admission had taken place on 1 April 2014 (being the date as at which the financial information contained in “Part VI—Financial Information on the Company” is presented):

- the net assets of the Company would have been increased by $488,700,000 (due to the receipt of the Net Proceeds and the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares);
- the Company’s earnings would have decreased as a result of fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Placing and Admission and a non-cash IFRS 2 charge in connection with the Founder Preferred Shares and the Non-Founder Director Options; and
- the liabilities of the Company would have increased due to (inter alia) the Registrar Agreement, Corporate Administration Agreement and Depositary Agreement becoming effective, thereby obliging the Company to pay the fees under such agreements as and when they fall due and the Directors’ Letters of Appointment becoming effective, thereby committing the Company to pay fees under such Letters of Appointment as and when they fall due.

Liquidity and capital resources

Sources of cash and liquidity

The Company’s initial source of cash will be the Net Proceeds of the Placing and the subscription monies arising from the issue of the Founder Preferred Shares. It will initially use such cash to fund the expenses of the Placing, ongoing costs and expenses, and the costs and expenses to be incurred in connection with seeking to identify and effect the Acquisition. In due course, the Company intends to use such cash to fund (all or part of) the Acquisition. The Company may raise additional capital from time to time in connection with the Acquisition. Such capital may be raised through share issues (such as rights issues, open offers or private placings) or borrowings.

On 9 April 2014 the Company issued unsecured Promissory Notes for $100,000 to each of TOMS Acquisition I LLC and Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC in respect of advances made to the Company. No interest is payable on the Promissory Notes and they are repayable within 60 days following the Admission or, failing Admission, not later than 18 months from the date of issuance.

On 10 April 2014 TOMS Acquisition I LLC and Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC each agreed to subscribe for 750,000 Founder Preferred Shares (with Warrants being issued to subscribers of Founder Preferred Shares on the basis of one Warrant per Founder Preferred Share) for a subscription price of $7,500,000 each.

The Company may also make the Acquisition or fund part of the Acquisition through share-for-share exchanges. Any such exchanges will be subject to the restrictions on the issue of shares set out in paragraph 18 of “Part VIII—Additional Information”.

In addition to capital raised from new equity, the Company may choose to finance all or a portion of the Acquisition with debt financing. Any debt financing used by the Company is expected to take the form of bank financing, although no financing arrangements will be in place at Admission.

Any debt financing for the Acquisition will be assessed with reference to the projected cash flow of the target company or business and may be incurred at the Company level or by any subsidiary of the Company. Any costs associated with the debt financing will be paid with the proceeds of such financing.

If debt financing is utilised, there will be additional servicing costs. Furthermore, while the terms of any such financing cannot be predicted, such terms may subject the Company to financial and operating covenants or other restrictions, including restrictions that might limit the Company’s ability to make distributions to Shareholders.

As substantially all of the cash raised (including cash from any subsequent share offers) is expected to be used in connection with the Acquisition, following the Acquisition the Company’s future liquidity will depend in the medium to longer term primarily on: (i) the profitability of the company or business it acquires; (ii) the Company’s management of available cash; (iii) cash distributions on sale of existing assets; (iv) the use of borrowings, if any, to fund short-term liquidity needs; and (v) dividends or distributions from subsidiary companies.

Cash uses

The Company’s principal use of cash (including the Net Proceeds and the subscription monies arising from the issue of the Founder Preferred Shares) will be to fund the Acquisition and, potentially (depending on the cost to the Company of the Acquisition), to finance the target after the completion of the Acquisition. The Company’s current intention is to retain earnings for use in its business operations and it does not anticipate declaring any dividends in the foreseeable future (other than the Annual Dividend Amount). Following the Acquisition and in accordance with the Company’s business strategy and applicable laws, it expects to make distributions to Shareholders in accordance with the Company’s dividend policy. In addition to using cash to make the Acquisition and distributions to Shareholders, the Company will incur day-to-day expenses that will need to be funded. Initially, the Company expects these expenses will be funded through the Net Proceeds and the subscription monies arising from the issue of the Founder Preferred Shares (and income earned on such funds). Such expenses include:

- all costs relating to the Placing, including fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Placing such as those incurred in the establishment of the Company, Placing and Admission fees, fees and expenses payable under the Placing Agreement, legal, accounting, registration, printing, advertising and distribution costs and any other applicable expenses;
- transaction costs and expenses—the Company will bear all due diligence costs, legal, underwriting, investment banking, broking, merger and acquisition, tax advice, public relations and printing costs and, where an acquisition is not consummated, all such costs and expenses incurred, including any abort fees due;
- all costs relating to raising capital or in connection with debt financings in connection with, or in anticipation of, the Acquisition, including fees and expenses incurred by the Company for its financial, tax, accounting, technical and other advisers, as the case may be;
- Directors’ fees; and
- operational and administrative costs and expenses which will include (but will not be limited to) (i) the fees and expenses of the Registrar and the Administrator and (ii) regulatory, custody, audit and licence fees, trademark fees, insurance and other similar costs.

It is intended that the company or business acquired pursuant to the Acquisition, which is expected to be an operating company or business, will pay all of its own expenses associated with operating such company or business as well as any funding costs associated with any debt raised in conjunction with the Acquisition.

Deposit of Net Proceeds Pending Acquisition

Prior to the completion of the Acquisition, the Net Proceeds, together with the funds raised through the subscription for the Founder Preferred Shares, will be held in U.S. Treasuries or such money market fund instruments as approved by the Non-Founder Directors. In connection with the Acquisition, in order to mitigate foreign exchange risks, the Company may transfer its liquid assets to a bank account denominated in another currency as approved by the Non-Founder Directors. In addition, in connection with the completion of the Acquisition, the Company may transfer its liquid assets to a cash account. The Net Proceeds will not be placed in any trust or escrow account. The Company will principally seek to preserve capital and therefore the yield on such deposits or instruments is likely to be low.

Indebtedness

As at the date of this Document, the Company has no guaranteed, secured, unguaranteed or unsecured debt and no indirect or contingent indebtedness, save for the Promissory Notes issued by the Company as further described in paragraph 15.5 of “Part VIII—Additional Information”.

Interest rate risks

The Company may incur indebtedness to finance and leverage an Acquisition and to fund its liquidity needs. Such indebtedness may expose the Company to risks associated with movements in prevailing interest rates. Changes in the level of interest rates can affect, among other things: (i) the cost and availability of debt financing and hence the Company’s ability to achieve attractive rates of return on its assets; (ii) the Company’s ability to make an Acquisition when competing with other potential buyers who may be able to bid for an asset at a higher price due to a lower overall cost of capital; (iii) the debt financing capability of the companies and businesses in which the Company is invested; and (iv) the rate of return on the Company’s uninvested cash balances. This exposure may be reduced by introducing a combination of a fixed and floating interest rates or through the use of hedging transactions (such as derivative transactions, including swaps or caps). Interest rate hedging transactions will only be undertaken for the purpose of efficient portfolio management, and will not be carried out for speculative purposes. See “Hedging arrangements and risk management” below.

Foreign currency risks

The Company’s functional and presentational currency is U.S. dollars. As a result, the Company’s consolidated financial statements will carry the Company’s assets in U.S. dollars. However, the Company may acquire a target company or business that denominates its financial information in a currency other than U.S. dollars or that conducts operations or makes sales in currencies other than U.S. dollars. When consolidating a business that has functional currencies other than U.S. dollars, the Company will be required to translate, inter alia, the balance sheet and operational results of such business into U.S. dollars. This could lead to significant changes in the Company’s reported financial results from period to period. Among the factors that may affect currency values are trade balances, levels of short-term interest rates, differences in relative values of similar assets in different currencies, long-term opportunities for investment and capital appreciation and political developments.

Any currency hedging undertaken by the Company will have the sole purpose of efficient cash management and will mainly be carried out to seek to reduce the risk of currency fluctuations and the volatility of returns that may result from such currency exposure. This may involve the use of foreign currency borrowings to finance foreign currency assets, foreign exchange swaps or foreign exchange contracts and other similar transactions. Spot, forward or option transactions may also be used as part of the currency hedging strategy. Currency hedging transactions will not be carried out for speculative purposes.

Hedging arrangements and risk management

The Company may use forward contracts, options, swaps, caps, collars and floors or other strategies or forms of derivative instruments to limit its exposure to changes in the relative values of investments that may result from market developments, including changes in prevailing interest rates and currency exchange rates, as previously described. It is expected that the extent of risk management activities by the Company will vary based on the level of exposure and consideration of risk across the business.

The success of any hedging or other derivative transaction generally will depend on the Company's ability to correctly predict market changes. As a result, while the Company may enter into such a transaction to reduce exposure to market risks, unanticipated market changes may result in poorer overall investment performance than if the transaction had not been executed. In addition, the degree of correlation between price movements of the instruments used in connection with hedging activities and price movements in a position being hedged may vary. Moreover, for a variety of reasons, the Company may not seek, or be successful in establishing, an exact correlation between the instruments used in a hedging or other derivative transactions and the position being hedged and could create new risks of loss. In addition, it may not be possible to fully or perfectly limit the Company's exposure against all changes in the values of its assets, because the values of its assets are likely to fluctuate as a result of a number of factors, some of which will be beyond the Company's control.

Accounting policies and financial reporting

The Company's financial year end will be 31 December, and the first set of audited annual financial statements will be for the period from incorporation to 31 December 2015. The Company will produce and publish half-yearly financial statements as required by the Disclosure and Transparency Rules. The Company will present its financial statements in accordance with IFRS as adopted by the European Union.

TAXATION

General

The comments below are of a general and non-exhaustive nature based on the Directors' understanding of the current revenue law and published practice in the British Virgin Islands, the U.K. and the U.S., which is subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. The following summary does not constitute legal or tax advice and applies only to persons subscribing for New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) in the Placing as an investment (rather than as securities to be realised in the course of a trade) who are the absolute and direct beneficial owners of their Ordinary Shares and Warrants (and the shares are not held through an Individual Savings Account or a Self-Invested Personal Pension) and who have not acquired their Ordinary Shares and Warrants by reason of their or another person's employment. These comments may not apply to certain classes of person, including dealers in securities, insurance companies and collective investment schemes.

An investment in the Company involves a number of complex tax considerations. Changes in tax legislation in any of the countries in which the Company has assets or in the British Virgin Islands (or in any other country in which a subsidiary of the Company through which an Acquisition is made, is located), or changes in tax treaties negotiated by those countries, could adversely affect the returns from the Company to Investors.

Prospective Investors should consult their own independent professional advisers on the potential tax consequences of subscribing for, purchasing, holding or selling Ordinary Shares or Warrants under the laws of their country and/or state of citizenship, domicile or residence including the consequences of distributions by the Company, either on a liquidation or distribution or otherwise.

British Virgin Islands taxation

The Company

The Company is not subject to any income, withholding or capital gains taxes in the British Virgin Islands. No capital or stamp duties are levied in the British Virgin Islands on the issue, transfer or redemption of Ordinary Shares or Warrants.

Shareholders

Shareholders who are not tax resident in the British Virgin Islands will not be subject to any income, withholding or capital gains taxes in the British Virgin Islands, with respect to the shares of the Company owned by them and dividends received on such Ordinary Shares, nor will they be subject to any estate or inheritance taxes in the British Virgin Islands.

United Kingdom taxation

The Company

The Directors intend that the affairs of the Company will be managed and conducted so that it does not become resident in the UK for U.K. taxation purposes. Accordingly, and provided that the Company does not carry on a trade in the U.K. (whether or not through a permanent establishment situated therein), the Company will not be subject to U.K. income tax or U.K. corporation tax, except on certain types of U.K. source income.

Investors

Disposals of Ordinary Shares and Warrants

Subject to their individual circumstances, Shareholders who are resident in the United Kingdom for taxation purposes, or who carry on a trade in the U.K. through a branch, agency or permanent establishment with which their investment in the Company is connected, will potentially be liable to U.K. taxation, as further explained below, on any gains which accrue to them on a sale or other disposition of their Ordinary Shares or Warrants which constitutes a "disposal" for U.K. taxation purposes.

The Taxation (International and Other Provisions) Act 2010 and the Offshore Funds (Tax) Regulations 2009 contain provisions (the "offshore fund rules") which apply to persons who hold an interest in an entity which is an “offshore fund” for the purposes of those provisions. Under the offshore fund rules, any gain accruing to a person upon the sale or other disposal of an interest in an offshore fund can, in certain circumstances, be chargeable to U.K. tax as income, rather than as a capital gain. Please note that certain specific conditions regarding the nature of a UK investors holding are to be met in order for the offshore fund rules to apply, and in addition depending on the investment strategy of the vehicle certain exemptions from the charge to tax on income gains may also apply.

For vehicles which are substantially invested in debt instruments the UK investors holding may be treated as a holding in debt rather than in shares. Broadly this will mean that any income returns would be treated as interest rather than dividends (without the benefit of any associated dividend notional tax credit or dividend exemption). In addition for any corporate UK shareholder the holding would be treated as a deemed loan relationship, requiring taxation of all returns on a fair value basis.

The offshore fund rules are complex and prospective Investors should consult their own independent professional advisers.

Dividends on Ordinary Shares

Shareholders who are resident in the United Kingdom for tax purposes will, subject to their individual circumstances, be liable to U.K. income tax or, as the case may be, corporation tax on dividends paid to them by the Company.

Individual Shareholders who are persons within the charge to U.K. income tax (but not companies within the charge to corporation tax) will be entitled, subject to certain conditions and restrictions, to a notional tax credit in respect of dividends they receive from the Company. The dividend tax credit will be equal to one-ninth of the dividend received. Availability of the dividend tax credit will reduce the effective rate of U.K. income tax payable by such Shareholders on dividends received from the Company.

Investors who are within the charge to U.K. corporation tax and who are not ‘small companies’ will generally be exempt from corporation tax on dividends they receive from the Company, provided the dividends fall within an exempt class and certain conditions are met. In general, almost all dividends received by non-small corporate Shareholders should fall within an exempt class. Shareholders within the charge to UK corporation tax who are “small companies” (as that term is defined in section 931S of the Corporation Tax Act 2009) will be liable to UK corporation tax on dividends paid to them by the Company because the Company is not resident in a “qualifying territory” for the purposes of the legislation contained in the Corporation Tax Act 2009.

Certain other provisions of U.K. tax legislation

(i) Section 13 Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992—Deemed Gains

The attention of Shareholders who are resident in the United Kingdom for tax purposes are drawn to the provisions of section 13 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992. This provides that for so long as the Company would be a close company if it were resident in the UK, Shareholders could (depending on individual circumstances) be liable to U.K. capital gains taxation on their pro rata share of any capital gain accruing to the Company (or, in certain circumstances, to a subsidiary or investee company of the Company). Shareholders should consult their own independent professional advisers as to their U.K. tax position.

(ii) “Controlled Foreign Companies” Provisions—Deemed Income of Corporates

If the Company were at any time to be controlled, for U.K. tax purposes, by persons (of any type) resident in the United Kingdom for tax purposes, the “controlled foreign companies” provisions in Part 9A of Taxation (International and Other Provisions) Act 2010 could apply to U.K. resident corporate Shareholders. Under these provisions, part of any “chargeable profits” accruing to the Company (or in certain circumstances to a subsidiary or investee company of the Company) may be attributed to such a Shareholder and may in certain circumstances be chargeable to U.K. corporation tax in the hands of the Shareholder. The Controlled Foreign Companies provisions are complex, and prospective Investors should consult their own independent professional advisers.

(iii) Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the Income Tax Act 2007—Deemed Income of Individuals

The attention of Shareholders who are individuals resident in the United Kingdom for tax purposes is drawn to the provisions set out in Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the U.K. Income Tax Act 2007, which may render those individuals liable to U.K. income tax in respect of undistributed income (but not capital gains) of the Company.

(iv) “Transactions in securities”

The attention of Shareholders (whether corporates or individuals) within the scope of U.K. taxation is drawn to the provisions set out in, respectively, Part 15 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 and Chapter 1 of Part 13 of the Income Tax Act 2007, which (in each case) give powers to HM Revenue and Customs to raise tax assessments so as to cancel “tax advantages” derived from certain prescribed “transactions in securities”.

Stamp duty/stamp duty reserve tax

No U.K. stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax will be payable on the issue of the Ordinary Shares, Warrants or Depositary Interests. U.K. stamp duty will in principle be payable on any instrument of transfer of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants that is executed in the U.K. or that relates to any property situate, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the U.K. Investors should be aware that, even where an instrument of transfer is in principle liable to stamp duty, stamp duty is not required to be paid unless it is necessary to rely on the instrument for legal purposes, for example to register a change of ownership. An instrument of transfer need not be stamped in order for the BVI register of Ordinary Shares to be updated, and the register is conclusive proof of ownership. Provided that the Ordinary Shares and Warrants are not registered in any register maintained in the U.K. by or on behalf of the Company and are not paired with any shares issued by a U.K. incorporated company, any agreement to transfer Ordinary Shares or Warrants will not be subject to U.K. stamp duty reserve tax. The Company currently does not intend that any register of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants will be maintained in the U.K. As noted above, the Directors intend to conduct the affairs of the Company so that its central management and control is not exercised in the UK. Assuming this to be the case and that the Ordinary Shares and Warrants are listed on a recognised stock exchange, no U.K. stamp duty reserve tax should be payable on the transfer of Depositary Interests through CREST.

U.S. federal income taxation

The following discussion is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax issues relevant to a U.S. Holder (as defined below) acquiring New Ordinary Shares and Matching Warrants in the Placing, and holding and disposing of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants. Additional tax issues may exist that are not addressed in this discussion and that could affect the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the acquisition, holding and disposition of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants.

TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE CIRCULAR 230, PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT: (A) ANY DISCUSSION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL TAX ISSUES CONTAINED OR REFERRED TO HEREIN IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE USED, AND CANNOT BE USED, BY PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED UNDER U.S. TAX LAWS, (B) THIS TAX DISCUSSION WAS WRITTEN IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMOTION AND MARKETING OF THE ORDINARY SHARES AND WARRANTS BY THE COMPANY, AND (C) EACH PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON ITS PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISER ABOUT THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF INVESTING IN THE PLACING UNDER THE LAWS OF THE BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS, THE UNITED KINGDOM, THE UNITED STATES AND ITS CONSTITUENT JURISDICTIONS, AND ANY OTHER JURISDICTIONS WHERE THE INVESTOR MAY BE SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

This discussion does not address U.S. state, local or non-U.S. income tax consequences. The discussion applies, unless indicated otherwise, only to U.S. Holders and certain non-U.S. Holders who acquire Ordinary Shares and Warrants in the Placing, hold Ordinary Shares or Warrants as capital assets and use the U.S. dollar as their functional currency. It does not address special classes of holders that may be subject to different treatment under the U.S. Tax Code, such as:

- certain financial institutions;

- insurance companies;
- dealers and traders in securities;
- persons holding Ordinary Shares or Warrants as part of a hedge, straddle, conversion or other integrated transaction;
- partnerships or other entities classified as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- persons liable for the alternative minimum tax;
- tax-exempt organisations;
- certain U.S. expatriates; or
- persons holding Ordinary Shares or Warrants that own or are deemed to own 10 per cent. or more (by vote or value) of the Company's voting stock.

This section is based on the U.S. Tax Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations, published rulings by the IRS and court decisions, all as currently in effect. These laws are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. Prospective Investors should consult their own tax advisers concerning the U.S. federal, state, local and non-U.S. tax consequences of purchasing, owning and disposing of Ordinary Shares or Warrants in their particular circumstances.

As used herein, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of Ordinary Shares or Warrants that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes: (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States; (ii) a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organised in or under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof; (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or (iv) a trust if (1) a court within the U.S. is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more "United States persons" (within the meaning of the Code) have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (2) it has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a "United States person".

This summary is based upon certain understandings and assumptions with respect to the business, assets and shareholders of the Company, including that the Company is not, does not expect to become, nor at any time has been a controlled foreign corporation as defined in Section 957 of the Code ("CFC"). The Company believes that it is not and has never been a CFC, and does not expect to become a CFC. In the event that one or more of such understandings and assumptions proves to be inaccurate, the following summary may not apply and material adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences may result to U.S. Holders.

Taxation of Ordinary Shares and Warrants

Allocation of Purchase Price between Ordinary Shares and Warrants

A U.S. Holder generally must allocate the Placing Price paid for Ordinary Shares and Warrants between the Ordinary Shares and Warrants purchased in the Placing based on the relative fair market value of each. While uncertain, it is possible that the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") could apply, by analogy, rules pursuant to which our allocation of the Placing Price will be binding on a U.S. Holder of Ordinary Shares and Warrants, unless the U.S. Holder explicitly discloses in a statement attached to the U.S. Holder's timely filed U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year that includes the acquisition date of Ordinary Shares and Warrants in the Placing that the U.S. Holder's allocation of the Placing Price between Ordinary Shares and Warrants is different from our allocation. Our allocation is not, however, binding on the IRS.

Each U.S. Holder is advised to consult such holder's own tax adviser with respect to the risks associated with an allocation of the Placing Price between the Ordinary Shares and Warrants that is inconsistent with our allocation of the Placing Price.

Passive foreign investment company ("PFIC") considerations

The U.S. federal income tax treatment of U.S. Holders will differ depending on whether or not the Company is considered a passive foreign investment company ("PFIC").

In general, the Company will be considered a PFIC for any taxable year in which: (i) 75 per cent. or more of its gross income consists of passive income; or (ii) 50 per cent. or more of the average quarterly market value of its assets in that year are assets (including cash) that produce, or are held for the production of, passive income. For purposes of the above calculations, if the Company, directly or indirectly, owns at least 25 per cent. by value of the stock of another corporation, then the Company generally would be treated as if it held its proportionate share of the assets of such other corporation and received directly its proportionate share of the income of such other corporation. Passive income generally includes, among other things, dividends, interest, rents, royalties, certain gains from the sale of stock and securities, and certain other investment income.

Because the Company currently has no active business, it is likely that the Company will meet the PFIC income and/or asset tests for the current year. The PFIC rules, however, contain an exception to PFIC status for companies in their “start-up year.” Under this exception, a corporation will not be a PFIC for the first taxable year the corporation has gross income if (1) no predecessor of the corporation was a PFIC; (2) the corporation satisfies the IRS that it will not be a PFIC for either of the first two taxable years following the start-up year; and (3) the corporation is not in fact a PFIC for either of these subsequent years.

The Company cannot predict whether it will be entitled to take advantage of the start-up year exception. For instance, the Company may not make the Acquisition during the current taxable year or the following year. If this were the case, the “start-up” exception described in the preceding paragraph would not apply and, as a result, the Company would likely be a PFIC. Additionally, after making the Acquisition, the Company may still meet one or both of the PFIC tests, depending on the timing of the Acquisition and the nature of the income and assets of the acquired business. In addition, the Company may acquire direct or indirect equity interests in PFICs, referred to herein as “Lower-tier PFICs” and there is no guarantee that the Company would cease to be a PFIC once it has acquired such equity interests. Consequently, the Company can provide no assurance that it will not be a PFIC for either the current year or for any subsequent year.

Under certain attribution rules, if the Company is a PFIC, U.S. Holders will be deemed to own their proportionate share of Lower-tier PFICs, and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on: (i) certain distributions on the shares of a Lower-tier PFIC; and (ii) a disposition of shares of a Lower-tier PFIC, both as if the holder directly held the shares of such Lower-tier PFIC.

If the Company is a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder holds (or, in the case of a Lower-tier PFIC, is deemed to hold) its shares, such U.S. Holder will be subject to significant adverse U.S. federal income tax rules. In general, gain recognised upon a disposition (including, under certain circumstances, a pledge) of Ordinary Shares or Warrants by such U.S. Holder, or upon an indirect disposition of shares of a Lower-tier PFIC, will be allocated rateably over the U.S. Holder’s holding period for such shares and will not be treated as capital gain. Instead, the amounts allocated to the taxable year of disposition and to the years before the relevant company became a PFIC, if any, will be taxed as ordinary income. The amount allocated to each PFIC taxable year will be subject to tax at the highest rate in effect for such taxable year for individuals or corporations, as appropriate, and an interest charge (at the rate generally applicable to underpayments of tax due in such year) will be imposed on the tax attributable to such allocated amounts. Any loss recognised will be capital loss, the deductibility of which is subject to limitations. Further, to the extent that any distribution received by a U.S. Holder on its Ordinary Shares or Warrants (or a distribution by a Lower-tier PFIC to its shareholder that is deemed to be received by a U.S. Holder) exceeds 125 per cent. of the average of the annual distributions on such shares received during the preceding three years or the U.S. Holder’s holding period, whichever is shorter, such distribution will be subject to taxation as described above.

If the Company is a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder holds Ordinary Shares or Warrants, the Company will continue to be treated as a PFIC with respect to the U.S. Holder for all succeeding years during which the U.S. Holder holds Ordinary Shares or Warrants, regardless of whether the Company actually meets the PFIC asset test or the income test in subsequent years. The U.S. Holder may terminate this deemed PFIC status by making a purging election pursuant to which the U.S. Holder will elect to recognise gain (which will be taxed under the adverse tax rules discussed in the preceding paragraph) as if the U.S. Holder’s Ordinary Shares or Warrants (and any indirect interest in a Lower-tier PFIC) had been sold on the last day of the last taxable year for which the Company qualified as a PFIC.

Qualified Electing Fund Election (“QEF Election”)

A U.S. Holder may be able to make a timely election to treat the Company and any Lower-tier PFICs controlled by the Company as qualified electing funds (“QEF Elections”) to avoid the foregoing rules with respect to excess distributions and dispositions.

If a U.S. Holder makes a QEF Election, for each taxable year for which the Company is classified as a PFIC the U.S. Holder would be required to include in taxable income its pro rata share of the Company’s ordinary earnings and net capital gain (at ordinary income and capital gains rates, respectively), regardless of whether the U.S. Holder receives any dividend distributions from the Company. To the extent attributable to earnings previously taxed as a result of the QEF election, the U.S. Holder would not be required to include in income any subsequent dividend distributions received from the Company. For purposes of determining a gain or loss on the disposition (including redemption or retirement) of Ordinary Shares, the U.S. Holder’s initial tax basis in the Ordinary Shares would be increased by the amount included in gross income as a result of a QEF Election and decreased by the amount of any non-taxable distributions on the Ordinary Shares. In general, a U.S. Holder making a timely QEF Election will recognise, on the sale or disposition (including redemption and retirement) of Ordinary Shares, capital gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between the amount realised upon such sale or disposition and that U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in those Ordinary Shares. Such gain will be long-term if the U.S. Holder has held the Ordinary Shares for more than one year on the date of disposition. Similar rules will apply to any Lower-tier PFICs for which QEF Elections are timely made. Certain distributions on, and gain from dispositions of, equity interests in Lower-tier PFICs for which no QEF Election is made will be subject to the general PFIC rules described above.

U.S. Holders may not make a QEF Election with respect to Warrants. As a result, if a U.S. holder sells Warrants, any gain will be subject to the special tax and interest charge rules treating the gain as an excess distribution, as described above under “Passive foreign investment company (“PFIC”) considerations,” if the Company is a PFIC at any time during the period the U.S. Holder holds the Warrants. If a U.S. Holder that exercises Warrants properly makes a QEF Election with respect to the newly acquired shares, the adverse tax consequences relating to PFIC shares will continue to apply with respect to the pre-QEF Election period, unless the U.S. Holder makes a purging election. The purging election creates a deemed sale of the shares acquired on exercising the Warrants. The gain recognised as a result of the purging election would be subject to the special tax and interest charge rules, treating the gain as an excess distribution, as described above. As a result of the purging election, the U.S. Holder would have a new tax basis and holding period in the shares acquired on the exercise of the Warrants for purposes of the PFIC rules. The application of the PFIC and QEF Election rules to Warrants and to Ordinary Shares acquired upon exercise of Warrants is subject to significant uncertainties. Accordingly, each U.S. Holder should consult such U.S. Holder’s tax adviser concerning the potential PFIC consequences of holding Warrants or of holding Ordinary Shares acquired through the exercise of such Warrants.

Each U.S. Holder who desires to make QEF Elections must individually make QEF Elections with respect to each entity (including the Company, if it is a PFIC, and any Lower-Tier PFIC). Each QEF Election is effective for the U.S. Holder’s taxable year for which it is made and all subsequent taxable years and may not be revoked without the consent of the IRS. In general, a U.S. Holder must make a QEF Election on or before the due date for filing its income tax return for the first year to which the QEF Election is to apply. If a U.S. Holder makes a QEF Election in a year following the first taxable year during such U.S. Holder’s holding period in which a company is classified as a PFIC, the general PFIC rules, described above under “Passive foreign investment company (“PFIC”) considerations,” will continue to apply unless the U.S. Holder makes a purging election for the U.S. Holder’s taxable year that includes the first day of the Company’s first year as a QEF. Any gain recognised on this deemed sale would be subject to the general PFIC rules described above under “Passive foreign investment company (“PFIC”) considerations.”

In order to comply with the requirements of a QEF Election, a U.S. Holder must receive certain information from the Company. The Company expects to comply with all reporting requirements necessary for U.S. Holders to make QEF Elections with respect to the Company and any Lower-tier PFICs which it controls. Specifically, the Company will attempt to provide, as promptly as practicable following the end of any taxable year in which the Company and any such Lower-tier PFIC determines that it is a PFIC, the information necessary for such elections to registered holders of Ordinary Shares with U.S. addresses and to other Shareholders upon request. There is no assurance, however, that the Company will have timely knowledge of its status as a PFIC, or that the information that the Company provides will be adequate to allow U.S. Holders to make a QEF Election. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisers as to the advisability of, consequences of, and procedures for making, a QEF Election.

A U.S. Holder may make a separate election to defer the payment of taxes on undistributed income inclusions under the rules for PFICs for which a QEF Election has been made, but if deferred, any such taxes will be subject to an interest charge.

Mark-to-Market Election

Alternatively, a U.S. Holder may be able to make a mark-to-market election with respect to the Ordinary Shares (but not with respect to the shares of any Lower-tier PFICs) if the Ordinary Shares are “regularly traded” on a “qualified exchange.” In general, the Ordinary Shares will be treated as “regularly traded” in any calendar year in which more than a de minimis quantity of Ordinary Shares are traded on a qualified exchange on at least 15 days during each calendar quarter. A foreign exchange is a “qualified exchange” if it is regulated by a governmental authority in which the exchange is located and with respect to which certain other requirements are met. Although the IRS has not identified specific foreign exchanges that are “qualified” for this purpose, the Company believes that the London Stock Exchange is a qualified exchange. The Company can make no assurance that there will be sufficient trading activity for the Ordinary Shares to be treated as “regularly traded.” Accordingly, U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisers as to whether the Ordinary Shares would qualify for the mark-to market election.

If a U.S. Holder is eligible to make and does make the mark-to-market election, for each year in which the Company is a PFIC, the holder will generally include as ordinary income the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the Ordinary Shares at the end of the taxable year over their adjusted tax basis, and will be permitted an ordinary loss in respect of the excess, if any, of the adjusted tax basis of the Ordinary Shares over their fair market value at the end of the taxable year (but only to the extent of the net amount of previously included income as a result of the mark-to-market election). If a U.S. Holder makes the election, the holder’s tax basis in the Ordinary Shares will be adjusted to reflect any such income or loss amounts. Any gain recognised on the sale or other disposition of Ordinary Shares will be treated as ordinary income.

A mark-to-market election applies to the taxable year in which the election is made and to each subsequent year, unless the Ordinary Shares cease to be regularly traded on a qualified exchange (as described above) or the IRS consents to the revocation of the election. If a mark-to-market election is not made for the first year in which a U.S. Holder owns Ordinary Shares and the Company is a PFIC, the interest charge described above under “Passive foreign investment company (“PFIC”) considerations” will apply to any mark-to-market gain recognised in the later year that the election is first made.

A mark-to-market election under the PFIC rules with respect to the Ordinary Shares would not apply to a Lower-tier PFIC, and a U.S. Holder would not be able to make such a mark-to-market election in respect of its indirect ownership interest in any Lower-tier PFIC. Consequently, U.S. Holders of Ordinary Shares could be subject to the PFIC rules with respect to income of any Lower-tier PFIC.

U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisers regarding the availability and advisability of making a mark-to-market election in their particular circumstances. In particular, U.S. Holders should consider the impact of a mark-to-market election with respect to their Ordinary Shares, given that the Company does not expect to pay regular dividends, at least in the short to medium term, and given that the Company may have Lower- tier PFICs for which such election is not available.

The rules dealing with PFICs, QEF Elections and mark-to-market elections are complex and affected by various factors in addition to those described above. As a result, U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisers concerning the Company’s PFIC status and the tax considerations relevant to an investment in a PFIC including the availability of and the merits of making QEF Elections or mark-to-market elections.

Consequences if the Company is not a PFIC

If the Company is not treated as a PFIC then distributions received by a U.S. Holder on Ordinary Shares, other than certain pro rata distributions of Ordinary Shares to all Shareholders, will constitute foreign source dividend income and will be included in a U.S. Holder’s gross income as ordinary income to the extent paid out of the Company’s current or accumulated earnings and profits (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes). Distributions in excess of such earnings and profits will be applied against and will reduce the U.S. Holder’s tax basis in the Ordinary Shares and, to the extent in excess of such basis, will be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of Ordinary Shares. A U.S. Holder generally would recognise capital gain or loss on the sale, exchange or other disposition of Ordinary Shares or Warrants equal to the difference between the U.S. dollar value of the amount realised on the disposition and the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in its Ordinary Shares or Warrants (as described above under the heading "Allocation of Purchase Price Between Ordinary Shares and Warrants"). Such gain or loss would be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holders held the Ordinary Shares or Warrants for more than one year at the time of the sale, exchange or other disposition. Any gain recognised by a U.S. Holder on a sale or other disposition of Ordinary Shares or Warrants generally will be treated as U.S. source income or loss for U.S. foreign tax credit purposes. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to significant limitations.

If a distribution is paid in foreign currency, the amount of the dividend a U.S. Holder will be required to include in income will equal the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency, calculated by reference to the exchange rate in effect on the date the payment is received by the U.S. Holder, regardless of whether the payment is converted into U.S. dollars on the date of receipt. If the dividend is converted into U.S. dollars on the date of receipt, the U.S. Holder generally should not be required to recognise foreign currency gain or loss in respect of the dividend income. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in the foreign currency will equal the U.S. dollar amount included in income. Any gain or loss realised by a U.S. Holder on subsequent conversion of the foreign currency for a different U.S. dollar amount will be U.S. source ordinary income or loss. Corporate U.S. Holders will not be entitled to claim the dividends-received deduction with respect to dividends paid by the Company. Dividends paid by the Company to non-corporate U.S. Holders will not qualify for the preferential rate of tax generally available to dividend payments made by certain qualified foreign corporations to certain non-corporate U.S. Holders.

A U.S. Holder that receives foreign currency on the sale or other disposition of Ordinary Shares will realise an amount equal to the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency on the date of sale or other disposition (or in the case of cash basis and electing accrual basis taxpayers, the settlement date). A U.S. Holder will recognise currency gain or loss if the U.S. dollar value of the currency received at the spot rate on the settlement date differs from the amount realised. A U.S. Holder will have a tax basis in the foreign currency received equal to its value at the spot rate on the settlement date. Any currency gain or loss realised on the settlement date or on a subsequent conversion of the foreign currency into U.S. dollars will be U.S. source ordinary income or loss.

Dividends received and capital gains from the sale or other taxable disposition of the Ordinary Shares (and a taxable disposition of the Warrants) recognised by certain non-corporate U.S. Holders with respect to Ordinary Shares will be includable in computing net investment income of such U.S. Holder for purposes of the 3.8 per cent. Medicare Contribution Tax.

Subject to the discussion of the PFIC rules, a U.S. Holder generally will not recognise gain or loss upon the exercise of a Warrant. Ordinary Shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of a Warrant will have a tax basis equal to the U.S. Holder's tax basis in the Warrant (that is, an amount equal to the portion of the purchase price of the unit allocated to the Warrant as described above under the heading "Allocation of Purchase Price Between Shares and Warrants) increased by the price paid to exercise the Warrants. The holding period of such Ordinary Share would begin on the date following the date of exercise (or possibly on the date of exercise) of the Warrant. If the terms of a Warrant provide for any adjustment to the number of Ordinary Shares for which the Warrant may be exercised or to the exercise price of the Warrants, such adjustment may, under certain circumstances, result in constructive distributions that could be taxable as a dividend to the U.S. Holder of the Warrants. Conversely, the absence of an appropriate adjustment may result in a constructive distribution that could be taxable as a dividend to the U.S. Holders of the Ordinary Shares.

Tax Consequences for Non-U.S. Holders of Ordinary Shares and Warrants

Dividends

A non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or withholding on dividends received from the Company with respect to Ordinary Shares, other than in certain specific circumstances where such income is deemed effectively connected with the conduct by the non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States. If a non-U.S. Holder is entitled to the benefits of a U.S. income tax treaty with respect to those dividends, that income is generally subject to U.S. federal income tax only if it is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the non-U.S. Holder in the United States. A non-U.S. Holder that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on dividend income under the foregoing exception generally will be taxed with respect to such dividend income on a net basis in the same manner as a U.S. Holder unless otherwise provided in an applicable income tax treaty; a non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such item at a rate of 30 per cent. (or at a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty).

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Ordinary Shares and Warrants

A non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or withholding with respect to any gain recognised on a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of Ordinary Shares or Warrants unless:

- Certain circumstances exist under which the gain is treated as effectively connected with the conduct by the non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States, and, if certain tax treaties apply, is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the non-U.S. Holder in the United States; or
- the non-U.S. Holder is an individual and is present in the United States for 183 or more days in the taxable year of the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition, and meets certain other requirements.

If the first exception applies, the non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to such item on a net basis in the same manner as a U.S. Holder unless otherwise provided in an applicable income tax treaty; a non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such item at a rate of 30 per cent. (or at a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty). If the second exception applies, the non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30 per cent. (or at a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which such non-U.S. Holder's capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources during the taxable year of disposition of the Ordinary Shares or the Warrants, as the case may be.

INFORMATION REPORTING AND BACKUP WITHHOLDING

Under U.S. federal income tax laws, certain categories of U.S. Holders must file information returns with respect to their investment in, or involvement in, a foreign corporation (including IRS Forms 926). Penalties for failure to file certain of these information returns are severe. Pursuant to Section 1298(f), for any year in which the Company is a PFIC, each U.S. Holder will be required to file an information statement, Form 8621, regarding such U.S. Holder's ownership interest in the Company. U.S. Holders of Ordinary Shares should consult with their own tax advisers regarding the requirements of filing information returns and QEF Elections and mark-to-market elections.

Furthermore, certain U.S. Holders who are individuals and to the extent provided in future Regulations, certain entities, will be required to report information with respect to such U.S. Holder's investment in "foreign financial assets" on IRS Form 8938. An interest in the Company constitutes a foreign financial asset for these purposes. Persons who are required to report foreign financial assets and fail to do so may be subject to substantial penalties. Potential Investors are urged to consult with their own tax advisers regarding the foreign financial asset reporting obligations and their application to an investment in Ordinary Shares and Warrants.

Payment of dividends and sales proceeds that are made within the United States or through certain U.S.-related financial intermediaries generally are subject to information reporting and to backup withholding unless the U.S. Holder is a corporation or other exempt recipient or, in the case of backup withholding, the U.S. Holder provides a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that no loss of exemption from backup withholding has occurred. The amount of any backup withholding from a payment to a U.S. Holder will be allowed as a credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle such holder to a refund, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS.

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), imposes withholding at a 30 per cent. rate on payments of interest and dividends and gross proceeds from the disposition of any asset that produces interest or dividends, if such payment is sourced in the United States, to (i) a foreign financial institution unless such foreign financial institution agrees to verify, report and disclose its U.S. accountholders and meet certain other specified requirements or (ii) a non-financial foreign entity that is treated as the beneficial owner of the payment unless such entity certifies that an exception applies or that it does not have any substantial U.S. owners (generally owners of more than 10 per cent. of the interests in the entity) or provides the name, address and taxpayer identification number of each substantial U.S. owner and such entity meets certain other specified requirements. If the Company has income sourced in the United States, it will be required to comply with FATCA to avoid withholding taxes.

Although FATCA was generally scheduled to apply to payments made after 31 December 2012, it is being implemented in phases such that, at the earliest, withholding on interest payments and dividends will not commence until 1 July 2014, and withholding on gross proceeds from the sale of stock will not commence until 1 January 2017. Furthermore, FATCA generally exempts from withholding any payments on, or proceeds in respect of, debt instruments outstanding 1 July 2014. Under FATCA, beginning in 2014, a new U.S. federal income tax withholding regime applies to “pass-through payments” made to certain non-U.S. persons. Broadly, pass-through payments include two categories of payments; payments of U.S. source interest, dividends and other specified types of fixed or determinable annual or periodic gains and profits and payments by non-U.S. entities to the extent deemed attributable to U.S. assets. In addition, gross proceeds from the sale of property that can give rise to U.S. source interest and dividends is also subject to withholding as a pass-through payment.

Non-U.S. Holders generally are not subject to information reporting or backup withholding with respect to dividends paid on Ordinary Shares, or the proceeds from the sale, exchange or other disposition of Ordinary Shares or Warrants, provided that each such non-U.S. Holder certifies as to its foreign status on the applicable duly executed IRS Form W-8 or otherwise establishes an exemption.

This summary is for general information only and it is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal advice to any Shareholder or prospective Investor. Further, this summary is not intended to constitute a complete analysis of all U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to Holders of their acquisition, ownership and disposition of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants. Accordingly, prospective Investors of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants should consult their own tax advisers about the U.S. federal, state, local and non-U.S. consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants.

For the purposes of Section 9(4) of the BVI Companies Act, there are no limitations on the business that the Company may carry on.
- 4.2 Set out below is a summary of the provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company. A copy of the Memorandum and Articles is available for inspection at the address specified in paragraph 22 of this Part VIII.

(a) Variation of Rights

The rights attached to any class of shares may only, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied in such a manner which the Directors in their discretion determine may have a material adverse effect on such rights, with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than 50 (fifty) per cent. of the issued shares of that class or by the holders of not less than 50 (fifty) per cent. of the votes cast by eligible holders of the issued shares of that class at a separate meeting of the holders of that class. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Directors may make such variation to the rights of any class of shares that they, in their absolute discretion (acting in good faith) determine to be necessary or desirable in connection with or resulting from an Acquisition (including at any time after the Acquisition has been made).

For the purposes of any consent required as specified in the preceding paragraph, the Directors may treat one or more classes of shares as forming one class if they consider that any proposed variation of the rights attached to each such class of shares would affect each such class in materially the same manner.

The rights conferred upon the holders of any shares or of any class issued with preferred, deferred or other rights shall not (unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue) be deemed to be varied by the creation of or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith, or in the case of the Founder Preferred Shares (for the avoidance of doubt) the creation or issue of Ordinary Shares, the exercise of any power under the disclosure provisions requiring members to disclose an interest in shares as set out in the Articles, the reduction of capital on such shares or by the purchase or redemption by the Company of its own shares or the sale into treasury. There are no express provisions under the BVI Companies Act relating to variation of rights of shareholders.

(b) Depositary Interests and uncertificated shares

The Directors shall, subject always to any applicable laws and regulations and the facilities and requirements of any relevant system concerned and the Articles, have power to implement and/or approve any arrangement they may think fit in relation to the evidencing of title to and transfer of interest in shares in the capital of the Company in the form of depositary interest or similar interests, instruments or securities. The Board may permit shares (or interests in shares) to be held in uncertificated form and to be transferred by means of a relevant system of holding and transferring shares (or interests in shares) in uncertificated form in such manner as they may determine from time to time.

(c) Squeeze-Out Provisions

Section 176 of the BVI Companies Act (ability of the shareholders holding 90 per cent. of the votes of the outstanding shares or class of outstanding shares to require the Company to redeem the shares held by the remaining members) which may be disapplied by the memorandum or articles of association of a company, shall not apply to the Company.

(d) Pre-emption Rights

- (i) Section 46 of the BVI Companies Act (statutory pre-emptive rights), which may be disapplied by the memorandum or articles of association of a company, does not apply to the Company.
- (ii) The Company shall not following Admission issue any equity securities (and shall not sell any of them from treasury) to a person on any terms unless:
 - (A) it has made a written offer in accordance with the Articles to each holder of equity securities of that class (other than the Company itself by virtue of it holding treasury shares) to issue to him on the same or more favourable terms a proportion of those equity securities which is as nearly as practicable equal to the proportion in value held by the holders of the relevant class(es) of equity securities then in issue; and
 - (B) the period during which any such offer may be accepted by the relevant current holders has expired or the Company has received a notice of the acceptance or refusal of every offer so made from such holders.

- (iii) Equity securities that the Company has offered to issue to a holder of equity securities in accordance with paragraph (d)(ii)(A) and (B) above may be issued to him, or anyone in whose favour he has renounced his right to their issue, without contravening the above pre-emption rights.
- (iv) Where equity securities are held by two or more persons jointly, an offer pursuant to the above pre-emption rights may be made to the joint holder first named in the register of members in respect of those equity securities.
- (v) In the case of a holder's death or bankruptcy, the offer must be made:
 - (A) to the persons claiming to be entitled to the equity securities in consequence of the death or bankruptcy, at an address supplied, in accordance with the Articles; or
 - (B) until any such address has been so supplied giving the notice in any manner in which it would have been given if the death or bankruptcy has not occurred.
- (vi) The above pre-emption rights shall not apply in relation to the issue of bonus shares, equity securities in the Company if they are, or are to be, wholly or partly paid up otherwise than in cash, and equity securities in the Company which would apart from any renunciation or assignment of the right to their issue, be held under an employee share scheme.
- (vii) Equity securities held by the Company as treasury shares are disregarded for the purpose of the pre-emption rights so that the Company is not treated as a person who holds equity securities and equity securities held as treasury shares are not treated as forming the issued shares of the Company.
- (viii) The Directors may be given by virtue of a Special Resolution of Members the power to issue or sell from treasury equity securities and, on the passing of such resolution, the Directors shall have the power to issue or sell from treasury pursuant to that authority, equity securities wholly for cash as if the pre-emption rights above do not apply to the issue or sale from treasury.

(e) Shareholder Meetings

The Company shall hold the first annual general meeting within a period of 18 months following the date of the Acquisition. Not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting and the date of the next, unless the members pass a resolution in accordance with the Articles waiving such requirement.

Any Director may convene an annual general meeting or other meeting of members at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the Directors consider necessary or desirable. The Directors shall convene a meeting of members upon the written request of members entitled to exercise 30 (thirty) per cent. or more of the voting rights in respect of the matter for which the meeting is requested.

The Director convening a meeting shall give not less than 10 calendar days' written notice of a meeting to those members who are entitled to vote at the meeting and the other Directors. A meeting of members may be called by shorter notice if members holding at least 90 (ninety) per cent. of the total voting rights on all the matters to be considered at the meeting have waived notice of the meeting. The inadvertent failure to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

(f) Votes of Members

Holders of Ordinary Shares will have the right to receive notice of and to attend and vote at any meetings of members (except in relation to any Resolution of Members: (i) in connection with a merger and consolidation prior to the Acquisition; or (ii) to approve matters in relation to the Acquisition). Each holder of Ordinary Shares being present in person or by proxy at a meeting will, upon a show of hands, have one vote and upon a poll each such holder of Ordinary Shares present in person or by proxy will have one vote for each Ordinary Share held by him.

In the case of joint holders of a share, if two or more persons hold shares jointly each of them may be present in person or by proxy at a meeting of members and may speak as a member, and if one or more joint holders are present at a meeting of members, in person or by proxy, they must vote as one.

(g) Restrictions on Voting

No member shall, if the Directors so determine, be entitled in respect of any share held by him to attend or vote (either personally or by proxy) at any meeting of members or separate class meeting of the Company or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to any such meeting if he or any other person appearing to be interested in such shares has failed to comply with a notice requiring the disclosure of shareholder interests and given in accordance with the Articles as described in sub-paragraph (i) below within 14 calendar days, in a case where the shares in question represent at least 0.25 per cent. of their class, or within 7 days, in any other case, from the date of such notice. These restrictions will continue until the information required by the notice is supplied to the Company or until the shares in question are transferred or sold in circumstances specified for this purpose in the Articles.

(h) Share Rights

(i) Pursuant to the Memorandum of Association (which, subject to the Articles, may be amended by a Resolution of Members):

(A) the Company is authorised to issue an unlimited number of shares each of no par value which may be either Ordinary Shares or Founder Preferred Shares.

(B) Ordinary Shares confer upon the holders (in accordance with the Articles):

(aa) the rights in a winding-up (in accordance with the provision of the Articles) as specified in sub-paragraph (y) below;

(bb) subject to the rights of the Founder Preferred Shares to receive an Annual Dividend Amount, the right, together with the holders of the Founder Preferred Shares, to receive all amounts available for distribution and from time to time to be distributed by way of dividend or otherwise at such time as the Directors shall determine (and in each case distributed in respect of the fully paid up Founder Preferred Shares pro rata to the number of fully paid up Ordinary Shares held by the holders of Founder Preferred Shares, as if for such purpose the Founder Preferred Shares had been converted into Ordinary Shares immediately prior to such distribution plus, commencing in 2015, an amount equal to 20 per cent of the dividend which would be distributable on such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent); and

(cc) the right to receive notice of, attend and vote as a member at any meeting of members (except in relation to any Resolution of Members: (i) in relation to a merger or consolidation in connection with an Acquisition; or (ii) to approve matters in relation to an Acquisition).

(C) Founder Preferred Shares confer upon the holders (in accordance with the Articles) the rights as specified in paragraph 4.3 of this Part VIII.

(ii) Subject to the provisions of the BVI Companies Act and without prejudice to any rights attaching to any existing shares, any share in the Company may be issued to such persons, for such consideration and on such terms as the Directors may determine.

(iii) The Company shall issue registered shares only. The Company is not authorised to issue bearer shares, convert registered shares to bearer shares or exchange registered shares for bearer shares.

(iv) The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions and in such an amount or at such a percentage rate as the Directors may determine. Subject to the provisions of the BVI Companies Act, any such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or by the issue of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in another. The Company may also on issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and (except as otherwise provided by the Articles or by law) the Company shall not be bound by or recognise (even when having notice thereof) any interest in any share other than an absolute right of the registered holder to the entirety of the share or fraction thereof.

(i) Notice requiring disclosure of interest in shares

The Company may, by notice in writing, require a person whom the Company knows to be, or has reasonable cause to believe is, interested in any shares or at any time during the three years immediately preceding the date on which the notice is issued to have been interested in any shares, to confirm that fact or (as the case may be) to indicate whether or not this is the case and to give such further information as may be required in accordance with the Articles. Such information may include, without limitation: particulars of the person's status (including whether such person constitutes or is acting on behalf of or for the benefit of a Plan (as defined in the Articles) or is a U.S. Person), domicile, nationality and residency; particulars of the person's own past or present interest in any shares (and the nature of such interest); the identity of any other person who has a present interest in the shares held by him; where the interest is a present interest and any other interest, in any shares, subsisted during that three year period at any time when his own interest subsisted to give (so far as is within his knowledge) such particulars with respect to that other interest as may be required by the notice; and where a person's interest is a past interest, (so far as is within his knowledge) like particulars for the person who held that interest immediately upon his ceasing to hold it.

If any member is in default in supplying to the Company the information required by the Company within the prescribed period (which is 14 days after service of the notice or 7 days if the shares concerned represent 0.25 per cent. or more of the issued shares of the relevant class, or such other reasonable period as the Directors may determine), the Directors in their absolute discretion may serve a direction notice on the member or (subject to the rules of any relevant system, the Listing Rules and the requirements of the UK Listing Authority and the London Stock Exchange) take such action as is referred to in sub-paragraph (l) below.

(j) Untraced shareholders

The Company may sell the share of a Shareholder or of a person entitled by transmission at the best price reasonably obtainable at the time of sale, if:

- (i) during a period of not less than 12 years before the date of publication of the advertisements referred to in sub-paragraph (j)(iii) at least three cash dividends have become payable in respect of the share;
- (ii) throughout such period no cheque payable on the share has been presented by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the share to the paying bank of the relevant cheque, no payment made by the Company by any other means permitted by the Articles has been claimed or accepted and, so far as any Director is aware, the Company has not at any time during such period received any communication from the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the share;
- (iii) on expiry of such period the Company has given notice of its intention to sell the share by advertisement in accordance with the Articles; and
- (iv) the Company has not, so far as the Board is aware, during a further period of three months after the date of the advertisements referred to in sub-paragraph (j)(iii) and before the exercise of the power of sale received a communication from the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the share.

Where a power of sale is exercisable over a share, the Company may at the same time also sell any additional share issued in right of such share or in right of such an additional share previously so issued provided that the requirements of sub-paragraphs (j)(ii) to (iv) have been satisfied in relation to the additional share (except that the period of not less than 12 years shall not apply in respect of such additional share).

To give effect to a sale, the Board may authorise a person to transfer the share in the name and on behalf of the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the share, or to cause the transfer of such share, to the purchaser or his nominee.

The Company shall be indebted to the Shareholder or other person entitled by transmission to the share for the net proceeds of sale and shall carry any amount received on sale to a separate account. Any amount carried to the separate account may either be employed in the business of the Company or invested as the Board may think fit. No interest is payable on that amount and the Company is not required to account for money earned on it.

(k) Transfer of shares

Subject to the BVI Companies Act and the terms of the Articles, any member may transfer all or any of his certificated shares by an instrument of transfer in any usual form or in any other form which the Directors may approve. The Directors may accept such evidence of title of the transfer of shares (or interests in shares) held in uncertificated form (including in the form of depositary interests or similar interests, instruments or securities) as they shall in their discretion determine. The Directors may permit such shares or interests in shares held in uncertificated form to be transferred by means of a relevant system of holding and transferring shares (or interests in shares) in uncertificated form. No transfer of shares will be registered if, in the reasonable determination of the Directors, the transferee is or may be a Prohibited Person, or is or may be holding such shares on behalf of a beneficial owner who is or may be a Prohibited Person. The Directors shall have power to implement and/or approve any arrangements they may, in their absolute discretion, think fit in relation to the evidencing of title to and transfer of interests in shares in the Company in uncertificated form (including in the form of depositary interests or similar interests, instruments or securities).

(l) Compulsory transfer of shares

The Directors may require (to the extent permitted by the rules of any Relevant System where applicable) the transfer by lawful sale, by gift or otherwise as permitted by law of any shares that, in the reasonable determination of the Directors, are or may be held or beneficially owned by a Prohibited Person to a person who is not a Prohibited Person qualified under the Articles to hold the shares. In the event that the member cannot locate a qualified purchaser within such reasonable time as the Directors may determine then the Company may locate an eligible purchaser. If no purchaser is found by the selling member or the Company before the time the Company requires the transfer to be made then the member shall be obligated to sell the shares at the highest price that any purchaser has offered and the Company shall have no obligation to the member to find the best price for the relevant shares. The Directors may, from time to time, require of a member that such evidence be furnished to them or any other person in connection with the foregoing matters as they shall in their discretion deem sufficient.

Members who do not comply with the terms of any compulsory transfer notice shall forfeit or be deemed to have forfeited their shares immediately. The Directors, the Company and the duly authorised agents of the Company, including, without limitation, the Registrar, shall not be liable to any member or otherwise for any loss incurred by the Company as a result of any Prohibited Person breaching the compulsory transfer restrictions referred to herein and any member who breaches such restrictions is required under the Articles to indemnify the Company for any loss to the Company caused by such breach.

The Directors may at any time and from time to time call upon any member by notice to provide them with such information and evidence as they shall reasonably require in relation to such member or beneficial owner which relates to or is connected with their holding of or interest in shares in the Company. In the event of any failure of the relevant member to comply with the request contained in such notice within a reasonable time as determined by the Directors in their sole and unfettered discretion, the Directors may proceed to avail themselves of the rights conferred on them under the Articles as though the relevant member were a Prohibited Person.

(m) Alteration and redemption of shares

The Company may, subject to the provisions of the BVI Companies Act (including satisfaction of the solvency test pursuant to Section 56 of the BVI Companies Act), purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire its own shares (with the consent of the member whose shares are to be purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired) and may hold such shares as treasury shares.

Sections 60, 61 and 62 of the BVI Companies Act (statutory procedure for a company purchasing, redeeming or acquiring its own shares), which may be disappplied by a company's memorandum or articles of association, shall not apply to the Company.

Subject to the BVI Companies Act, where the Directors consider it necessary or desirable to undertake any of the following actions, (i) pursuant to a Resolution of Directors obtained at any time where such action is in relation to, or in connection with or resulting from an Acquisition, or (ii) by a Resolution of Members obtained at any time, the Company may: consolidate and divide all or any of its shares into a smaller number than its existing shares; sub-divide its shares, or any of them, into shares of a larger number so, however, that in such sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount (if any) unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived; cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken up or agreed to be taken up by any person; convert all or any of its shares denominated in a particular currency or former currency into shares denominated in a different currency, the conversion being effected at the rate of exchange (calculated to not less than three significant figures) current on the date of the resolution or on such other dates as may be specified therein; where its shares are expressed in a particular currency or former currency, denominate or redenominate those shares, whether by expressing the amount in units or subdivisions of that currency or former currency or otherwise; and reduce any of the Company's reserve accounts (including any share premium amount) in any manner.

(n) Interests of Directors

(i) A Director shall, forthwith after becoming aware of the fact that he is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company, disclose the interest to all other Directors. A disclosure to all other Directors to the effect that a Director is to be regarded as interested in any transaction which may, after the date of the entry or disclosure, be entered into, is a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to that transaction, and any such Director may:

- (A) vote on a matter relating to the transaction;
- (B) attend a meeting of Directors at which a matter relating to the transaction arises and be included among the Directors present at the meeting for the purposes of a quorum; and
- (C) sign a document on behalf of the Company, or do any other thing in his capacity as a Director, that relates to the transaction, and such Director shall not, by reason of his office be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from such transaction and no such transaction shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.

(o) Remuneration and Appointment of Directors

- (i) The Directors shall be remunerated for their services at such rate as the Directors shall determine. In addition, all of the Directors shall be entitled to be paid all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses properly incurred by them in attending meetings of members or class meetings, board or committee meetings or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.
- (ii) The minimum number of Directors shall be one and there shall be no maximum number of Directors.
- (iii) Subject to the BVI Companies Act and the Articles, the Directors shall have power at any time, and from time to time, without sanction of the members, to appoint any person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director. Subject to the BVI Companies Act and the Articles, the members may by a Resolution of Members appoint any person as a Director and remove any person from office as a Director.

- (iv) For so long as an initial holder of Founder Preferred Shares (being a Founder Entity together with its affiliates and permitted transferees) holds 20 per cent. or more of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue, such holder shall be entitled to nominate a person as a director of the Company and the Directors shall appoint such person. In the event such holder notifies the Company to remove any Director nominated by him the other Directors shall remove such Director, and in the event of such a removal the relevant holder shall have the right to nominate a Director to fill such vacancy.
 - (v) In the event such initial holder ceases to be a holder of Founder Preferred Shares or holds less than 20 per cent. of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue, such initial holder shall no longer be entitled to nominate a person as a director of the Company and the holders of a majority of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue (including any initial holder continuing to hold Founder Preferred Shares) shall be entitled to exercise that initial holder's former rights to appoint a director instead (which shall include being entitled to request the removal of that initial holder's appointee).
 - (vi) The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to the office of managing director or to any other office for such term and at such remuneration and upon such terms as they determine.
- (p) Retirement, Disqualification and Removal of Directors
 - (i) A Director is not required to hold a share as a qualification to office.
 - (ii) The office of Director shall be vacated if the Director resigns his office by written notice, if he shall have absented himself from meetings of the Board for a consecutive period of 12 months and the Board resolves that his office shall be vacated, if he ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of law or becomes prohibited by law from or is disqualified from being a Director, if he becomes of unsound mind or incapable, if he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally or otherwise has any judgment executed on any of his assets, if he is requested to resign by written notice signed by all his co-Directors (in the case of there being more than two Directors), or he is removed by a Resolution of Members passed at a meeting of members called for the purposes of removing the Director or for purposes including the removal of the Director.
- (q) Proceedings of Directors
 - (i) Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. A Director may, and the secretary at the request of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Directors. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
 - (ii) The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors shall be two except where otherwise decided by the Directors, or where the number of Directors has been fixed at not less than one pursuant to these Articles or where there is a sole Director, in which case the quorum shall be one.
- (r) Alternate Directors
 - (i) Any Director (other than an alternate director) may appoint any other Director or any other person to be an alternate director to attend and vote in his place at any meeting of the Directors or to undertake and perform such duties and functions and to exercise such rights as he would personally.
- (s) Distributions
 - (i) Founder Preferred Shares confer upon the holders (in accordance with the Articles) the rights specified in paragraph 4.3 of this Part VIII.

- (ii) The Directors may, by a Resolution of Directors, authorise a distribution if they are satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that, immediately after the distribution, the value of the Company's assets will exceed its liabilities and the Company will be able to pay its debts as they fall due.
 - (iii) All dividends or other distributions shall be declared and paid only in respect of fully paid up shares (or those credited as fully paid up) and the holder of any share or shares not fully paid up (or not credited as fully paid up) as at the date such dividend is declared or such distribution is authorised shall not be entitled to such dividend or distribution. For the purposes of calculating each holder's pro rata share of any dividend or distribution paid, reference shall only be had to fully paid up shares (as at the date the dividend is declared or the distribution authorised) of the class or classes to which the dividend or distribution relates. If any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend or other distributions as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend or other distribution accordingly.
 - (iv) Any Resolution of Directors declaring a dividend or a distribution on a share may specify that the same shall be payable to the person registered as the holders of the shares at the close of business on a particular date notwithstanding that it may be a date prior to that on which the resolution is passed and thereupon the dividend or distribution shall be payable to such persons in accordance with their respective holdings so registered, but without prejudice to the rights inter se in respect of such dividend or distribution of transferors and transferees of any such shares.
 - (v) A Resolution of Directors declaring a dividend or other distribution may direct that it shall be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets, may authorise the issue of fractional certificates, may fix the value for distribution of any assets and may determine that cash shall be paid to any member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of members and may vest any assets in trustees.
 - (vi) The Directors may deduct from any dividend or other distribution, or other moneys, payable to any member on or in respect of a share, all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company.
 - (vii) All unclaimed dividends or other distributions may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed and the Company shall not be constituted a trustee thereof. All dividends unclaimed for 3 years may be forfeited by a Resolution of Directors for the benefit of the Company and shall cease to remain owing by the Company. No dividend or other distribution or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.
 - (viii) The Directors are empowered to create reserves before recommending or declaring any dividend. The Directors may also carry forward any profits which they think prudent not to divide.
- (t) Disposition of assets
- Section 175 of the BVI Companies Act (any disposition of more than fifty per cent. in value of the assets of a company (other than a transfer of assets in trust to one or more trustees pursuant to Section 28(3) of the BVI Companies Act) if not made in the usual or regular course of the business carried out by the company, requiring approval by a Resolution of Members) which may be disapplied by the memorandum or articles of a company, shall not apply to the Company.
- (u) Continuation
- The Company may by Resolution of Directors or Resolution of Members continue as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the British Virgin Islands in the manner provided under those laws.

(v) Merger and Consolidation

The Company may, with the approval of a Resolution of Members, on which, provided the Directors, in their absolute discretion (acting in good faith) determine such action to be necessary or desirable in relation to, in connection with or resulting from an Acquisition (including at any time after an Acquisition has been made), only the holders of Founder Preferred Shares are entitled to vote, merge or consolidate with one or more other BVI or foreign companies. A Resolution of Members shall not be required in relation to a merger of a “parent company” with one or more “subsidiary companies”, each as defined in the BVI Companies Act.

(w) Acquisition

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Articles, but subject to compliance with BVI law, any matters that the Directors determine, in their absolute discretion (acting in good faith) to be necessary or desirable in relation to, in connection with or resulting from, the Acquisition (whether before or after the Acquisition has occurred) may be approved by a Resolution of Directors or, to the extent a resolution of Members is required pursuant to BVI law, upon the approval of a Resolution of Members (on which only the holders of Founder Preferred Shares shall be entitled to vote).

(x) Winding-Up

If an Acquisition has not been announced by the second anniversary of Admission (the “Winding-up Date”), then the Directors shall determine whether to recommend to members either that the Company be wound up or that the Company continues to pursue an Acquisition for another year. Following such determination, the Directors shall propose or cause to be proposed either at a meeting of members or in writing a Resolution of Members to the effect that either: (i) the Company shall be wound up; or (ii) the Company shall continue for another year.

If pursuant to such a Resolution of Members a proposal to continue the Company is approved or a proposal to wind up to Company is not approved, the Company shall continue for a further period of one year from the Winding-up Date. If an Acquisition has not been completed by such subsequent time, the Directors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter propose or cause to be proposed either at a meeting of members or in writing a further Resolution of Members to the effect that the Company shall be wound-up and, if such resolution is approved, the Company shall proceed to be wound-up. If such resolution is not approved, the Directors may thereafter (at any time and from time to time) propose or cause to be proposed either at a meeting of members or in writing a Resolution of Members to voluntarily wind-up the Company.

If pursuant to such a Resolution of Members a proposal to continue the Company is not approved, the Directors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter propose or cause to be proposed either at a meeting of Members or in writing a Resolution of Members to the effect that the Company shall be wound-up. If any such resolution to wind-up the Company is not approved, the Company shall continue for a further period of one year from the Winding-up Date. If an Acquisition has not been completed by such subsequent time, the Directors shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter propose or cause to be proposed either at a meeting of Members or in writing a further Resolution of Members to the effect that the Company shall be wound-up. If any such resolution is not approved, the Directors may thereafter (at any time and from time to time) propose or cause to be proposed either at a meeting of Members or in writing a Resolution of Members to voluntarily wind-up the Company.

The Directors may by a Resolution of Directors at any time approve the winding-up of the Company to occur at any time after an Acquisition has been completed and when the Directors reasonably conclude that the Company is or will become a Dormant Company (as defined in the Articles).

If any proposal to wind-up the Company is approved by such Resolution of Members, the Company shall proceed to be wound-up.

Save as described in this sub-paragraph (x), a Special Resolution of Members is required to approve the voluntary winding-up of the Company.

(y) Return of Capital on a Winding-up

(i) Subject to the BVI Companies Act, on a winding-up of the Company the assets of the Company available for distribution shall be distributed, provided there are sufficient assets available, to the holders of Ordinary Shares and Founder Preferred Shares pro rata to the number of such fully paid up shares held by each holder relative to the total number of issued and fully paid up Ordinary Shares as if such fully paid up Founder Preferred Shares had been converted into Ordinary Shares immediately prior to the winding-up.

(ii) The Company may at all times by a Resolution of Members appoint a voluntary liquidator.

(z) Borrowing Powers

The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow or raise money and secure any debt or obligation of or binding on the Company in any manner including by the issue of debentures (perpetual or otherwise) and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed raised or owing by mortgage charge pledge or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking property or assets (whether present or future) and also by a similar mortgage charge pledge or lien to secure and guarantee the performance of any obligation or liability undertaken by the Company or any third party.

(aa) Indemnification

The Company may indemnify against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred in connection with legal, administrative or investigative proceedings, any person who is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a Director or is or was, at the request of the Company, serving as a director of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another company or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. This indemnity only applies if the person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company and, in the case of criminal proceedings, the person had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.

The Company may purchase and maintain insurance in relation to any person who is or was a Director, officer or liquidator of the Company, or who at the request of the Company is or was serving as a director, officer or liquidator of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another company or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in that capacity, whether or not the Company has or would have had the power to indemnify the person against the liability as provided in the Articles.

(bb) Amendment of Memorandum and Articles

The Directors may, at any time (including after an Acquisition), amend the Memorandum or the Articles where the Directors determine, in their absolute discretion (acting in good faith), by a Resolution of Directors that such changes are necessary or desirable in connection with or resulting from an Acquisition.

4.3 Founder Preferred Shares

Commencing in 2015, and only once the Average Price per Ordinary Share for any ten consecutive Trading Days following Admission is at least $11.50, the holders of Founder Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive an Annual Dividend Amount, payable in Ordinary Shares or cash, at the sole option of the Company.

In the first Dividend Year in which such dividend becomes payable, such dividend will be equal in value to (a) 20 per cent. of the increase in the market value of one Ordinary Share, being the difference between $10.00 and the Dividend Price, multiplied by (b) such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

Thereafter, the Annual Dividend Amount will only become payable if the Dividend Price during any subsequent Dividend Year is greater than the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year in which a dividend was paid in respect of the Founder Preferred Shares. Such Annual Dividend Amount will be equal in value to 20 per cent. of the increase in the Dividend Price over the highest Dividend Price in any preceding Dividend Year multiplied by the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent.

For the purposes of determining the Annual Dividend Amount, the Dividend Price is the Average Price per Ordinary Share for the Dividend Determination Period.

The amounts used for the purposes of calculating an Annual Dividend Amount and the relevant numbers of Ordinary Shares are subject to such adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends and certain other recapitalisation events as the Directors in their absolute discretion determine to be fair and reasonable in the event of a consolidation or sub-division of the Ordinary Shares in issue after the date of Admission or otherwise as determined in accordance with the Articles.

Each Annual Dividend Amount shall be divided between the holders of Founder Preferred Shares pro rata to the number of Founder Preferred Shares held by them on the relevant Dividend Date. The Annual Dividend Amount will be paid on the relevant Payment Date by the issue to each holder of Founder Preferred Shares of such number of Ordinary Shares as is equal to the pro rata amount of the Annual Dividend Amount to which they are entitled divided by the Dividend Price.

The Founder Preferred Shares will participate in any dividends on the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. In addition, commencing on and after 1 January 2015, the Founder Preferred Shares will receive an amount equal to 20 per cent of the dividend which would be distributable on such number of Ordinary Shares equal to the Preferred Share Dividend Equivalent. All such dividends on the Founder Preferred Shares will be paid contemporaneously with the dividends on the Ordinary Shares.

For so long as an initial holder of Founder Preferred Shares (being a Founder Entity together with its affiliates and permitted transferees) holds 20 per cent. or more of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue, such holder shall be entitled to nominate a person as a director of the Company and the Directors shall appoint such person. In the event such initial holder ceases to be a holder of Founder Preferred Shares or holds less than 20 per cent. of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue, such initial holder shall no longer be entitled to nominate a person as a director of the Company and the holders of a majority of the Founder Preferred Shares in issue (including any initial holder continuing to hold Founder Preferred Shares) shall be entitled to exercise that initial holder's former rights to appoint a director instead (which shall include being entitled to request the removal of that initial holder's appointee).

The Founder Preferred Shares will automatically convert into Ordinary Shares on a one-for-one basis (subject to adjustment in accordance with the Articles) (i) in the event of a Change of Control (unless the Independent Directors unanimously determine otherwise) or (ii) on the last day of the seventh full financial year of the Company following completion of the Acquisition (or if any such date is not a Trading Day, the first Trading Day immediately following such date). In the event of any such automatic conversion, the Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable for such shortened Dividend Year on the Trading Day immediately prior to such conversion.

A holder of Founder Preferred Shares may require some or all of his Founder Preferred Shares to be converted into an equal number of Ordinary Shares (subject to adjustment in accordance with the Articles) by notice in writing to the Company, and in such circumstances those Founder Preferred Shares the subject of such conversion request shall be converted into Ordinary Shares five Trading Days after receipt by the Company of the written notice. In the event of a conversion at the request of the holder, no Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable in respect of those Founder Preferred Shares for the Dividend Year in which the date of conversion occurs.

A holder of Founder Preferred Shares may exercise its rights independently of any other holder of Founder Preferred Shares.

On the entry into liquidation of the Company, an Annual Dividend Amount shall be payable in respect of a shortened Dividend Year which shall end on the Trading Day immediately prior to the date of commencement of liquidation, following which the holders of Founder Preferred Shares shall have the right to a pro rata share (together with Shareholders) in the distribution of the surplus assets of the Company.

In any circumstances where:

- (a) the Directors or the holders of a majority of the outstanding Founder Preferred Shares consider that an adjustment should be made to (1) any factor relevant for the calculation of the Annual Dividend Amount (including the amount which the Average Price per Ordinary Share must meet or exceed for any ten consecutive Trading Days following Admission in order for the right to an Annual Dividend Amount to commence (initially set at $11.50)) or (2) the number of Ordinary Shares into which the Founder Preferred Shares shall convert, whether following a consolidation or sub-division of the Ordinary Shares in issue after the date of Admission or otherwise; or
- (b) the holders of a majority of the outstanding Founder Preferred Shares disagree with any adjustment as determined by the Directors, the Directors will either (i) make such adjustment as is mutually determined by the Directors and the holders of the majority of the outstanding Founder Preferred Shares (acting reasonably) or (ii) failing agreement within a reasonable time, will at the Company's expense appoint the Auditors, or such other person as the Directors shall, acting reasonably, determine to be an expert for such purpose, to determine as soon as practicable what adjustment (if any) is fair and reasonable. Upon determination in either case the adjustment (if any) will be made and will take effect in accordance with the determination. The Auditors (or such other expert as may be appointed) shall be deemed to act as an expert and not an arbitrator and applicable laws relating to arbitration shall not apply, the determination of the Auditors (or such other expert as may be appointed) shall be final and binding on all concerned and the Auditors (or such other expert as may be appointed) shall be given by the Company all such information and other assistance as they may reasonable require.

Other than as summarised in this paragraph 4.3, the holders of Founder Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to participate in any other dividends or distributions of the surplus assets of the Company.

The Founder Preferred Shares carry the same voting rights as are attached to the Ordinary Shares and will vote with the Ordinary Shares on an as-converted basis. Additionally, the Founder Preferred Shares alone carry the right to vote on any Resolution of Members required, pursuant to BVI law, to approve any matter in connection with an Acquisition, or a merger or consolidation in connection with an Acquisition.

Each of the Directors has entered into a Director's Letter of Appointment with the Company dated 4 April 2014. Under each Non-Founder Director's Letter of Appointment, each Non-Founder Director is entitled to a fee of $75,000 per annum with the exception of Lord Myners who, as Chairman, is entitled to receive a fee of $100,000 per annum. Each Non-Founder Director has indicated that he intends to make this election.

The Non-Founder Directors will collectively subscribe for an aggregate net sum of $250,000 for Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) which will be issued on Admission. Of this aggregate amount, the Chairman is subscribing for 10,000 Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) and each other Non-Founder Director is subscribing for 7,500 Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) at the Placing Price (pursuant to the elections referred to in the preceding paragraph) by way of a direct issuance of Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) by the Company.

Further, pursuant to the terms of the Option Deeds, the Non-Founder Directors will be granted Non-Founder Director Options in respect of which the Chairman will be granted a five year option to acquire 50,000 Ordinary Shares and each other Non-Founder Director will be granted a five year option to acquire 37,500 Ordinary Shares, all at an exercise price of $11.50 per Ordinary Share (subject to such adjustment to the number of Ordinary Shares and/or the exercise price as the Directors consider appropriate in accordance with the terms of the Option Deeds in respect of an issue of Ordinary Shares by way of a dividend or distribution to holders of Ordinary Shares, a subdivision or consolidation or any other variation to the share capital of the Company, as determined by the Directors).

Each of Mr. Gottesman and Mr. Franklin has agreed that he will not terminate his letter of appointment prior to the earlier of (i) completion of an Acquisition or (ii) the dissolution of the Company for failure to complete an Acquisition. Each Non-Founder Director has agreed that he will not terminate his letter of appointment prior to completion of an Acquisition unless he has given at least 12 months' notice. In addition, each of Mr. Gottesman and Mr. Franklin has agreed that he will not take steps to, and the Company has agreed that it will not, terminate a letter of appointment for a Non-Founder Director prior to completion of an Acquisition other than for breach of the letter of appointment or breach of fiduciary or other duties owed to the Company by the relevant Non-Founder Director. Following completion of the Acquisition, the Company or any Director may terminate such appointment on three months written notice. No compensation is payable to Directors on leaving office unless approved by a Resolution of Members.

Should Admission not occur by 31 May 2014, or such later date as may be determined in accordance with the Placing Agreement, a Non-Founder Director may terminate his appointment at any time. No Director has a service contract with the Company, nor are any such contracts proposed. There are no pension, retirement or other similar arrangements in place with the Directors nor are any such arrangements proposed.

11. Working capital

The Company is of the opinion that the working capital available to the Company is sufficient for the Company's present requirements, that is for at least the 12 months from the date of this Document.

12. Significant change

Save for the changes to the share capital as set out in paragraph 3 of this Part VIII, the repayment obligations assumed by the Company pursuant to the Promissory Notes as set out in paragraph 15.5 of this Part VIII ($200,000), the contingent liabilities assumed by the Company in respect of the fees payable under the Placing Agreement ($9,400,000) as set out in paragraph 15.1 of this Part VIII, the initial fees and annual fees payable pursuant to the Registrar Agreement (£9,000), Corporate Administration Agreement (£55,000) and Depositary Agreement (£21,000), as set out in paragraphs 15.3, 15.4 and 15.7 of this Part VIII, the Company's obligations to pay the Directors' remuneration pursuant to the terms of the Directors' Letters of Appointment, in aggregate $250,000 per annum, as set out in paragraph 10 of this Part VIII, and the expenses of the Company referred to in paragraph 19.5 of this Part VIII, in connection with Admission, the Placing and incorporation of the Company (all of which have caused a significant change in the financial position and trading position of the Company due to the Company being a newly established company which has not commenced trading), there has been no significant change in the trading or financial position of the Company since 1 April 2014, being the date as at which the financial information contained in "Part VI—Financial Information on the Company" has been prepared.

13. Litigation

There are no governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Company is aware) since the Company's incorporation which may have, or have had in the recent past, significant effects on the financial position or profitability of the Company.

14. City Code

The City Code does not apply to the Company and there are no rules or provisions relating to mandatory takeover bids in relation to the Ordinary Shares. There are no rules or provisions relating to the Ordinary Shares and squeeze-out and/or sell-out rules, save as provided by section 176 of BVI Companies Act (ability of the shareholders holding 90 per cent. of the votes of the outstanding shares or class of outstanding shares to require the Company to redeem such shares or class of shares), which has been disapplied by the Company.

15. Material contracts

The following are all of the contracts (not being contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business) that have been entered into by the Company since the Company's incorporation which: (i) are, or may be, material to the Company; or (ii) contain obligations or entitlements which are, or may be, material to the Company as at the date of this document.

15.1 Placing Agreement

The Company has entered into a Placing Agreement dated 10 April 2014 among the Company, the Directors, the Founder Entities and the Placing Agents, pursuant to which, subject to certain conditions, the Placing Agents have agreed to use reasonable endeavours to procure subscribers for and failing which, to themselves subscribe for, the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants), other than the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to be subscribed for by the Founder Entities.

The Placing Agreement contains, among other things, the following provisions:

- (a) The Company has appointed the Placing Agents as placing agents to the Placing.
- (b) The Company, Noam Gottesman and Martin E. Franklin and the Founder Entities have given certain customary representations, warranties and undertakings to the Placing Agents including, among others, warranties in relation to the information contained in this Document and other documents prepared by the Company in connection with the Placing and the Company and Noam Gottesman and Martin E. Franklin and their respective Founder Entities have given warranties in relation to the business of the Company, and their compliance with applicable laws and regulations. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify the Placing Agents against certain liabilities, including in respect of the accuracy of information contained in this Document, losses arising from a breach of the Placing Agreement and certain other losses suffered or incurred in connection with the Placing. The liability of the Company under the Placing Agreement is unlimited as to time and amount. The liability of the Directors and the Founder Entities under the Placing Agreement is limited as to time and amount, save that such limitations will not apply: (i) in relation to any claim arising from fraud or wilful default of the relevant Director or Founder Entity, (ii) in respect of the limit as to time, if any claim arises as a result of a breach of the warranties that relate to the offer documents or (iii) in respect of the limit as to amount, in relation to any claim arising from a breach or default of the relevant Founder or Founder Entity of its obligation to subscribe for Founder Preferred Shares (with Matching Warrants) and New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) pursuant to the Placing Agreement.
- (c) The Company has agreed to pay the Placing Agents a commission of 2 per cent. of an amount equal to the Placing Price multiplied by the aggregate number of New Ordinary Shares subscribed for by Investors, other than the Founder Entities (such amount, the "Placing Proceeds").
- (d) The obligation of the Company to issue the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) and the obligation of the Placing Agents to use reasonable endeavours to procure subscribers for and failing which, to themselves subscribe for, the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) (other than the New Ordinary Shares (with Matching Warrants) to be subscribed for by the Founder Entities) is conditional upon certain conditions that are typical for an agreement of this nature. These conditions include, among others, that Admission occurs not later than 8.00 a.m. on 15 April 2014 or such later date as the Company and the Placing Agents may agree, not being later than close of business on 29 April 2014.

- (e) The Placing Agreement entitles the Placing Agents to terminate the Placing (and the arrangements associated with it) at any time prior to Admission in certain circumstances. If this right is exercised, the Placing and these arrangements will lapse and any monies received in respect of the Placing will be returned to applicants without interest.
- (f) The Company has undertaken to pay or cause to be paid, (together with any applicable VAT) certain costs, charges, fees and expenses relating to the Placing. In addition, the Company has, in certain circumstances and subject to certain exemptions, agreed to pay to and reimburse the Placing Agents in respect of all costs and expenses incurred by the Placing Agents in connection with the Placing.
- (g) The Placing Agreement is governed by English law.

The Founder Entities and each of the Directors have entered into lock-up arrangements pursuant to the terms of the Placing Agreement whereby they have agreed that they shall not, without the prior written consent of the Placing Agents, offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of any Ordinary Shares or Warrants which they hold directly or indirectly in the Company (or acquire pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares, Non-Founder Director Options or Warrants) or any Founder Preferred Shares they hold, for a period commencing on the date of the Placing Agreement and ending 365 days after the Company has completed the Acquisition or upon the passing of a resolution to voluntarily wind-up the Company for failure to complete the Acquisition (whichever is earlier).

The restrictions on the ability of the Directors and the Founder Entities to transfer their Ordinary Shares, Warrants or Founder Preferred Shares, as the case may be, are subject to certain usual and customary exceptions and exceptions for: gifts; transfers for estate planning purposes; transfers to trusts (including any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of such trusts) for the benefit of the Directors or their families; transfers to the Company's Directors; transfers to affiliates or direct or indirect equity holders, holders of partnership interests or members of the Founder Entities, in each case, subject to certain conditions; transfers among the Founder Entities (including any affiliates thereof or direct or indirect equity holders, holders of partnership interests or members of a Founder Entity); transfers to any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company, a target company or shareholders of a target company in connection with an Acquisition, provided that in each of the foregoing cases, the transferees enter into a lock up agreement; transfers of any Ordinary Shares or Warrants acquired after the date of Admission in an open-market transaction, or the acceptance of, or provision of, an irrevocable undertaking to accept, a general offer made to all Shareholders on equal terms; after the Acquisition, transfers to satisfy certain tax liabilities in connection with, or as a result of transactions related to, completion of the Acquisition, the exercise of Warrants or the receipt of stock dividends; and, after the Acquisition, transfers by a Director or a Founder Entity (or certain connected or permitted transferees thereof) of up to 10 per cent. of such person's shares for purposes of charitable gifts.

In addition, pursuant to the Placing Agreement, the Company has agreed not to, without the prior written consent of the Placing Agents, undertake any consolidation or sub-division of its shares or to, directly or indirectly, allot, issue, offer, sell, contract to sell or issue, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase or otherwise dispose of any Ordinary Shares or Warrants, for a period of 180 days from the date of the Placing Agreement, subject to certain limited exceptions, including undertaking any such action in connection with the Acquisition, the issue of Ordinary Shares or Warrants pursuant to the Placing and the issue of Ordinary Shares upon the conversion of the Founder Preferred Shares.

Subject to the expiration or waiver of any lock-up arrangement entered into between the Founder Entities and the Placing Agents, the Company has agreed to provide, at its own cost, such information and assistance as any of the Founder Entities may reasonably request to enable them to effect a disposal of all or part of their Ordinary Shares or Warrants at any time upon or after the completion of the Acquisition, including, without limitation, the preparation, qualification and approval of a prospectus in respect of such Ordinary Shares or Warrants.

15.3 Registrar Agreement

The Company and the Registrar have entered into the Registrar Agreement dated 10 April 2014 pursuant to which the Registrar has agreed to act as registrar to the Company and to provide transfer agency services and certain other administrative services to the Company in relation to its business and affairs.

The Registrar is entitled to receive an initial set-up fee of £1,500 and a fixed annual fee of £7,500 for the provision of its services under the Registrar Agreement. In addition to the annual fee, the Registrar is entitled to reimbursement for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by it in the performance of its services.

The Registrar Agreement shall continue for an initial period of two years and thereafter unless and until terminated upon written notice by either party, by giving not less than three months' written notice. In addition, the agreement may be terminated as soon as reasonably practicable if either party (i) commits a material breach of the agreement which has not been remedied within 30 days of a notice requesting the same; (ii) goes into liquidation (except voluntary) or becomes bankrupt or insolvent.

The Company has agreed to indemnify the Registrar against any damages, losses, costs, claims or expenses incurred by the Registrar in connection with or arising out of the Registrar's performance of its obligations in accordance with the terms of the Registrar Agreement, save to the extent that the same arises from some act of fraud or wilful default on the part of the Registrar.

The Registrar Agreement is governed by BVI law.

15.4 Corporate Administration Agreement

The Company is party to a Corporate Administration Agreement with International Administration Group (Guernsey) Limited dated 10 April 2014 pursuant to which the Administrator provides for the day-to-day administration of the Company and provision of a company secretary.

Under the Corporate Administration Agreement, the Administrator will receive an initial fee of £20,000 payable on Admission and thereafter a fee of £35,000 per annum and any other fees agreed from time to time. In addition to the fees payable, the Company will reimburse the Administrator for all reasonable expenses properly incurred by the Administrator in connection with the performance of its services under the Corporate Administration Agreement.

The Corporate Administration Agreement may be terminated by either party at any time by giving not less than thirty days notice in writing. The Corporate Administration Agreement may also be terminated immediately upon one party giving notice to the other in the event of, inter alia, the Administrator ceasing to be the holder of a licence under such legislation or regulation under which the Administrator must be licensed in order to perform its duties hereunder, the other party becoming insolvent or the other party committing a material breach of the Corporate Administration Agreement and failing (if the breach is capable of remedy) to cure such breach within thirty days of receiving a notice requiring remedy.

In the absence of negligence, fraud or wilful default: (i) the Administrator will not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the Company or Shareholders as a result of the performance or non-performance by the Administrator of its obligations and duties under the Corporate Administration Agreement; and (ii) the Company has indemnified the Administrator against all actions, proceedings, claims and demands (including costs and expenses incidental thereto, including legal and professional expenses) which may be made against, suffered or incurred by the Administrator in respect of any direct loss or damage suffered or alleged to have been suffered in connection with the performance or non-performance by the Administrator of its duties and obligations under the Corporate Administration Agreement.

The Corporate Administration Agreement is governed by Guernsey law.

15.5 Promissory Notes

On 9 April 2014, the Company, in consideration for TOMS Acquisition I LLC and Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC advancing the Company $200,000, in aggregate, issued unsecured promissory notes for the principal amount of $100,000 to TOMS Acquisition I LLC and $100,000 to Mariposa Acquisition II, LLC (together the “Promissory Notes”).

The principal balance of each Promissory Note is repayable within 60 days following Admission or, failing Admission, not later than 18 months from the date of issuance. No interest will accrue on any principal balance of each Promissory Note. In the event that the Placing is not completed, the Company will pay all expenses related to the Placing prior to the repayment of the Promissory Notes and the Founder Entities will accept, in full and final satisfaction of the Promissory Notes, any available funds remaining in the Company’s accounts after the payment of all liabilities.

Failure to pay principal within five Business Days following the date when due or the insolvency of the Company (whether by way of liquidation, administration, winding-up, arrangement with creditors or any analogous event to the foregoing) will constitute an event of default, whereupon the principal amount of each Promissory Note shall become immediately due and payable.

Each Promissory Note is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the British Virgin Islands.

15.6 Insider Letters

- (a) the Gottesman Insider Letter referred to in “Part II—The Founders—Conflicts of Interest—Conflict of Interest Procedures with respect to Mr. Gottesman”; and
- (b) the Franklin Insider Letter referred to in “Part II—The Founders—Conflicts of Interest—Conflict of Interest Procedures with respect to Mr. Franklin”.

15.7 Depositary Agreement

On 10 April 2014, the Company entered into a depositary agreement with Computershare Investor Services PLC, as described in “Part XI—Depositary Interests”.

15.8 Warrant Instrument

On 10 April 2014, the Company executed the Warrant Instrument, a summary of which is set out in “Part IX—Terms & Conditions of the Warrants” of this Document.

16. Related party transactions

From 1 April 2014 (being the Company’s date of incorporation) up to and including the date of this document, the Company has not entered into any related party transactions other than as set out below:

- (a) the Placing Agreement referred to in paragraph 15.1 above; (b) the Promissory Notes referred to in paragraph 15.5 above;
- (b) the Directors’ Letters of Appointment referred to in paragraph 10 above; (d) the Option Deeds referred to in paragraph 10 above; and
- (c) the Insider Letters referred to in paragraph 15.6 above.

17. Accounts and annual general meetings

The Company’s annual report and accounts will be made up to 31 December in each year, with the first annual report and accounts covering the period from incorporation to 31 December 2015. The Company will prepare its annual report and accounts for the period to 31 December thereafter. It is expected that the Company will make public its annual report and accounts within four months of each financial year end (or earlier if possible) and that copies of the annual report and accounts will be sent to Shareholders within six months of each financial year end (or earlier if possible). The Company will prepare its first unaudited interim report for the period from incorporation to 31 December 2014 and a second unaudited interim report for the period from incorporation to 30 June 2015. The Company will prepare its unaudited interim report for each six month period ending 30 June thereafter. It is expected that the Company will make public its unaudited interim reports within two months of the end of each interim period.

The Company shall hold the first annual general meeting within a period of 18 months following the date of an Acquisition. Further information on annual general meetings is contained in paragraph 4.2(e) above.

18. Issues of new shares

The Directors are authorised to issue an unlimited number of Ordinary Shares and Founder Preferred Shares. The pre-emption rights in the Articles have been disapplied, and therefore pre-emption rights do not apply, to issues of relevant securities in the circumstances described in paragraph 3.4 above.

Otherwise, subject to certain other exceptions, the Directors are obliged to offer Ordinary Shares to Shareholders on a basis pro rata to their existing holdings before offering them to any other person for cash. The Directors will only issue Ordinary Shares if they deem it to be in the interests of the Company and (save pursuant to the powers or exceptions referred to above) will not issue Ordinary Shares for cash on a non pre-emptive basis without first obtaining Shareholder approval. See paragraph 3.4 above for further details.

19. General

- 19.1 By a resolution of the Directors passed on 4 April 2014, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, whose address is 1 Embankment Place, London WC2N 6RH, United Kingdom, were appointed as the first auditors of the Company. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP are registered to carry out audit work by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.
- 19.2 PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has given and has not withdrawn its consent to the inclusion in this document of its accountant's report in section A of "Part VI—Financial Information on the Company" in the form and context in which it is included and has authorised the contents of that report for the purposes of Rule 5.5.3R(2)(f) of the Prospectus Rules.
- 19.3 A written consent under the Prospectus Rules is different to a consent filed with the SEC under Section 7 of the Securities Act. As the Ordinary Shares and Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has not filed a consent under Section 7 of the Securities Act, which is applicable only to transactions involving securities registered under the Securities Act.
- 19.4 The Company has not had any employees since its incorporation and does not own any premises.
- 19.5 The total expenses incurred (or to be incurred) by the Company in connection with Admission, the Placing and the incorporation (and initial capitalisation) of the Company are approximately $11,300,000. The estimated Net Proceeds, after deducting fees and expenses in connection with the Placing, are approximately $473,700,000.
- 19.6 The terms of the Founder Preferred Shares mean that there could be a material disparity between the Placing Price and the effective cash cost to the Founder Entities of any Ordinary Shares issued to the Founder Entities pursuant to the terms of the Founder Preferred Shares. Those terms also mean that it is not possible at the date of this Document to confirm what that effective cash cost would be (and therefore not possible to provide a comparison of that effective cash cost to the Placing Price).

20. BVI Law

The Company is registered in the BVI as a BVI business company and is subject to BVI law. English law and BVI law differ in a number of areas, and certain key aspects of BVI law as they relate to the Company are summarised below, although this is not intended to provide a comprehensive review of the applicable law. The Company has incorporated equivalent provisions in its Memorandum and Articles to address the material elements of these differences (further details are provided in paragraph 4 above).

20.1 Shares

Subject to the BVI Companies Act and to a BVI business company's memorandum and articles of association, directors have the power to offer, allot, issue, grant options over or otherwise dispose of such shares.

20.2 Dividends and distribution

Subject to the provisions of a BVI business company's memorandum and articles of association, directors may declare dividends in money, shares or other property provided they determine the company will pass the solvency test (i.e. be able to meet its debts as they fall due and that the value of the company's assets will exceed its liabilities).

20.3 Protection of minorities

BVI law permits personal, derivative and class actions by shareholders.

20.4 Management

Subject to the provisions of its memorandum and articles of association, a BVI business company is managed by its board of directors, each of whom has authority to bind the company. Directors are required under BVI law to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the company, and to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonable director would exercise, taking into account but without limitation, (i) the nature of the company, (ii) the nature of the business and (iii) the position of the directors and the nature of the responsibilities taken.

20.5 Accounting and audit

A BVI business company is obliged to keep financial records that (i) are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and (ii) will, at any time, enable the financial position of the company to be determined with reasonable accuracy. There is no statutory requirement to audit or file annual accounts unless the company is engaged in certain business, which require a licence under BVI law. It is not anticipated that the Company's activities would require such a licence.

20.6 Exchange control

BVI business companies are not subject to any exchange control regulations in the BVI.

20.7 Inspection of corporate records

Shareholders of a BVI business company may inspect the BVI business company's books and records upon giving notice to the company. However, the directors may refuse such request on the grounds that inspection would be contrary to the interests of the BVI business company. The only corporate records generally available for inspection by members of the public are those required to be maintained at the Registry of Corporate Affairs in the British Virgin Islands, namely the certificate of incorporation and memorandum and articles together with any amendments thereto. A BVI business company may elect to maintain a copy of its share register, register of directors and to file a register of changes at the BVI Registry of Corporate Affairs, but this is not required under BVI law. A register of changes must be maintained in the office of the company's registered agent whilst either the original or a copy of the register of directors and members will suffice. These may be inspected with the BVI business company's consent, or in limited circumstances pursuant to a court order.

20.8 Insolvency

The BVI business company and any creditor may petition the court, pursuant to the Insolvency Act 2003 of the British Virgin Islands, for the winding-up of the BVI business company upon various grounds, inter alia, that the BVI business company is unable to pay its debts or that it is just and equitable that it be wound up.

20.9 Takeovers

There are no provisions governing takeover offers analogous to the City Code applicable in the BVI.

20.10 Mergers

Generally, the merger or consolidation of a BVI business company requires shareholder approval. However, a BVI business company parent company may merge with one or more BVI subsidiaries without member approval, provided that the surviving company is also a BVI business company. Members dissenting from a merger are entitled to payment of the fair value of their shares unless the BVI business company is the surviving company and the shareholders continue to hold a similar interest in the surviving company. BVI law permits BVI business companies to merge with companies incorporated outside the BVI, providing the merger is lawful under the laws of the jurisdiction in which the non-BVI company is incorporated. Under BVI law, following a domestic statutory merger or consolidation, one of the companies is subsumed into the other or both are subsumed into a third company. In either case, with effect from the effective date of the merger, the surviving company or the new consolidated company assumes all of the assets and liabilities of the other entity(ies) by operation of law and other entities cease to exist.

PART IX

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF THE WARRANTS

The Warrants were issued, conditional on Admission, pursuant to a resolution of the Board passed on 9 April 2014 and will be constituted by, and issued subject to and with the benefit of the Warrant Instrument.

Warrantholders will be bound by all the terms and conditions set out in the Warrant Instrument. The terms and conditions attached to the Warrants are summarised below in paragraphs 1 to 8. Statements made in this Part are a summary of those made in the Warrant Instrument.

Investors should note that each Warrant will entitle a Warrantholder to subscribe for one-third of an Ordinary Share upon exercise (subject to any prior adjustment in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Warrant Instrument and described below). Subject to any such prior adjustment, Warrantholders will be required to hold and validly exercise three Warrants in order to receive one Ordinary Share.

The Warrants have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may be offered or sold within the United States only to Accredited Investors or QIBs or in reliance on another exemption from, or in a transaction that is not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. See also paragraph 1.10 below. Persons exercising Warrants will represent, amongst other things, that they (i) are Accredited Investors or QIBs or (ii) are outside the United States and not a U.S. Person (or acting for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person), and are acquiring Ordinary Shares upon exercise of the Warrants in reliance on an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Investors who wish to hold Warrants through the CREST system will receive Depositary Interests representing the underlying Warrant. Investors who do not wish to receive Depositary Interests may only hold Warrants in certificated form. Holders of Depositary Interests representing the underlying Warrants may exercise Subscription Rights through the CREST System. See Part XI: Depositary Interests.

1. Subscription Rights

- 1.1 A Warrantholder will have Subscription Rights to subscribe in cash during the Subscription Period for all or any whole number of Ordinary Shares for which he is entitled to subscribe under such Warrants of which he is the Warrantholder at the Exercise Price and subject to the other restrictions and conditions described in the Warrant Instrument. Each Warrant confers the right on a Warrantholder to subscribe for the applicable portion of an Ordinary Share as determined by the Warrant Instrument. Prior to any adjustment as provided in paragraph 2 below, the portion of an Ordinary Share to which each Warrant relates is one-third of an Ordinary Share. The Exercise Price and the number of the Ordinary Shares to be subscribed upon exercise of the Warrants will be subject to any prior adjustment as provided in paragraph 2 below. The Warrants registered in a Warrantholder's name will be evidenced by a warrant certificate issued by the Company. Warrants will only be issued in certificated form. Subject to compliance with all applicable laws and regulations for the time being in force, the Company may make arrangements to enable the Warrants to be held in uncertificated form (whether in the form of depositary interests or otherwise) in such manner as the Directors may determine from time to time.
- 1.2 In order to exercise the Subscription Rights, in whole or in part, the Warrantholder must deliver the relevant warrant certificate(s) having completed and signed the notice of exercise of Subscription Rights thereon (or any other document(s) as the Company may, in its absolute discretion, accept) to the Registrar's receiving agent, Computershare Investor Services PLC, at the following address: Computershare Priority Application, Corporate Actions, Bristol, BS99 6AJ, United Kingdom (or to any other person or address which may from time to time be notified to Warrantholders) during the Subscription Period, accompanied by a remittance in cleared funds for the aggregate Exercise Price for the Ordinary Shares in respect of which the Subscription Rights are being exercised. Warrants will be deemed to be exercised on the business day upon which the receiving agent (or such other person which from time to time may be designated by the Registrar) shall have received the relevant documentation and remittance in cleared funds of the Exercise Price. For these purposes, "business day" means any day (excluding a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks in England or, if the Registrar's receiving agent is not located in England, the country of location of the receiving agent (or such other person which may from time to time be notified to Warrantholders), are open for business. The exercise of Subscription Rights must be made subject to, and in compliance with, any laws and regulations for the time being in force and upon payment of any taxes, duties and other governmental charges payable by reason of the exercise (other than taxes and duties imposed on the Company).

- 1.3 Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to the exercise of Subscription Rights will be allotted not later than 10 days after the relevant Exercise Date. Certificates in respect of such Ordinary Shares will be issued free of charge and despatched (at the risk of the person(s) entitled thereto) not later than 28 days after the relevant Exercise Date to the person(s) in whose name(s) the Warrants are registered at the date of such exercise (and, if more than one, to the first named, which shall be sufficient despatch for all) or (subject as provided by law and to payment of stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax or any similar tax as may be applicable) to such other person(s) as may be named in the Form of Nomination attached to the Warrant Certificate (and, if more than one, to the first named, which shall be sufficient despatch for all). Warrants will be deemed to be exercised on the business day upon which the Registrar's receiving agent referred to above (or such other person which may from time to time be notified to Warrantholders) shall have received the relevant documentation and remittance in cleared funds referred to above. If an adjustment is made as provided in paragraph 2 below after the Exercise Date but before the relevant Ordinary Shares have been allotted, the Warrantholder will receive such number of Ordinary Shares as it would have received had the exercise taken place following the adjustment taking effect.
- 1.4 In the event of a partial exercise of the Subscription Rights evidenced by a warrant certificate, the Company shall at the same time issue a fresh warrant certificate in the name of the Warrantholder for any balance of Warrants with Subscription Rights remaining exercisable.
- 1.5 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Warrant Instrument, no exercise of a Warrant will be valid unless the number of Warrants exercised upon such exercise is equal to either the Minimum Exercise Amount or a multiple of the Minimum Exercise Amount that results in only a whole number of Ordinary Shares being issued upon such exercise. For these purposes, "Minimum Exercise Amount" means, as of the applicable time of determination, with respect to each exercise of Warrants, the number of Warrants necessary for a Warrantholder to exercise to receive one whole Ordinary Share upon such exercise. Prior to any adjustment as provided in paragraph 2 below, the Minimum Exercise Amount is three.
- 1.6 No fractions of an Ordinary Share will be issued to a Warrantholder upon exercise of any Warrants pursuant to the Warrant Instrument. Where a Warrantholder purports to exercise Warrants that would otherwise result in a fractional entitlement to an Ordinary Share, such fractional entitlement will be rounded down to the nearest whole number of Ordinary Shares and the Warrants giving rise to such fractional entitlement will lapse and be cancelled.
- 1.7 Ordinary Shares allotted pursuant to the exercise of Subscription Rights will not rank for any dividends or other distributions declared, paid or made on the Ordinary Shares by reference to a record date prior to the relevant Exercise Date but, subject thereto, will rank in full for all dividends and other distributions declared, paid or made on the Ordinary Shares on or after the relevant Exercise Date and otherwise will rank pari passu in all other respects with Ordinary Shares in issue at the Exercise Date.
- 1.8 For so long as the Company's ordinary share capital is listed on the Official List and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities and/or any other securities exchange or quotation system, it is the intention of the Company to apply to the UKLA and London Stock Exchange (or relevant authority for any other securities exchange or quotation system) for the Ordinary Shares allotted pursuant to any exercise of Subscription Rights to be admitted to the Official List and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities, or such other securities exchange or quotation system on which the Ordinary Shares are traded or quoted.
- 1.9 The exercise of Subscription Rights by any holder or beneficial owner of Warrants who is a U.S. Person, or the right of such a holder or beneficial owner of Warrants or other U.S. Person to receive the Ordinary Shares falling to be issued to him following the exercise of his Subscription Rights, will be subject to such requirements, conditions, restrictions, limitations and/or prohibitions as the Company may at any time impose, in its absolute discretion, for the purpose of complying with the securities laws of the United States (including, without limitation, the Securities Act, the U.S. Investment Company Act, and any rules or regulations promulgated under such acts).

1.10 Each person exercising Subscription Rights will represent, warrant and agree as follows:

(I) either:

- (i) it is an Accredited Investor or a QIB and exercising for its own account or the account of a QIB and is doing so in reliance upon an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act; and:
 - (a) it understands that the Ordinary Shares to be issued upon exercise of the Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act;
 - (b) it may be asked to supply an opinion of counsel that the Ordinary Shares issuable upon exercise of the Warrants are exempt from registration under the Securities Act;
 - (c) it understands that:
 - (A) Ordinary Shares issued upon exercise of the Warrants will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer as set out in the Prospectus;
 - (B) a new holding period for the Ordinary Shares issued upon exchange of such Warrant for cash, for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, will commence upon issue of such Ordinary Shares; and
 - (C) its exercise of Warrants and acquisition of Ordinary Shares to be issued upon exercise of the Warrants was not solicited by any form of general solicitation or general advertising (as those terms are defined in Regulation D under the Securities Act) and that it has been given access to information sufficient to permit it to make an informed decision as to whether to invest in such Ordinary Shares; or
- (ii) it is located outside the United States and is not a U.S. Person and is not exercising the Warrants for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person and:
 - (a) it is acquiring the Ordinary Shares to be issued upon exercise of the Warrants in an offshore transaction within the meaning of Regulation S and in accordance with all applicable laws;
 - (b) its exercise of Warrants and acquisition of Ordinary Shares to be issued upon exercise of the Warrants were not solicited by means of any “directed selling efforts” as defined in Regulation S;
 - (c) it understands that:
 - (A) the Ordinary Shares will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer as set out in the Prospectus;
 - (B) the Ordinary Shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of U.S. Persons, other than Accredited Investors or QIBs, absent registration or an exemption from registration under the Securities Act; and
 - (C) a new holding period for the Ordinary Shares issued upon exchange of such Warrants for cash, for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, will commence upon issue of such Ordinary Shares;

(II) no portion of the assets used by the Warrantholder to exercise its Subscription Rights constitutes or will constitute the assets of (i) an “employee benefit plan” that is subject to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA, (ii) a plan, individual retirement account or other arrangement that is subject to section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code, (iii) entities whose underlying assets are considered to include “plan assets” of any plan, account or arrangement described in preceding clause (i) or (ii), or (iv) any governmental plan, church plan, non-U.S. plan or other investor whose purchase or holding of New Ordinary Shares or Warrants would be subject to any state, local, non-U.S. or other laws or regulations similar to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code or that would have the effect of the regulations issued by the U.S. Department of Labor set forth at 29 CFR section 251 0.3-1 01, as modified by section 3(42) of ERISA; and

(III) it is not a resident of Canada, Australia or Japan (or any other jurisdiction where the offer or sale of relevant securities would violate the relevant securities laws of such jurisdiction) and is not exercising the Warrants on behalf of any such person.

- 1.11 The Registrar, its receiving agent and the Company reserve the right to delay taking any action on any particular instructions from a Warrantholder if any of them considers that it needs to do so to obtain further information from the Warrantholder or to comply with any legal or regulatory requirement binding on it (including the obtaining of evidence of identity to comply with money laundering regulations), or to investigate any concerns they may have about the validity of or any other matter relating to the instruction.
- 1.12 The Company shall not be obliged to issue and deliver Ordinary Shares pursuant to the exercise of a Warrant unless (i) such Ordinary Shares have been registered or qualified or deemed to be exempt under the securities laws of the jurisdiction of state of residence of the Warrantholder; (ii) a registration statement under the Securities Act with respect to the Ordinary Shares is effective, (iii) the Warrantholder provides the Company with reasonable assurance that such Ordinary Shares can be sold, novated or transferred pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act (or a successor rule thereto) ("Rule 144") and the applicable sale of the Ordinary Shares to be made in reliance on Rule 144 is made in accordance with the terms of Rule 144, or (iv) in the opinion of legal counsel to the Company, the exercise of the Warrants is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and such Ordinary Shares are qualified for sale or exempt from qualification under applicable securities laws of jurisdictions in which the Warrantholder resides. Warrants may not be exercised by, or Ordinary Shares issued or delivered to, any Warrantholder in any state or other jurisdiction in which such exercise or issue and delivery of Ordinary Shares would be unlawful.
- 1.13 At any time during the Subscription Period, the Directors will have the discretion to refuse to accept a notice of exercise of Subscription Rights to the extent such exercise may impact the Company's ability to meet the requirements in Listing Rule 14.3.2 which require a sufficient number of shares, being 25 per cent. of the shares for which application for admission has been made, to be in public hands.

2. Adjustments of Subscription Rights

The Exercise Price and the number of the Ordinary Shares to be subscribed upon exercise of the Warrants may from time to time be adjusted in accordance with the provisions described in this paragraph 2.

- 2.1 If the Company (i) issues any Ordinary Shares by way of dividend or distribution to holders of Ordinary Shares, (ii) subdivides (by any share split, recapitalisation or otherwise) the number of Ordinary Shares outstanding into a larger number of Ordinary Shares or (iii) consolidates (by consolidation, combination, reverse share split or otherwise) the number of outstanding Ordinary Shares into a smaller number of Ordinary Shares, then in each such case the Exercise Price shall be divided by the quotient of (x) the number of Ordinary Shares outstanding immediately after such event divided by (y) the number of Ordinary Shares outstanding immediately before such event (the result of such quotient is referred to herein the "Adjustment Percentage"). Any adjustment made pursuant to clause (i) of this paragraph shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of Shareholders entitled to receive such dividend or distribution, and any adjustment pursuant to clause (ii) or (iii) of this paragraph shall become effective immediately after the effective date of such subdivision or consolidation. Following each adjustment to the Exercise Price pursuant to the immediately preceding clauses (i), (ii) or (iii), the number of Ordinary Shares to which each Warrant relates shall also be adjusted by multiplying the applicable portion of an Ordinary Share to which each Warrant relates by the Adjustment Percentage so that after such adjustment the aggregate Exercise Price payable following adjustment shall be the same as the aggregate Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment.
- 2.2 If (i) the Board determines that an adjustment should be made to the Exercise Price and/or the number of Ordinary Shares to which each Warrant relates as a result of one or more events or circumstances not referred to above in this paragraph 2 or (ii) an event which gives or may give rise to an adjustment under paragraph 2.1 above occurs in circumstances such that the Board, in its absolute discretion, determines that the adjustment provisions in paragraph 2.1 need to be operated subject to some modification in order to give a result which is fair and reasonable in all such circumstances, then the Board may make any adjustment to the Exercise Price and/or the number of Ordinary Shares to which each Warrant relates or modification to the operation of paragraph 2.1 as it determines in good faith to be fair and reasonable to take account of the relevant event or circumstance and upon determination the adjustment (if any) will be made and will take effect in accordance with the determination.

- 2.3 On any adjustment to the Exercise Price pursuant to this paragraph 2, the resultant Exercise Price, if not an integral multiple of one cent, will be rounded to the nearest cent (0.5 cents being rounded upwards).

3. Mandatory Redemption

- 3.1 Upon the occurrence of the Redemption Event (as defined below), each Warrant, unless previously exercised or cancelled before the date set for redemption by the Redemption Notice (as defined below), will be mandatorily redeemed by the Company for $0.01 per Warrant.
- 3.2 The Redemption Event occurs if the Average Price of an Ordinary Share for any ten consecutive trading days is equal to or greater than $18.00 (the “Redemption Trigger Price”).
- 3.3 The Company will give Warrantholders notice of the Redemption Event having occurred within 20 days of its occurrence in accordance with the terms of the Warrant Instrument (the “Redemption Notice”) and will redeem the Warrants falling to be redeemed on the date set by the Redemption Notice, being a date no longer than 30 days following the occurrence of the Redemption Event, in accordance with the terms of the Warrant Instrument. Any Warrant which has not been exercised before the date set by the Redemption Notice will be redeemed.
- 3.4 If the Board determines that an adjustment should be made to the Redemption Trigger Price as a result of matters such as any consolidation or subdivision of the Ordinary Shares or issue of Ordinary Shares to Shareholders by way of dividend or distribution, the Board shall determine in good faith as soon as practicable what adjustment (if any) to the Redemption Trigger Price is fair and reasonable and the date on which the adjustment should take effect and upon determination the adjustment (if any) will be made and will take effect in accordance with the determination.

4. Other Provisions

Save as otherwise described in this Part IX, so long as any Subscription Rights remain exercisable:

- 4.1 the Company shall at all times maintain all requisite shareholder or other authorities necessary to enable the issue of Ordinary Shares (free from any rights of pre-emption) pursuant to the exercise of all the Warrants outstanding from time to time;
- 4.2 if at any time an offer is made to all holders of Ordinary Shares (or all such holders other than the offeror and/or any company controlled by the offeror and/or persons acting in concert with the offeror) to acquire all or some of the issued Ordinary Shares and the Company becomes aware on or before the end of the Subscription Period that as a result of such offer (or as a result of such offer and any other offer made by the offeror) the right to cast a majority of the votes which may ordinarily be cast on a poll at a general meeting of the Company has or will become vested in the offeror and/or such companies or persons as aforesaid, the Company will give notice to the Warrantholders of such vesting within 14 days of it occurring, and each such Warrantholder will be entitled, at any time within the period of 30 days immediately following the date of such notice, to exercise his Subscription Rights on the terms on which the same could have been exercised if they had been exercisable and had been exercised on the date of such notice after which time all Subscription Rights will lapse. If any part of such period falls after the end of the Subscription Period, the end of the Subscription Period will be deemed to be the last business day of that 30 day period;
- 4.3 if in connection with the Acquisition holders of Ordinary Shares are offered or receive shares in another company (the “New Company”) the Board may, in its absolute discretion, determine that the Subscription Rights be replaced by new subscription rights in respect of shares of the New Company and paragraph 4.2 above will not apply if it would otherwise do so; any such new subscription rights will be equivalent to the Subscription Rights (as determined by the Board in its absolute discretion acting in good faith) and will be on such terms as the Board considers in its absolute discretion (acting in good faith) to be fair and reasonable;
- 4.4 if the Company enters into liquidation, all Subscription Rights will lapse on the date of entry into liquidation;

- 4.5 the Company will use reasonable endeavours to give Warrantholders at least 15 calendar days' notice prior to the date on which the Company closes its books or takes a record (A) with respect to any distribution on the Ordinary Shares or (B) with respect to determining rights to vote with respect to any voluntary dissolution or voluntary liquidation of the Company.

5. Modification of Rights and Meetings of Warrantholders

- 5.1 Any modification to the Warrant Instrument or any of the rights for the time being attached to the Warrants may be made only by an instrument in writing executed by the Company and expressed to be supplemental to the Warrant Instrument, and, save in the case of a modification which is of a formal, minor or technical nature, or made to correct a manifest error, or a modification deemed necessary or desirable by the Board in its absolute discretion (acting in good faith) and which the Board determines in its absolute discretion (acting in good faith) does not adversely affect the interests of Warrantholders only if it shall first have been sanctioned by (whether or not the Company is being wound up) an Ordinary Resolution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may lower the Exercise Price or extend the duration of the Subscription Period without the prior sanction, consent or approval of Warrantholders.
- 5.2 All the provisions of the Articles as to general meetings apply mutatis mutandis to meetings of Warrantholders as though the Warrants were a class of shares forming part of the capital of the Company, but:
- (a) the necessary quorum is the requisite number of Warrantholders (present in person or by proxy) entitled to subscribe for two-tenths in number of the Ordinary Shares attributable to such outstanding Warrants;
 - (b) every Warrantholder present in person or by proxy at any such meeting is entitled on a show of hands to one vote and every such Warrantholder present in person or by proxy is entitled on a poll to one vote for each Ordinary Share for which he is entitled to subscribe;
 - (c) any Warrantholder present in person or by proxy may demand or join in demanding a poll; and
 - (d) if at any adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined is not present, the Warrantholder or Warrantholders then present in person or by proxy are a quorum.

6. Purchase

The Company has the right to purchase Warrants in the market, by tender or by private treaty or otherwise, on such terms as the Board determines in its absolute discretion (acting in good faith), provided that such purchases will be made in accordance with the rules of any stock exchange or trading platform on which the Warrants are listed or traded and the Company may accept the surrender of Warrants at any time. All Warrants so purchased or surrendered will forthwith be cancelled and will not be available for reissue or resale.

7. Transfer

Each Warrant will be in registered form and will be transferable individually and in integral multiples by way of novation by an instrument of transfer in any usual or common form, or in any other form which may be approved by the Directors. No transfer of any Warrant to any person will be registered without the consent of the Company if it would constitute a transfer to a Prohibited Person. The Company may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless such instrument is deposited at the office of the Registrar's agent, Computershare Investor Services (Jersey) Limited, Queensway House, Hilgrove Street, St. Helier, Jersey, JE1 IES (or such other place as the Registrar may appoint).

8. Governing Law

The terms and conditions of the Warrants as described above are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of the British Virgin Islands.

The Company has not been and will not be registered in the United States as an investment company under the U.S. Investment Company Act. The U.S. Investment Company Act provides certain protections to Investors and imposes certain restrictions on companies that are registered as investment companies. As the Company is not so registered, none of these protections or restrictions is or will be applicable to the Company.

Until 40 days after Admission, an offer or sale of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the Placing) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than pursuant to an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Selling and transfer restrictions

General

As described more fully below, there are certain restrictions regarding the Ordinary Shares or Warrants which affect prospective investors. These restrictions include, among others, (i) prohibitions on participation in the Placing by persons that are subject to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code or Similar Laws, except with the express consent of the Company given in respect of an investment in the Placing, and (ii) restrictions on the ownership and transfer of Ordinary Shares or Warrants by such persons following the Placing.

The Ordinary Shares or Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may not be, offered, sold, resold, transferred, delivered or distributed, directly or indirectly, within, into or in the United States or to or for the account or benefit of persons in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction that is not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and in compliance with the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States. There will be no public offer in the United States.

The Ordinary Shares or Warrants are being offered or sold only (a) outside the United States in offshore transactions within the meaning of and in accordance with Rule 903 of Regulation S and (b) within, into or in the United States to persons reasonably believed to be QIBs or Accredited Investors or in reliance on another exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Restrictions on purchasers of Ordinary Shares or Warrants

Each initial purchaser of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants in the Placing that is within the United States (or is purchasing for the account or benefit of a person in the United States) is hereby notified by accepting delivery of this Document that the offer and sale of Ordinary Shares or Warrants to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A or another exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Each initial purchaser of Ordinary Shares or Warrants in the Placing that is within the United States (or is purchasing for the account or benefit of a person in the United States) must be a QIB or an Accredited Investor.

Restrictions on purchasers of Ordinary Shares or Warrants in reliance on Regulation S

Each purchaser of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants offered outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S in the Placing by accepting delivery of this Document will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows (terms used in this paragraph that are defined in Regulation S are used herein as defined therein):

- (i) the Investor is outside the United States, and is not acquiring the Ordinary Shares or Warrants for the account or benefit of a person in the United States;
- (ii) the Investor is acquiring the Ordinary Shares or Warrants in an offshore transaction meeting the requirements of Regulation S;
- (iii) the Ordinary Shares or Warrants have not been offered to it by the Company, the Placing Agents, their respective directors, officers, agents, employees, advisers or any others by means of any “directed selling efforts” as defined in Regulation S;
- (iv) the Investor is aware that the Ordinary Shares or Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from registration under the Securities Act;
- (v) except with the express consent of the Company given in respect of an investment in the Placing, no portion of the assets used by such Investor to purchase, and no portion of the assets used by such Investor to hold, the Ordinary Shares, the Warrants or any beneficial interest therein constitutes or will constitute the assets of (i) an “employee benefit plan” that is subject to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA, (ii) a plan, individual retirement account or other arrangement that is subject to section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code, (iii) entities whose underlying assets are considered to include “plan assets” of any plan, account or arrangement described in preceding clause (i) or (ii), or (iv) any governmental plan, church plan, non-U.S. plan or other investor whose purchase or holding of Ordinary Shares or Warrants would be subject to any state, local, non-U.S. or other laws or regulations similar to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code or that would have the effect of the regulations issued by the U.S. Department of Labor set forth at 29 CFR section 251 0.3-1 01, as modified by section 3(42) of ERISA;

- (vi) if in the future it decides to offer, sell, transfer, assign, novate or otherwise dispose of Ordinary Shares or Warrants, it will do so only in compliance with an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and under circumstances which will not require the Company to register under the U.S. Investment Company Act. It acknowledges that any sale, transfer, assignment, novation, pledge or other disposal made other than in compliance with such laws and the above-stated restrictions will be subject to the forfeiture and/or compulsory transfer provisions as provided in the Company’s Articles;
- (vii) it has received, carefully read and understands this Document, and has not, directly or indirectly, distributed, forwarded, transferred or otherwise transmitted this Document or any other presentation or offering materials concerning the Ordinary Shares or Warrants to any persons within the United States, nor will it do any of the foregoing; and
- (viii) each of the Placing Agents, the Company, their respective directors, officers, agents, employees, advisers and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing representations and agreements. If any of the representations or agreements made by the Investor are no longer accurate or have not been complied with, the Investor will immediately notify the Company and, if it is acquiring any Ordinary Shares or Warrants as a fiduciary or agent for one or more accounts, the Investor has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make such foregoing representations and agreements on behalf of each such account.

Restrictions on purchasers of Ordinary Shares and Warrants in reliance on Rule 144A

Each purchaser of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants offered within the United States in reliance on Rule 144A or another exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act by accepting delivery of this Document will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows:

- (i) it is (a) a QIB or an Accredited Investor; (b) aware, and each beneficial owner of such Ordinary Shares or Warrants has been advised, that the sale to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A or another exemption from the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act; and (c) acquiring such Ordinary Shares or Warrants for its own account or the account of a QIB with respect to when it invests on a discretionary basis;
- (ii) it agrees (or if it is acting for the account of another person, such person, has confirmed to it that such person agrees) that it (or such person) will not offer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Ordinary Shares or Warrants except (a) to a person whom it and any person acting on its behalf reasonably believes is a QIB purchasing for its own account or for the account of a QIB in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A; (b) in an offshore transaction in accordance with Rule 903 or 904 of Regulation S; (c) in accordance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act (if available); (d) pursuant to another available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act; or (e) pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, in each case in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States. The Investor will, and each subsequent holder is required to, notify any subsequent purchaser from it of those Ordinary Shares or Warrants of the resale restrictions referred to in (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) above. No representation can be made as to the availability of the exemption provided by Rule 144 for resale of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants;
- (iii) it acknowledges and agrees that it is not acquiring the Ordinary Shares or Warrants as a result of any general solicitation or general advertising (as those terms are defined in Regulation D under the Securities Act);

- (iv) the Investor is aware that the Ordinary Shares or Warrants have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act any may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act;
- (v) except with the express consent of the Company given in respect of an investment in the Placing, no portion of the assets used by such Investor to purchase, and no portion of the assets used by such Investor to hold, the Ordinary Shares, Warrants or any beneficial interest therein constitutes or will constitute the assets of (i) an “employee benefit plan” that is subject to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA, (ii) a plan, individual retirement account or other arrangement that is subject to section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code, (iii) entities whose underlying assets are considered to include “plan assets” of any plan, account or arrangement described in preceding clause (i) or (ii), or (iv) any governmental plan, church plan, non-U.S. plan or other investor whose purchase or holding of Ordinary Shares or Warrants would be subject to any state, local, non-U.S. or other laws or regulations similar to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code or that would have the effect of the regulations issued by the U.S. Department of Labor set forth at 29 CFR section 251.0.3-1.01, as modified by section 3(42) of ERISA;
- (vi) if in the future it decides to offer, sell, transfer, assign, novate or otherwise dispose of Ordinary Shares or Warrants, it will do so only in compliance with an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and under circumstances which will not require the Company to register under the U.S. Investment Company Act;
- (vii) it acknowledges that any sale, transfer, assignment, novation, pledge or other disposal made other than in compliance with such laws and the above-stated restrictions will be subject to the forfeiture and/or compulsory transfer provisions as provided in the Company’s Articles;
- (viii) it understands that the Ordinary Shares and Warrants will be “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act and it agrees that for so long as the Ordinary Shares and Warrants are “restricted securities” (as so defined), they may not be deposited into any unrestricted depositary facility established or maintained by a depositary bank, unless and until such time as the Ordinary Shares and Warrants are no longer “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act;
- (ix) it has received, carefully read and understands this Document, and has not, directly or indirectly, distributed, forwarded, transferred or otherwise transmitted this Document or any other presentation or offering materials concerning the Ordinary Shares or Warrants to any persons within the United States, nor will it do any of the foregoing; and
- (x) each of the Placing Agents, the Company, their respective directors, officers, agents, employees, advisers and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing representations and agreements. If any of the representations or agreements made by the Investor are no longer accurate or have not been complied with, the Investor will immediately notify the Company and, if it is acquiring any Ordinary Shares or Warrants for the account of one or more QIBs, the Investor has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make such foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of each such account.

The Company will not recognise any resale or other transfer, or attempted resale or other transfer, in respect of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants made other than in compliance with the above stated restrictions.

ERISA restrictions

Except with the express consent of the Company in respect of an investment in the Placing, each purchaser and subsequent transferee of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants will be deemed to represent and warrant that no portion of the assets used to acquire or hold its interest in the Ordinary Shares or Warrants constitutes or will constitute the assets of any Plan Investor (as defined under “Certain ERISA Considerations” below this Document). Purported transfers of Ordinary Shares or Warrants to Plan Investors will, to the extent permissible by applicable law, be void ab initio.

If any Ordinary Shares or Warrants are owned directly or beneficially by a person believed by the Directors to be in violation of the transfer restrictions set forth in this Document or a Plan Investor, the Directors may give notice to such person requiring him either (i) to provide the Directors within 30 days of receipt of such notice with sufficient satisfactory documentary evidence to satisfy the Directors that such person is not in violation of the transfer restrictions set forth in this Document or is not a Plan Investor or (ii) to sell or transfer his Ordinary Shares or Warrants to a person qualified to own the same within 30 days, and within such 30 days to provide the Directors with satisfactory evidence of such sale or transfer. Where condition (i) or (ii) is not satisfied within 30 days after the serving of the notice, the Board is entitled to arrange for the sale of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants on behalf of the person. If the Company cannot effect a sale of the Ordinary Shares or Warrants within ten Trading Days of its first attempt to do so, the person will be deemed to have forfeited his Ordinary Shares or Warrants.

Restrictions on exercise of the Warrants

The Warrants will only be exercisable by persons who represent, amongst other things, that they (i) are Accredited Investors or QIBs or (ii) are outside the United States and not a U.S. Person (or acting for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person), and is acquiring Ordinary Shares upon exercise of the Warrants in reliance on an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Certain ERISA Considerations

General

The following is a summary of certain considerations associated with the purchase of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants by (i) an “employee benefit plan” that is subject to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA, (ii) a plan, individual retirement account or other arrangement that is subject to section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code, (iii) entities whose underlying assets are considered to include “plan assets” of any plan, account or arrangement described in preceding clause (i) or (ii), or (iv) any governmental plan, church plan, non-U.S. Plan or other investor whose purchase or holding of Ordinary Shares or Warrants would be subject to any state, local, non-U.S. or other laws or regulations similar to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code or that would have the effect of the Plan Asset Regulations (any such laws or regulations, “Similar Laws”) (each entity described in preceding clauses (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv), a “Plan Investor”). This summary is general in nature and is not intended to be all-inclusive. Due to the complexity of these rules and the penalties that may be imposed upon persons involved in non-exempt prohibited transactions, it is particularly important that fiduciaries, or other persons considering purchasing the Ordinary Shares and Warrants on behalf of, or with the assets of, any plan, consult with their counsel to determine whether such plan is subject to Title I of ERISA, section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code or any similar laws.

Section 3(42) of ERISA provides that the term “plan assets” has the meaning assigned to it by such regulations as the U.S. Department of Labor may prescribe, except that under such regulations the assets of any entity shall not be treated as plan assets if, immediately after the most recent acquisition of any equity interest in the entity, less than 25 per cent. of the total value of each class of equity is held by “benefit plan investors” as defined in section 3(42) of ERISA. The Plan Asset Regulations generally provide that when a plan subject to Title I of ERISA or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code (an “ERISA Plan”) acquires an equity interest in an entity that is neither a “publicly-offered security” (as defined in the Plan Asset Regulations) nor a security issued by an investment company registered under the U.S. Investment Company Act, the ERISA Plan’s assets include both the equity interest and an undivided interest in each of the underlying assets of the entity unless it is established either that equity participation in the entity by “benefit plan investors” is not significant or that the entity is an “operating company”, in each case as defined in the Plan Asset Regulations. For the purposes of the Plan Asset Regulations, equity participation in an entity by benefit plan investors will not be significant if they hold, in the aggregate, less than 25 per cent. of the value of any class of equity interests of such entity, excluding equity interests held by any person (other than a benefit plan investor) who has discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the entity or who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to such assets, and any affiliates of such person. Section 3(42) of ERISA provides, in effect, that for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulations, the term “benefit plan investor” means an ERISA Plan or an entity whose underlying assets are deemed to include “plan assets” under the Plan Asset Regulations (for example, an entity 25 per cent. or more of the value of any class of equity interests of which is held by benefit plan investors and which does not satisfy another exception under the Plan Asset Regulations).

It is anticipated that: (i) the Ordinary Shares and Warrants will not constitute “publicly offered securities” for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulations, (ii) the Company will not be an investment company registered under the U.S. Investment Company Act, and (iii) the Company will not qualify as an operating company within the meaning of the Plan Asset Regulations. The Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to prohibit ownership by benefit plan investors in the Ordinary Shares or Warrants. However, the Company has permitted limited participation in the Placing by certain benefit plan investors and no assurance can be given that investment by benefit plan investors in the Ordinary Shares or Warrants will not be “significant” for purposes of the Plan Asset Regulations.

Plan asset consequences

If the Company’s assets were deemed to be “plan assets” of an ERISA Plan whose assets were invested in the Company, this would result, among other things, in: (i) the application of the prudence and other fiduciary responsibility standards of ERISA to investments made by the Company, and (ii) the possibility that certain transactions that the Company and its special purpose vehicle might enter into, or may have entered into in the ordinary course of business, might constitute or result in non-exempt prohibited transactions under section 406 of ERISA and/or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code and might have to be rescinded. A non exempt prohibited transaction, in addition to imposing potential liability upon fiduciaries of the ERISA Plan, may also result in the imposition of an excise tax under the U.S. Tax Code upon a “party in interest” (as defined in ERISA) or “disqualified person” (as defined in the U.S. Tax Code), with whom the ERISA Plan engages in the transaction.

Plan Investors that are governmental plans, certain church plans and non-U.S. plans, while not subject to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA or section 4975 of the U.S. Tax Code, may nevertheless be subject to Similar Laws. Fiduciaries of such plans should consult with their counsel before purchasing or holding any Ordinary Shares or Warrants.

Due to the foregoing, except with the express consent of the Company given in respect of an investment in the Placing, the Ordinary Shares or Warrants may not be purchased or held by any person investing assets of any Plan Investor.

Representation and warranty

In light of the foregoing, except with the express consent of the Company given in respect of an investment in the Placing, by accepting an interest in any Ordinary Shares and Warrants, each Shareholder will be deemed to have represented and warranted, or will be required to represent and warrant in writing, that no portion of the assets used to purchase or hold its interest in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants constitutes or will constitute the assets of any Plan Investor. Any purported purchase or holding of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants in violation of the requirement described in the foregoing representation will be void to the extent permissible by applicable law. If the ownership of Ordinary Shares and Warrants by an Investor will or may result in the Company’s assets being deemed to constitute “plan assets” under the Plan Asset Regulations, the Ordinary Shares and Warrants of such Investor will be deemed to be held in trust by the Investor for such charitable purposes as the Investor may determine, and the Investor shall not have any beneficial interest in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants. If the Company determines that upon or after effecting the Acquisition it is no longer necessary for it to impose these restrictions on ownership by Plan Investors, the restrictions may be lifted.

PART XI

DEPOSITARY INTERESTS

The Company has entered into depositary arrangements to enable investors to settle and pay for interests in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants through the CREST System. Pursuant to arrangements put in place by the Company, a depositary will hold the Ordinary Shares on trust for the Shareholders and Warrants on trust for the Warrantholders and issue dematerialised Depositary Interests to individual Shareholders' and Warrantholders' CREST accounts representing the underlying Ordinary Shares and Warrants as applicable.

The Depositary will issue the dematerialised Depositary Interests. The Depositary Interests will be independent securities constituted under English law which may be held and transferred through the CREST system.

The Depositary Interests will be created pursuant to and issued on the terms of a deed poll dated 7 April 2014 and executed by the Depositary in favour of the holders of the Depositary Interests from time to time (the "Deed Poll"). Prospective holders of Depositary Interests should note that they will have no rights against CRESTCo or its subsidiaries in respect of the underlying Ordinary Shares and Warrants or the Depositary Interests representing them.

The Ordinary Shares and Warrants will be transferred to the Custodian and the Depositary will issue Depositary Interests to participating members and provide the necessary custodial services.

In relation to those Ordinary Shares held by Shareholders and Warrants held by Warrantholders in uncertificated form, although the Company's register shows the Custodian as the legal holder of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants, the beneficial interest in the Ordinary Shares and Warrants remains with the holder of Depositary Interests, who has the benefit of all the rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares and Warrants as if the holder of Depositary Interests were named on the certificated Ordinary Share and Warrant register itself.

Each Depositary Interest will be represented as one Ordinary Share or one Warrant as the case may be, for the purposes of determining, for example, in the case of Ordinary Shares, eligibility for any dividends. The Depositary Interests will have the same ISIN number as the underlying Ordinary Shares and Warrants and will not require a separate listing on the Official List. The Depositary Interests can then be traded and settlement will be within the CREST system in the same way as any other CREST securities.

Application has been made for the Depositary Interests to be admitted to CREST with effect from Admission.

Deed Poll

In summary, the Deed Poll contains provisions to the following effect, which are binding on holders of Depositary Interests:

Holders of Depositary Interests warrant, inter alia, that Ordinary Shares and Warrants held by the Depositary or the Custodian (on behalf of the Depositary) are free and clear of all liens, charges, encumbrances or third party interests and that such transfers or issues are not in contravention of the Company's constitutional documents or any contractual obligation, law or regulation. Each holder of Depositary Interests indemnifies the Depositary for any losses the Depositary incurs as a result of a breach of this warranty.

The Depositary and any Custodian must pass on to holders of Depositary Interests and, so far as they are reasonably able, exercise on behalf of holders of Depositary Interests all rights and entitlements received or to which they are entitled in respect of the underlying Ordinary Shares and Warrants (as the case may be) which are capable of being passed on or exercised. Rights and entitlements to cash distributions, to information, to make choices and elections and to call for, attend and vote at meetings shall, subject to the Deed Poll, be passed on in the form in which they are received together with amendments and additional documentation necessary to effect such passing-on, or, as the case may be, exercised in accordance with the Deed Poll.

The Depositary will be entitled to cancel Depositary Interests and withdraw the underlying Ordinary Shares and Warrants in certain circumstances including where a holder of Depositary Interests has failed to perform any obligation under the Deed Poll or any other agreement or instrument with respect to the Depositary Interests.

The Deed Poll contains provisions excluding and limiting the Depositary's liability. For example, the Depositary shall not be liable to any holder of Depositary Interests or any other person for liabilities in connection with the performance or non-performance of obligations under the Deed Poll or otherwise except as may result from its negligence or wilful default or fraud. Furthermore, except in the case of personal injury or death, the Depositary's liability to a holder of Depositary Interests will be limited to the lesser of:

- (a) the value of the Ordinary Shares and Warrants and other deposited property properly attributable to the Depositary Interests to which the liability relates; and
- (b) that proportion of £5 million which corresponds to the proportion which the amount the Depositary would otherwise be liable to pay to the holder of Depositary Interests bears to the aggregate of the amounts the Depositary would otherwise be liable to pay to all such holders in respect of the same act, omission or event which gave rise to such liability or, if there are no such amounts, £5 million.

The Depositary is not liable for any losses attributable to or resulting from the Company's negligence or wilful default or fraud or that of the CREST operator.

The Depositary is entitled to charge holders of Depositary Interests fees and expenses for the provision of its services under the Deed Poll.

Each holder of Depositary Interests is liable to indemnify the Depositary and any Custodian (and their agents, officers and employees) against all liabilities arising from or incurred in connection with, or arising from any act related to, the Deed Poll so far as they relate to the property held for the account of Depositary Interests held by that holder, other than those resulting from the wilful default, negligence or fraud of the Depositary, or the Custodian or any agent, if such Custodian or agent is a member of the Depositary's group, or, if not being a member of the same group, the Depositary shall have failed to exercise reasonable care in the appointment and continued use and supervision of such Custodian or agent.

The Depositary may terminate the Deed Poll by giving not less than 30 days' prior notice. During such notice period, holders may cancel their Depositary Interests and withdraw their deposited property and, if any Depositary Interests remain outstanding after termination, the Depositary must as soon as reasonably practicable, among other things, deliver the deposited property in respect of the Depositary Interests to the relevant holder of Depositary Interests or, at its discretion sell all or part of such deposited property. It shall, as soon as reasonably practicable deliver the net proceeds of any such sale, after deducting any sums due to the Depositary, together with any other cash held by it under the Deed Poll pro rata to holders of Depositary Interests in respect of their Depositary Interests.

The Depositary or the Custodian may require from any holder, or former or prospective holder, information as to the capacity in which Depositary Interests are owned or held and the identity of any other person with any interest of any kind in such Depositary Interests or the underlying Ordinary Shares or Warrants (as the case may be) and holders are bound to provide such information requested. Furthermore, to the extent that the Company's constitutional documents require disclosure to the Company of, or limitations in relation to, beneficial or other ownership of, or interests of any kind whatsoever, in the Ordinary Shares or the Warrants, the holders of Depositary Interests are to comply with such provisions and with the Company's instructions with respect thereto.

It should also be noted that holders of Depositary Interests may not have the opportunity to exercise all of the rights and entitlements available to holders of Ordinary Shares and Warrants in the Company, including, for example, in the case of Shareholders, the ability to vote on a show of hands. In relation to voting, it will be important for holders of Depositary Interests to give prompt instructions to the Depositary or its nominated Custodian, in accordance with any voting arrangements made available to them, to vote the underlying Ordinary Shares on their behalf or, to the extent possible, to take advantage of any arrangements enabling holders of Depositary Interests to vote such Ordinary Shares as a proxy of the Depositary or its nominated Custodian.

A copy of the Deed Poll can be obtained on request in writing to the Depositary.

Depositary Agreement

The terms of the depositary agreement dated 10 April 2014 between the Company and the Depositary under which the Company appoints the Depositary to constitute and issue from time to time, upon the terms of the Deed Poll (as outlined above), a series of Depositary Interests representing securities issued by the Company and to provide certain other services in connection with such Depositary Interests are summarised below (the “Depositary Agreement”).

The Depositary agrees that it will comply, and will procure certain other persons comply, with the terms of the Deed Poll and that it and they will perform their obligations in good faith and with all reasonable skill and care. The Depositary assumes certain specific obligations, including the obligation to arrange for the Depositary Interests to be admitted to CREST as participating securities and to provide copies of and access to the register of Depositary Interests. The Depositary will either itself or through its appointed Custodian hold the deposited property on trust (which includes the securities represented by the Depositary Interests) for the benefit of the holders of the Depositary Interests as tenants in common, subject to the terms of the Deed Poll. The Company agrees to provide such assistance, information and documentation to the Depositary as is reasonably required by the Depositary for the purposes of performing its duties, responsibilities and obligations under the Deed Poll and the Depositary Agreement. In particular, the Company is to supply the Depositary with all documents it sends to its Shareholders so that the Depositary can distribute the same to all holders of Depositary Interests. The agreement sets out the procedures to be followed where the Company is to pay or make a dividend or other distribution.

The Company is to indemnify the Depositary for any loss it may suffer as a result of the performance of the Depositary Agreement except to the extent that any losses result from the Depositary’s own negligence, fraud or wilful default. The Depositary is to indemnify the Company for any loss the Company may suffer as a result of or in connection with the Depositary’s fraud, negligence or wilful default save that the aggregate liability of the Depositary to the Company over any 12 month period shall in no circumstances whatsoever exceed twice the amount of the fees payable to the Depositary in any 12 month period in respect of a single claim or in the aggregate.

Subject to earlier termination, the Depositary is appointed for a fixed term of one year and thereafter until terminated by either party giving not less than six months’ notice.

In the event of termination, the parties agree to phase out the Depositary’s operations in an efficient manner without adverse effect on the Shareholders and the Depositary shall deliver to the Company (or as it may direct) all documents, papers and other records relating to the Depositary Interests which are in its possession and which is the property of the Company.

The Company is to pay certain fees and charges, including a set up fee, an annual fee, a fee based on the number of Depositary Interests per year and certain CREST related fees. The Depositary is also entitled to recover reasonable out of pocket fees and expenses.
