Semcon appoints Udo Glenewinkel as President for the Business Area Engineering Services Germany

Udo Glenewinkel has been appointed as new President for the business area Engineering Services Germany. He has extensive experience in leading international organizations in the service sector and joins Semcon from NGA Human Resources where he was CEO for their business in the DACH countries (Germany, Austria and Switzerland) as well as Eastern Europe. In addition, he has been active in technology-oriented industries such as automotive and transportation.

“I look forward to further strengthening Semcon's offer on the German market for engineering services. It's inspiring to develop activities that contribute to complex project deliveries in a market with major potential,” says Udo Glenewinkel.

He will take up his position by 1 January 2016 at the latest and will be part of the Group Management Team.

“Udo Glenewinkel's experience fits well with the growth focus we have for the business area. His way of inspiring and motivating employees, as well as developing business, will strengthen our offer in the German engineering sector”, says Markus Granlund, President and CEO of Semcon.

As soon as Udo Glenewinkel starts his employment at Semcon, the current acting President of the business area, Roland Ziegler, will take up his position as CTO for Engineering Services Germany.
