Comment from CEO Markus Granlund:

During the second quarter, we continued work to strengthen the competitiveness of our customers and Semcon through value-creating product development, production optimisation and product information. We have successfully carried out the necessary measures to further strengthen profitability. The measures taken in the first half of the year are expected to have a marginal positive impact on full-year 2019 and reduce the Group's costs by about SEK 15 million, with full effect in 2020.

The financial result for the period was favourable compared with the preceding year, adjusted for restructuring costs and the calendar effect in the quarter. The measures to enhance profitability in the Engineering & Digital Services business area were charged to quarterly earnings in an amount of approximately SEK 6 million and the calendar effect, with one fewer working day, further impacted consolidated earnings by approximately SEK 6 million compared with the year-earlier period.

It is gratifying to see that our strategy to diversify our industry presence has continued to yield results. In Life Science, sales in the first half of the year increased 18 per cent compared with the year-earlier period. At the same time, there is significant potential for a sharp rise in our income in this segment moving forward. During the quarter, we also secured a three-year contract with the Swedish Transport Administration to future-proof energy supply in the installations that provide electricity to train services in Sweden.

The restructuring of the Engineering & Digital Services business area is proceeding as planned and is creating opportunities for greater focus on our digital offering. In line with our strategy, we are further strengthening our software expertise and the Digital Services division reported growth of 11 per cent in the first half of 2019. Demand for digital solutions is strong.

The Product Information business area reported a significant improvement in both income and profit compared with the year-earlier period. Semcon's global and strategic partnership with AGCO [one of the world's largest manufacturers of agricultural equipment] is a prime example of how we can create the right conditions for continued growth. Through our efficient and digital solutions, the quality of our customers' product information increases and the competitiveness is strengthened not least in terms of their service business.

On the basis of the profitability-enhancing measures we have taken in the first half-year and a positive calendar effect in the second half-year, we are well positioned to report sustained earnings improvements in 2019.

Employees

The number of employees on June 30 was 2,168 [2,126] and the number of employees in active service was 2,098 [2,049]. In the respective business areas the head count is as follows: Engineering & Digital Services 1,440 [1,458] and Product Information 728 [668].

Important events during the period

- Semcon's Engineering Services business area was restructured and changed name to Engineering & Digital Services on 1 April. In conjunction with this, the digital offering was enhanced, which created a good foundation for increased growth.
- During the first quarter, several new framework agreements were signed, including agreements with Vattenfall Eldistribution and the new Agency for Digital Government [DIGG], which is responsible for coordinating digitisation in public administrations.
- Semcon co-founded AI Innovation of Sweden — a national initiative to accelerate research and innovation in artificial intelligence [AI].
- The Product Information business area extended its collaboration with Consilium to develop user experience and availability of their digital product information.
- During the second quarter, the Engineering & Digital Services business area extended its collaboration with the Swedish Transport Administration and as part of a new agreement Semcon is to future-proof the power installations that supply electricity to train services in Sweden.
- The Product Information business area stepped up its collaboration with AGCO, a global agricultural equipment manufacturer. A multi-year partnership agreement was signed whereby Semcon will assume overall responsibility for the development and production of AGCO's aftermarket information.
- The Engineering & Digital Services business area signed a new agreement for functional safety with a global vehicle manufacturer to use quality-assured system solutions to ensure that autonomous vehicles of the future are reliable.

Ownership structure

As of June 30, JCE Group owned 25.8% [25.8] of Semcon's shares, Nordea Investment Funds 9.8% [9.7], BNY Mellon 4.6% [-], Avanza Pension 3.8% [4.3] and Northern Trust Company 3.1% [2.8]. Foreign ownership was 35.9% [32.6] and the number of shareholders was 5,388 [4,996]. The number of ordinary shares at the end of the period was 18,112,534 [18,112,534], all with the quotient value of SEK 1 and equal voting rights. Semcon owned 685,738 [440,365] of the company's share on June 30. Semcon is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm, small cap under the SEMC ticker. For more information about Semcon's ownership structure and share price movements visit www.semcon.com.

Buy-back of own shares

The Board resolved on 15 July 2019 to buy back no more than 200,000 ordinary shares pursuant to the authorisation of the 2019 AGM. The Board's decision aims to improve the company's capital structure.

Risk and instability factors

The Group and parent company's significant risks and instability factors include business risks in the form of high exposure towards a single industry or customer. An economic downturn or disruptions to financial markets can have a negative effect on the Group's services. In general terms acquisitions and divestments incur increased risks. This also includes financial risks mainly concerning currency risks. Semcon's Annual Report 2018, pages 42-43 and 61-62, include a detailed description of the Group and parent company's risk exposure and risk management.

Accounting principles

Semcon follows the IFRS standards adopted by the EU and its interpretations of these [IFRIC]. This interim report has been drawn up in accordance with IAS 34. IFRS 16 Leases came into effect on 1 January 2019 and replaces IAS 17 Leases. Note 3 of the 2018 Annual Report includes a description of the new accounting policies. Refer also to Note 2 in this interim report for information on the financial impact of the transition to IFRS 16. The other new standards that came into force as of 1 January 2019 have had no material effect on the Group's accounts during the year. In general, the same accounting policies and methods of calculation have been used in this interim report as in the latest Annual Report.

BUSINESS AREAS

Engineering & Digital Services

The business area's income amounted to SEK 689 million [722] and organic growth was -4 per cent. Growth in Sweden was adversely impacted by the ongoing skills shift towards a greater focus on digital competencies. Business operations in Norway and Brazil reported continued healthy growth while the business in the UK noted weaker demand. Operating profit amounted to SEK 47 million [62], yielding an operating margin of 6.8 per cent [8.6]. Restructuring costs of approximately SEK 7 million were charged to the business area's earnings. Already in 2019, savings are expected to exceed costs for the restructuring, which will result in a marginal positive impact on earnings for the full-year 2019. Total annual savings are expected to amount to some SEK 15 million with full effect in 2020. The new organisation was launched on 1 April and in conjunction with this the digital offering was enhanced, which creates a good foundation for increased growth moving forward.

About Engineering Services

The business area's slightly more than 1,400 employees provide services in areas such as digitization, product development, plant engineering and production development services. The offer is aimed at requirement and concept studies, design, calculations, construction, embedded systems, testing, simulation, quality control, project management, production and process development and expertise in lean production and service development. Engineering & Digital Services has offices in Sweden, Norway, the UK, India and Brazil. Business activities mainly focus on the automotive, industry, energy and life science sectors. Customers include ABB, AB Volvo, Alstom, Aston Martin, AstraZeneca, Autoliv, Bombardier, CEVT, Geely, Fortum, General Electric, Getinge, Husqvarna, Jaguar Land Rover, MAN, McLaren, Metso, Rolls-Royce Marine, Saab, Scania, Siemens, Vattenfall and Volvo Cars.

Product Information

The business area's income amounted to SEK 270 million [226] and organic growth was 13 per cent. The partnership with AGCO [one of the world's largest manufacturers of agricultural equipment] has among other contributed to the improved income. Operating profit amounted to SEK 22 million [8], yielding an operating margin of 8.2 per cent [3.5]. Operating profit improved during the first half of the year and a sustained earnings improvement is expected moving forward as income increases. Part of the business area's strategy is focused on a high proportion of Managed Service contracts and a high level of resource efficiency through deliveries involving networking teams from several countries.

Note 2

DISCLOSURES IFRS 16 LEASES

IFRS 16 Leases, which came into effect on 1 January 2019, replaced IAS 17 Leases. IFRS 16 entails that essentially all leases, which predominantly consist of rental agreements for office properties, are to be recognised in the balance sheet. The income statement is impacted since the cost is recognised as depreciation and interest expense instead of under other operating expenses. The cash flow statement has also been affected as payments of lease liabilities are classified among financing activities instead of as part of operating activities. Semcon applies the modified retrospective approach, meaning comparative amounts are not restated. The effects of the new standard on the financial statements are shown below.

Income statement

mSEK	April-June 2019	Jan-June 2019
